

CONTENTS

CHAP.		PAGE
I.	Historical	1
II.	Utility of isolation hospitals	22
III.	Substitutes for hospital isolation	46
IV.	Areas to be served by an isolation hospital. Combined areas	58
V.	Sites for isolation hospitals	68
VI.	Design of isolation hospitals	76
VII.	Details of hospital ward-blocks	97
VIII.	Movable hospitals and hospitals of more or less perishable construction	106
IX.	Small-pox hospitals	120
X.	Port sanitary hospitals	140
XI.	Removal of patients to hospital	144
XII.	Measures for the prevention of cross-infection—"bed isolation," open-air treatment	161
XIII.	Discharge of patients from hospital	180
XIV.	Staff required for an isolation hospital	190
XV.	Infectious disease and the Poor Law	197
XVI.	Hospital system of the Metropolitan Asylums Board	204
XVII.	Cost of isolation hospitals	213
XVIII.	Sanatoria for tuberculosis	220
XIX.	Examples of isolation hospitals	241
	INDEX	273