

Index

- Aesthetics, literature and, 4–5, 23–24, 90–91, 191
- Anti-Bolshevism, 49, 79–82, 83, 85, 104–105, 106, 115, 132, 142, 143,
 145, 147–151, 153–155, 170–171, 229, 235–238
- Anti-Semitism, 6–10, 17–18, 44–45, 58–59, 60, 61, 96, 106–110, 115, 132,
 136, 145, 148, 156, 176, 177–180,
 192–194, 195–199, 205–207,
 210–211, 213, 214, 216, 229, 230–232, 234–238, 240–244
- Alverdes, Paul, 10, 11, 25, 36, 61, 260
- Amann, Max, 189
- Anacker, Heinrich, 22, 23
- Barthel, Ludwig Friedrich, 8, 36, 56
- Baumann, Hans, 5, 21
- Becher, Johannes R., 137–138
- Berger, Gottlob, 158
- Berthold, Rudolf, 146
- Beumelburg, Werner, 32–59
- Binding, Karl, 48–49, 95
- Binding, Rudolf G., 14, 23
 and Adolf Hitler, 53, 105
 and Alfons Paquet, 56
 and Alfred Döblin, 63
 and Alfred Rosenberg, 60
 anti-Americanism, 50
 anti-Bolshevism, 49
 and Baldur von Schirach, 63
 “Binding circle,” 64
 Britting, Georg, 64
 and Carl Zuckmayer, 60, 177
 critics and, 34–37, 147
Das Schwarze Korps,
- death of, 63
 and Dwinger, Edwin Erich, 64
 and Elizabeth Jungmann, 58, 61, 63
 and Erich Maria Remarque, 117
 essays of:
 “Duties of a German Academy of Arts,” 3–4; “Ecce Europa,” 50; “Ethical Foundations of a People,” 49; “On the Power of the German Language as Expression of the Nation,” 55;
Six Declarations of Loyalty to the New Germany, 54, 113
- and Frank Thiel, 61
 and “generation of 1914,” 34
 German culture and, 49–50
 and Gunter d’Alquen, 61–63
 and Hans Grimm, 63
 and Hans Hinkel, 12
 and Hanns Johst, 61, 64
 and Heinrich Himmler, 61
 and Heinz Kindermann, 59
 and Hellmuth Langenbucher, 36
 horses and, 37
 and Ina Seidel, 59
 influences on, 38–40
 and The Inner Reich affair, 61–63
 and Jews, 44–45, 58–59, 156
 and Joseph Goebbels, 6, 59
 and Karl Benno von Mechow, 61
 and Kurt Tucholsky, 64
 and Langemarck (Ypres), 50
 and Ludwig Friedrich Barthel, 36
 memoirs of: On the War, and National Socialists, 34, 53, 56, 58, 60–61

- Binding, Rudolf G. (cont.)
 nationalism of, 50
 novellas of:
 Immortality, 42–47; The Sacrifice, 3;
 We Demand the Surrender of Reims, 36, 160
 and Paul Alverdes, 36
 and Paul Neubauer, 60, 184
 poetry of:
 On the War, 17–18; Pride and Mourning, 32, 41, 176
 and Prussian Academy of Arts, 53–54, 57–58
 and Rainer Schöllers, 60
 and Reich Culture Chamber, 8, 59 Riding Instructions for a Lover, 32 and Robert Musil, 59
 and Romain Rolland, 54–55
 and Rudolf Alexander Schröder, 64 and Stefan Zweig, 35
 themes of poetry:
 agony of the Somme front, 45–46;
 consolation for mothers and widows, 42–43; front legacy, 46;
 sacredness of war, 41; war and character, 41; war as liberation, 40–41, 43; war as measure of all things, 42–47
 trench warfare, 42
 and Thomas Mann, 56–57
 values of, 36
 war and memory, 52
 and Werner Beumelburg, and Wilhelm Frick, 57, 60, 176
 wives as muses, 39
 and young generation, 50
 youth of, 37
 Blunck, Hans Friedrich, 87
 Bormann, Martin, 13, 155, 241, 244–246, 248
 Bouhler, Philip, 188
 Bischoff, Joseph, 142
 Brasillach, Robert, 13, 241
 Brecht, Bertolt, 170
 Brehm, Bruno, 138, 152
 Britting, Georg, 48–49, 64, 95
 Bromberg “Bloody Sunday,” 151–152
 Busch, Field Marshal Ernst von, 157
 Bröger, Karl, 23
 Castelle, Friedrich, 92–93
 Connstein, Eva Annecke, 39, 93
 Czech Legion, 132
 d’Alquen, Gunter, 204
 Dietrich, Otto, 201
 Döblin, Alfred, 38–40, 54, 64
 Dwinger, Edwin Erich, 27–28, 29
 and Adolf Frisé, 139–140
 and Adolf Hitler, 156
 anti-Bolshevism, 132, 142, 143, 145, 147–150, 153–155
 anti-Semitism, 132, 136, 145
 and Arno Mulot, 139
 and Baldur von Schirach, 157
 best sellers, 120
 and Bruno Brehm, 138, 152
 critics and, 137–140
 death of, 164, 165
 denazification trial of, 159–163
 and Ellen Dwinger, 159
 and Elsa Brändström, 52–53
 and Ernst Jünger, 117, 137–138
 estate owner, 140–141
 and Field Marshal Ernst von Busch, 157
 and General Andrei Vlasov, 157, 158, 159, 163
 and General Erich von dem Bach-Zalewski, 154 and General Heinz Guderian, 153, 157
 and Gottlob Berger, 158
 and Hans Grimm, 139
 and Heinrich Himmler, 150, 154, 158, 159, 232
 and Johannes R. Becher, 137–138
 and Joseph Goebbels, 151
 and Klaus Mehnert, 163
 memoranda opposing Nazi “Jewish-Bolshevik subhuman” propaganda, 43
 as Nazi propagandist, 28, 147–151, 153–155
 Nobel Peace Prize, nominated for, 36, 160 and Norwin Dwinger, 159–161
 novels, themes of:
 The Army Behind Barbed Wire, 119–124
 Camp Grudetski, 120; Camp Irkutsk, 123–124; Camp Totskoe, 121–122; General Semionoff, 123;

- mortality rates, 120; the unseen war, 119
- Between Red and White*, 125–131
- Admiral Kolchak, 125, 126–129; Bolshevik propaganda, 125, 127, 128; Civil War in Russia, 125–131; Czech Legion, 126; Dwinger as officer in White Army; General Janin, 129; General Tukachevsky, 127; Interventionists, 125; moral depravity, 126, 128; return to Germany, 131
- Death in Poland*, 151–152
- Bromberg “Bloody Sunday,” 151–152; Goebbels’s and, 151; racism in, 152
- And God is Silent . . . ?* 147–150
- anti-Bolshevism, 147–150; anti-Semitism, 148; Bolshevik propaganda, 147–150; disillusionment of German communists, 149; forced collectivization and dekulakization, 148; GPU, 149; Gulag, 148; social injustice, 147; suffering on mass scale, 149
- Half Way There*, 144–147
- anti-Bolshevism, 145; anti-bourgeoisie, 145; anti-Semitism, 145; aristocracy, 146–147; Captain Rudolf Berthold, 146; Free Corps Mannsfeld, 34–37, 147; Kapp Putsch, 144; link to Third Reich, 146; Ruhr hostilities, 144
- The Last Riders*, 142–144
- anti-Bolshevism, 142, 143; Baltic campaign, 142–143; comradeship, 143; Free Corps Mannsfeld, 142–143; last of cavalymen, 143–144; Major Joseph Bischoff, 142; mutiny, 142–143
- Panzer Leader*, 153
- England on horizon, 153; General Heinz Guderian, 153; Panzer forces in Battle of France, 153; reminiscences of World War I, 153
- Return to Soviet Russia*, 153–155
- assault on Bolshevik elite, 153–155; German victories, 1941, 153–155;
- Himmler as sponsor, 154; on staff of murderous Gruppenführer Erich von dem Bach-Zalewski, 154; witness to Einsatzgruppen executions, 154
- Spanish Silhouettes*, 150–151
- assault on international communism, 150–151; Dwinger as war reporter in Spanish Civil War (1936), 150–151; meets General Francisco Franco, 150; meets General Valera, victor of Alkazar (Toledo), 150; SS officer, 150
- We Call Germany*, 131–137
- alienation of veterans in Weimar Republic, 131, 134; anti-Bolshevism, 132; anti-bourgeoisie, 134–145; anti-Semitism, 132, 136; comradeship renewed, 132–133; Dwinger provides transition to civilian life for fellow Russian prisoners of war on East Prussian estate, 131–137; Free Corps motif, 134; “Great Inflation,” 134, 135; longing for a Third Reich, 134, 135, 137–138; martyrdom of Albert Leo Schlageter, 136; widespread suffering in Weimar Germany, 132
- and Poland, 151–152
- post-World War II career, 52
- as Reich Culture Senator, 141
- as Russian prisoner of war, 121–122
- and Spanish Civil War, 150–151
- and SS, 154
- as SS officer, 119
- trilogy of, 121–122
- and Waltraut Wien, 15
- and Fritz-Dietlof Graf von der Schulenberg, 161
- and Will Vesper, 138
- youth of, 119
- Eckart, Dietrich, 5, 3–4, 110, 145
- Eggers, Kurt, 23, 29–31
- agricultural intern, 222–223
- anti-Bolshevism, 229, 235–238
- anti-capitalism, 221, 232–233
- anti-Catholicism, 225
- anti-Christianity, 234–238, 244–245

- Eggers, Kurt (cont.)
 and Adolf Hitler, 240–241
 anti-Semitism, 213, 214, 216, 229, 230–232, 234–238
 attends Gymnasium, 213, 218, 223–224
Auto da fé. Writings of Great Heretics
 Adolf Hitler and, 240–241; Martin Bormann and, 240–241
 death of, 249–251
 directs Reichsender Leipzig, 230– 232 and Eberhard Wolfgang Möller, 201
 and Friedrich Nietzsche, 226
 and Gunter d'Alquen,
 and Hans Hinkel, 242
 and Hans W. Hagen, 249
 hatred of Weimar Republic, 221–222
 and Horst Wessel, 225
The Inner Reich affair, 238
 joins Deutscher Schutz und Trutzbund, 217
 joins Freikorps “Schwarze Schar”:
 230–231
 Annaberg,
 link to Third Reich, joins Reichswehr, 223
 and Joseph “Beppo” Römer, 229
 and Kapp Putsch, 217
 marriages of, 238, 242
 and Martin Bormann, 240–241, 244–246, 248
 member, Corps Vandalia, 224
 as naval cadet, 213–216
 as Nazi propagandist, 159, 230–232, 233, 234–237, 242
 and Paul Tillich, 226
 postwar alienation, 221
 racism, 230–232, 234–238, 243–244
 as radical clergyman, 226–229
 and Reinhard Heydrich,
 and SS, 238–240
 SS Court of Honor, 239
 SS Standarte “Kurt Eggers,” 251
 and “Thingspiel” movement, 232–233
 and Ulrich von Hutten, 226, 230–231, 232
 as university student, 224–227
 and World War I, 211–213
 World War II service, 242
 joins Waffen SS, 244–245
- writings, themes of:
Auto da fé. Writings of Great Heretics
 (Der Scheiterhaufen. Worte Grosser Ketzer) historical anthology of writings of anti-Catholic and anti-Christian writers
The Birth of the Millennium, 235–237
 all-embracing racial world view;
 attack on Jewry, Bolshevism, Roman Catholicism; describes future Nordic racial utopia;
 warrior's joy in death
On Courageous Living and Brave Death, 234–235
 assault on Christianity; Nordic racism, warrior's joy in death
Dancing to My Own Drummer, 210–211
 on courage; revolutionary zeal
On the Freedom of the Warrior, 243–244
 ecstasy of warriors; war as fulfillment of universal racial law
 “The German Soul,” 243 Nordic racial superiority; race as source of genius
The Home of the Strong, 216–217
 hatred of Jews; Virtue of strength
The Home of the Strong, 237–238
 catechism for Nordic renewal; extols Odin the Strong and Asgard; Nordic community as brothers of gods Hutten, 229; Germany Aflame. A Hutten Ballad, 230–232
 freedom and unity; racism Job the German, 233
 explication of German suffering;
 path to Germanic renewal Rebel's Mountain, 221 glory of victory of Free Corps over Polish insurgency at the Annaberg
 in Upper Silesia
The Warlike Revolution
 anti-bourgeoisie; anti-capitalism;
 anti-Christianity; warrior-farmers
 as builders of future Nordic Reich youth, 211–218
 Erckmann, Rudolf, 39, 93
 Ernst, Paul, 89–90, 190

- Euthanasia. See Binding, Karl Ewers, Hanns Heinz, 225
- Ferguson, Niall, 177
 Feuchtwanger, Lion, 193
 Films
 Titles: Hochland Hitlerjugend (NSDAP), 18
 Jud Süß (Veit Harlan, 1940), 181
 Opfergang (Veit Harlan 1944)
 Stosstrupp 1917 (Arya Film, 1934)
 Um das Menschenrecht (Arya Film, 1934)
 Flex, Walter, 13–14
 Franco, General Francisco, 150
 Frank, Hans, 54, 113
 Frenzel, Herbert, 180, 186
 Frick, Wilhelm, 57, 60, 176
 Friedländer, Saul, 25
 Frisé, Adolf, 139–140
- Gaiser, Gerd, 17
 German Academy for Literature, 84
 Gillhausen, Major Guido von Gilman, Sander, 255
 Goebbels, Joseph, 8, 59, 88–89, 153, 155, 175, 192–194, 244–246, 248
 Grimm, Hans, 63, 139
 Guderian, General Heinz, 153, 156
- Hagen, Hans W., 23, 199–202, 238, 249
 Harlan, Veit, 39, 192–194
 Hartkopf, Angelus, 162
 Hess, Rudolf, 189
 Heuss, Theodor, 94
 Heydrich, Reinhard, 239
 Hielscher, Friedrich, 155, 257
 Himmler, Heinrich, 61, 158, 159, 201, 205, 232, 240–241, 244–246, 248,
 250
 Hinckel, Hans, 12, 242
 Hitler, Adolf, 3, 6, 53, 89–90, 100, 105, 111, 134–145, 156, 240–241
 Hymmen, Friedrich Wilhelm, 201
- Johst, Hanns, 61, 64, 78–79
 Jünger, Ernst, 10, 137–138, 256
 Jungmann, Elizabeth, 58, 61, 63
- Kampfbund für Deutsche Kultur, 78
- Kapp, Wolfgang, 144
 Keppler, Ernst, 198
 Kindermann, Heinz, 9, 59
 Koeppen, Anne Marie, 22
 Kolbenheyer, Erwin Guido, 8, 54, 87
 Kolchak, Admiral Alexander, 125, 126–129
 Korfanty, Wojciech, 218
- Langemarck (Ypres), 1
 Langenbeck, Curt, 90–91
 Leitner, Maria, 186
 Lepenies, Wolfgang,
 Lersch, Heinrich, 1
 Loewenberg, Peter, 12, 212
 Lutze, Viktor, 189
 Lützkendorf, Felix, 252
- Mann, Heinrich, 54
 Marian, Ferdinand, 194
 Mechow, Karl Benno von, 64, 260
 Mehnert, Professor Klaus, 163
 Menzel, Herybert, 23
 Metzler, Ludwig, 193
 Möller, Eberhard Wolfgang, 21, 29
 and Adolf Hitler, 21–22, 180
 aesthetics of politics, 169–170, 190–192, 195–199
 and Alfred Rosenberg, 186–190, 205
 alienates Nazi elite
 “The Corpse” scandal (“Aesthetic Desecration of the Dead”),
 199–202
 The Fall of Carthage scandal, 184–187
 Der Führer scandal, 186–190 alienation of, 199–202, 203–206 allies of, 168
 anti-Bolshevism, 170–171
 anti-capitalism, 177–180
 anti-modernism, 169
 anti-Semitism, 176, 177–180, 192–194, 205–207
 and Baldur von Schirach, 168, 176, 186, 202, 205
 and Battle of France, 195–199
 and Berlin Olympic Games, 1936,
 and Bertolt Brecht, 170
 critics and, 172, 186–190
 death of, 207
 and Eberhard Meckel, 60, 176 education and youth, 165–167

- Möller, Eberhard Wolfgang (cont.)
 enemies, 60, 167–168, 184
 and Ernst Keppler, 198
 and Ferdinand Junghans, 41, 176
 and 5th Waffen SS Division “Viking,” 203–204
 and Friedrich Wilhelm Hymmen, 201
 Hammersfeld executions, Upper Austria.
See also The Frankenburg Dice Game
 and Hans W. Hagen, 199–202
 and Heinrich George, 172
 and Heinrich Himmler, 201, 205
 and Heinrich Neft, 170
 and Heinz Hilpert, 60, 177
 and Herbert Frenzel, 180, 186, 202
 heroic world view of, 169
 and Hitler Youth, 187 intellectual influences on, 165–167
 and Johann Michael Möller (brother), 203–204
 joins Nazi Party, 170
 and Joseph Goebbels, 175, 180–184, 205
 and Karl Cerff, 184
 and Kurt Eggers, 201
 and Lion Feuchtwanger, 193
 and Lippoldsberg Writers Meeting (Hans Grimm), 207
 and Maria Koppenhöffer, 172
 and Maria Leitner, 186
 and Mathias Wiemann, 198
 and Max Amann, 189
 and Max Dessoir, 165
 National Prize for Literature, 167
 and National Socialism, 172, 176, 184–187
 and Otto Dietrich, 201
 and Paul Ernst, 165–167, 190
 and Paul Rose, 190
 PEN Club, member of, 170
 and Philipp Bouhler, 188
 poetry of remembrance, 173–175, 191–192, 195–202, 203–206
 postwar novels of, 207 prisoner at Hohenasperg Fortress (Ludwigsburg), 205–207
 and Rainer Schlösser, 168, 205
 and Rudolf Hess, 189
 and Rudolf Schulz-Dornburg, 199
 and SS criminality (Einsatzgruppen), 205 success as dramatist, 167
 and “Thingspiel” movement, 180
 on tragedy, 191
 trial of, 207
 and Veit Harlan
 and Victor Gollancz, 170
 and Viktor Lutze, 189
 as war reporter, 195
 and Werner Stephan, 199
 works by:
California Tragedy, 170; Douaumont,
 170, 171–172; The Fall of Carthage,
 170, 184–186, 187; The Fall of the Minister,
 170; The Frankenburg Dice Game,
 180–183, 184; Der Führer, 186–190;
Jud Süß, 192–194; The Letters of the Fallen,
 174; The Mask of War, 195–199; Panama Scandal, 168; Rothschild Victorious at Waterloo, 177–180; Russian Diary, 204; The Sacrifice, 202; Uprising in Carinthia, 170
 youth of, 164, 165
 Moraller, Franz, 8
 Mosse, George, 258
 Mulot, Arno, 10, 139
 Musil, Robert, 59
 Neubauer, Paul, 60, 184
 Nierentz, Hans Jürgen, 16
 Paquet, Alfons, 56
 Paust, Otto, 15
 poetry of heroic death. See Paul Alverdes, Heinrich Anacker, Hans Baumann,
 Rudolf G. Binding, Dietrich Eckart,
 Kurt Eggers, Walter Flex, Gerd Gaiser,
 Anne Marie Koeppen, Erwin Guido
 Kolbenheyer, Eberhard Wolfgang
 Möller, Wilhelm Schäfer, Baldur
 von Schirach, Josef Magnus Wehner Pongs, Hermann, 11
 Prussian Academy of Arts, 39–54, 57–58
 Reich Culture Chamber, 6
 Remarque, Erich Maria, 14, 25, 52–53, 113, 117
 Richthofen, Manfred von, 47
 Rolland, Romain, 54–55

- Rose, Paul, 190
 Rosenberg, Alfred, 7, 60, 78, 186–190
- Schäfer, Wilhelm, 9, 54
 Schauwecker, Franz, 78, 257
 Scheller, Thilo, 19
 Schlageter, Albert Leo, 136
 Schlösser, Rainer, 60, 168
 Schirach, Baldur von, 15–16, 17, 55, 157, 168, 186
 Schröder, Rudolf Alexander, 161
 Schulenburg, Fritz-Dietlof Graf von der, 159–161
Das Schwarze Korps,
 Söderbaum, Kristina von, 39, 194
 Stauffenberg, Claus Schenk von, 161
 Stephan, Werner, 199
 Stern, Fritz, 260
 Streicher, Julius, 98
 Stresemann, Gustav, 112
- Thiel, Frank, 61
 tragedy, theory of. See Curt Langenbeck; Eberhard Wolfgang Möller, on tragedy
 Tucholsky, Kurt, 64
- Vesper, Will, 138
 Vlasov, General Andrei, 57, 155, 157, 158, 159, 163
- Wehner, Josef Magnus, 25
 and Adolf Hitler, 89–90
 advent of Third Reich, 79
 alienates Nazi elite, 91–93
 anti-Bolshevism, 79–82, 83, 85
 anti-capitalism, 79–82
 anti-modernism, 79–84
 and “the Argonauts,” 68
 attends Cathedral Gymnasium at Fulda, 68
 Bernhard Wehner (son), 94
 and Bertolt Brecht,
 and censors, 92–93
 Christianity and National Socialism, reconciliation of, 91–93
 and classical Greece, 68
 and Curt Langenbeck, 89–92
 death of, 95
 and Erich Maria Remarque, 117
 and Erwin Guido Kolbenheyer, 87 essays and speeches of:
- “On German Reality,” 82–84; “The Man in the Bomb Crater,” 86 and Friedrich Castelle, 92–93
 and Georg Britting, and German culture, 84–85
 on German tragedy, 90–91
 and Hanns Johst, 78
 Hans Friedrich Blunck, 87
 joins Nazi Party, 86
 and Joseph Goebbels, 88–89
 and Kampfbund für Deutsche Kultur, 78
 and Kurt Tucholsky, Langemarck (Ypres) as link to Third Reich, 77–78
 membership in German Academy for Literature, 84
 Munich Prize for Literature (1929), 68
 and National Socialism, 26, 86
 novels, themes of:
City and Fortress Belgrade, 75–76
 Balkan fantasies, 76;
 comradeship, 76–77, 96;
 romanticism in, 75–76; Reich fantasies, 76; respect for Serbian enemy, 76
The Eternal Reich, 79–82
 anti-Bolshevism, 84;
 anti-modernism, 79–83, 84;
 Germanic heroism, 80–82;
 racism, 79–82; Reich
 mythology, 80–82; blood link to the Eternal Reich, 80–82
Seven at Verdun, 69–75, 86
 alienation of troops, 71–72; blood link to the Eternal Reich, 74–75; Christian faith, 73–74; comradeship, 71; failure of leadership, 69; generational conflict, 70; prejudice, 1061;
 Reich fantasies, 69; 79, 74–75;
 racism, 72–73; rendezvous of German dead at Fort Vaux, 74–75; “spirit of 1914,” 70;
 supernatural experiences, 73–74
 as political editor, Münchener Neueste Nachrichten, 86–87
 propagandist for Third Reich, 84–85, 88, 92–93
 Reich mythology of, 26, 69, 77–78

- Wehner, Josef Magnus (cont.)
 suit in Nazi Party Court, 87–88
 as theater critic, 86–87, 89–92 publishes On the Glory and Life of the German Theater, 94 and Theodor Heuss, 94
 and Thomas Mann, 68
 World War II radio messages of, 92–93
 youth of, 68
 youth, nationalist educator of, 88
- Wien, Waltraut, 159, 232
- Wirsing, Giselher, 86, 157
- Wirsing, Helena von, 39–54
- Zöberlein, Hans, 26–27
 and Adolf Hitler, 98, 111
 and Alfred Rosenberg, 113
 anti-Bolshevism, 104–105, 115
 anti-Semitism, 96, 106–110, 115
 awarded Bavarian Gold Medal for Bravery, 114
 death of, 116
 and Dietrich Eckart, 110 director, Cultural Department, City of Munich, 114
 and Erich Maria Remarque, 113
 Feldherrnhalle 1923, march to, 98
 Films of, 99
 Stosstrupp 1917 (Arya Films 1934), 99, 105
 Um das Menschenrecht (Arya Films 1934), 99
 and Gauleiter Paul Giesler, 116
 and Gustav Stresemann, 112
 and Hans Frank, 54, 113
 and Julius Streicher, 98
 Kulturkreis der SA, 114
 medals of, 98
 “Penzburg Murder Night,” 27, 115–116
 Munich Police and, 111
 Munich Prize for Literature, 98, 113–114
 novels of, 98–105, 106–111, 113
- novels, themes of:
The Belief in Germany, battle fever, 98, 99; as battlefield messenger, 100; Battle of the Marne, 1918, 102; Christmas 1917 in Siegfried Line, 103;
 communist insurgency, 104–105;
 comradeship, 99, 102–103;
 contempt for leadership, 98–102,
 104; death myth, 99; at Fleury, 101; Hitler’s introduction to, 100;
 grief at death of comrades, 103–104; Kaiser Wilhelm II at Solesmes, 98–102, 104; military company as family, 103; wounded at Verdun, 101
The Command of Conscience and Adolf Hitler, 110; agricultural crisis 109; alienation of veterans,
 106–111; anti-Bolshevism, 106,
 107; anti-capitalism, 108–109;
 anti-Semitism, 17–18, 106–110;
 battlefield as link to Third Reich, 111; bleeding Germany, 106–111;
 contempt for Weimar Republic, 10; death of heroes as national redemption, 107; Feldherrnhalle 1923, march to, 110; Free Corps
 Epp, 110; race pollution, 108; SA, 106
 President, Order of the Bavarian Medal for Bravery, 114
 and Professor Arthur Kutscher, 106
 and SA, 98–102, 104, 111, 112–113
 26th Bavarian Infantry Regiment, service in, 98
 and Viktor Lutze, 114, 115
 Volkssturm commander, Munich, 1945, 115–116
 World War I, service in, 98
 World War II, service in, 115
 youth of, 96
 Zweig, Stefan, 35
 Zuckmayer, Carl, 60, 177