

Index

- absorptive capacity, 247–8
- application to public service environment, 233–5
 - case summary of government executive agency, 238–9
 - case summary of NHS Ambulance Trust, 237–8
 - empirical findings, 235–7
- chapters of this volume mapped to, 7–9
- characteristics of internal and external knowledge, 240–1
- creating and sustaining, 245
- cumulative nature of, 232, 246
- definitions, xvii, 9, 226, 230–3
- environmental conditions, 239–40
- implications, 245–7
- importance of, 226–7
- knowledge acquisition, 243–4
- knowledge application, 244–5
- knowledge assimilation, 244
- Lane et al. model, 7, 230–2
- learning relationships, 241–2
- mental models, 242
- organisational strategies, 231–2, 242–3
- organisational structures and processes, 243
- theoretical underpinnings, 229–30
- academy schools
 - governance, 109, 116
- Accounts Commission, Scotland, 22
- accreditation frameworks for policy-makers and practitioners, 214
- adaptive leadership, 152
- adaptive problems, 153, 154
- advocacy, use of research, 205, 221
- agency theory, 102, 103
- agent of improvement model of inspection, 20–1, 24–5
- Ambulance Trust case study, 237–8
- Ashby, Jim, 276
- audit, 17
- audit society, 1
- authorisation, 17
- authority, and leadership, 146–7
- Balanced Scorecard, 280
- Baldwin, Robert, 16
- Barber, Michael, 25
- Barclays Global Investors, 257
- Beacon Scheme, 149, 150, 155
 - inter-organisational knowledge sharing
 - during the Beacon year, 164–5
 - knowledge acquired from experience of being a Beacon, 165–6
 - knowledge to achieve the Beacon award, 162
 - learning and leadership, 156–8
 - research methods, 158
 - sources of learning for leaders, 158–62
- Bell, Henry, xv
- Berle, A.A., 104–5
- Better Regulation Executive, 20
- Blair administration, inspection to help to ‘drive through’ change, 20–1
- board, see governing bodies/board
- board, power, theories, 104–6
- Boeker, W., 110–11
- BPI (Business Process Improvement), 175–6
- BPIMs (Business Process Improvement Methodologies), 174, 190, 195
 - barriers to success, 186–7, 192
 - drivers for introducing, 173
 - future, 193–4
 - impact of implementation, 181–2
 - organisational readiness, 185
 - overview/comparison of various methodologies, 176–9
 - success factors, 185–6
 - sustainability, 187–9, 190–3
 - tools and techniques. 180–1, see also BPI; Kaizen; Lean; Six Sigma; TQM
- BPR (Business Process Re-engineering), 175–6, 179
- British Petroleum (BP), 257

- Bucuvalas, M.J., 44
- Bundred, Steve, 20, 23–4, 28–9
- Cadbury Report* (1992), 107
- California
- as main source of US healthcare competition data, 80
 - change to selective contracting, 83
 - hospital governance, 110–11
- capability platforms, 256
- Care Quality Commission, 20
- Cave, Martin, 16
- certification, 17
- Chernobyl Nuclear Accident (1986), xvi
- chief executive successions, 135
- choice, definitions, 75–6
- CHR (Calgary Health Region), 258–9, see also dynamic capabilities, case studies in healthcare in Canada
- circuits of schooling, 59
- citizen role, for the public, 60–3, 68–9
- citizens' juries, 61
- Clark, R.C., 111
- client role, for the public, 63–4
- club culture, 1
- Cohen, W.M., 232
- competition
- definitions, 75–6
 - special nature of markets for public service provision, 74–5, 76–7, 93–4, see also healthcare markets
- Comprehensive Productivity Improvement model, 280
- conceptual use of research, 203, 204
- conformance dimension of board governance roles, 103
- conformance/performance framework, 103
- consumer role, for the public, 58–60, 68–70
- consumer service, as measure of performance, 56
- 'consumer', use of word in discussions on welfare reform, 68
- co-production models, 62
- corporate governance
- board dynamics, 119–20
 - culture, 118–19
 - definitions, 99–100
 - evidence on the relationship with performance
 - behaviours, 112–13, 121
 - focus and function, 111–12, 116–18, 121
 - in public services, 113–14
 - structures, 110–11, 115–16, 121
 - overview, 120–3
 - theoretical perspectives, 101
- CPA (Comprehensive Performance Assessment), 26, 133, 134, 135
- creaming, 79, 84
- cross-cutting problems, 153
- CTC (Communities that Care), 210
- culture, and acceptance of information, xvi–xvii
- CVF (Competing Values Framework), 280
- Dalton, D., 110
- Davies, C., 113–14
- democratic anchorage, 114
- Denmark, patient choice, 82–3
- devolving budgets to users, in healthcare, 66
- DMAIC (Define, Measure, Analyse, Improve and Control), 175, 180
- DRG (diagnosis-related groups), 78–9, see also output-based payments
- dumping, 79, 84
- dynamic capabilities, 229, 252–3, 269–72
- as a public sector framework, 253–5
 - as means of closing knowing–doing gap, 256–8
 - case studies in healthcare in Canada, 258–61
 - continuing to identify the dynamic capability, 262–4
 - creating a culture of knowing through doing, 267–9
 - enabling the dynamic capability, 264–6
 - lessons from, 261–2
 - managing ongoing tensions, 266–7
 - organisational learning as, 255–6
 - proposition 1–3, 262
 - proposition 4, 270
 - proposition 5, 271
- Economic and Social Research Council, Public Services research programme, xviii
- education markets, 85–8
- impact of choice on those who exercise it, 88–9
 - impact of pressures of choice on those schools 'left behind', 89–91
 - impact on distributional outcomes, 90–2
- Eisenhardt, K., 254, 255
- embedded research model, 217, 218–19
- empirical knowing, 201
- Emslie, S., 116–17, 119
- England
- parental choice in education, see also 'generalised but differential' choice systems in education
 - information provision, 86
 - student sorting effects, 91–2
- enlightenment, 46
- experiential knowing, 202

- explicit knowledge, 149
 exploitative learning, 230 exploratory learning, 230 external accountability, 103 external antecedents to absorptive capacity, 7–8, 239–42
- faithful replication/fidelity, 210–11
 Feldman, M.S., 40
 Festinger, Leon, xvii
 fixed pricing, in healthcare, 78–9
 Forbes, D.P., 112
 ‘four I’s’ framework, 207–8
 fourth arm of governance, 19
 Fox, C., 60
 France, national benchmarking scheme, 18
- Gabrielsson, J., 113 gaming behaviour, 76
 in response to performance measures in healthcare, 78
 Garratt, B., 103, 112
 gatekeepers, 39–42
 ‘generalised but differential’ choice systems in education, 85 impact of the pressures of choice on those schools ‘left behind’, 90
 George, G., 230
 Germany, inspection, 18
 Goodstein, J., 110–11
 governance, see corporate governance governing bodies/board
 definitions, 100, 101
 private sector parallels, 100–1
 Government Performance Project model, 280
 Grace, Clive, 19, 20, 28
 Griffiths Report (1983), 107
 groupthink, 46–7
- Haubrich, Dirk, 26
 health insurance
 and healthcare quality, 79, 80
 US market, 80
 health insurers, competition between, 77 health services, corporate governance reforms, 107–8 healthcare markets, 77–9
 impact on distributional outcomes, 83–4 impact on performance, 80–3
 Heifetz, R.A., 153–4 heroic view of leadership, 128
 hierarchical cultures, xvi
 HMOs (health maintenance organisations), 80, 81
 Hood, Christopher, 17
- hotel services in healthcare, and patient choice, 83
 Hoxby, C., 89–90
- Independence, Well-being and Choice* (UK Department of Health), 65
 individualist cultures, xvi–xvii information as automatically leading to better policy or practice, xvi, see also performance information inspection creating and consuming knowledge, 21–7
 definitions, 16–17
 increasing importance of, 18–19
 overview, 27
 theories of, 19–21
 inspection reports, lack of public interest in, 26–7 institutionalisation of information, 39–41 instrumental use of research, 203 internal antecedents to absorptive capacity, 8–9, 242–3
- James, Oliver, 17, 27
 Janis, Irving, 46
 Jas, P., 110–11
 John, Peter, 27
- kaizen, 176, 180
 Kim, L., 151, 152, 153
 Kingdon, John W., 45
 knowing–doing gap, 251–2 dynamic capabilities as means of closing, 256–8 knowledge acquisition, absorptive capacity, 243–4 knowledge application, absorptive capacity, 244–5 knowledge assimilation, absorptive capacity, 244 knowledge brokers, 220–1
 knowledge creep, 40
 knowledge mobilisation, nature of, 10 knowledge, nature of, 10 knowledge-oriented perspective, justification for, 3–4 knowledge processes, and organisational performance, 227–8
- Labour Party, UK, campaign to ‘Save the NHS’, 60–1
 Landsteiner, Karl, xvii
 Lane, P.J., 230–2
 lay members on committees, 61

- Le Grand, Julian, 66, 76
- leadership
- and knowledge creation and transfer, 145–6, 166–8
 - and performance, 128–45
 - empirical findings on leadership change, 133–6
 - theory, 130–2
 - use of performance information, 136–41
 - definitions, 130
 - interest in, 147–8
 - role in organisational knowledge and learning, 148–53
 - tensions between learning and performance management, 153–6
 - theory, 146–7, see also Beacon Scheme
- Lean (Lean Thinking), 174, 176–9, 181–2, 185–6, 187–8, 190
- Lean Six Sigma, 175
- learning orientation, 151
- learning relationships, and absorptive capacity, 241–2
- Levinthal, D.A., 232
- Lewin, Kurt, 41–2
- Lewis, Derek, 129
- Lewis, M., 112
- local authority chief executive role, 107
- local government, corporate governance reforms, 106–7
- ‘local management of schools’, 108
- lockout, 232
- ‘logic of governance’ approach, 280
- Lorsch, J.W., 111
- managed care, 80
 - impact on quality, 80–1
- managed care organisations, see HMOs
- management team changes, 135–6, see also chief executive successions
- managerial leadership, 148, 151
- March, J.G., 40
- ‘market’, use of word in discussions on welfare reform, 67–8
- Martin, J.A., 254, 255
- Mathur, N., 114
- McKinsey 7-S Framework, 280
- McLean, Iain, 26
- McNulty, T., 105
- MDPMs (multi-dimensional performance measurement models), 280–2
- Means, G.C., 104–5
- Medicare
 - and quality, 84
 - introduced prospective payment schemes, 80
 - mental models, and absorptive capacity, 242
 - messengers, and message, 43–4
- Miller, H., 60
- Milliken, F.J., 112
- Moore, Mark, 114, 284
- multilevel governance, 120
- Municipal Performance Measurement Program, 18
- name and shame, 25
- national benchmarking schemes, 18
- Nechyba, T., 87, 88
- neighbourhood schooling, 87
 - impacts of, 88
- Netherlands, national benchmarking scheme, 18
- network governance, 120
- New Jersey, reduced subsidies for the uninsured, 81
- New Public Management, 2, 100
 - corporate governance reforms in public sector services, 106
 - health services, 107–8
 - local government, 106–7
 - partnerships, 109
 - schools, 108–9
- New Zealand Post, 257
- New Zealand, parental choice in education, student sorting effects, 92
- NHS Ambulance Trust case study, 237–8
- Nietzsche, Friedrich, xv
- Nolan Committee report, 107
- non-executive directors, 100, 102, 110, 119
- Norway, patient choice, 82–3
- O’Neill, Ona, 27
- organisational excellence model, 217, 218, 219
- organisational knowledge, 149
- organisational learning, 149–50
 - and knowledge processes, 227–8
 - and leadership, 150–3
 - as a dynamic capability, 255–6
- organisational strategies, and absorptive capacity, 231–2, 242–3
- Ostrower, F., 114
- output-based payments, 82–3
- paradigm wars, 285
- partnerships, public services governance, see New Public Management, partnerships
- patient choice, 78
 - and flow of patients to hospitals, 82
 - and healthcare quality, 56, 60
- ‘payment by results’ system, UK, 78–9

- peer review, as measure of performance, 56–7
- performance
- in healthcare, 78
 - notions of, 56–8
 - ‘philosophy of science’ issues, 284–6
- performance dimension of board governance
- roles, 103
- performance information
- institutionalisation of, 39–41
 - power dynamics, 41–2
 - psychological dynamics, 42–7
 - use/non-use
 - as reason for poor performance, 48
 - importance of context, 48–9
 - reasons for, 33–4, 49–51
 - study of, 35–9
- performance mechanisms, 2
- analysis framework, 9–12
 - contextual determinants, 11
 - deployment, 11
 - dimensions, 9–11
 - empirical evidence for, 11
 - experiential evidence for, 11
 - multiple mechanisms at the same time, 12–13
 - theoretical evidence for, 10
- performance models, 280–2
- and performance regimes, 282–3
- Performance Prism, 280
- performance regimes, 12–13, 277–80
- and performance models, 282–3, see also CPA
- Perry, T., 110
- Pettigrew, A., 105, 112
- police force inspections, 18
- policy advice model of inspection, 19, 20, 23
- policy entrepreneurs, 45
- policy formulation, 103
- political leadership, 148, 151
- political party control in local government, 134–5
- politics for amateurs, 62
- population ecology theory, 132
- Power, Michael, 1, 18, 19
- presentation, importance of, 45
- primary care organisations, governance, 119–20
- principal–agent theory, see agency theory
- prison inspection, 18
- process mapping, 180
- process use of research, 204
- prospective payment schemes, 80
- impact on type of services provided, 83–4
- public accountability, as impacting performance, 57–8
- public assurance approach to inspection, 19, 20, 22–3
- Public Service Excellence Model, 281
- public service workers, response to competition, 76
- public services reform, 13–14
- policy process, 3–6
 - research of, 6
- public services, scrutiny of, 1
- public value, 283–4
- Public Value model and scorecard, 280
- public, the
- citizen role, 60–3, 68–9
 - client role, 63–4
 - consumer role, 58–60, 68–70
 - electorates’ use of published performance information, 130
 - importance of designating role of, 55, 71
- Putting People First* (HM Government), 65
- Pye, A., 112
- quality gurus, 176
- RBV (resource-based view) of the firm, 229
- regulation, 16–17
- regulation approach to inspection, 19–20, 23–4
- research-based practitioner model, 217–18
- resource-dependence theory, 278
- responsible government model, 130
- RIEs (Rapid Improvement Events), 176, 188–9, 193
- Roberts, J., 112
- Robinson, Sir Gerry, 129
- Rumsfeld, Donald, xvii
- RURU (Research Unit for Research Utilisation), 200
- school academies
- governance, 109, 116
- schools
- and parental choice, 59
 - corporate governance proposals, 116
 - corporate governance reforms, 108–9
 - origins of inspection, 18
- Scott, Colin, 17
- sectarian cultures, xvii
- selective schooling, 87
- Shivdasani, A., 110
- Significance model, 280
- Six Sigma, 175, 176–9, 181–2, 185, 190, 192
- Skelcher, C., 110–11, 114
- skimming, 84
- skimping, 79
- SMART Pyramid, 280
- social care facilities inspection, 18
- social care providers, and market forces, 66–7
- social care reform example, 64–7
- discussion of, 67–70

- social policy, knowledge requirements, 203
- social problems, and information, 34
- social research use, 199–200, 223
- adaption rather than adoption, 209–11
 - as iterative and social process, 211–12
 - assessing quality of evidence, 202–3
 - barriers to, 206–7
 - by individuals, 206–7
 - complex nature of, 205–6
 - diversity of, 201–2
 - importance of context, 207–9
 - interactive models of, 211–12
 - lessons for enhancing, 212–13
 - develop coherent multifaceted strategies, 215
 - evaluate effectiveness, 222–3
 - guiding principles, 215–16
 - improve supply, 213–14
 - knowledge brokers, 220–1
 - question underlying assumptions, 217–19
 - shape the demand, 214–15
 - target a multiplicity of voices, 222
 - types of, 203–4
 - valuing diverse uses, 204–5
- sorting of students, 87
- impact of choice, 90–2
 - spillover effects, 88
 - theoretical analysis of, 87
- stewardship theory, 102–4, 119
- Stiles, P., 105
- Stoker, G., 62
- Stone, M.M., 114
- Strachan, James, 20
- strategic thinking, 103
- strategic use of research, 204, 205
- stress-inertia theory, 110, 119, 121–2
- Sundaramurthy, C., 112
- supervision of management, 103
- surveillance, information as, 40
- sustained interactivity, 211–12
- Sweden
- education market competition, impacts, 90–1
 - national benchmarking scheme, 18
 - parental choice in education, student sorting effects, 92
 - patient choice, 82–3
- tacit knowledge, 149
- tactical use of research, 204
- tame problems, 153
- Taylor, B., 105
- technical problems, 153, 154
- technical truth test, 44
- theoretical knowing, 202
- Three Mile Island nuclear power plant incident, 1978, xv
- Three Pillars, 280
- Total Six Sigma, 178
- TQM (Total Quality Management), 176, 179
- transactional leadership, 147
- transformational leadership, 129, 147
- transformative learning, 230
- truancy rates, massaging of, 76
- truth test, 44, 45–6
- UFO doomsday cult, xvii
- UK
- 1991–1997 GP fundholder system, 81–2
 - increase in inspection, 18
 - increased use of performance information, 47–9
 - latest healthcare choice system, 82, see also England; social care reform example
- UK Prison Service, 129
- unitary board model, 107–8
- Unseem, M., 111
- USA
- parental choice in education, student sorting effects, 92, see also California; voucher systems in education
- utility test, 44, 45, 46
- valence model of electoral choice, 130
- value stream mapping, 180
- van den Bosch, F.A.J., 232–3
- visual management, 180
- voucher systems in education, 85–6, 88–9
- impact of choice on those who exercise it, 88–9
 - impact of pressures of choice on those schools ‘left behind’, 90
 - impact on quality, 87
- waiting lists
- and competition, 81
 - massaging of, 76
- Walshe, Kieran, xvii
- ways and means matrices, 202
- Weiss, C.H., 40, 44, 46
- ‘what works’ lists, 213
- wicked problems, 153
- Winlund, H., 113
- Zahra, S.A., 230
- Zald, M.N., 105