

Contents

- List of figures* [page vi]
Acknowledgements [xiii]
A note on places and maps [xv]
- Introduction [1]
- 1 Prologue: the third-century crisis [18]
- 2 The military response: soldiers and civilians [42]
- 3 Reshaping the cities [97]
- 4 Christianity and the traditional religions [150]
- 5 Emperors and aristocrats in the late Roman West [198]
- 6 Rural settlement and economy in the late Roman West [264]
- 7 The economy of the late Roman West [303]
- 8 Breakdown and barbarians [338]
- 9 The fifth century and the dis-integration of the Western Empire [395]
- 10 Epilogue: AD 200–500, a coherent period? [455]
- Bibliography* [483]
Index [522]