

Index

- adaptability, 237
- adhocracy, 2
- agency
  - and institutions, 60–1
- alternative dispute resolution (ADR),
  - 322, 329–30
  - and rule of law, 346–7
- approval processes, 261–3
- bureaucratic
  - hierarchical vs. collegial orientation, 120–3
  - rules vs. results orientation, 116–18
- Central Vigilance Commission (CVC), 119–20
- Chevron Texaco, 370–4
- cognitive. See also cultural-cognitive elements
  - liberation, 97–8
- collective behavior
  - and social movements, 88
- conflict
  - institutional, 113–14
  - legal, 280, 298, 304
  - political, 280, 298, 299–302
  - resolution strategies, 123–9
- constitutive processes, 57, 68
- contingency
  - plan, 233–7
  - theory, 2, 4–6
- contractors
  - general, 199–200, 208–9, 214–16
  - important knowledge for, 270–2
  - on Indian railway projects, 117–18, 120–1, 122–3
  - systems, 201, 209–10, 212–13
- contracts
  - legalistic vs. relational, 314–15
  - renegotiation of, 312–13, 320, 321, 355
- coordination
  - costs, 30, 37–8, See also transaction costs; institutional:costs
- cultural-cognitive elements, 57–8, 251, See also under institutional
  - defined, 57, 141
  - knowledge of, 267–9, 274
- culture
  - Davos, 80–1
  - dimensions, 317–19
  - popular, 83
  - professional, 81–2
- Davos, 80–1
- developers, 200–1, 209, 216–18
  - important knowledge for, 270
- embeddedness, 185
  - local. See local embeddedness
- engineers
  - important knowledge for, 272
- environments
  - local, 64–5
  - sectoral, 65–7
  - societal, 67–8
  - transnational, 69–71
- European Union (EU), 66, 69
- expatriates
  - freelance consultants, 129–33, 134, 212–18
- field, organization, 21, 383–4
  - and global projects, 73–8
  - and institutional logics, 72, 388–9, 401
  - and organizational archetypes, 72
  - defined, 71–2
  - dimensions of, 399–401
  - governance systems in, 72–3, 388
  - intermediaries in, 389
  - sensemaking in, 390

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18190-7 - Global Projects: Institutional and Political Challenges

Edited by W. Richard Scott, Raymond E. Levitt and Ryan J. Orr

Index

More information

450

Index

- field, organization (cont.)
 structuration of, 72–3 types of actors, 385–7
- firm decisions, 139
 structures, 139
- framing processes, 96–7, 101
- global projects and compensation, 293–4 and human rights, 87, 281
 and local embeddedness, 195–9
 and political opportunities and threats, 107–9 and public participation, 285–6, 306
 and risk, 355–6
 and social movements, 86–7, 99–110, 279–89
 challenges of, 29–37, 247
 consultants to, 129–33, 134
 defined, 17
 drivers behind, 29, 90–9, 101–10, 282–7, 289–98 infrastructure construction.
See infrastructure projects metrics for, 43–4
 modeling and analysis of, 41–3 opposition to. See opposition to global projects theory and scholarship, 19–20, 27
 varieties of, 41
- globalization
 and institutions, 79–84
 and organization theory, 24–5
- governance
 systems, 66, 72–3, 388
- human rights
 and global projects, 87, 281
 normative support for, 101–2, 106
- identity collective, 99
- Indian civil service, 119
- infrastructure projects, 18, 192
 and local embeddedness, 65, 270
 distinctive features of, 44–7 funding, 310, 377–8
 need for, 1, 87, 247, 280–1, 310, 377
- institutional conflicts, 115–16, 86–110, 135–82, 279–309, 310–40 costs, 37, 162, 174–7 deviation, 159–60 differences, 33–7, 83–4, 115–16, 136–8, 247 elements (pillars), 58, 140–1, 250–2 exceptions, 136, 141–3, 155–7, 175, 178 ignorance, 153
 knowledge, 133, 189, 258–69,
See also local knowledge learning, 252
 logics, 72, 388–9, 401
- institutions and agency, 60–1
 and globalization, 79–84
 and rule of law, 55, 322–9
 and societal differences, 136–8 construction of, 61–3
 defined, 54, 140
 transnational, 69–70
- interdependence, 31
- international business and foreignness, 135, 164, 178, 186–7, 247 and learning, 187–90, 240–1
 and local embeddedness, 195–9
 and need for local knowledge, 247–8, 250 risk, 249–50, 252–3 strategies by firm, 211–18
- knowledge
 business, 189
 institutional. See under institutional local. See local knowledge needed for different firms, 270–2 types of, 258–69
- labor law, 259
- learning content-free, 188–9 curve, 240–1
 deuterio, 241
- legal systems, 259–60
- legalization, 70
- legitimacy and institutional elements, 59–60

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18190-7 - Global Projects: Institutional and Political Challenges

Edited by W. Richard Scott, Raymond E. Levitt and Ryan J. Orr

Index

More informationIndex

451

- local embeddedness
  - aligning strategy with, 218–20
  - and coping strategies, 186, 220–39, 239–40
  - and need for local knowledge, 184, 202, 203
  - and uncertainty, 210
  - by firm type, 199–201
  - defined, 185
  - factors affecting, 204–5
- local knowledge. See also local embeddedness
  - deficits and consequences, 202, 203–4
  - need for, 184, 202, 203, 247–8
  - strategies, 221–8, 228–33, 233–8
- logics. See under institutional
- management
  - advice for global projects, 147–80
  - project, 21–3
  - risk. See risk management
  - supply chain, 16
- markets, foreign. See also international business
  - challenges of, 186
  - strategies for entering, 211–18
- multinational corporations (MNCs), 64, 73–4
- enterprise, 23–4
- network
  - approaches to information gathering, 360–1
  - forms, 3
- NIMBY (not-in-my-backyard), 107, 285
- nongovernmental organizations (NGOs)
  - and project conflict, 293, 304
  - and public–private partnerships, 386
  - and risk analysis, 359
  - international (INGOs), 70–1, 108, 387
- normative elements, 56–7, 251
  - See also under* institutional
  - and institutional exceptions, 162
  - defined, 56, 140–1
  - knowledge of, 267
- opposition to global projects
  - and insurgent frames, 101–4
  - causal conditions, 304–6, 294
  - emergence of, 86–7, 107, 280–96
- organization
  - archetype, 72
  - field. See field, organization
  - institutions-based approach to, 7–8
  - project-based, 3
  - rationalization, 28–9
  - set, 73
  - theory, 4–8, 20–1, 24–5, 96
- Partnerships British Columbia (PBC), 392–4
- pipeline projects, 288–9
  - and conflict, 299–304
- political opportunity and threat. See under social movement
- professional associations
  - and normative controls, 56, 66, 75, 387, 388
- project
  - business, 40
  - consultants, 74, 201, 209, 213–14
  - management, 21–3
  - management unit (MU), 116–17, 117–18, 121–2, 123, 78
  - network, 40
- Public and Private Infrastructure Investment Management Center (PIMAC), 396–7
- public–private partnerships (PPP), 310–11, 378–401
  - and rule of law, 321–2
  - challenges to, 378
  - enabling organizations, 379–83
  - in British Columbia, 392–5
  - in Chile, 398
  - in China, 399
  - in India, 399
  - in Korea, 395–7
  - in Mozambique, 398
  - in South Africa, 390–2
  - project vs. program level, 379
  - renegotiations in, 311–13, 347–9
  - unit, 381–2

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18190-7 - Global Projects: Institutional and Political Challenges

Edited by W. Richard Scott, Raymond E. Levitt and Ryan J. Orr

Index

More information

452

Index

- Qualitative Comparative Analysis (QCA), 288, 294–304, 330–2 and consistency, 339–40
and coverage, 340
- regulative elements, 251, See also under institutional
defined, 55, 140
knowledge of, 258–63
- research methods comparative case, 287–8, 306 qualitative comparative.
See Qualitative Comparative Analysis (QCA)
- resource-based theory, 6–7
- risk analysis, 354, 361–7 and political and social actors, 356–7 and sources of information, 358–60 network approaches to, 360–1, 365–7
- risk management. See also risk analysis and network structures, 353 political and social, 353–4, 357–8, 374–5
- sensemaking processes, 163 and local knowledge, 165, 167, 389–90
- social movement and anti-Western sentiment, 102–3, 109 and collective identity, 99 and emotion, 98–9
and framing processes, 96–7, 101 and mobilizing structures, 94–6, 104–7 and resources, 292–3
and risk, 285
organizations (SMOs), 70–1, 77, 94–5, 100, 104–5, 108 political opportunity and threat, 90–2, 282, 289–92, 305–6 political process models of, 95, 109, 283
- resource mobilization models of, 94–5, 108, 283
theory, 87–99, 279
transnational, 104–5
- strategies
for managing political and social risk, 367–9 institutions-based approach to, 8
legalistic vs. relational, 314–16, 343–4, 345
network-based, 369–70
- structuration processes, 72–3
theory, 61
- supply chain global, 17
management, 16
- transaction costs, 37, 113,
See also coordination: costs;
institutional: costs
- transnational institutions, 69–70
social movement organizations (TSMOs). See under social movement social movements, 104–5
- uncertainty, 31–2, 116
and predictability, 206
by firm type, 208–11
insuring against, 238
- Virtual Design Team (VDT), 38
- World Bank, 73
and anti-neo-liberal backlash, 103, 109 and Davos culture, 81
and project conflict, 292
and public–private partnerships, 383, 398