

Index

- absolute closure, 159 absolute working class marital endogamy, 179, 181 affluence, 7
Affluent Worker research, 3, 16, 18, 33
 Amalgamated Engineering Union (AEU), 38, 94, 97
 Amalgamated Society of Engineers (ASE), 71–82
 Amalgamated Union of Engineering Workers (AUEW), 36 Anglicanism, 55
 apprenticeships, 25, 39, 72–3, 84, 130–1 aristocracy, 155
 authorized religious establishments, 55
 axial principles, 121
- blacklegging, 25
 Booth, C., 25
 boundaries of skill, 24, 132–4 bourgeois revolutionary tradition, 7 bourgeoisie, 149–51
- capitalist class, 149
 cardroom trade unions, 65–7 chi-square, 29
 Christian eschatology, 40
 civil marriages, 56
 class: boundaries, 14; categories, 139; concept of, 117, 139; conflict, 44–5; consciousness, 5–9, 18–19, 27, 47, 185; endogamy of brides and grooms, 160–71; endogamy of fathers of brides and fathers of grooms, 172–82; structure, 13–14 classness, 13
 closure, 13, 146–7
 community studies, 54
 composite theory of the labour aristocracy, 31
- confidence intervals for Yule's  $Q$ , 168 conflict theory, 12, 140 consciousness of class, 11–12 conservatism, 24–5
 controls over machinery, 129
 co-ordinators, 149–51
 convergence theory, 10
 'Coronation Street', 22 cotton industry, 28–30, 49–53, 62–70, 87–9 cotton trade unions, 62–70
- deep structures, 154–5 deskilling, 35–6, 42–3, 184 differentials, analyses of skilled, 93–9; cotton, 109–13, 122–3; engineering, 99–109, 123–4 dilution, 74–82
- earnings data, 55
 embourgeoisement, 12, 16, 26, 32, 34 Engels, F., 23
 engineering industry, 29, 53–4, 70–87, 123 Engineering Lock-Out: 1851, 1897–98, 1922, 72; 76–7; 82–3 engineering trade unions, 70–87 Evershed Commission, 65 exclusion, 25, 62–70, 121, 129, 134–6, 147 exclusive controls over machinery, 183 external boundedness of the working class, 171, 180 external endogamy, 160
- Fabianism, 3 falling rate of profit, 42–3 functionalist theory of stratification, 11
- general model of skilled manual workers, 34, 89, 117, 121–4, 171, 185
 General Register Office, 55
 Government Training Centre, 39

- Hegelian dialectics, 40
 homogenization of the working class, 3, 41, 102, 117–18
 human capital theory, 37
- industrial unionism in engineering, 83–4, 101–2
 internal boundedness of the working class, 171
 internal endogamy, 160
 Irish immigration, 55
- Jacobin ideology, 28
- labour aristocracy, 8, 16, 23–34, 35, 156–7 labour market analysis, 14, 25, 44, 86–7
 Lenin, V.I., 23
 Leninism, 6
 Lowry, L.S., 22
- manual/non-manual interface, 147–8 marital data, 55
 marital endogamy; definitions of, 152–7;
see also relative marital endogamy marriage, 26, 27, 28, 29, 31, 152–82
 Marx, K., 5, 23; on class, 143–4
 Marxism, 20, 23, 33, 47, 102, 139, 140–1, 187; teleology, 4–5, 40; theory of capitalism, 4, 41; theory of deskilling, 35–6, 40, 42–3, 184; theory of the labour aristocracy, 8, 16, 23–34, 121, 156–7, 189
 mate selection, 152
 Mayhew, H., 26
 Methodism, 56
 ‘middling class’, 27, 30 militant craftsman, 9, 124–5 models: labour process, 118–20; skill, 44–5; working class homogeneity
 (traditional working class), 159, 169–70,
 179–81; working class sectionalism, 159–60, 182
 mule spinning, 62–5
- neo-Marxism, 3, 36
 neo-Ricardianism, 42–4
 neo-Weberian definitions of class, 144–7 new working class, 16–17 normative integration, 6–7
- Occam’s razor, 140
 overlookers, 69
- payment system for piecers, 64–5 peerage, 155
- petty bourgeoisie, 149–51 political struggle, 43
 post-industrialism, 36–8 post-Keynesianism, 42, 43, 44, 47 prestige, 11, 141
 proletarianization, 12, 40, 147
- radicalism of skilled workers, 124–7 rate of exploitation, 42 Register General’s classification of occupations 127–8, 147, 151 relative marital endogamy, 159; of the working class, 179–81
 relations between skilled manual workers and management, 45–7 revolutionary potential of the working class, 188–90
 ring spinning, 65
 rising organic composition of capital, 42–3 Rochdale: history of its industry, 49–54
 Roman Catholicism, 55
 Rowntree, B.S., 25
- sample of marriage records, 56–7 service class, 149–51
 Shop Stewards Movement, 79–82 skill and trades unions, 70 skill shortages, 39
 social boundedness, 152–3, 186–7 social closure, 13, 146–7, 183 social control over machinery, 121, 183 social mobility, 8, 20, 156 spinners, 16, 29
 statistical significance, 29 status, 140–1
 strippers-and-grinders, 66 structural-functionalism, 10–12 structural Marxism, 5
 structuration, 13, 35
 sub-contracting in cotton, 64, 120, 130–2, 185
 system, 10
- tapesizers, 69
 technology, 8, 29, 37, 190 textile industry, 122–3 totalizing ideology, 19 trade union records in Rochdale, 61
 traditional working class, 15–22
 training, 38–40
 Transport and General Workers Union (TGWU), 36, 85
 trends in earnings differentials in Rochdale, 109, 113–15, 185
 typicality, 54

-
- units of stratification research, 158
- values for Yule's  $Q$ : marital endogamy of skilled workers, 171, 181; marital endogamy of working class, 169, 180
- wages: differentials, 24, 91–116; evidence on, 91–3
- weaving trades unions 67–70
- Weber, M., 13, 142–3
- Weberianism, 44, 47, 139, 141
- working class: communities, 16–17; meaning of the concept used in the research, 21
- Yule's  $Q$ , 167–8; see also values for Yule's  $Q$