PREFACE

The third part of these Illustrations of British plants follows the same general pattern as the first and second and completes the Dicotyledons.

The sequence followed and the nomenclature adopted are those used in Flora of the British Isles, second edition.

The drawings have, once again, almost all been made from fresh specimens and it is hoped that they will be useful in conjunction with either the Flora or the Excursion Flora.

We would again express our gratitude to Miss Roles, who has now been drawing plants for about fifteen years, for the skill and efficiency with which she has carried out the task.

We are greatly indebted to the following for supplying many of the plants illustrated in this Part: Miss J. Allison, P. W. Ball, Mrs J. M. Ball, C. H. Barnes, Miss M. S. Campbell, Mrs P. A. Candlish, Miss A. P. Conolly, Mrs G. Crompton, R. W. David, K. W. Dent, Miss U. K. Duncan, J. S. L. Gilmour, the late R. A. Graham, A. Hackett, G. Halliday, M. K. Hanson, C. B. Heginbotham, Miss J. E. Hibbard, E. K. Horwood, Mrs J. M. Horwood, J. H. Lacey, J. E. Lousley, D. McClintock, Miss E. M. Medwin, R. D'O. Good, C. D. Pigott, M. E. D. Poore, M. C. F. Proctor, C. E. Raven, J. E. Raven, F.
