

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-12877-3 - Maps, Land and Society: A History, with a Carto-Bibliography of Cambridgeshire Estate Maps,
c. 1600-1836

A. Sarah Bendall

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	page ix
List of tables	xiii
Preface	xv
Abbreviations	xix
Conventions used in transcription	xxi
1 Introduction	1
2 Art, maps and communication	3
Art and maps as means of communication	3
Estate maps and their cultural setting	9
A case-study of estate maps of Cambridgeshire	11
3 Cambridgeshire and its estate maps	13
The social, political and economic development of Cambridgeshire	13
Estate map production in the British Isles	24
Compilation of the carto-bibliography of Cambridgeshire estate maps	27
Survival	27
The development of estate mapping	28
Areas of Cambridgeshire which were mapped	37
Techniques of presentation	38
Decoration	46
Map accuracy	50
Conclusion	73
4 Estate surveyors and their employment	77
The surveying profession in early modern England	77
Surveyors of Cambridgeshire's estates	80
Range of practice	83
Surveyors and their employers	93
5 Estate surveyors: their status, training and techniques	104
Pay and status	104
Additional occupations	114

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-12877-3 - Maps, Land and Society: A History, with a Carto-Bibliography of Cambridgeshire Estate Maps,
c. 1600-1836

A. Sarah Bendall

Table of Contents

More informationContents

Training	119
Surveying techniques	129
Conclusion	138
6 Landowners and their interests	139
Upper-class culture in the early modern period	139
Maps and the landowning classes	146
The landowners who commissioned estate maps of Cambridgeshire	150
7 Landowners, their estates and uses of maps	159
Practical reasons for commissioning estate maps	159
Estate maps as status symbols	177
The surveyors employed	184
Conclusion	188
Appendix 1 Estate map description form	189
Appendix 2 Carto-bibliography of Cambridgeshire estate maps temp. Elizabeth I – 1836	190
Form of the carto-bibliography	190
Carto-bibliography	193
Appendix 3 Chronological list of maps	348
Notes	351
Bibliography	355
Index	380