

Index

- Agencies, of lower status than Ministries, 64–5, 89–90
- Akita Daisuke, Vice-Speaker, 59, 62–3, 78, 79, 83
- Ando Kaku, Chairman of Special Committee on Korea treaty, 113
- Anti-War Youth Committee, and JSP Convention (1970), 68
- Aoshima Yukio, television personality, elected to H. of Councillors, 19
- Arafune, Seijūrō, Vice-Speaker, 82, 83
- army officers: former political power of, 2, 30, 124; in 1930s, 4, 129; removed from public office by SCAP directive, 11–12
- Ashida Hitoshi, Prime Minister (1948), 45, 49
- Audit Committees of Diet, 90
- authoritarianism, factionalism as a shield against, 72
- bicameralism, retained in 1947 Constitution, 16–17
- 'black mist' scandals (1966), 132
- budget, 14, 75; primacy of H. of Representatives on, 10, 17, 18, 107, 123; Committees on, as forums for airing grievances, 90–1
- bureaucrats: former political power of, 2, 10, 30, 124; salaries of, 14; LDP and, 41, 137; politicians from ranks of, 49, 65, 69, 99; preparation of legislation by, 75, 123, 140; pervasive influence of, 101, 124, 125; staff assistance to Members of Diet, intended to enable them to challenge expertise of, 136
- Cabinet: of Imperial Diet, sponsors draft of 1947 Constitution, 9; of National Diet, in Diet Law (1947), 10, 15, 17; votes of no-confidence in, 18; conservative except for short coalition with Socialists (1947–8), 45; details of members of (1972), 59–65; Committees on, 89–90; bills approved by, before submission to Diet, 123; dominance of, 134, 135
- Chairmen of Diet Committees, 94–100, 135, 137
- Chian Iji-Hō* (Peace Preservation Law), 4, 11
- China, People's Republic of: attitudes of political parties and factions towards relations with, 44, 58, 104; and JCP, 46, 70; Cultural Revolution in, 105; Prime Minister Tanaka visits (1972), 129
- Chinese National Government, removes to Taiwan (1949), 8
- 'civil liberties' directive of SCAP, 11
- Civil Liberties Union, 16
- coal mines, SCAP effort to get Diet to nationalize, 108
- 'Cold War', reflected in policies of SCAP, 8, and in Japanese politics, 104
- Comintem, criticism of JCP by, 31, 70
- committee system: of Imperial Diet, 88; of National Diet, 14, 88–102, 134–6
- Committees, Special (of both Houses), 91–2; appointments to, 93–4, Chairmen of, 94, 96, 97
- Committees, Standing (of both Houses), 88–91, 122; appointments to, 93–4; Chairmen of, 94, 95, 98
- Communism, party in SCAP interested in making Japan a bulwark against, 7
- Communist Party of Japan (JCP), 11, 30, 31, 41, 44; seats won by, (H. of Councillors) 22–3, 28, (H. of Representatives) 34–5, 41, 47; votes for, (H. of Councillors) 26–7, (H. of Representatives) 38–9, 56; percentage of seats won by and votes for (H. of Represent-

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-13427-9 - Japan's Parliament: An Introduction

Hans H. Baerwald

Index

More informationIndex

- atives, 42–3; China and USSR and, 45–6, 70; finance of, 49; electoral gains by (1972), 54, 65, 84, 117; factionalism in, 70–1; boycotts opening of 1973 Diet, 74; joint candidates of JSP and (1972), 128
- compartmentalism in Japanese society, 132–3
- compromise: not possible on some issues, 87; concept of, not valued by Japanese, 106; no room in politics for, 124, 126
- Congress of USA, used as model for Diet, 14, 88, 99, 134, 137
- Congressional Legislative Reorganization Act (1946), 14, 15, 88
- consensus: high value placed on, 45, 46, 115; between LDP leaders and bureaucrats on legislation, 123
- conservative group of parties, 31, 40; chasm between progressive parties and, 44–5; seats held by (1961–73), 47
- constituencies, multi-member: LDP and, 40; promote factionalism, 54–7, 70, 71, 128
- Constitution, Meiji (1890), 1, 2, 121; weaknesses seen by SCAP in, 10
- Constitution of 1947, 8–10, 11; provision for amendments to, 17; attitudes towards revision of, 44–5, 119, 139; no-war clause in, 119
- Cooperative Party (later People's Cooperative Party), 30; seats won by (H. of Representatives), 32; votes for, 36; percentage of seats won by, and votes for, 42
- dangerous thoughts, 4, 11
- delaying tactics, of Opposition in Diet, 87, 108–12, 126
- demilitarization and disarmament of Japan: SCAP policy of, 6; SCAP turns away from, 8; now a subject of dispute, 119
- democracy, parliamentary: as SCAP objective for Japan, 6–7; split within SCAP on, 7–8
- Democratic Party (conservative), 30, 48; votes for, (H. of Councillors) 24, (H. of Representatives) 36–7; seats won by (H. of Representatives), 32–3; percentage of seats won by and votes for, 42, 43
- Democratic Liberal Party (conservative), 18; seats won by, (H. of Councillors), 20, (H. of Representatives), 32–3; votes for (H. of Councillors) 24, (H. of Representatives), 36; as successor of Minseitō, 30; merged in LDP (1955), 30–1
- Democratic Socialist Party (DSP), 31, 65, 116–17; seats won by, (H. of Councillors) 23, 28, (H. of Representatives), 34–5, 47; votes for, (H. of Councillors) 27, (H. of Representatives), 38–9, 56; trade union support for, 41; percentage of seats won by and votes for (H. of Representatives), 42–3; joint candidates of Komeitō and (1972), 128
- Diet, see Imperial Diet, National Diet
- Diet Law (1947), 14–18; on convocation of Diet, 74n; on approval of legislation by Diet, 75; on presiding officers, 86–7; on committees, 88–9; on membership of committees, 93; on length of session, 106
- Diet Strategy Committees of political parties, 84, 85, 86, 113; and committee appointments, 93
- directors' of committees, 93, 94, 108, 135
- Discipline Committees of Diet, 90
- Domei Kaigi (Japan Confederation of Labor), 41
- Dōshi (Friends Party), 21, 25
- Economic Development, Committee of: supports LDP, 41
- Economic Organizations, Federation of: supports LDP, 41, 124
- Eda Saburō, JSP faction leader, 66, 118
- education, of members of 1972 Cabinet, 60–3
- Education, Standing Committee of H. of Councillors on, 113
- election to Imperial Diet (1942), 5
- elections to National Diet: maximum term between, 18; under the Occupation, 30; expenses of campaigns for, 50, 127, 138; news media and, 122, 130; political parties and, 126–9
- electoral districts, 54; disparity in size of, 40, 128
- electoral system: for H. of Councillors, 18–19; for H. of Representatives, 54;

Index

- criticisms of, 127–9
- electorate for Imperial H. of Representatives (male payers of over 15 yen in taxes), 1; after 1925 (manhood suffrage over 25), 1, 2, 4
- Emperor: in Meiji Constitution, 1, 2, 10; in 1947 Constitution, 10, 74, 119; taboo to news media, 122
- Employers' Organizations, Japan
 Federation of: supports LDP, 41, 124
- executive power: bias in SCAP on behalf of, 16; fusion of legislative power and, 89
- factions, factionalism: in political parties, 46–7, 71–3; in LDP, 47–58; and political appointments, 59–65, 134; in JSP, 65–70; in JCP, 70–1; in House Management Committees, 85; in appointments of committee chairmen, 99; in causing confrontations in Diet, 105–6
- factory workers, early attempts to organize, 2
 filibustering, SCAP desire to prevent, 15, 16, 108
- finance, of political parties and factions, 49–50, 52–3, 82, 127–8, 138
- Finance Minister, 75
- Finance Ministry, 41; and Budgets, 90; and staff assistance for Diet, 136
- financiers: early political power of, 2–3; support LDP, 40 'forced vote' in Diet (ignoring usual procedural machinery), 112–14
- foreigners, Japanese attitude to, 13
- Friends Party (Dōshi): seats won by (H. of Councillors), 21; votes for, 25
- Fujieda Sensuke, LDP member of Special Committee on Korea treaty, 100
- Fujiyama Aichirō, Foreign Minister, 81
- Fukuda Takeo, Minister and LDP faction leader, 50, 51, 52, 55–7; Ministers from faction of, 64–5; Chairmen of committees from faction of, 99; on Ikeda, 116
- Funada Naka, Speaker, 80–1, 103–4, 113; as LDP faction leader, 83
- Genrō* (elder statesmen, retired Prime Minister), former political power of, 2
- Giun*, see House Management Committees
- Green Breeze Society (Ryokufu): seats won by (H. of Councillors), 20–1; votes for, 25
- gross national product (GNP): expansion of, as non-controversial goal, 115; third largest in world, 119
- group, Japanese submergence of individual in, 46, 48, 124; as barrier against dictatorship, 72
- Gumma's 3rd district, voting in (1958–72), 55–7
- habatsu*, see factions
- Han-sen Seinen Inkaï (Anti-War Youth Committee), 68
- Hara Kei, Prime Minister of Imperial Diet, 3
- Hara Kenzaburō, Vice-Speaker, 80, 83
- Hasegawa Shirō, Vice-Speaker, 83
- Hatoyama Ichirō, first President of LDP, 48
- Heiwa Dōshi-kai (Peace Comrades' Association), 116
- hierarchy, strong feeling of Japanese for, 3, 132
- Hirohito, Emperor, 74
- Hori Shigeru, LDP leader, 51
- hoshu-kei*, see conservative group of parties
- House of Councillors (elected): replaces House of Peers, 10, 17, 74; may be convoked in emergency session when H. of Representatives is dissolved, 17–18; provides for continuity, 18, 19, 28; electoral system for, 18–19; seats won by different parties in, 20–3; votes for different parties in, 24–7; party strengths in (1973), 28–9; factionalism in, less strong than in H. of Representatives, 51; factional affiliations of members of, (LDP) 66–7, (JSP) 68–9; presiding officers of (1972), 77–8; chairmen of committees of (1973), 94, 95, 96, 135; government party vote first in, 109–10
- House Management Committees, 83–6, 90, 108, 113; and committee appointments, 93
- House of Peers in Imperial Diet, 1, 14; discusses 1947 Constitution, 9; replaced by elected H. of Councillors, 10, 17, 74
- House of Representatives in Imperial Diet,

Index

- 1, 2; election for (1942), 5; approves 1947 Constitution, 9
- House of Representatives in National Diet: accorded primacy in budget and treaty approval, 10, 17, 18, 107, 123; in choice of Prime Minister, 17; seats won by different parties in, 32–5, 41, 47; votes for different parties in 36–9; percentage of seats won by, and votes for, different parties in, 42–3; electoral system for, 54; factional affiliations of members of, (LDP) 66–7, (JSP) 68–9; presiding officers of, 78–83; chairmen of committees of, 94, 97, 98, 135; opposition parties vote first in, 109
- housing, problems of, 119
- ideology: in confrontations in Diet, 46, 105; in JSP, 66–7, 70; in JCP, 70–1
- Ikeda Hayato, Prime Minister, 49, 81; as LDP faction leader, 51, 114; income-doubling programme of, 115; 'low-posture' attitude of, 116, 118; long Diet career of, 141
- Imperial Diet (from 1890), 1, 13; constraints on effectiveness of, 2–3; continuity between National Diet and, 5; 1947 Constitution approved by, 9; weaknesses see by SCAP in, 10; effects of procedural rules in, 14; Committees of, 88; see also House of Peers, House of Representatives
- Imperial Rule Assistance Association, 4; leaders of, removed from public office by SCAP, 12
- Independents, 31, 77; seats won by, (H. of Councillors) 18, 22–3, 28, (H. of Representatives) 32–3, 47; votes for, (H. of Councillors), 24–5, (H. of Representatives) 36–7; percentage of seats won by and votes for, 42–3
- industrialists: former political power of, 2–3, 4, 30; support LDP, 40
- industrialization of Japan, 3
- industry, SCAP directives on, 12
- International Trade and Industry, Ministry of, 41
- Interpellations (questions in open Budget Committee meetings), 91
- Ishibashi Tanzan, Prime Minister, 114
- Ishihara Shintarō, novelist elected to H. of Councillors, 19
- Ishii Mitsujiro, Speaker, 81; as LDP faction leader, 83, 114; vote of no-confidence in, as Minister of Justice, 103, 111
- Itagaki Taisuke: statue of, as founder of first modern Japanese political party, 121
- Ito Hirobumi: statue of, as architect of Meiji Constitution, 121
- Japan Broadcasting System, 130
- Japanese language: difficulties of translation into and out of, 9; malleability of, 50; indirectness and ambiguity of, 91
- Jiyu-Minken Undō (movement on behalf of liberty and people's rights, 1880s), 2
- Joint (American) Chiefs of Staff (JCS) Directive, on post-surrender policy for Japan, 6, 8, 9, 16; and industry, 12
- journalists: become specialists, 130, 133; unwritten rules controlling, 131–2; as links between compartments of influentials in Japan, 132–3; ties between politicians and, 133–4
- Kaifu Toshiki, Chairman of House Management Committee, H. of Representatives, 84
- kakushin-kei*, see progressive group of parties
- Kambayashiyama Eikichi, Director of General Defense Agency, 82
- Kanryō*, see bureaucrats
- Kasuga, Ikkō, Chairman of DSP, 116
- Katsumata Sei'ichi, JSP faction leader, 66
- Katayama Tetsu, Socialist Prime Minister (1947–8), 29, 45
- Kawakami Jotarō Chairman of JSP, 116, 118
- Kawashima Shojiro, Vice-President of LDP, 78, 82; an optimum size for faction, 51
- Keidanren (Federation of Economic Organizations), 40, 124
- Keizai Doiyukai (Committee for Economic Development), 41
- Kishi Nobusuke, Prime Minister (1957–60), 45, 49, 114
- Kiyose Ichirō, Speaker, 79, 111
- Kodaira Hisao, Vice-Speaker, 83
- Kokkai*, see National Diet
- Kokutai*, see Diet Strategy Committees

Index

- Komei Political League: seats won by (H. of Councillors), 23; votes for, 27
- Komeitō (Clean Government Party), 31, 44, 117; seats won by, (H. of Councillors), 23, 28, (H. of Representatives) 35, 47; votes for, (H. of Councillors) 27, (H. of Representatives) 39, 56; percentage of seats won by and votes for (H. of Representatives), 43; election tactics of, 71, 128; joint candidates of DSP and (1972), 128
- Kōno Kenzō, President of House of Councillors, 77, 78
- Kōno Ichirō, LDP faction leader, 77
- Korea, destination of many American civil administrators trained for Japan, 7
- Korea, Republic of South, Treaty re-establishing relations between Japan and (1968), 75, 80; Special Committees on, 92, 100, 113; scene in H. of Representatives over, 103–4, 106–7, 141
- Korean War (1950), 8
- Kubota Tsurumatsu, of JSP, Vice-Speaker, 79–80
- Kuraishi Tadao, Chairman of LDP Policy Board, 62–3, 65
- Kyōkō Saiketsu*, see 'forced vote'
- Labor, Japan Confederation of, and DSP, 41
- Labor-Farmer Party: seats won by (H. of Representatives), 34; votes for, 38–9; percentage of seats won by and votes for, 42–3
- land reform, under SCAP, 12, 128
- Legislative Reference Service of Diet, 14, 101, 122
- Liberal Democratic Party (LDP): merging of conservative parties into (1955), 18, 30–1; seats won by, (H. of Councillors) 20–1, 28, (H. of Representatives) 32–3, 47; votes for, (H. of Councillors) 25, (H. of Representatives) 36–7, 56–7; tactical abilities of, 40, 54–5; percentage of seats won by and votes for (H. of Representatives), 43; factions in, 47–51, 57–8; finances of, and of factions of, 49–50, 52–3, 82; officers of (1972), 62–3; factional affiliations of Members of Diet from, 66–7; and chairmen of Committees, 94; controlling position of, 101–2; Policy Research Council of, 65, 106, 137; 'high-' and 'low-posture' attitudes in, 114–16, 118; critical attitude of news media towards, 131; and committees, 135
- Liberal Party (conservative), successor of Seiyūkai, 18, 30; seats won by, (H. of Councillors) 20, (H. of Representatives) 24, 32–3; votes for, (H. of Councillors) 24, (H. of Representatives) 36–7; Hatoyama and Yoshida factions of, 24, 33, 36, 42, 48–9; merged in LDP (1955), 30–1
- Library of Diet, 14, 90, 101, 122, 136
- MacArthur, General: and 1947 Constitution, 7, 9; as Republican candidate for Presidency (1948), 12–13
- Matsumura Kenzō, LDP faction leader, 114
- Meiji Constitution (1890), 1, 2, 121; weaknesses seen by SCAP in, 10
- Members of the Diet: salaries of, 14, 122, 138–9; minimal powers of, against presiding officers, 15; frequent re-election of, 28; must serve on at least one committee, 93; exercise of judgment by, 125
- Miki Takeo; leader of Cooperative Party, 30; as LDP faction leader, 50, 53, 84, 114; Deputy Prime minister, 60–1; Ministers from faction of, 64
- Ministers: formerly responsible to Emperor, 1; must be civilians (1947), 10; few from H. of Councillors, 18; messages from, at opening session of Diet, 75
- Ministries, Standing Committees of Diet with same spheres as, 89
- Minobe, Socialist Governor of Tokyo, 45
- minor political parties, 30; seats won by, (H. of Councillors) 20–1, (H. of Representatives) 32–3; votes for, (H. of Councillors) 26–7, (H. of Representatives) 38–9; percentage of seats won by, and votes for (H. of Representatives), 42–3
- minority: in Imperial Diet, 2, 5; lack of concern in Diet Law for protection of views of, 15–16
- Minseitō, party in Imperial Diet representing zaibatsu, 2–3; Democratic Liberal Party as successor of, 30
- Miyamoto Kenji, Chairman of JCP, 70

Index

- Mizuta Mikio, LDP faction leader, 53
 monopolies, legislation against, 12
 Montesquieu, Baron de: mistaken interpretation of English system of government by, reflected in constitution of USA, 16
 Mori Yasochi, Vice-President of H. of Councillors, 77, 78 mystical ideas, of imperial institution, and of forces of history, 129
- Nakamura Umekichi, Speaker, 59, 62–3, 78, 79, 83
 Nakasone Yasuhiro, Minister and LDP faction leader, 53, 55–7, 60–1, 77, 78; Ministers from faction of, 64
 National Diet (Kokkai), 1; continuity between Imperial Diet and, 5, 29; policy leading to establishment of, 6; as highest organ of State power, and sole law-making organ, 10, 29, 122, 140; creation of, 13–18; committees of, 14, 88–102; scenes of near violence in, 46 (see also under Korea, United States); opening of session of, 74; ordinary, extraordinary, and special sessions of, 76; extension of sessions of, 76, 115; convening of plenary sessions of, by presiding officers, 86–7; delaying tactics in, 87, 108–12, 126; fortification of precincts of, 112; 'forced vote' in, 112–13; conflicts in, symbolize those of society, 120, 140; statues in central hall of, 121; roles of, 122–6, 139–41; see also House of Councillors, House of Representatives nationwide constituency, for H. of Councillors, 19 navy, former political power of officers of, 2 neo-Buddhist group, in politics, 31, 44; see also Komeitō (Partial) Nuclear Test Ban Treaty (1963), 45 news media, 130–4; and elections, 122
 newspapers, 81, 130
 Nihon no Koe (Voice of Japan) Communist Party, 45–6
 Nihon Shakai Taishi-Tō (Japan Social Mass Party), 2
Ni-in Kurabu (2nd Chamber Club), 28, 29
 Nikkeiren (Federation of Employers' Organizations), 41, 124
 Nishimura Eiichi, Chairman of DSP, 116
 Nishio Suehiro, leaves JSP to found DSP, 31, 116
 no-confidence, votes of: as delaying device, 110–11
- Occupation era, 5–13
 occupations (non-political): of members of 1972 Cabinet, 60–3; of Members of Diet, 141
 Ōhira Masayoshi, Minister and LDP faction leader, 50, 52, 60–1; Ministers from faction of, 64; Chairmen of committees from faction of, 99; low-posture' attitude of, 115
 Okuma Shigenobu: statue of, as founder of university, and worker for national assembly, 121
 Okuno Seisuke, Education Minister, 60–1, 64
 Ōno Bamboku, LDP faction leader, 80; delaying tactic invented by, 108
 Opposition: as bystanders in Diet's legislative process, 15, 46; fragmentation of, 31, 104, 128; attitudes of different sections of majority party towards, 58–9; and presiding officers, 87; delaying tactics of, in Diet, 87, 108–12, 126; and forthcoming bills, 123; little chance for amendments by, 126; and committees, 135
- pacifism, relation between democracy and, 6, 7
 parliamentarianism: DSP and, 65–6; JSP and, 116–17; future prospects for, 117–18, 121–2; criticisms of, 124–5
 Peace Comrades' Association, 116
 Peace Preservation Law, 4; SCAP orders abrogation of, 11
 People's Democratic Party: votes for (H. of Councillors), 24 police: special higher (thought control), 4; riot, 68, 112; in Diet on occasion of scene over Pact with USA, 111–12 policy-making, inside political parties, 46, 72, 76, 85, 123, 124, 140; difficulties of observing, 125–6
 Political Funds Contribution Law, 50, 127 political parties: under Meiji Constitution, 2, 3; dissolution of (1930s), 129;

Index

- distribution of, (H. of Councillors) 28, (H. of Representatives) 47; loyalty to, 45–6, 124; factions in, 46–7, 71–3, 106; those entering political life through (Tōjin), 49, 69; Diet Strategy Committees of, 84, 85, 86, 93, 113; meetings of Secretary-Generals and Chairmen of, in controversies over bills, 85–6, 113; and appointments to committees, 93; discipline of, 106; 'high-' and 'low-posture' attitudes in, 114–16; judgment exercised by leaders of, 125; and elections, 126–9; press conferences with leaders of, 133; Diet as training ground for leaders of, 141; see also individual parties
- political prisoners, SCAP orders release of, 11
- pollution, problems of, 119
- popular participation in politics, no tradition of, 3, 4
- popular sovereignty, SCAP and doctrine of, 10
- population: shift of, to towns, 40
- Potsdam Declaration, on political re-orientation of Japan, 5, 6
- Prefectures, as constituencies for H. of Councillors, 19
- President and Vice-President of H. of Councillors, 28, 76
- presiding officers of Diet (President and Vice-President of H. of Councillors, Speaker and Vice-Speaker of H. of Representatives), 14, 76, 83; powers of, 15, 83, 87; and appointments to committees, 93, 94; in 1972 Cabinet, 62–3
- press club system, 131–2
- Prime Minister: H. of Representatives and, 17, 18; President of LDP automatically becomes, 50; election of, as a formality, 51, 134, 140; votes for (1972), 59, 64; Official Residence and Office of, 64, 75; controls presiding officers, 83
- Privy Councillors: former political power of, 2; discuss 1947 Constitution, 9
- Progressive Party (conservative), 30; votes for, (H. of Councillors) 24, (H. of Representatives) 36; seats won by (H. of Representatives), 32; percentage of seats won by, and votes for (H. of Representatives), 42
- Progressive (reformist) group of parties, 31, 40; chasm between conservative parties and, 44–5; seats held by (1961–73), 47
- Purge, of undesirable personnel from public office, by direction of SCAP, 11–12, 70; as factor in factionalism, 48, 69
- Reischauer, Dr E. O., US Ambassador to Japan, 47–8
- researchers, of Diet Committees, 101, 122, 136
- riji*, see directors of committees
- ringisei* system, in former decision-making, 3
- rural votes: strength of, increased by shift of population to towns, 40; conservative sentiment of, 54, 128
- Ryokufu (Green Breeze Society), 20–1, 25
- salaries, of Members of Diet and bureaucrats, 14, 122, 138–9
- Sangi-in*, see House of Councillors
- Sasaki Kōzo, JSP faction leader, 66–7; JSP Chairman, 116, 118
- Satō Eisaku, Prime Minister (1964–72), 49; as faction leader, 51, 53, 139; and appointments of presiding officers, 77, 80–1, 82; and chairmen of committees, 99; and Korea treaty, 107, 108, 115; 'high-posture' attitude of, 115; long Diet career of, 141
- Second Chamber Club: seats won by (H. of Councillors), 28, 29
- Secretariat of the Diet, 101, 122, 136, 137
- Seiji Shikin* (political funds), see finance Seiyukai, party representing zaibatsu, 2–3; Liberal Party as successor of, 30
- separation of executive and legislative powers, doctrine of: in American constitutional theory, 14–15, 16, 89
- Shidehara Kijūrō, Prime Minister (1945–6), 49
- Shiga Yoshio, Communist Member, 45
- Shigemune Yūzo, President of H. of Councillors, 77; and University Law, 105, 113
- Shiina Etsusaburō, Minister and LDP faction leader, 62–3, 78
- Shugi-in*, see House of Representatives
- Socialist Party of Japan (JSP), li, 30; seats won by, (H. of Councillors) 22–3, 28,

Index

- (H. of Representatives) 34–5, 47; votes for, (H. of Councillors) 26–7, (H. of Representatives) 38–9, 56–7; 'right' and 'left' sections of, 22, 26, 31, 34–5, 38–9, 42–3, 65; DSP separates from (1960), 31, 65; trade union support for, 41; percentage of seats won by, and votes for (H. of Representatives), 42–3; electoral gains by (1972), 65; factionalism in, 65–70, 116–17; factional affiliations of Members of Diet from (1961–73), 68–9; and renewal of pact with USA, 79; and treaty with Korea, 80, 92, 103, 107–8; and Special Committees, 92; and University Law, 105; moderates and militants in, 118; joint candidates of JSP and (1972), 128
- Sōhyō (General Council of Japanese Trade Unions), 41
- Sōka-Gakkai (Value-Creation Society), neo-Buddhist group in politics, 31, 44; see also Komeitō
- Sonoda Sunao, Vice-Speaker, 83
- Speaker and Vice-Speaker of H. of Representatives, see presiding officers
- Specialists, supervise researchers for Diet Committees, 101
- State-War-Navy (USA) Coordinating Committee (SWNCC): post-surrender policy for Japan proposed by, 5n, 8, 9, 16; and industry, 12
- Students, National Federation of, and JCP, 71
- Supreme Command for the Allied Powers (SCAP): indirect government of Japan by (1945–52), 6; policy split within, 7–8; flood of directives to Japanese Government from, 10–11
- Taihei-yō Sensō* (War in the Pacific Ocean), election during, 5
- Taisei Yokusan-kai (Imperial Rule Assistance Association), 4, 12
- Taishō Emperor (1912–26), rise of democratic tendencies under, 3–4
- Taiwan: Chinese National Government in, 8; attitudes of political parties and factions towards relations with, 44, 58, 129
- Tanaka Isaji: Minister, 60–1, Vice-Speaker, 83
- Tanaka Kakuei, Prime Minister, 49, 77; as faction leader, 50, 51, 52, 139; Cabinet of (1972), 59–65; voting for election of, 59, 64; Ministers from faction of, 64; appointment of committee chairmen by, 99; visits Peking (1972), 129; and election of 1972, 130; long Diet career of, 141
- Teikoku Gikai*, see Imperial Diet
- television: meetings of Diet and Committees on, 91, 131; two channels of, 130
- tenant farmers: attempts to organize, 2; land reform and, 12, 128
- Tōjūjin* (partymen): in politics, as distinct from bureaucrats, 49, 69
- Tojo Hideki, Prime Minister of military coalition, 5
- Tokyo (Imperial) University: graduates of, as Ministers, 65
- trade unions: SCAP encouragement to growth of, 12; federations of, and political parties, 41; and factions of JSP, 69
- Trade Unions, General Council of Japanese, and JSP, 41
- United States of America: attitudes of political parties towards alliance with, 44; scenes in Diet over renewal of Security Pact between Japan and (1960), 45, 79–80, 104, 111–12, 114, 118, 141; further renewal of Pact with (1970), 118–19
- universities: turmoil in, (1930s) 3, (1960s) 105, 127; scenes in Diet over Emergency Law on, 81, 105, 141
- USSR, and JCP, 46, 70
- Vice-Ministers: Administrative, 14; Parliamentary, 14, 93
- voting: methods of, in Diet, 108–9; at snail's pace', 109
- Whitney, General Courtney, Chief of Government Section, SCAP, 7–8
- Willoughby, General Charles, Assistant Chief of Staff (Intelligence), SCAP, 8
- World War I, expansion of Japanese overseas market brought by, 3
- World War II, election to H. of Representatives during, 5

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-13427-9 - Japan's Parliament: An Introduction

Hans H. Baerwald

Index

More informationIndex

Yamaguchi Kikuichirō, Speaker, 81, 83

Yosan linkai (Budget Committees of Diet),
90–1Yoshida Shigeru, Prime Minister (1946–
7, 1948–54), 48, 49*zaibatsu* (industrial corporations), 47;former political power of, 2–3, 124; anti-monopoly legislation against, 12Zengakuren (National Federation of Students), 71