

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-12600-7 - Lost in Transition: Youth, Work, and Instability in Postindustrial Japan

Mary C. Brinton

Index

More information

Index

- absences from school, 91–3
 academic high schools. See general high schools adult education, 17
 adulthood, transition to, 9–11, 13–14, 18 advancement rates, university, 47, 102, 177 age: at first childbirth, 16; at first marriage, 15–17; employment and, 22–3, 28–9, 172, 179–80; of students, 17
 Age Discrimination Act (1975), 17116
 Americanization, 184
 anomie, 183
anshin, 2, 19, 31, 87–8
 Aoki, Masahiko, 40
 apprenticeship systems, 38–40, 171–2
arubaito. See employment, part-time attachment. See also ties, personal: stability of 184–6; to family, 31119; to schools, 64, 89–94, 145–6; to social structures, 31119; to workplace, 11, 19, 50, 64, 66, 88, 163, 186
 attendance, 91–3
 Austria, 171
ba. See also ties, personal; ties, school-employer: decline in centrality of, 31–2, 64–5, 88–9, 94–6; definition of, 2–3; importance of, 4, 14, 18, 31–2, 184–6; in United States, 4; of schools, 64–5, 94–6; of workplace, 39, 61–2, 65
Basic Survey of Employment Structure, 181 benefits, employment, 135–6, 172
 births, 16, 48, 97, 187 blanket recruitment, 48, 68
 blue-collar jobs, 27, 48, 66–8, 134112, 176–8
 bonus systems, 136
 Bourdieu, Pierre, 9
 Brinton, Mary, 35, 51–4
 capital, types of, 53–4, 155. See also social capital career paths, 12, 74
 Chauvel, Louis, 10
 class. See social class
 clerical jobs, 134–5
 cohort, 9–10. See also generations
 Coleman, James, 8, 173 colleges. See higher education commercial high schools, 40, 80, 138.
See also vocational high schools
 company person, 171
 comparative statistics: on government spending, 40–1; on job training, 37–41, 171; on labor markets, 20, 23, 26–7, 172; on vocational education enrollment, 37–8; on wages, 67 competition between schools, 81–2, 91, 94–5, 140–4, 158 comprehensive technical schools, 40.
See also vocational high schools

- contingent labor. See employment, part-time
- contract employees, 24–5, 71–5, 163
- contract employers, 100
- cooperation between schools, 141
- counterfactual probabilities, 113
- crime rates, 182
- cultural capital, 155
- cultural toolkit, 1010
- dankai no sedai*. See generations
- demand for labor, 5, 100–2, 105, 113–15, 119–20, 146, 174
- discouraged workers, 28–9, 124–6.
See also NEET
- discrimination, gender, 56n19, 169
- disengagement of students, 89–93, 145–6.
See also absences from school
- dropouts, 96
- dual labor market, 69, 169, 180
- early work experience, 70–5, 77, 154–65, 174, 186. See also Youth Survey
- earnings. See wages
- economic conditions: changes in, 1–2;
employment and, 20–2, 25, 101, 146;
school-to-work system and, 6–7, 64, 115, 167
- economic growth. See high economic growth period
- economic inequality, 25–6, 67, 178–82
- educational attainment: by generation, 70–1; employment and, 53–4, 67; levels of, 154n1; role of, in society, 2–4, 11–12, 74–6
- educational reform, 39, 42–4, 171, 177–8
- efficiency, 59
- eikyū shūshoku*. See employment, guaranteed and lifetime
- employees. See also labor demand and supply: attachment of, to workplace, 11, 19, 117, 175–6; contract, 24–5, 71–5, 163; irregular, 27–30, 73; regular, 71, 73–5, 176; relationships between, 60; satisfaction of, 153, 156–8, 160–2
- employer policy, 35
- Employer Survey, 55–8, 96–7, 110–111, 117
- employers. See also ties, school-employer: benefits offered by, 38–9, 135–6, 172; descriptions of, 44, 57, 134–5; hiring preferences of, 56, 58, 79, 89, 103, 117–18, 134n12, 173; honesty of, 158–9, 174; influences on, 158–9, 174; opinions of, about system, 19, 43, 58–61, 64, 78, 94, 97, 99–100, 117, 170–1, 177; recruitment by, 44–6, 111–16, 137–44; relationship of, to employees, 26–7, 45, 102, 111, 117–18, 135–6, 185; restrictions on, 12, 19, 24–6, 44; role of, 64–5, 96–7
- employment. See also employment, entry-level; employment, full-time; employment, part-time; furitā; job openings; job search: guaranteed and lifetime, 12, 13–14, 19, 48, 69, 104, 179; historical trends in, 1–2, 71, 73–5, 176; legal aspects of, 17n16, 24, 42, 44; lifetime, 69, 179; of students, 16, 47, 64–6, 88–94, 151–3, 171–5; of women, 13–14, 17–19, 25–7, 30, 31n19; rates of, 123–6; regular, 12, 19, 24–5, 71, 73–5, 176; regulation and protection of, 24–7; restructuring of, 6–7; temporary and irregular, 5–6n4, 25, 27–30, 71–5
- employment security law, 24
- employment system. See school-work system
- employment, entry-level: availability of, 19, 35, 79, 89, 145–6; part-time, 104–5; recruitment for, 42, 58, 99, 177
- employment, full-time: benefits of, 135–6, 163, 187; decrease in, 64–5, 71–3, 89; expectation of, 16, 18–19, 30–2; factors affecting, 73–9, 155; role of schools in securing, 76; types of, 116–17
- employment, part-time: and ba, 32; benefits and drawbacks to, 89–92, 136, 171; historical trends in, 27, 71, 74–8; increase in, 30, 64–5, 73, 104; of students, 16, 47, 64–6, 88–94, 151–3, 171–5; restructuring and, 6; school ties and, 116–17
- engagement in school, 89–93, 145–6
- entrance examinations, 83
- entry-level jobs. See employment, entry-level
- Esping-Andersen, Gösta, 10
- examination preparation, 95–6
- examination system, university, 96

Index

199

- exploitation, 176
 external labor market, 33, 40, 154, 168–9
- family system. See also parents: life of, 97; postwar, 13–19, 30; structure of, 103–4 feeder schools, 132n10 fertility rates, 48, 97, 187 firm-internal labor markets, 48, 67–9 firm-school networks. See ties, school-employer firm-specific work experience, 48, 67–9 fixed-term contracts, 24–5 Fukuzawa, Rebecca, 95n9
furitā, 5–7, 71–5, 180
- Genda, Yūji, 6–7, 25–6, 180–2, 186
 gender. See also women: and furitā, 5–6n4; discrimination, 56n19, 169; irregular employment and, 30; recruitment and, 139; roles, 13–14
 general high schools: competition between, 140–1; description of, 39, 106–9; idleness rates of, 144, 146; opinions about students in, 90, 111, 117, 150; opportunities for graduates of, 89, 102, 140–4, 156–64, 176; recruitment from, 111, 117, 137–9, 141–4; student attachment to, 91, 94–5; teachers and guidance at, 81, 92–3; ties of, 104, 110, 113–16 generations, 9–11, 14, 70–1
 Germany, 36, 171
 Gini coefficient, 179–80
 golden eggs, 48, 79, 151
 government expenditures, 40–1 government policy, 35
 Granovetter, Mark, 49–50
 Great Britain, 67
 guaranteed employment. See employment, guaranteed and lifetime guidance departments. See also teachers: challenges of 81; perspectives of, 45, 47, 84–6; role of, in job placement, 44, 46, 59, 92–3, 123, 158–9, 174–6; structure of, 85–6; students' use of, 92–4, 162, 164 guidebooks, high school, 80–1
- habitus*, 9
 Hara, Junsuke, 178
 Hello Work, 42–5, 42n9, 161
 high economic growth period, 17–18, 34, 70, 146 high school graduates: continuing education of, 126–30, 154n1; employment trends of, 91, 117–18, 176–7; idleness among, 121–30, 144–5; job search of, 53–4, 126–30; opinions about, 111; opportunities available to, 79, 89, 101–3, 116–17, 145–6, 177 high school students: attendance and persistence of, 91, 95–6; characteristics of, 45–6, 89, 103–4; competition among, 99; employment of, 16, 47, 64–6, 89–94, 151–3, 171–5; engagement of, with school, 89–93, 145–6, 174–6; opinions about, 46–7, 171; relationship of, to employers, 45; training and goals of, 87, 108, 150, 152 high schools. See also school-work system; teachers, role of; ties, school-employer: as ba, 64–6, 89, 91–6; curricula in, 37–9, 99–100; descriptive data on, 106–9; employers' opinions about, 58–60; enrollment in, 2n2, 39, 47, 71; hierarchy of, 80–4, 88, 91, 94–6, 99–100, 129–30, 136–9, 141–6, 158; influence of, 150, 158–9, 174; recruitment at, 82, 138–40; types of, 40, 111; value of degree from, 70, 74–6 high schools, high-ranking: ba of, 94–6; culture of, 81–3, 95–6; job placement at, 93–5, 136–9; students and graduates from, 83–4, 92–4, 103–4, 129–30; ties of, 115 high schools, low-ranking: ba of, 94–5; culture of, 81–4; job placement at, 72, 85–6, 136–9, 158; students and graduates from, 90–4, 103–4, 129–30, 141–6; ties of, 115 high schools, mid-ranking: activities at, 89; graduates of, 129–30, 141–4; ties of, 115 higher education: employment and, 117, 177; enrollment in, 47, 71, 83–4, 91, 102, 127–30, 132, 177; examination system in, 96; financial aspects of, 36, 103, 162; graduates of, 70–1, 102, 151–5; students in, 17

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-12600-7 - Lost in Transition: Youth, Work, and Instability in Postindustrial Japan

Mary C. Brinton

Index

More information

200

Index

- hikikomori*, 183
- Hirata, Shūichi, 90
- hiseiki koyō*. See irregular employment
- historical trends: in education, 70–2, 76–9;
in employment, 51–4, 70–2, 75–9,
105, 121–2; in school-work system, 37; in social ties, 112–13
- hitori issbasei* system, 59
- Holzer, Harry, 49, 172–3
- Honda, Yuki, 7, 48, 104
- housing, company-owned, 134
- human capital: development of, 39–40, 48, 170; lack of, 161; measurement of, 66;
types of, 39, 155
- human capital development system, 35–7, 65
- idleness: causes of, 120; definition of,
29, 108, 127; rates of, 119, 121–30, 144–6
- income. See wages
- individual versus structure, 8–9, 35–6
- industrial high schools. See also vocational high schools: competition between, 82, 141; enrollment in, 40, 80; examples of, 84, 133, 136–8; opportunities for graduates from, 107, 118; recruitment from, 111, 117, 138–9, 143; students in, 80, 107, 117; teachers and guidance in, 92–4, 105n5; women in, 107
- Institute of Labour, 48–9, 177
- institutional change: consequences of,
104, 111–13, 159–67; factors in, 35, 101–3, 113–15; future of, 117–18;
types of, 8–9
- institutional social capital: alternatives to, 151; use of, 51–4, 96–7; value of,
58–61, 88, 99, 145, 148, 150, 174, 184
- insurance, 136
- internal labor markets, 48, 67–9
- internships, 38–40, 171–2
- interviews, employment, 46, 58, 59, 85–6, 123, 142–3
- introductions, school.
See recommendations, school
- irregular employment, 27–30, 73.
See also employment, part-time
- Ishida, Hiroshi, 104
- isolation, social, 157, 160, 183
- Italy, 15, 16
- Japan Educational Association, 176
- Japan Employment Guidance Association, 43, 45
- Japan Federation of Economic Organizations (Keidanren), 185
- Japan Institute of Labour Policy and Training, 48–9, 177
- Japanese Employment Security Law
(1949), 42–5, 161
- Japanese Society* (Nakane), 3
- jisseki kankei*. See ties
- job announcements, 44, 55–7, 150, 159, 174
- job changing, 149–53
- job openings: availability of, 64, 116,
120; communication of, 44–5, 55–7, 86, 131–2, 142–6, 150, 159, 174;
historical trends in, 78–9, 100–2;
quality of, 86; types of, 134–6
- job placements, 105, 131n6
- job search: dropping out of, 124; process
of, 45–6, 51–4, 72–4, 104, 123, 160, 163–4; role of satisfaction in, 87–8;
use of technology in, 153
- job security, 167–8. See also employment, guaranteed and lifetime
- job-opening-to-applicant ratios, 78–9, 101, 121–2, 141
- juku*, 95
- junior colleges, 47, 91, 107, 126–30, 133
- junior high schools: curriculum at, 95n9;
enrollment in, 71; graduates from, 47, 48, 53–4, 70–1, 149, 181;
guidance in, 81; recruitment from,
42, 44
- kaishain*, 171
- kakusa*. See economic inequality
- Kanagawa prefecture, 80–2, 126–31, 131n7
- Kariya, Takehiko, 43–4, 51–4, 100, 103, 108, 179
- Keidanren, 185
- kin no tamago*, 48, 79, 151
- Koike, Kazuo, 40, 68
- Kosugi, Reiko, 6–7, 181
- Kumon, Shumpei, 3n3
- kyūjin bairitsu*. See job-opening-to-applicant ratios
- kyūjinbyō*. See job announcements

Index

201

- labor demand and supply, 5, 48, 100–2, 105, 113–15, 119–20, 146, 174
- labor market: comparative, 26–7; external, 33, 40, 154, 168–9; internal, 48, 68–9; regulation of, 25; segmentation of, 30, 169–70; transformation of, 1, 7
- labor, distribution of, 13–14
- laws versus norms, 45
- layoffs, 24, 186
- legislation, 17n16, 24, 42, 44
- life course, standardization of, 13–14, 17–19
- lifelong education, 17
- lifetime employment model.
See employment, guaranteed and lifetime
- Lifson, Thomas, 50
- lost generation, 2, 11, 29, 70–8, 91
- low-income households, 90, 179–82, 183
- low-ranking high schools. See high schools, low-ranking
- loyalty, 36n1, 117
- Mannheim, Karl, 9–11
- manufacturing sector, 101–2, 110, 116
- marriage: age at, 15, 164, 183, 187; life sequence and, 17–18; NEET and, 29, 181; rates of, 97, 187; social role of, 4, 13–16, 18, 152; women's role in, 19, 30, 31n19
- matching, job. See also recruiting; school-work system: complexity of, 79, 87–8, 150; inequity in, 143; rationale for, 45–6; schools' role in, 64, 87–8
- men, marrying age of, 15n13
- mental health of employees, 157, 160, 183
- middle class, 13, 17, 19, 29, 167, 179
- Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare, 124–5
- mobility. See job changing
- Morgan, S. Philip, 16
- Murakami, Yasusuke, 3n3, 178
- naitei*, 121–2
- Nakane, Chie, 3–4
- NEET: causes and characteristics of, 144, 180–2; definition of, 1n1, 28–9, 181; rates of, 108, 121, 149, 180–1
- Netherlands, 171
- networks. See ties, personal; ties, school-employer
- norms versus laws, 45
- Ochiai, Emiko, 13–14
- OECD countries, 20–5, 27, 37–41, 179–80, 182n8
- on-the-job training, 37–40, 64, 67, 89, 100, 149, 152–3, 163, 171–2
- one person, one company system, 59
- Osterman, Paul, 26–7
- parasaito shinguru*, 5–7, 181
- Parasite Shinguru no Jidai* (Yamada), 5
- parasite singles, 5–7, 181
- parents, role of, 5, 87, 161–2, 170
- Parnell, Allan, 16
- part-time jobs. See employment, part-time
- peers, role of, 161–3
- pension system, 186–7
- periodic blanket recruitment, 48, 68
- permanent employment system.
See employment, guaranteed and lifetime
- personal social capital, 51–4, 88, 97, 174
- policy, 35
- postsecondary education. See higher education
- postwar family system, 13–19, 30
- power of schools, 150, 158–9, 174
- privacy concerns, 105
- promised employment, rate of, 121–2
- public employment security offices: data from, 78, 123, 131–2; description of, 55–6; perspectives of, 79; role of, 42–6, 71, 160, 174–6; schools and, 85–6
- rankings of schools. See high schools, high-ranking; high schools, low-ranking; high schools, mid-ranking
- rational choice theory, 8–9
- rationale for study, 7–8, 30
- recession, economic: effects of, on job market, 20–5, 101, 146; effects of, on school-to-work system, 115, 167
- recommendations, school: frequency of, 71, 73–5; history of, 42; in United States, 49; process of, 59, 85–8, 123; value of, 45–6, 65, 76–8
- recruiting: blanket, 48, 64, 68; by school level, 42, 44, 82, 138–40; companies engaged in, 134–6; employers' satisfaction with, 111; examples of, 106–11; expenditures on, 40–1;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-12600-7 - Lost in Transition: Youth, Work, and Instability in Postindustrial Japan

Mary C. Brinton

Index

More information

202

Index

- recruiting: (cont.)
 frequency of, 59–61, 64, 104, 115;
 future of, 116–17; gender and, 56, 139; in United States, 49; regulations on, 44, 79, 148–9; strategies for, 58–62, 85–6, 100–1, 111, 115, 136–9, 141, 143
 referrals, school. See recommendations, school
 regular employment. See employment, regular retail jobs. See sales jobs
 Rindfuss, Ronald R., 16
rōnin, 83, 127, 130, 144
 Rosenbaum, James, 100, 104
 Ryan, Paul, 87–8
- sales jobs: availability of, 104, 110, 116–17, 135, 176; earnings from,
 66; recruitment for, 88, 115, 139;
 satisfaction with, 64, 117, 160
 satisfaction of employees, 87–8, 150, 153, 156–8, 160–3
 Satō, Seizaburo, 313
 Satō, Toshiki, 179
 Satō, Yoshimichi, 90
 school-employer ties. See ties, school-employer
 school-work system. See also ties, school-employer: breakdown of 98–104, 115; complexity of, 42–5, 123–4;
 critiques of, 70–2, 88, 120–1, 144–6, 184; employer perspectives on,
 57–61, 96–7; family role in, 18, 170;
 generalizability of, 177–8; history of, 7, 35, 37; school role in, 47–9, 89–90;
 social capital and, 51–3; teacher perspectives on, 84–6; value of, 12, 29, 159
 school-work transition, 4, 19, 34, 37, 42, 73–4, 170
 schools. See under specific types of schools scientific high schools, 40 secondary education. See high schools security, employment, 27, 48, 62, 69, 99, 172, 182
 security, society of, 2, 19, 31
 segmentation of labor market, 30, 169–70
 Seiyama, Kazuo, 178
 senior-junior relationships, 60–2
senmon gakkō. See two-year training schools
senpai-kōhai relationships, 60–2 service sector jobs: availability of, 64, 79, 101–4, 134, 176–7; conditions of, 66,
 160; recruitment for, 115–17, 135,
 139; satisfaction with, 144; students and, 99
 seven-five-three pattern, 149
shakaijin, 2–4, 171
shichi-go-san, 149
Shigoto no Naka no Aimai na Fuan (Genda), 6
shinrai kankei. See trust
shinro no tebiki, 105
shinro shidōbu. See guidance departments
shokugyō anteijo. See public employment security offices
 social background, 67–8
 social capital. See also ties, personal; ties, school-employer: definition and types of, 49, 51–4; institutional, 51–4, 58–61, 88, 96–8, 145, 148–51, 174, 184; personal, 51–4, 88, 97, 174;
 value of, 49–50, 58, 61, 84–5, 88–9
 social class, 103–4, 155, 161, 178, 180–1 social class dynamics, 9
 social class reproduction, 103–4, 180, 182
 social closure, 173
 social generations, 69–70
 social institutions, role of, 2, 167 social location. See ba social norms, 8–9, 45
 social person, 171
 Social Stratification and Mobility (SSM)
 Survey, 69–78, 154–5
 social-generational divide, 11 society of security, 2, 19, 31 society, postwar, 13–19, 30 socioeconomic status. See social class
sōgō kagaku, 40
 Solga, Heike, 102
 Spain, 15–16
 spare time of students, 89
 statistics, difficulty interpreting, 123–6, 142n13
 strong ties, 49–51
 structure versus individual, 8–9, 35–6
 students. See high school students; higher education

Index

203

- suicide, 157, 183
 supply of labor, 48
 Swidler, Ann, 10110
- Tachibanaki, Toshiaki, 66–7, 179
 Tang, Zun, 113
 teachers. See also guidance department:
   relationship of, with employers, 87;
   role of, 42–3, 45, 72, 84–6, 95
 technology in job search, 153
 temporary employment, 5–7, 71–5, 180.
   See also furitā
 tenure of employees, 26–7, 117
 tertiary education. See higher education ties, personal: between employees, 97;
   strength of, 49–50; to employers, 84–5;
   use of, in job search, 160–4, 172–4
 ties, school-employer. See also employers;
 school-work system: by school type, 105–8, 136–8; characteristics of, 45–9, 53–4, 87–8, 108–10; decrease in, 94–5, 99, 104, 111–13, 153, 159;
 future of, 113–18; historical aspects of, 71–7, 112–13, 184; inequalities in, 146; influences on, 113–16; stability and measurement of, 31, 108–10; teacher roles in, 84–5; value of, to employers, 58–62, 99–100, 175–6;
 value of, to graduates, 49–51, 53, 64, 71, 73–9, 89, 92–4
 ties, strong, 49–51
 ties, weak, 49–51, 99, 162–4, 172–4
Tōyō Keizai, 166
 tracking, academic, 99
 training. See also two-year training schools: comparative data on, 38–41;
   firm-specific, 31–2; government spending on, 40–1; on-the-job, 37–40, 64, 67, 89, 100, 149, 152–3, 163,
   171–2; value of, 111; vocational, 99, 141 trust: culture of, 12; importance of, in recruiting, 59–61, 173; in American society, 173; in school-employer ties, 116–17; structure and development of,
 50–1, 186
 two-year training schools: as back-up, 123–4; employment outcomes
 from, 72–3; enrollment in, 70–2, 105, 107, 126–7, 133; graduates of, 155, 158 unemployment rates, 20–3, 26–7, 67, 155, 172–3, 180
 United States: education in, 17, 38–9, 48–9, 173; employment in, 26–7, 67,
 172–3; human capital development system in, 35–6; personal ties in, 174; policy in, 17116, 41; social demographics in, 15–16 universities. See higher education university advancement rates, 47, 102, 177 university examination system, 96
 urban areas, 79
 vocational education, 37–40, 107, 111, 177–8
 vocational high schools: absentee rates at, 91; descriptions of, 40, 80, 106–9;
 enrollment in, 37–9, 99; idleness at, 144–5; opportunities for graduates from, 107–8, 132, 176–7; recruitment
 from, 104–6, 114–15, 138–9; students at, 80, 91–3; teachers and guidance at, 72, 93; ties of, 108–15
 wages: components of, 136, 186–7; factors influencing, 50, 66–9, 88, 149–50, 153, 179; from part-time work, 92;
 inequality in, 67, 179, 182; lower, 102;
 NEET and, 181–2; value placed upon,
 152–3
 Watanabe, Shin, 50
 weak ties. See ties, weak
What Employers Want (Holzer), 172 women: discrimination against, 56119, 169; economic conditions of, 25–6;
 education of, 17, 80, 107; employment
 of, 13–14, 17–19, 25–7, 30, 31119;
 recruitment of, 56; social statistics on, 15, 16; stereotypes of, 5, 614
 work ethic, 5
 work experience, value of, 48, 67–9, 173
 workers. See employees working conditions, 156–7, 159, 161, 176, 182–3, 186. See also satisfaction of employees
 Yamada, Masahiro, 5–6, 178
 Yamagishi, Toshio, 12, 31, 51
 Youth Survey, 90, 103, 151–64, 186