Index

Aristotle
   Nichomachean Ethics 9–10

Behrami judgment 121, 124
Berger, Peter 271
Berlin, Isaiah 172, 173
Bogdandy, Armin von 134, 137
Bosphorus judgment 116–17, 122, 146
Burke-White, William 137

Cappelletti, Mauro 10, 291
Cohen, Joshua 172, 173
Constant, Benjamin 172, 173

constitutional pluralism beyond the EU (see also international legal order) 164

challenges
   price of popularity 8 underspecification 14–15 vacuity 14–15, 275–8, 293–9 values of hierarchy 15, 16–18 collective governance 152 conciliation between constitutionalism and pluralism 163, 204
   contrast with constitutional tolerance 12–14, but see 161
   contrast with global constitutionalism 160–1
contrast with local constitutionalism (monism) 150–1, 160–1

duality
   school of thought 14 type of constitutional order 14

incommensurability 12, 13
individual autonomy 15–16 overwhelming popularity 8 pluralism under international law 222 radical pluralism 221

sources
   interaction of robust legal orders 9–10
   removal of state responsibility 12 versus hierarchical order (see also monism) 14–15, 152
   constitutional tolerance contrast with constitutional pluralism 12–14, but see 161
   no common constitutional demos 13, 269 voluntary acceptance 12–13
   Constitutional Treaty, The (EU)
   1, 30, 31, 32, 34, 42, 87, 99, 100, 101–2, 209, 231
   Costa v. ENEL. 38–9, 44, 269 Council of Europe 21, 22, 80
   Cruz, Julio Baquero 1

democracy
   centrality in the modern liberal imagination 291–2 challenge to postnational pluralism 238 public autonomy beyond the state 246–54
   question of determination 243–5
   Dworkin, Ronald 256

Elster, John 295
European Coal and Steel Community
   22, 23–7
European Union (EU)
   collective, the 91–5 collective political agency 79–86, 97–104 dual legitimacy 101–4 diverse characterizations 78–9 ends, the 275–8, 293–9
European Union (EU) (cont.)
individual, the 90–1
particularism 88
universalism 86–7, 89–90

federalism
contrast with consociationalism 214–15 European federalists 21 federal Europe 21–2, 31–2 global 209
reconciliation with popular sovereignty 69 Fromm, Erich 271

global constitutionalism (see also international legal order, constitutionalist approach) challenges to the notion accommodation of diversity 215–19
contrast with local constitutionalism 150–1, 184–90 divided postnational society 210–13 fit with state responsibility 10–12, 284–94 lack of democratic legitimacy 12, 284–94, 300–1 defining features 157–60 discrete discipline 8
German school 132–3, 158–9 hierarchical variant 136–7, 160, 176, 179–84 Kantian in nature 131–2, 157–9 non-hierarchical variant 136–8, 140–8, 164, 170–5, 200–2, 281–94, 297–300, 300–1 strong (hierarchical) approach 136–7, 160, 176, 179–84
contrast with EC/EU constitutional order democratic legitimacy 12
Kadi judgment (ECJ) 125–6
state responsibility 10–12
WTO 11
customary 106, 113, 124, 141, 143, 166, 193–5
EC/EU as institutions of international order 79 allegiance to international law 144–8
argument overview 19–21
as experiments of international law 27–8
challenges
definition of the constitutional 267, 269
ends 269–70
genealogical methodology 266–7, 268
revision procedure 262–5
state responsibility 265–6
doctrinal argument 42–52
judicial argument 38–42
state practice argument 28–37
EU law relation
autonomy 119–21, 143–8
subordination 113–15, 126
superiority 120–1
individual, the 77
international organizations
multilateral 21

Index

cosmopolitan constitutionalism (re-readings) 135–6 criticism 12, 134–5, 210–13, 215–19, 284–94, 300–1
general 126–7
German school 132–3, 158–9
Hayekian school 133
Kantian origin 131–2, 157–9 ‘law of lawmaking’ approach 133 postnational constitutionalism 205–19 soft (non hierarchical) approach 136–8, 140–8, 164, 170–5, 200–2, 281–94, 297–300, 300–1 strong (hierarchical) approach 136–7, 160, 176, 179–84
contrast with EC/EU constitutional order
democratic legitimacy 12
Kadi judgment (ECJ) 125–6
state responsibility 10–12
WTO 11
customary 106, 113, 124, 141, 143, 166, 193–5
EC/EU as institutions of international order 79
allegiance to international law 144–8
argument overview 19–21
as experiments of international law 27–8
challenges
definition of the constitutional 267, 269
ends 269–70
genealogical methodology 266–7, 268
revision procedure 262–5
state responsibility 265–6
doctrinal argument 42–52
judicial argument 38–42
state practice argument 28–37
EU law relation
autonomy 119–21, 143–8
subordination 113–15, 126
superiority 120–1
individual, the 77
international organizations
multilateral 21
with a supranational common body 24 with universal remit 21 ius cogens 115–18, 124, 125, 141, 165
particularism 76
pluralist approach argument from transnational accountability 128–9
challenges
general 254–9
inconsistent 304–6
unspeciﬁed 301–4
utopian 301–6
general 126–7, 219–20, 297–9
global legal pluralism 128–30, 164–70, 225 institutional (interpretive) pluralism 168–9, 222–3 institutional (non-systemic) pluralism 220–4, 301 public autonomy 246–54
soft pluralist approach 128, 220, 281–4 strong pluralist approach 138–40, 220, 281–4 systemic pluralism 220–7 virtues 227–38
thick, state-independent, constitutional 71–3, 76 thin, state-parasitic 70–1, 76, 77 transfer of power to international order France 27
Germany 27
Italy 27
to EU 41–2
universalism 73–6
Ipsen, Hans 83

Kadi 1 case
Advocate General’s reasoning 118, 121, 124–5, 176, 190–3 autonomy of EU law 119–21, 278–9 CFI reasoning 113–17, 176, 179–84
criticism 117–18
ECJ judgment 118–22, 176, 184–90
‘European exceptionalism’? 143–9, 280–1 facts 110–13, 176–8
general 40, 107–9
interpretive pluralism 182, 195–9 ius cogens reasoning 115–18, 182–3 subordination of EU law 113–15, 279 superiority of EU law 120–1, 278–9
Kadi 2 case 122–3
Kant, Immanuel 5, 109, 132, 135, 271
Kelsen, Hans 164
Kennedy, David 129
Koskenniemi, Martti 5, 135, 225
Krisch, Nico 6, 9, 128–9 Kumm, Mathias 137, 223–4 legal pluralism beyond the EU (see international legal order, pluralist approach) Maastricht decision 1, 160
MacCormick, Neil D. 3, 10, 12, 13, 161, 220–2, 285, 286, 287–8, 294
Maduro, Miguel P. 118, 121, 127, 224, 288
Majone, Giandomenico 84
McCrudden, Christopher 294, 295
monism
grounded in international order (see also international legal order, hierarchical constitutionalist approach) 127, 164 grounded in national order (see also constitutional pluralism, contrast with local constitutionalism) 164 Mouffe, Chantal 232
Nicolaïdis, Kalypso 12, 96, 162, 291, 296
North Atlantic Treaty Organisation (NATO) 80 Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) 21, 22 pluralism (see international legal order, pluralist approach) postnational pluralism (see international legal order, pluralist approach)

Pogge, Thomas 157

Rawls, John 213, 243

Sabel, Charles 229
Schmitt, Carl 11, 222, 256, 308
Solange jurisprudence 122, 141–3, 184, 189, 193, 282 sovereignty

new sovereignists 155–7 popular auto-limitations 63 collective political liberties 63 contrast with the international domain 69–70 equal respect 63, 64
external limitations 62–3
individual autonomy 63
nation-state 270–4
particular, the 64–9
public autonomy 250, 270–3 reconciliation with federalism 69 role 243, 244
source of political modernity 61–2, 270–3 universal, the 64, 65–9

statal
external 60
internal 60
subsidarity 295–6
supranationalism 25–6 interprettive autonomy 82–3 legal and political 81–2, 83–5 primacy, direct effect 82 supremacy (primacy) of EC law and the federal supremacy 44–8 feature of international law 48–9 feature of supranationalism 82

Tomuschat, Christian 158–9 Tully, James 212–13, 232

global governance 154, 159
pluralism 165

Van Gend & Loos 38–9, 44, 143, 185, 186
Verdross, Alfred 10, 71, 133

Waldron Jeremy 243, 246
Walker, Neil 4, 19, 162
Weiler, Joseph H. H. 2, 3, 7, 81, 91, 92
Westphalian order 59, 203
Witte, Bruno de 3, 4, 9
global governance 154–5
pluralism 165