

Index

- administrateurs de société*, 35–6, 50, 220
 age of students on entry to INSEAD, 32
 Aldington, Lord, 196, 225n
 Althusser, L., 10
 Amado-Fischgrund, G., 177, 178, 180 ambitions, 60–2: by nationality, 61; by social origin, 61, 105; fields of, 79–91
 American companies, 8, 19; career prospects, 102, 167; INSEAD graduates in, 79–81, 89, 97, 98, 99; recruitment of European executives, 104
 American management model, in Europe, 9, 14, 21, 22–4, 189
 American postgraduate qualifications, 101
 Amsterdam University, 47
 aristocrats, 128: occupations of, 38 arts degrees, 42, 76, 180, 225n, and success, 101
 Arts-et-Métiers, 224n
Aufsichstraten, 180
 Austrian students, backgrounds, 32–5 backgrounds, 32–5; see also education; geographical origins; social origins and under individual nationalities and under wives Bailyn, L., 185

 banking, 77, 188, 209; contacts in, 113; European institutions, 18, 19–20; involvement with governments, 163; multinational, 185; post-INSEAD, 80, 81; 82, 84, 85, 86, 87; salaries for MBAs, 92; scope offered in, 101, 111, 122, 225n banks: centrality in Germany, 8; world's seven biggest (1976), 18; see also individual bank names
 Banque d'Indochine, 85
 Banque Nationale de Paris, 85
 Barcelona, University of, 46, 47
 Barre, Raymond, 26
 Baudelot, C., 10

 Baxter, B., 194, 210
 Beaudeau, P., 88, 94, 224n
 Beckers, M., 177, 179, 180, 181
 Belgian students, backgrounds, 32, 34
 Belgium, industrial and financial networks, 8 beliefs, a family of, 153–75
 Bell, C., 144
 Bell, D., 4
 Benno, O., 177
 Bergen School of Commerce, 47
 Berle, A., 4
 Berlin, University of, 46, 47
 Bernoux, P., 26
 Bertaux, D., 125
 Biermann, B., 177
 Birnbaum, P., 176–7
 birthplace, of INSEAD entrants, 33–5 table 3.1
 board system: 'German', 8; 'Latin', 8 board of directors, 102: and company organisation, 100
 Boetticher, K., 177
 Boltanski, Luc, 12, 26–7, 35, 142, 155, 192–3
 books, read by INSEAD MBAs, 175
 Bourdieu, P., 10, 12, 26, 26–7, 35, 38, 52, 77, 101, 137, 141, 141–2, 144, 149, 154, 155, 175, 179, 181, 192, 196, 220, 'Encyclopédie de la Technocratie', 9, 154–5 bourgeoisie: business fraction, see business bourgeoisie: 'new' of Europe, 128, 149, 215; possessory, 12, 35; salaried, 12, 188; upper-level occupations, 38; values, 160
 Bowles, S., 10
 Boyd, D., 40, 224n
 Britain, see United Kingdom
 British Airways, High Life, 104
 British Students, backgrounds, 33, 34
 Brizay, B., 223n
 Burnham, J., 4
 business, modernisation of, 25–7

242 Index

- business bourgeoisie, European, 1–3, 6, 154;
families from, 31–2; in Britain, 7; reproduction of, 11–12; role in social conservation, 199
- business clubs, membership of, 165, 214
- business education, role in creation of international business élite, 2–3, 22–5
- business outlook, change in, 206–9
- business schools: current attitude to, 206–7;
in Europe, 22–3, 214–15
- business world; and economic changes, 214–16; families of origin from, 35–8, 125–8
- Cahiers Français*, 18
- Calmettes, Michel, 158
- Cambridge, University of, 40, 46, 47, 130
- capital, 125, 135, 202, 216; symbolic, 128–30, 191; see also cultural capital;
economic capital; social capital
- capitalism: corporate, 4–9; entrepreneurial,
6, 208; family, 4–5, 6; financial, 4, 6, 10, 101; industrial, 4; late twentieth-century,
10–11, 214–16; managerial, 4, 94–5
- career, post-INSEAD progression, 70–103
- career choice, 51–69; business as, 57–60; by nationality, 57; by social origin, 57; family edicts, 51–6; international future, 67–9; limited, 56–60; school verdicts, 51–6
- career strategies: by nationality, 81–3, 84, 89; individual, 14, 103, 104–23; international mobility, as strategy for advancement, 95–9; successful, 203–5; trends in, 77
- career success: five routes to the top, 184–8;
origins, competence and connections in, 176–97
- careers: across Europe, 70–103;
challenge–success careers, 105; considered, 57 table 4.1; expectations, 60–2;
experience in foreign companies, 75;
loyalist, 95, 105, 185; managerial 1970s, 21–2; ‘slow-burn’, 95, 105, 185; staff posts, 73, 78; ‘two-person’, 124
- Carre, Michel, ‘Paying the price for “bluechip” managers’, 93
- Catholic University of Louvain, 44, 47
- Centre des Etudes Supérieures des Affaires (CESA), 23
- Centre des Jeunes Patrons (later Centre des Jeunes Dirigeants d’Enterprise), 26
- Centre d’Etudes Industrielles (CEI), Geneva, 23
- Chambers of Industry and Commerce, 22, 23
- Chandler, A., 22
- character, 153–75: successful, 155–60
- Chase Manhattan bank, 85
- chief executive officers, 213, 220
- Citibank, 85
- ‘Clarendon Nine’, British public schools, 40, 224n
- class, see bourgeoisie; business bourgeoisie;
upper classes
- class formation and transformation in advanced capitalist societies, 4–11
- class integration, international, 8–11
- class relations, intra-, 11–12
- classics degree, 42
- Clements, R., 179
- Collège de Genève, 40
- commerce, degree in, 42, 43, 44, 76, 180, 181: and post-INSEAD function, 90; and success, 100–1
- Committee for Economic Development (CED), 210
- Common Market, 154, 215; see also European Economic Community
- companies: change of, reasons for, 107–15; change in size and structure, 18–20; with foreign subsidiaries, 19; largest European (1980), 18–19; nationality chosen by MBAs, 79–81, 89–90, 97–9 table 5.12,
102; size chosen by MBAs, 81, 83 table 5.5, 84 table 5.6, 101; see also American companies; foreign companies; multinational companies; national companies; transnational corporations
- company of first placement, 79–87
- company organisation: divisionalised, 21, 100; functional, 21, 100; ‘global’ forms, 21–2
- competence, 26: change in kind, 183–4; and connections, 188–97; problem of measuring, 189–91
- competition, 79–91
- conglomerates, European, 19
- connections, 191–7; competence and, 188–97; international, 48–50, pre-INSEAD, table 3.5; see also contacts; networks
- Connell, W.D., 200
- consultants, 221: ‘head-hunting’, 3, 113–15, 194
- consulting, 7, 8, 96, 189: involvement with governments, 163; MBAs in 80, 81, 82 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 101
- contacts: in change of job, 113–15;
INSEAD, 195–6; with INSEAD anciens, 171–3
- control: different forms of corporate, 5–6;
relationship with ownership, 2, 4–8
- Copeman, G., 179
- Copenhagen, University of, 46

- Copenhagen School of Commerce and Economics, 46
 Copenhagen Technical Institute, 46 corporate interests, political and ideological representation of, 8–11 corporate management, 1970s, 4–8 corporate planning, 22, 77, 78: MBAs in, 88, 89
 corporatism, European, 9–10 cousins, 145–6
 credentials, accumulation of different, 200–3
 Crédit Suisse, 85
 Crholt, K., 125, 178
 cultural capital, 148–52
- Daems, H., 17
 Dahrendorf, R., 180
 Dalle, François, 162
 Danish students, see Scandinavia de Bettignies, H.-C., 176–81
 de Jong, H., 18, 19
 Delefortrie-Soubeyrou, N., 176
 Delors, Jacques, 26, 155
 Delsaut, Y., 149
 Derossi, F., 177, 179, 180, 182
 d'Estaing, Giscard, 161 diplomacy, need for, 27, 28 direct foreign investment, 20
directeurs, 94: defined, 220 directeurs commerciaux, 94
directeurs financiers, 94 directors, share ownership, 5–6 directorship, in Britain, 7 directorships, outside, 213
dirigeants, 176, connotations of word, 26
 Domhoff, G., 52
 Dougier, H., 115
 Dutch students, background, 32, 33, 34
 Dyas, G., 223n
- Ecole Centrale, 47
 Ecole des Hautes Etudes Commerciales (HEC), 47
 Ecole Nationale d'Administration, 191
 Ecole Polytechnique, Paris, 42, 46, 47, 63, 91
 Ecole Polytechnique Fédérale (ETH), Zurich, 44, 46, 47, 49
 Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Paris (ESCP), 46, 47
 Ecole Supérieure des Sciences Economiques et Commerciales (ESSEC), 47 economic capital, 94–5, 146–8; and business careers, 204 economic change, 1, 8–11: and the business world, 214–16; and need for new skills, 199; and patterns of management, 14–15; third way, 154–5 economic development, Western Europe, twentieth-century, 17–20 economic recession, 203, 206 economics, degree in, 42, 43, 44, 76, 180, 181: and post-INSEAD function, 90–1 education, 9–10, 31–50, 39–44: choice of, 39–41; higher, 41–2; place of graduation, 44–7; symbolic capital, 128–30; see also private education; subjects studied; see also institutions by name educational institutions: prestige of, 179, 183; role in creation of international business élite, 2–3, 11 élite, an educated, 128–30 engineering, degree in, 42, 43, 44, 52, 76, 130, 180, 181: and post-INSEAD function, 90, 91; and success, 101 entrepreneurial talents, 116–23, 169, 207–9
 Escuela Technico Superiore, Madrid, 46, 47
 'esprit INSEAD', 169–73
 Establet, R., 10
 Eton College, 40, 180
 Europe: international corporate links, 8; professionalisation of management, 22–5
 European Economic Community (EEC), 17, 20, 214
 European Free Trade Area (EFTA), 17, 20
 European multinational companies, 20: chosen by MBAs, 80–4, 97, 98, 99; and success, 102
 Europeanism, 67–8, 154, 214–16: personal and professional, 165–9; and political orientations, 162
 Evans, P., 18, 180, 181 exclusion strategies (Parkin), 1, 11–12, 188 executive, creating a multinational, 28–31 executive search companies, see 'head-hunting' consultants executives, European: career strategies, 104–23; income, 5; see also salaries; share ownership, 5–6
- families: high-risk investment in international business élite, 30; micro-mechanisms within, 11, 12; size of, 133 families of orientation, see marriage families of origin, as resources, 124–35; see also social origins family: as important in attitudes and values of international business élite, 13, 198–216; role in creation of international business élite, 1–3 family backgrounds, 31–50; see also social origins family business, escape from the, 66–7 fathers: holding tertiary-level educational

244 *Index*fathers (cont.).

- qualifications, 130; influence of on education and careers, occupations of, 35–8 table 3.2, 125–7 table 7.1: and international connections, 49–50
- Fennema, M., 8, 20, 209
- Fidler, J., 5, 8, 180, 181, 225n
- finance, 73, 77, 78, 96: rise of importance of, 22, 116; MBAs in, 87, 88, 89, 101
- financial success, visible, 117–23
- firms, see companies
- First National Chicago Bank, 85
- Fontaine, J., 158, 225n
- foreign companies, pre-INSEAD experience in, 75
- France: company control, 6; educational choice, 39, 40, 41, 53–6; growth of industrial companies, 18, 19; international corporate links, 8; modernisation of business image, 25–7; regional economies and corporate interlocks, 8; social backlash to modernisation (1968), 10
- Franko, L., 19, 22, 223n
- French Foundation for Management Education, 158
- French students, backgrounds, 32–4
- Frère, J.P., 177, 179, 180, 181
- Frogner school, 41
- functional area worked in, post-INSEAD, 78, 87–91 table 5.8, 101: by nationality, 89; high-risk, 115–16
- Galbraith, K., 4
- general management, 73, 78, 95: MBAs in 87, 88, 89, 101; and visible financial success, 121–3
- generalists, 78
- Geneva, University of, 46, 47
- geographical location of work, post-INSEAD, 97–9, table 5.13
- geographical origins, by nationality, and city origins, of INSEAD entrants, 32–5
- George, K., 18
- German students, backgrounds, 32, 33, 34
- Germany: centrality of banks, 8; international corporate links, 8; large industrial enterprises, late nineteenth century, 17; mergers, late 1950s, 18, 19
- Gintis, H., 10
- Girard, A., 38, 125, 147
- Glickman, A., 194, 210
- governments; management role, 169; role in respect of large enterprises, 28, 205–6
- graduation, place of, 44–7
- grandes écoles*, 41, 42
- grandfathers: holding tertiary-level educational qualifications, 130;

- occupations of, 125–7 table 7.1
- Granovetter, M., 106, 113, 194, 211
- group, reinforcing the, 173–5
- Hahn, C., 194, 210
- Hall, D., 176, 177, 178, 179, 180
- Halsey, A., 125
- Harmon, F., 157, 158
- Hartmann, H., 180, 181
- Harvard Business School, 23–4, 29, 207
- 'head-hunting' consultants, 3, 113–15, 194
- Heath, A., 125
- Heath, Edward, 196
- Heishman, E., 194, 210
- Heller, Robert, 104, 179
- Herman, E., 5, 6, 92
- Higley, J., 125, 178, 180, 182
- Hilferding, R., 6
- Holte gymnasium, Copenhagen, 41
- Hornoyld-Strickland, H., 93, 93–4
- Horovitz, J., 21, 100
- Hughes, B., 95
- Hussain, A., 200
- IMÉDÉ, Lausanne, 23
- individual, value of in enterprise, 155–60
- industry: restructuring of European, 17–20; scope in, 111; see also manufacturing information, management, 173–5, 193–4
- 'inner circle', European business, 7, 13, 15, 202–3, 209, 212; steps on route to, 213–14
- INSEAD: Address Book, 172, 196; beginnings of, 23; candidates rejected or resigned, 224n; Chair in Entrepreneurship and Innovation proposed, 207–8; creation of multinational executive, 28–31; European internationalism of, 24–5, 67–8; 'ideal-typical' student, 71; public-private interface, 27–8; study, 2–3, 217–21; teaching methods, 29, 170
- INSEAD graduates: 'ideal-typical' career path, 102–3; rôle in the future, 208–16; years worked in various firms, 95–7 tables 5.10, 5.11
- INSEAD MBA: at work, 76–9; course, 13–16; curriculum, 29; gives skills and confidence, 122–3, 211; 'global' view of the enterprise, 28–9, 30; opportunities with, 70–103; role in transformation of European business enterprise, 204–5
- Institut Européen d'Administration des Affaires (INSEAD), see INSEAD
- Institut Supérieur des Affaires, 63, 91
- Instituto de Estudios Superiores de la Empresa (IESE), Barcelona, 23
- insurance, 77
- international business élite: beliefs and

- character, 153–75; creation of, 8, 13–16, 30, 216; family backgrounds and educational experience, 31–50; origins, competence and connections, 176–97
- international mobility, as strategy for advancement, 95–9
- internationalism, 165–9: early, 71; ideological and political concern, 161–5; routes to, 31–50
- internationals, 184–8: bureaucratic, 185–6; domestic, 187; entrepreneurial, 186; marginal, 187; true, 184
- Intreuniversity Instituut Bedrijfskunde, Delft, 23
- investment: direct foreign, 20; diversified portfolios, 6; portfolio of educational, familial, economic and cultural, 30; in private education, 51–3
- Italian students, backgrounds, 33, 34
- Jacquemin, A., 18, 19
- James, D., 5
- Japanese firms, 19; international, 8
- Jenkins, Roy, 196
- job search, means of hearing of jobs, 106–7 table 6.1
- joint-stock companies, 4, 6
- Katedralskole, Oslo, 41
- kinship networks, 7, 124–52
- Kruk, M., 181, 225n
- Kumar, K., 4
- labour market, 68; international, 203–4, 208–10, 214–16; for MBAs, 90; non-formal, 172
- laissez-faire*, new 206
- language of management, 154, 169, 170
- language skills, 27; see also wives
- languages, modern, degree in, 42
- law, degree in, and post-INSEAD function, 90–1; and success, 42, 52, 101, 130, 180
- Le More, H., 223n
- leadership: ideology of individual, 155–60; new style required, 26–7, 207–9; qualities, 182
- Leggatt, T., 177, 179
- Leiden University, 47
- Levinson, H., 182
- Lévy-Leboyer, M., 21
- Lewellen, W., 5, 92
- Lewis, R., 111, 146
- libre enterprise*, 25, 168–9, 205, 214
- line management, 73, 78, 210, 221
- London Business School, 23, 116
- Lowell-Field, G., 125, 178
- loyalty strategy ('slow-burn' careers), 95, 105, 185
- Lund, University of, 46
- lycées*, 39, 41, 130
- Makler, H., 179, 180
- management: by objectives (MBO), 189; change in definitions of good, 206–9; changes in practices, 14–16; domestic, 148–52; professionalisation of, 22–5
- management education, 23; see also business schools
- management methods, 'soft', 9, 208; see also American management model
- management styles, and changes of company, 110
- managerial skills, 155–60
- managerialism, 4, 9–10, 13, 168
- managers: born or made debate, 153–5, 204; of multinational firms, 17–30; and public power, 5; rise of professional, 4
- Manchester Business School, 23
- manual workers, 37, 128
- manufacturing: new, 77, 185; MBAs in, 101; post-INSEAD, 80, 82, 84, 85, 86, 87; salaries for MBAs, 92–3; success in, 122; traditional, 77; MBAs in 101; post-INSEAD, 80, 81, 82, 84, 86
- Marceau, J., 23, 26, 177, 195
- marketing, 22, 73, 77, 78, 116, 209; MBAs in, 87, 88, 89, 90; and mobility, 96; and success, 122
- markets: altered product, 17–18; mass, 9; see also labour market
- marriage: French patterns, 137; as invisible resource, 124, 135–41, 201–2; role in creation of international business élite, 1, 2; social homogamy in, 136–41, 178
- marriage contracts, 147
- Mason, R., 21, 102
- May, B., 26, 177, 180, 181, 225n
- MBAs, backlash to vogue for hiring, 206–9
- Means, G., 4
- mergers, 18: international, 19–20
- Meyjes, Posthumus, 24–5
- Michalet, C., 223n
- Michel, A., 148–9
- Milan University, 46, 47
- Miller, R. 21, 102
- mobility: as a career strategy, 95–7; inter-company, 95; social, over the generations, 128
- modernisation: of business, 25–7; of European societies, 9–10, 154
- Monjardet, D., 176, 179, 180
- Morgan Guaranty, 85
- Morin, F., 6

246 Index

- multinational companies: career structures, 168; pre-INSEAD experience in, 75; rise of, 17–30; salaries in French, 94; see also European multinational companies
Munich, University of, 46, 47
- nationality of alumni studied, 217
Negroni, F. de, 35
Netherlands: growth of industrial companies, 18; mergers, 19 networks: alumni, 171–3; of communication between companies, 7; of contacts, 195–7; education, 7; formal via interlocking directorates, 8; informal, 7; international of intercorporate linkages, 8; kinship, 7, 124–52 newspapers, read by INSEAD MBAs, 173–5
Ni jenrode, 223n
Norwegian students, see Scandinavia
- Offe, Claus, 189–90
origins, 32–5; see also social origins
Oslo, University of, 47
Ostrander, 52
ownership, and control relationship, 2, 4–8
Oxford, University of, 40, 46, 47, 130
- Pahl, R., 5, 6
Papanek, H., 124
parents, choices of school, 51–6
Paribas, 85, 214
Parkin, F. I., 11
Passeron, J.-C., 38
patron: connotations of word, 26; return to traditional values of, 206
patronat, 9: defined, 220; origins, 35, 38; post-war pressures to find new public legitimacy, 25–7; sons, 183, 185–7, 188–9, 192–3, 201: and early INSEAD entrance, 76 personnel management, 181–2
Pfeffer, J., 189, 191, 191–2, 195
Pinchott, G., 212
political concern, ideological internationalism and, 161–5 politicians, contact with, 163–5 politics: and business, 1960s and 1970s, 9, 27–8; careers in, 5, 56–7; post-ideological European, 169
Poulantzas, N., 10, 220
Poullain, Bernard, 26 poverty, in Europe, 10
présidents-directeurs généraux (PDGs), 94 176, 220: as families of origin, 35–6 private education, investment in, 51–3, 199–201; see also ‘public’ schools; schools, private production, 77; internationalisation of, 9, 186 professional associations, membership of, 165 profit responsibility, 21, 116–23 promotion prospects, 111–12 properties, family, 146–8, 194–5
Pross, H., 177
public policy, and business, 27–8, 161–5 public relations, internal and external, 26–7, 213–14 ‘public’ schools, British, 39, 40, 130, 179–80 public sector: careers in, 56–7; families of origin from, 37; influence of business management on, 205 ‘reconversion’ strategies, 12, 188 recruitment, 113–15, 194–7: change in credentials, 181–3; ‘self-’, 211 relatives: network of, 192–3; occupations of, 131–2 table 7.3: French, 133–4 table 7.4; pool of, 124–5, 131–5 Renwick, N., 18
resources, invisible, 124–52; see also capital
Reynaud, Jean, 25
Ridge, J., 125
Ris Hoyere Skole, 41
risk-taking, and success, 115–23
Rome, University of, 47
Royal Swedish Institute of Technology, 46
- St Gallen commercial school, 47
St Jean de Berchem, 40
Saint Martin, M. de, 12, 26–7, 35, 141–2, 196
Saint-Gobain-Pont-à-Mousson, 18, 223n salaries: post-INSEAD, 91–5 table 5.9; pre- and post-INSEAD, 63
Sarton, A., 88
Scandinavia: schools, 39; social origins of alumni, 35, 36, 37
Scandinavian students, backgrounds, 32, 33, 34
Schein, E., 170
Schiff, H., 20 schools, private, 39–41, 130, 179–80; prestige of French, 53–6; see also ‘public’ schools science, 42, 43, 52, 180, 181
Scott, J., 5, 6, 7, 8, 13, 146 sector of employment, 79–87: categories, 222; firms chosen by MBAs, 80 table 5.3
Servan-Schreiber, J.-J., 9, 19 service sector, 10, 77; independent businesses, 221; new, 101; post-INSEAD, 80, 81, 82, 85, 86; pre-INSEAD experience in, 71–3 Shapero, A., 210, 211

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-12555-0 - A Family Business?: The Making of an International Business Elite

Jane Marceau

Index

More information

- share ownership, 5–6
shopkeepers, 37, 128
Sigma School, Stockholm, 41 skills, new managerial, 22, 26–7, 30, 182 social capital, 141–3
social change, 1–3: and conservation, 198–9;
in industrial societies, 3–16; micromechanisms of, 11–16; third way, 154–5 social homogamy: of marriage, 136–41; over the generations among the French, 128–31
table 7.2
social origins, 35–8: and ambitions, 105; and career progression, 191–7; coding of, 220–1; of senior managers, studies, 176–8
Soref, M., 5
Spanish students, backgrounds, 32, 33, 34
Steuber, U., 18, 20
Stewart, R., 111, 146
Stockholm School of Economics, 46
Stokman, F., 8
Stoléro, Lionel, 162
subjects studied see education subsidiaries: companies with foreign, 19; of European multinationals, 20; relationship with mother companies, 21; used as career steps, 119–20
Suleiman, E., 191
Sweden, mergers, 19
Swedish students, background, see Scandinavia
Swiss students, backgrounds, 32, 33, 34
- technology, new, 9, 116
Thanheiser, H., 223n
Thomas, A., 23, 26, 83, 177, 195
Townsend, 146
transnational corporations, 17
transnationality, 97–9; personal, 165–9
Trépo, G., 189
Trøndheim Institute of Technology, 47
- Union des Industries Metallurgiques et Minières*, 179
United Kingdom: emergence of business class, 7; growth of industrial companies, 18; mergers, 19; schools, 39–40; see also British
- United States of America, 14, 49; criticism of business schools, 206–7; direct investment in Europe, 20; managerial outreach, 213; see also American Université Libre de Bruxelles, 47 universities, 44–7 table 3.4, 179; see also institutions by name
upper classes, European business fraction of, 125–6, 188, 209–10
Useem, M., 5, 7, 8, 13, 209, 213
- values, underlying management practices, 205–9
Van der Pijl, 209
Vernon, R., 223n
Vestheim School, 41
Vienna, University of, 46, 47
- Ward, T., 18
wedding ceremonies, significance of, 143–6 wedding presents, 147
Wiegel, D., 21, 102
Weskamp, W., 93–4
white-collar workers, 37, 128
Whitley, R., 23, 26, 83, 177, 179, 180, 195
Wienold, H., 180, 181
Winkler, J., 5, 6
wives: contribution to career, 135–41;
contribution to cultural capital, 148–52; education, 150–1; foreign, 136, 165; ‘non-working’, 146–7; occupations of, 148–9 table 7.7; occupations of relatives of, 138–40 tables 7.5, 7.6; role of, 142–3; working, 148–9 table 7.7
women, in INSEAD, 32
work experience, 62–6; foreign, 99; pre-INSEAD, 71–6: by nationality table 5.1, place of, table 5.2
workplace, choice of, 167–8
- Xardel, D., 158
- Zapf, W., 177, 179, 180
Zehnder, Egon, 83, 225n
Zeitlin, M., 7
Ziegler, R., 8