

CONTENTS

Preface	page ix
A Note on Translation	xix
A Note on Portuguese Currency, Weights, and Measures	xxi
1. The “Discovery” and First Encounters with Brazil	1
1. The Letter of Pero Vaz de Caminha	1
2. An Early Report of Brazil	9
2. The Donatarial System	13
1. A Royal Charter for the Captaincy of Pernambuco, Issued to Duarte Coelho on 24 September 1534	14
2. Three Letters from Duarte Coelho to King John III	18
3. A Letter from Felipe Guillén to Queen Catarina, Giving News of Porto Seguro and of Mem de Sá’s Victory at Rio de Janeiro	33
3. Royal Government	37
1. Instructions Issued to the First Governor-General of Brazil, Tomé de Sousa, on 17 December 1548	37
2. The Capital: The City of Salvador and the Captaincy of Bahia. The Treatise of Gabriel Soares de Souza	52
3. A Letter from the Governor-General of Brazil, Tomé de Sousa, to King John III, with Information about the Towns and Settlements That He Had Visited on the Coast of Brazil	82
4. The Governorship of Mem de Sá	88
(a) Letter from the Governor-General, Mem de Sá, to the Regent, Queen Catarina, Concerning the State of Affairs in Brazil, with Particular Reference to Rio de Janeiro and Espírito Santo	89

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19833-2 - Early Brazil: A Documentary Collection to 1700

Edited by Stuart B. Schwartz

Table of Contents

More information

vi • Contents

(b) A Letter from the Governor-General, Mem de Sá, to the Regent, Queen Catarina, Concerning the State of Affairs in Brazil	90
(c) Depositions on the Rule of Mem de Sá as Governor-General of Brazil, Written in Salvador, September to December 1570	93
4. The French Interlude	101
1. Letter from Francisco Portocarrero to King John III Concerning the Abuses Committed by the French in Bahia, the Maladministration of the Governor-General, Dom Duarte da Costa, and the Presence of Pirates at Rio de Janeiro	101
2. Jean de Léry: Excerpts from History of a Voyage to the Land of Brazil	103
3. Corsairs: French Interlopers at Bahia (1614)	113
5. Indians, Jesuits, and Colonists	117
1. The Tupinambás	117
2. Jesuits and Go-Betweens	140
(a) Letter from Father Manoel da Nóbrega to Father Luís Gonçalves da Câmara (31 August 1553)	140
(b) A Jesuit Report: A Letter from Manuel da Nóbrega S.J., in São Vicente, to the Inquisitor-General, Simão Rodrigues S.J., in Lisbon (10? March 1553)	142
3. The Jesuit Establishment	147
4. A Colonist's Critique of the Jesuits: Gabriel Soares de Sousa, "Os capitulos" (1592)	160
5. The Will and Testament of a Bandeirante	192
6. The World of the Engenhos	198
1. Excerpt from a Letter from the Administrator of Engenho, São Jorge de Erasmo	198
2. Cane Farmer Contracts	202
3. Opportunity for Success: Ambrósio Fernandes Brandão, Great Things of Brazil	204
4. Instructions on How to Manage a Sugar Mill and Estate	224
5. The Commerce of Brazil	229
6. The Crisis of Brazilian Sugar	230

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19833-2 - Early Brazil: A Documentary Collection to 1700

Edited by Stuart B. Schwartz

Table of Contents

More informationContents • vii

7. Government and Society in Dutch Brazil	234
1. A Brief Report on the State That Is Composed of the Four Conquered Captaincies, Pernambuco, Itamaracá, Paraíba, and Rio Grande, Situated in the North of Brazil	234
8. Burdens of Slavery and Race	264
1. The War against Palmares: Letter from the Governor of Pernambuco, Ferão de Sousa Coutinho (1 June 1671) on the Increasing Number of Insurgent Slaves Present in Palmares	264
2. Combating Palmares (c. 1680)	265
3. Excerpts from the Will and Testament of Paulo de Almeida, a Former Slave (1752)	267
9. Public and Private Power	271
1. Arguments of the Inhabitants of Bahia against the Suppression of the High Court (1626)	271
10. Religion and Society	279
1. Jesuit Missions: Information for the Lisbon Committee on the Missions, 1702, on General and Economic Matters	279
2. The Inquisition in Brazil: Two Cases	285
11. Frontiers	289
1. The State of Maranhão: A Letter from Father António Vieira S.J. (1653)	290
2. The Ranching Frontier	296
3. The Discovery of Gold	298
Index	305
Maps begin on page xxii	