

CONTENTS

About the Small Arms Survey .....	vi
Notes to readers .....	vi
Acknowledgements .....	vii
Introduction .....	1
Chapter 1. Larger but Less Known: Authorized Light Weapons Transfers
Introduction .....	9
Terms and definitions .....	10
Transparency in light weapons transfers and procurement .....	12
The 2011 Transparency Barometer .....	15
Estimating international light weapons transfers .....	19
The light weapons trade .....	22
Conclusion .....	35
Chapter 2. Fact or Fiction?: The UN Small Arms Process
Introduction .....	43
2010 update .....	44
A bird's-eye view .....	56
Conclusion .....	60
Chapter 3. Procurement and Policy: Police Use of Emerging Weapons Technology
Introduction .....	69
Setting the stage .....	70
Trends and developments .....	73
Matching weaponry with doctrine .....	86
Conclusion .....	93
Chapter 4. A Booming Business: Private Security and Small Arms
Introduction .....	101
The privatization of security .....	102
The private security arsenal .....	111
Tackling misuse .....	119
Conclusion .....	126
Chapter 5. Protected but Exposed: Multinationals and Private Security
Introduction .....	135
Setting the scene: MNC security needs .....	136

Key challenges in MNC use of private security .....	141
Regulatory frameworks and other approaches to accountability .....	150
Conclusion .....	158

Contents 6. Ethos of Exploitation: Insecurity and Predation in Madagascar

Introduction .....	167
From colony to country: a historical perspective .....	169
Political instability and rising insecurity .....	180
Conclusion .....	187

Chapter 7. Reforming the Ranks: Public Security in a Divided Côte d'Ivoire

Introduction .....	193
The path to the present .....	194
One country, two security systems .....	199
Insecurity in Côte d'Ivoire .....	206
Coping mechanisms: resorting to non-state security providers .....	211
A two-step process: restructure then reform .....	216
Conclusion .....	221

Chapter 8. Securing the State: Haiti before and after the Earthquake

Introduction .....	229
Haiti and its discontents .....	231
A state of injustice .....	233
Violence and crime in Haiti: before and after the earthquake .....	238
Options for security promotion in Haiti .....	249
Conclusion .....	255

Chapter 9. Balancing Act: Regulation of Civilian Firearm Possession

Introduction .....	261
Setting the stage .....	262
Regulating the firearm .....	268
Regulating the user .....	275
Regulating the use .....	284
Conclusion .....	296

Index