

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-27105-9 - Humanities in Review, Volume 1

Edited by Ronald Dworkin, Karl Miller and Richard Sennett

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

List of contributors	page vii
Foreword by Richard Sennett	ix
I. THE BODY AND SOCIETY
Sexuality and solitude	3
Michel Foucault and Richard Sennett
A short history of body consciousness	22
Jean Starobinski
The sacred and the body social in sixteenth-century Lyon	40
Natalie Zemon Davis
II. THE NATURE OF ACTING
Acting in everyday life and everyday life in acting	83
Victor Turner
The actor as a celebrity	106
Richard Gilman
III. HOW FORM IN ART IS RELATED TO CULTURE
The breaking of form	127
Harold Bloom
The “I” as an other in poetry	157
Stephen Spender
Music does not flow: constant and variable elements in music’s patterning	186
Virgil Thomson

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-27105-9 - Humanities in Review, Volume 1

Edited by Ronald Dworkin, Karl Miller and Richard Sennett

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

IV. STUDIES IN CULTURAL HISTORY

The occult philosophy in the Elizabethan age 201

Frances Yates

Triumph or downfall of civil society 218

Alain Touraine