Things to do in the UK: Shopping

Bluewater, 5 miles from the town of Gravesend in England, is one of the biggest shopping centres in Europe. There are over 330 shops, with over 100 clothes shops and three department stores. There are also over 50 cafés and restaurants with food from all over the world – American burgers, Italian pasta, South African chicken and, of course, traditional English fish and chips. Or for a special meal, there are also some excellent French, Spanish and Chinese restaurants with five-star food and service. But Bluewater isn't only about shopping. It's in the middle of a beautiful park, with six lakes for boating and fishing. There's also a 13-screen cinema, a health club, a golf course, and lots of places for children to play. And when you're tired, there's a 'Place of Quiet' where you can go and relax. Bluewater is only half an hour from the centre of London by train. There is also free parking for 13,000 cars. It is open every day, from 10 a.m.–9 p.m. from Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. – 9 p.m. on Saturdays and 11 a.m.–5 p.m. on Sundays.
