

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-27123-3 - Rome and the Greek East to the Death of Augustus

Edited by Robert K. Sherk

Table of Contents

More informationCONTENTS

Volume Editor's Introduction	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
Symbols	xviii
1 Roman mercenary commander of the Ptolemaic garrison on Crete, 217–209 BC	1
2 Treaty between Rome and the Aetolian League, 212 or 211 BC	1
3 M. Aemilius Lepidus and his alleged guardianship of the Boy King Ptolemaios V Epiphanes, 201/200 BC	2
4 Letter of T. Quinctius Flaminius to Chyretiai, 197–194 BC	4
5 Lampsakos honors its citizen Hegesias, 196/195 BC	4
6 Statues and other honors for T. Quinctius Flaminius in the East, 196 BC and after	7
7 King Eumenes of Pergamum and the war against King Nabis, 195 BC	8
8 Letter of the praetor M. Valerius Messalla to the city of Teos, 193 BC	9
9 The Delians honor P. Cornelius Scipio Africanus, c. 193 BC	10
10 Delos seeks to renew friendship with Rome, c. 192 BC	11
11 Troops of the Achaean League aid the Romans against the Gauls, 192 or 122 BC	11
12 Letter of Manius Acilius Glabrio to the Delphians, 190 BC	11
13 Participation of the Achaeans in the battle of Magnesia, 190 BC	12
14 Letter of L. Cornelius Scipio and his brother to Herakleia in Karia, 190 BC	13
15 Two letters from the praetor Spurius Postumius and a decree of the senate, 189 BC	14
16 Letter of a consul (C. Livius Salinator?) to the Delphians, 189/188 BC	15
17 Decree of Elateia honoring the Stymphalians, c. 189 BC	16
18 The Lycian League and its celebration of the festival of the goddess Roma, c. 180 BC	17
19 Letter to the Delphian Amphictiones about King Perseus, 171/170 BC	18
20 Decree of the senate concerning Koroneia, 171 or 170 BC	20
21 Two decrees of the senate on affairs at Thisbai, 170 BC	20
22 Argos honors Gnaeus Octavius, 170 BC	22
23 An Athenian with the Roman army at the battle of Pydna, 168 BC	23
24 Statue of L. Aemilius Paullus placed on a pillar erected previously for King Perseus, 168/167 BC	24
25 Treaty between Rome and Kibyra, first half of second century	24
26 Envoys from Teos to Rome oppose the encroachment of King Kotys on the territory of Abdera, c. 166 BC	25
27 Romans admitted to the Samothracian Mysteries, second and first centuries BC	26

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-27123-3 - Rome and the Greek East to the Death of Augustus

Edited by Robert K. Sherk

Table of Contents

More informationContents

- 28 Decree of the senate concerning the Sarapieion at Delos, c. 164 BC
- 29 A letter of King Attalus II of Pergamum to the priest in Pessinus, c. 159 BC
- 30 Treaty between King Pharnakes I of Pontos and the city of Chersonesos, 155 BC
- 31 Testament of Ptolemaios VIII Euergetes II, leaving his kingdom of Cyrene to the Romans, 155 BC
- 32 Decree of the senate concerning Ariarathes and the city of Priene, c. 155–154 BC or soon afterwards
- 33 Treaty between Rome and Methymna, 154 BC or later
- 34 A letter of the praetor M. Aemilius and a decree of the senate concerning Magnesia and Priene, c. 150 BC or earlier
- 35 Destruction of Corinth and new Roman regulations for Greece, 146 BC
- 36 The builder of the Via Egnatia in Macedonia, c. 146–143 BC
- 37 Conclusion of a letter by a Roman magistrate to the Dionysiac Artists, after 146 BC
- 38 Decree of the senate concerning Narthakion and Melitaia, 140 BC or earlier
- 39 Decree of Pergamum on citizenship after the death of Attalus III, 133 BC
- 40 Decree of the senate concerning the death of King Attalus III, probably 133 BC
- 41 The cult of the goddess Roma in Miletus, c. 130 BC
- 42 Manius Aquillius constructs the first Roman roads in Asia, 129–126 BC
- 43 The city of Bargylia supplies troops in the war against Aristonicus, 129 BC
- 44 Decree of Pergamum to celebrate its friendship and alliance with Rome, c. 129 BC
- 45 Decree of the senate concerning Pergamene land, probably 129 BC
- 46 Samos honors Gnaeus Domitius Ahenobarbus, 129–126 BC
- 47 Roman negotiatores (businessmen) in the Greek East, second/first century BC
- 48 Lete honors M. Annius, quaestor, 119 BC
- 49 Decree of the senate concerning Phrygia, 119 (?) or 116 BC
- 50 Letter of Q. Fabius Maximus to the city of Dyme, perhaps 115 BC
- 51 Epidauros honors one of its prominent citizens, 112/111 BC
- 52 M. Minucius Rufus honored by Delphi, 110–106 BC
- 53 Decree of the senate and a treaty with Astypalaia, 105 BC
- 54 M. Antonius transports his fleet across the isthmus of Corinth, 102 or 101 BC
- 55 Piracy law(s) from Delphi and Knidos, 101/100 BC
- 56 The rise of Mithridates and his war against the Romans, 100–87 BC
- 57 Letter of Q. Mucius Scaevola to Ephesus, 98–93 BC
- 58 The Organization of Peoples and Tribes in Asia, early first century BC
- 59 Exemption of sacred territory from the revenue contracts of the publicans, 89–87 BC
- 59a Parasa-Aphrodisias decides to aid the Romans against Mithridates, 88 BC
- 59b Letter of Q. Oppius to Parasa-Aphrodisias after the war against Mithridates, 85/84 BC
- 60 Chaeremon of Nysa, friend of the Romans, enemy of Mithridates, 88/87 BC
- 61 Ephesus declares war against Mithridates, 86/85 BC
- 62 Two letters of Sulla concerning the Dionysiac Artists, c. 84–81 BC

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-27123-3 - Rome and the Greek East to the Death of Augustus

Edited by Robert K. Sherk

Table of Contents

More informationContents

63	A letter of Sulla to Stratonikeia, followed by a second letter introducing a decree of the senate concerning that city, 81 BC	75
64	A letter of Cn. Cornelius Dolabella to Thasos, 80 BC	78
65	Decree of the Koinon of Asia, 80–48 BC	80
66	Decree of the senate concerning three Greek naval captains, 78 BC	81
67	P. Servilius Vatia in Cilicia and Isauria, 78–75 BC	83
68	Murder of publicans in Herakleia in Pontos, 74 BC	84
69	C. Salluvius Naso honored for his actions against Mithridates, 74/73 BC	84
70	Oropos and the publicans, 73 BC	85
71	Roman naval actions during the Third Mithridatic War, 72–69 BC	87
72	Antonian law concerning Termessus Maior in Pisidia, 72 or 68 BC	89
73	Greek city of Mesambria in Thrace placed under a Roman officer, 71 BC	92
74	Roman businessmen, Roman officials and the debts of a Greek city, 71 BC	93
75	The Greek East honors Pompey the Great, 67–62 BC	95
76	Envoys from Tragurion in Dalmatia meet Julius Caesar in Aquileia, 56 BC	96
77	Letter of a Roman official to the conventus (judiciary centers) of the province of Asia, 51 or c. 29 BC	96
78	The city of Dionysopolis, King Burebista, and the Romans, 49 or 48 BC	98
79	Statues of Julius Caesar dedicated in the Greek East after Pharsalus, 48 BC or later	99
80	Julius Caesar makes concessions to Pergamum, 48/47 BC	101
81	P. Servilius Isauricus restores to Pergamum its ancestral laws and its democracy, 46–44 BC	102
82	Envoys from the city of Chersonesos to Julius Caesar and the senate in Rome, 46 BC	102
83	A letter of Caesar with a copy of a decree of the senate concerning Mytilene, 46/45 BC	103
84	Greek cities honor Brutus the tyrannicide, 44/43 BC	104
85	Letter of M. Antonius to the Koinon of Asia concerning the Association of Victorious Athletes, 42/41 or 33/32 BC	105
86	Letters of Octavian concerning Seleukos of Rhosos, 42–30 BC	106
87	Letter of Octavian to Plarasa-Aphrodisias concerning documents relevant to the city's status, 39/38 BC	109
88	M. Antonius gives foreign territory to Cleopatra, who commemorates the event by adopting a second era, 37/36 BC	110
89	Coinage of Antonius and Cleopatra, 34/33 BC(?)	111
90	Worship of Isis by a Roman officer, his son and friends, 32 BC	112
91	Letter of Octavian to the city of Mylasa, 31 BC	112
92	Octavian dedicates his camp overlooking the promontory of Actium, 29 BC	113
93	Dedication of C. Cornelius Gallus, first Roman prefect of Egypt, 29 BC	114
94	Preparations in Egypt for a military expedition, after 30 BC	114
95	Legal decision by Augustus and Agrippa, and a governor's letter to Kyme, 27 BC	115
96	An earthquake at Tralles in Asia, and help from Augustus, 26 BC	117
97	Two decrees of the senate and a treaty with Mytilene, 25 BC	118
98	M. Vipsanius Agrippa and Julia in the Greek East, 16–13 BC	120

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-27123-3 - Rome and the Greek East to the Death of Augustus

Edited by Robert K. Sherk

Table of Contents

More informationContents

- 99 Greek translation of funeral oration given by Augustus for Agrippa, 12 BC
- 100 Letter of Augustus to the Alexandrians and the proceedings of an embassy, 10/9 BC
- 101 A new calendar for the province of Asia in honor of Augustus, 9 BC
- 102 Five edicts of Augustus and a decree of the senate, 7/6 and 4 BC
- 103 Letter of Augustus to Knidos, 6 BC
- 104 Gaius, son of Augustus, is honored at Sardis, 5 BC
- 105 Oath of loyalty sworn in Paphlagonia to Augustus and his descendants, 3 BC
- 106 Roman legionaries guard the government grain during its transportation down the Nile to Alexandria, 2 BC
- 107 Restoration of sacred writings to the archives of Nysa, 1 BC
- 108 Letter of a governor of Asia concerning a point of law, c. AD 4/5
- 109 Greek athletic contests named in honor of Augustus and his family, c. AD 5
- 110 Early Roman organization of mines and quarries in Egypt, AD 11
- 111 Minutes of an audience in Rome given by Augustus with his Advisory Board to envoys from Alexandria, AD 13
- 112 Augustus sets up the final report of his accomplishments in the Greek East, c. AD 12–14

Glossary

Appendixes

- I Roman names
- II Roman consuls
- III Greek and Roman chronology

Indexes

- I Personal names
- II Gods and goddesses
- III Geographical names
- IV Subjects and terms
- V Translated passages