

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28255-0 - Human Spirits: A Cultural Account of Trance in Mayotte

Michael Lambek

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

List of tables and figures	page x
Preface: Cultural zero	xi
Acknowledgments	xvii
Stylistic conventions	xix
Introduction	1
Fieldwork in Mayotte	1
The cultural basis of trance	4
The model of the text	7
The text of the model	11
PART I: SPIRITS AND HOSTS IN MAYOTTE	13
1 An overview of Mayotte society	15
History	15
The village order	17
Family and kinship	20
Marriage and divorce	21
The position of women	23
2 Who the spirits are not: possession and Islam	26
The place of spirits in Mayotte cosmology	26
Boundaries of possession and Islam	29
3 The nature of spirits: first approximations	34
How spiritkind contrasts with humankind	34
How spirits are distinguished from their hosts	40
Classes of illness	42
The relationship between spirit and host	46
4 The incidence of trance	49
The idiom of illness	49

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28255-0 - Human Spirits: A Cultural Account of Trance in Mayotte

Michael Lambek

Table of Contents

More information

viii	Contents
	The onset of possession in the individual	53
	Possession and sex of host	56
	Sex role and cultural constraints	59
	Relative status among women	64
	Who is possessed?	66
5	Possession as a system of communication	70
	The communication triad	70
	An example: Mwanesha's marital therapy	75
	Spirits and spouses	79
	PART II: THE SYNTAGMATIC DIMENSION	85
6	Negotiation and emergence: the case of Habiba	89
	The negotiations for Habiba's ishima	92
	The emergence of coherence	102
7	Medicine and transformation: the case of Habiba continued	107
	Administration of the medicine at Habiba's ishima	107
	Medicine and rites of passage	115
8	The hidden name: the case of Rukia	124
9	Of affines and annunciations	140
	Codes of status elevation	140
	The significance of naming	144
	Conclusion	147
	PART III: THE PARADIGMATIC DIMENSION	151
10	The trumba spirits	152
	The historical basis of the trumba in Mayotte	153
	Contrasts with the patros	153
	The Sakalava trumba	155
	The Sakalava trumba as a structure	158
11	The world of possession	160
	The rombu at Melekavo	160
	Discussion: hierarchy and inversion	164
	Conclusion: the dialectics of possession	168

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28255-0 - Human Spirits: A Cultural Account of Trance in Mayotte

Michael Lambek

Table of Contents

More information

ix	Contents
12	The spirits as children	172
	Treating the spirits	173
	A humorous interpretation of possession	176
	Conclusion	181
	Appendix: Additional classes of possession spirits in Mayotte	186
	Mugala and rewa	186
	Kakanoru	186
	Mwana 'Isa	188
	Other kinds of trumba	189
	Notes	191
	Bibliography	208
	Index	213