

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-27734-1 - Shakespeare's Universe of Discourse: Language-Games in the Comedies

Keir Elam

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

|  |         |
|--|---------|
| List of illustrations  | page ix |
| Acknowledgments  | x       |
| List of abbreviations  | xi      |
|    |         |
| INTRODUCTION GAMES AND FRAMES  | I       |
| (i) 'Excellent discourse'  | I       |
| (ii) Shakespeare's language, Shakespeare's comedies, Shakespeare's critics | 2       |
| (iii) Language as action: the speech act                                   | 6       |
| (iv) Language in action: the language-game                                 | 10      |
| (v) Frames for the games   | 18      |
| (vi) Shakespeare and the Elizabethan universe of discourse                 | 21      |
| (vii) The Shakespearean baroque: language en abyme                  | 23      |
| ONE PERFORMANCES   | 33      |
| (i) Language between page and stage  | 33      |
| (ii) Presentational frames: three and a half epilogues and one induction   | 34      |
| (iii) Presentation framed, or the agonies of exposition                    | 40      |
| (iv) The presence of the voice   | 46      |
| (v) Extra-linguistic relations: verbal indices                             | 50      |
| (vi) Trompe l'oreille : verbal icons                                | 57      |
| (vii) All the world's a dialogue: speaking as performance                  | 64      |
| (viii) 'Too long for a play': the work in progress                         | 70      |
| TWO UNIVERSES  | 72      |
| (i) World-creating strategies: contexts and co-texts                       | 72      |
| (ii) 'The world's large tongue': universes of discourse                    | 83      |
| (iii) 'An appertinent title'   | 85      |
| (iv) Beginnings  | 89      |

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-27734-1 - Shakespeare's Universe of Discourse: Language-Games in the Comedies

Keir Elam

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| (v) 'Something that hath a reference to my state':referring and predicating               | 92         |
| (vi) 'I am your theme': on being an object of discourse                                       | 101        |
| (vii) 'So much for the time when': the textuality oftemporality                           | 104        |
| (viii) Endings  | 112        |
| THREE SIGNS  | 114 |
| (i) 'Signify, I pray you'   | 114        |
| (ii) Nomina sint numina : the motivated sign   | 118        |
| (iii) 'So sweet a style': pastoralism and the linguaadamica                       | 136        |
| (iv) 'The songs of Apollo': Orphic effects  | 140        |
| (v) 'The words of Mercury': Hermetic mysteries  | 148        |
| (vi) 'M.O.A.I.': on Malvolio's tetragrammaton(with a glance at Mistress Quickly's garter) | 159        |
| (vii) Syncretic magic, or the idea of the theatre   | 164        |
| (viii) Foul words, foul wind  | 166        |
| FOUR ACTS  | 177 |
| (i) 'This needs must be a practice'   | 177        |
| (ii) Conversations, situations  | 178        |
| (iii) 'Thankful for good turns': fighting for the floor                                       | 185        |
| (iv) 'Lawful meaning in a lawful act': illocutionaryforces and interlocutory farces       | 199        |
| (v) 'My words express my purpose': intention,expression, ethos                     | 212        |
| (vi) 'Make passionate my sense of hearing': per-suasions, perlocutions, pathos     | 229        |
| FIVE FIGURES   | 235 |
| (i) Figurations, configurations, disfigurations   | 235        |
| (ii) 'Out of his five sentences': schemes andthemes                                       | 242        |
| (iii) Said saws   | 275        |
| (iv) Taffeta phrases, three-pil'd hyperboles: thebeyond-the-trope trope                   | 289        |
| Glossary   | 309        |
| References   | 318        |
| Index  | 329        |
| viii  |            |