CONTENTS

FOREWORD xix

PROLOGUE xxii

FIRST LECTURE

The Political Arithmeticians 3

Chapter 1. William Petty and the Birth of National Accounting 5

1. Brief Life, pp. 5-17. 2. An Essay on Public Finance,
4. An Economic Plan for Ireland, pp. 31-36. 5. Political Arithmetick, pp. 36-44. 6. Other Works, pp. 44-47.

Chapter 2. Charles Davenant and the Analysis of Taxes 49

1. Brief Life, pp. 49-50. 2. The Champion of Political Arithmetic, pp. 50-56. 3. The Regional Distribution of Taxes, pp. 56-68. 4. Other Works, 68-69.

Chapter 3. Gregory King
and the Development of Economic Statistics 71

1. Brief Life, pp. 71-74. 2. The Political Arithmetician, pp. 74-77. 3. Sources and Methods, pp. 77-85. 4. The English Economy, 1688-1698, pp. 85-86. 5. Income and Outlay, pp. 86-91. 6. Saving, Investment and Wealth, pp. 91-94. 7. Foreign Trade, pp. 94-97.
8. A Reconstruction of the National Accounts for 1688,
10. International Comparisons, pp. 101-103. 11. Private and Public Medicine and the Care of the Poor, pp. 103-110.
12. Consumers’ Behaviour: the Demand for Corn,
CONTENTS

SECOND LECTURE

Progress in Economic Statistics 117
Chapter 4. William Fleetwood and the Birth of Index-Numbers 119
1. Brief Life, pp. 119-129. 2. The First Index-Numbers of Prices, pp. 122-129. 3. Developments Abroad, pp. 130-132. 4. Developments in England,
pp. 132-138. 5. Summing up, pp. 138-139.

Chapter 5. Arthur Young and the Concept of Value Added 141
1. Brief Life, pp. 141-147. 2. The First Production Account Based on Value Added, pp. 147-150. 3. The Tour of Ireland, pp. 150-152. 4. The First Continental Tour, pp. 152-160. 5. The Second Continental Tour, up, pp. 180-181.

Chapter 6. Patrick Colquhoun
and the Accounts of the British Empire 183 in 1803, pp. 186-189. 3. The Income and Wealth of the Empire in 1812, pp. 189-193. 4. The National Income in 1812, pp. 193-200. 5. Conclusion, pp. 200-203.

THIRD LECTURE

Demography and Vital Statistics 205
Chapter 7. John Graunt
and the Birth of Demographic Statistics 207
1. Brief Life, pp. 207-209. 2. The Population of London Around 1660, pp. 209-213. 3. An Analysis of Morbidity and Mortality, pp. 213-219. 4. Graunt's Table of Survivors, pp. 220-221. 5. A Comparison Between Town and Country, pp. 222-223. 6. Graunt's Observations Concluded, pp. 223-224. 7. Gregory King on the Population of England in 1695, pp. 224-229. 8. The
CONTENTS

Chapter 8. Edmond Halley
and the First Life Table 237
1. Brief Life, pp. 237-240. 2. Halley’s Table of Survivors, pp. 240-246. 3. A Modern Version of Halley’s Table, pp. 247-250. 4. A Postscript, pp. 250-251.

Chapter 9. William Farr
and the Development of Vital Statistics 253
4. Farr’s Life Tables, pp. 261-265. 5. Group-specific Mortality, pp. 265-268. 6. The Fight Against Cholera, 268-270. 7. The Introduction of Computing Machines, pp. 270-271. 8. Human

FOURTH LECTURE

Quantitative Social Studies 275

Chapter 10. Frederick Morton Eden and the Poor of England 277
1. Brief Life, pp. 277-278. 2. The State of the Poor,
4. Colquhoun’s Works on Poverty and Crime,

Chapter 11. Florence Nightingale
and Hospital Reform 303
1. Brief Life, pp. 303-324. 2. Some Statistics from the Crimean War, pp. 324-329. 3. Sanitary Conditions in India, pp. 329-332. 4. Hospital Statistics, pp. 332-334. 5. Florence Nightingale as Statistician: a Perspective View, pp. 335-337.

Chapter 12. Charles Booth
and the London Working Classes 339
1. Brief Life, pp. 339-351. 2. London Poverty,
4. A Few Family Budgets, pp. 357-358. 5. Elementary Education in London, pp. 358-365. 6. An Alternative Measure: Crowding, pp. 365-369. 7. The Industry
LIST OF TABLES

COMMENTS
Phyllis Deane 3189
Peter Laslett 3199
Giuseppe Parenti 4005
Massimo Livi Bacci 4115
E.A. Wrigley 423

RICHARD STONE: AN AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH 429

BIBLIOGRAPHY OF THE WORKS OF RICHARD STONE 441

REFERENCES 465

INDEX 485

LIST OF TABLES

1.1. The capital and income of England and Wales, c. 1665 29
1.2. The national income and expenditure of England and Wales, c. 1665 29
1.3. The lands of Ireland, 1641 and 1672 32
1.4. Housing in Ireland, 1672 33
1.5. Occupational distribution of the population of Ireland, 1672 34
1.6. Petty's scheme for curing unemployment in Ireland 36

2.1. Regional distribution of taxes, houses and hearths in England and Wales, 1636-1692 59-60

3.1. 'The expence of the people of England in dyet, apparel and incident charges', c. 1688 79-80
3.2. 'The poll bill a" t" William and Mary, 1689' 83-84
3.3. 'A scheme of the income and expence of the several families of England calculated for the year 1688' 87-88