

Contents

List of Contributors	page vii
1 Introduction	1
Albert Breton, Gianluigi Galeotti, Pierre Salmon, and Ronald Wintrobe
PART ONE SOME PROBLEMS WITH DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS AND TRENDS IN THEIR EVOLUTION
2 Demobilized and Demoralized: Negative Ads and Loosening Bonds	15
Michael C. Munger
3 Turning “Citizens” into “Consumers”: Economic Growth and the Level of Public Discourse	30
Stergios Skaperdas
4 Economic and Cultural Prerequisites for Democracy	44
Roger D. Congleton
5 Civil Society and the Contemporary Social Order	68
Frédérique Chaumont-Chancelier
PART TWO MORALS IN POLITICS
6 When Does Altruism Overcome the Intransitivity of Income Redistribution?	93
Donald Wittman
7 Democratic Resilience and the Necessity of Virtue	101
Alan Hamlin
PART THREE SOCIAL CAPITAL
8 The Optimal Level of Solidarity	125
Ronald Wintrobe

vi	Contents
9	The Bonds of Democratic Politics – An Economic Perspective Stefan Voigt	147
PART FOUR THE ROLE OF CONSTITUTIONS
10	Voting Rules: A Constitutional Quandary Gianluigi Galeotti	177
11	Citizens’ Sovereignty, Constitutional Commitments, and Renegotiation: Original versus Continuing Agreement Viktor J. Vanberg	198
12	Constitutional Rules and Competitive Politics: Their Effects on Secessionism Albert Breton and Pierre Salmon	222
	Index	247