Sources and acknowledgments

Q. D. Leavis's Introductions to Mrs Margaret Oliphant's Miss Marjoribanks (Chatto and Windus) and Autobiography and Letters (ed. Mrs Harry Coghill, Leicester University Press) appeared in 1969 and 1974 respectively; 'Leslie Stephen: Cambridge critic', 'Professor Chadwick and English studies' and the reviews 'Charlotte Yonge and "Christian discrimination"', 'Hardy and criticism', 'Lives and works of Richard Jefferies', 'Gissing and the English novel', 'Dorothy Richardson: Clear Horizon', 'E. M. Forster: Abinger Harvest', 'The literary life respectable, 1. Edwin Muir; 2. George Orwell', 'Academic case-history', 'Aldous Huxley: Eyeless in Gaza', 'The case of Miss Dorothy Sayers', "'Femina vie-heureuse" please note', 'Lady novelists and the lower orders' and 'The background of twentieth-century letters' all appeared in Scrutiny (vols. XIV, VII, XII, XI, VI, VII, IX, V, IX, XI, V, VI, VII, IV and VII respectively).

The remaining material – which it is not possible to date but which was mostly written in the last ten or so years of her life – including the texts of two public lectures ('The Anglo-Irish novel' given at Queen's University, Belfast in 1980 and "'That great controversy": the novel of religious controversy in the nineteenth century' given in the same year to the theology faculty of Bristol University) is published for the first time.
