

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More information

Index

(Figures in brackets indicate dates or biblical references)

- Abot (or Pirqe Abot), 'Sayings of the Fathers', links and traditions in, 187f
- Abraham, 20; apocryphal documents referring to, 168f, 181
- academy, rabbinic, in Rome, 76; in Jamnia, 120f; removed to Galilee, 125; established in Sepphoris and Tiberias, 125; and Oral Law, 186; at Sura, 189, 197
- Actium, battle of, defeat of Antony, 51, 101, 133
- Acts of the Alexandrine Martyrs, The*, 139, 210
- Acts of the Apostles, list of places inhabited by Jews (2:9–11), 5f, 140; famine in AD 46–8, 28; Syria and Cilicia, 34; Agrippa I (inaccurately called Herod) (12), 54, 112f; Agrippa II and Berenice (25:13, 23), 67, 115; Felix and Drusilla (24:24), 67, 114; expulsion of Jews from Rome (18:2), 75; Paul's visit to Damascus (9), 83
- Adiabene, 18, 23; conversion of rulers of, 26ff
- Aelia Capitolina, Jerusalem renamed, 122f; out of bounds to Jews, 126
- Aelian of Praeneste (Aelianus Claudius), 210
- Aelius Aristides of Mysia, 210
- Agatharchides, 210
- Agricola, governor of Britain (AD 78–83), 67
- Agrippa I, grandson of Herod (Acts 12), 54, 67; granted Philip's territory and royal title, 107, 111; genealogy and early history of, 111; received tetrarchy of Antipas and kingdom of Judaea and Samaria, 111; relations with Caius, 111f; dynastic alliances, 112; popularity with Jews, 112; reference in Mishnah, 112; hostility to followers of Jesus (Acts 12:1–19), 112; death at Caesarea (Acts 12:23), 113; visit to Alexandria, 137f, 139
- Agrippa II, and Paul (Acts 25:13, 23), 67, 115; extent of realm, 115; 139
- Agrippa, Marcus Vipsanius, friend of Augustus, 50; married Julia, daughter of Augustus, 53; co-regent with Augustus, 54; death (12 BC), 54; relations with Herod, 104
- Ahiqar, origin and content of, 166f
- Akiba (d. AD 135), rabbi, support for revolt, 123; death, 125; and the Masoretic text, 151, 184, 192, 193; life and work of, 194
- Akkadian, diplomatic language of first millennium BC, 20
- Akra, Antiochus IV's garrison on, 87; 89; garrison surrendered, 90
- Alcimus, Zadokite high priest (162–159 BC), asked Demetrius for help against Judas, 89, 178
- Alexander, brother of Philo, 137
- Alexander III, the Great (336–323 BC), victory at Issus (333), 7; extent of empire, 8, 141; death, 8, 127; results of his conquests, 11f; burial in Egypt, 129
- Alexander Balas (150–145 BC), appointed Jonathan as high priest, 89, 179; intrigue with Ptolemy VI, 131
- Alexander Jannaeus (103–76 BC), high priest and king, 91; Philhellenos, 91; opposed by Nabataean Arabs and Pharisees, 91f; supported by high-born, 92; murder of Pharisees by crucifixion, 92; Qumran dating, 171; possible Wicked Priest, 177ff, 185
- Alexander Polyhistor of Miletus, 210
- Alexandra, mother of Mariamme I, 100; plots against Herod and execution, 101
- Alexandria, hellenistic city, 86; Jewish revolt in, 116; foundation and extent of, 128; Jewish presence in, 128f, 136ff; cultural centre and Library, 129; visit by Agrippa I, 137f; Greek attitude to Jews in, 137f; pogrom under Flaccus, 138; Claudius' Letter to, 139; synagogue in, 148; gnostics from, 205; Christian catechetical school at, 208
- Amarna, letters, 20

Index

- Amel-marduk (Evil-Merodach), 1
- Amora (teacher), 195
- anachoresis*, definition of, 135
- Ananus (Annas of Luke 3:2, John 18:13, 24, Acts 4:6), high priest appointed by Quirinius, 109; and death of James, brother of Jesus, 115
- Ananias, converted Izates and others, 27
- Ananias, high priest, murdered in revolt, 116
- Anilaeus, Jew of Nehardea, 29
- annona*, corn supply, 53f, 126
- Antigonus I, Alexander's successor in Macedonia, 8, 127
- Antigonus II, struggle with Egypt, 129f
- Antigonus Mattathias (40–37 BC), last Hasmonaean, 17, 25, 99; ruled with Parthian support, 17, 97; titles on coins of, 98; killed Herod's brother Joseph in battle, 99; beheaded, 99
- Antioch in Syria, capital of Seleucid empire, 8; staging post, 23; Jewish population of, 82
- Antiochus III, the Great (223–187 BC), defeat of Ptolemy V at Panion (200), 13, 83, 130; peace with Rome at Apamea (188), 13; death in Elymais, 13, 85; transportation of Jews to Phrygia, 35; confrontation with Rome, 41f; financial and material aid to Jews, 79, 85
- Antiochus IV, Epiphanes (175–164 BC), 13; enemy of the Jews, 14, 87; attack on Mithradates I, king of Parthia (166/165), 14; expelled from Egypt, 42, 87; split in Seleucid dynasty, 85; dedicated altar to Zeus Olympios in Temple, 87f; death, 88
- Antiochus VII (c. 139–129 BC), 14f; lost Parthia, 89; death, 90
- Antipas, Herod (4 BC–AD 39) (Luke 3:1), 106; hosted negotiations between Rome and Parthia, 18, 107; tetrarch of Galilee and Peraea, 105; relations with Aretas IV of Nabataea, 106f; marriage to Herodias, 107; beheading of John the Baptist (Mark 6:17–28), 107; buildings, especially Tiberias, 107; unsuccessfully claimed Philip's territory and a royal title, 107; banished to Gaul, 107
- Antipater of Sidon, 210
- Antipater, son of Herod, designated heir, 104; disgrace and death, 105
- Antipater, the Idumaeon, and Pompey, 74; support for Hyrcanus II, 93, 95; support for Caesar, 96, 136; procurator of Judaea, 96; murder by Malichus (43 BC), 97
- Antoninus Pius (AD 138–161), excellent relations with senate, 69; character, 69; relations with Jews, 125
- Antonius, Marcus (Mark Antony), campaign to Media and death, 17, 51, 101, 133; joins Caesar, 48; triumvir with Octavian and Lepidus (43 BC) 49; marriage to Octavia, 50; and to Cleopatra, 50f, 132; friendship with Herod, 50, 97f; in command of Asia, 97; frees Jewish slaves, 97
- Apamea, peace of, 13, 42
- Apion of Alexandria, provoked Josephus' Against Apion, 210f
- Apocalypse of Abraham, 168
- Apocalypse of Adam, 169
- Apocalypse of Zosimus, 170
- Apocrypha (hidden), periods of writing, 31f; definition of, 155; changes in meaning, 155f; list of books in Septuagint Apocrypha, 156f; Vulgate Apocrypha, 158; English Apocrypha, 158; fragments from Qumran, 182; NT Apocrypha, 198f
- Apocryphon of John (brother of James), gnostic vision, 207
- apologists, replies to attacks of pagan writers, 201ff
- Appian of Alexandria, historian, records three destructions of Jerusalem, 123; 211
- Apuleius, 211
- Aquila (c. AD 117–38), revision of OT translation, 154, 193, 196
- Aramaic, as common language, 20f, 81
- Archelaus of Cappadocia, and Herod the Great, 34
- Archelaus (4 BC–AD 6), son of Herod, 34; ruler of Judaea, 105; cruelty and banishment, 106
- Aretas, support for Hyrcanus II, 93
- Aristeas, Letter of, origins of Septuagint, 153; content of, 159
- Aristides, early apologist, 202
- Aristo of Pella, first apologist against Jews, 202
- Aristobulus I (104–103 BC), high priest and possibly king, 91, 98, 147
- Aristobulus II (67–63 BC), 25f; and

Index

- Caesar, 74; relations with Pompey, 93f; death, 96
- Aristobulus III, 25, appointed high priest and murdered, 100
- Aristotle, Alexander's tutor, 11
- Armenia, relations with Parthia, 16, 28, 35
- Arrian (Flavius Arrianus), historian using Antigonos' account of Alexander's campaigns, 127, 211
- Arsaces, founder of Parthian dynasty, 12f
- Arsinoe II, success in campaigns of Ptolemy II, 129f
- Artabanus I (c. 128–124 BC), 15
- Artabanus II (AD 12–38), 17f, 27, 29, 107
- Artaxerxes I (465–424 BC), 3; supposed letter to Ezra, 22; 152
- Artaxerxes II (404–359 BC), 3
- Asander, ruler of Bosphorus, 48
- Ascension of Isaiah, see Martyrdom of Isaiah
- Asia Minor, 6; geography of, 32f; states in, 33f; presence of Jews in, 35f; Roman domination of, 42
- Asinaeus, Jew of Nehardea, 29f
- Assumption of Moses (Testament of Moses), 163f
- Athanasius, canon of NT recorded by, 199
- Athenaeus of Naucratis, 211
- Athenagoras, 202f
- Athens, destruction by Xerxes and subsequent rebuilding, 10
- Augustus (Caius Julius Caesar Octavianus) (27 BC–AD 14), return of standards and prisoners from Parthia (20 BC), 17; and African province, 41; Egyptian settlement, 42; first use of title, 49; triumvir with Antony and Lepidus, 49; Perusine War, 49f; marriage to Livia, 50; founded Nicopolis, 51; reorganized state by census (28 BC), 51; peace proclaimed, 52; settlement of Spain, 52, Gaul, 52, and Egypt, 52, 133f; the succession, 53; reorganization of provinces (22–12 BC), 53; accepts tribunicia potestas and cura annonae (23–22 BC), 53f; moral and religious reforms, 54; adoption of Caius (d. AD 4) and Lucius (d. AD 2) (sons of Agrippa and Julia) as heirs, 54; becomes Pontifex Maximus (12 BC), 54; adoption of Tiberius as heir, 56; will and Achievements (Monumentum Ancyranum, Res gestae), 56, 133; relations with Jews, 74; relations with Herod, 103f
- Aurelian (AD 270–5), 72
- aurum coronarium*, tax on Jews, 125f
- Avesta, manuscripts collected by Valaksh (Vologeses I), 18
- Babylonia (Babylon), 6; Jews in, 20ff; and OT writings, 30ff
- Babylonian Talmud, 195
- Bar Kokhba, leader of Second Revolt (AD 132–5), 122; evidence from Dead Sea papyri, 122; acceptance as Messiah by R. Akiba, 123, 194; names for, 123; end of revolt and death of, 124; links with Qumran, 172
- baraita* (external) to the Baba Batra, Babylonian, details of canonical books, 152; 195; definition of, 197
- 2 Baruch (Syriac Apocalypse of Baruch), 164f
- 3 Baruch (Greek Apocalypse of Baruch), 165
- 4 Baruch or Paralipomena of Jeremiah, 165
- Basilides (fl. AD 120–40), gnostic teacher, 205
- Bathyra, Babylonian Jewish settlement, 26, 190
- Behistun, Darius I's inscription, 10; Mithradates II's inscription (123–110 BC), 15
- Ben Sira, agreement about content of the 'Prophets', 150; tripartite division of the scriptures (see also Luke 24:44), 150; writing and translation of Ecclesiasticus, 157
- Berenice, sister of Agrippa II (Acts 25:13, 23), and Titus, 67
- Beruriah, wife of R. Meir, 194
- Berytus, council at, 105
- Beth She'arim, sanhedrin moved to, 125, 189; sarcophagi in, 126, 195
- Bethar, siege and capture of, 122, 124
- Bible commentaries, from Qumran, 180f
- Bosphorus, kingdom of the, 35, 36; defeat of king Pharnaces II, 48
- Brutus, Caesar's assassin, 49
- Burrus, adviser to Nero, 62
- Byblos, and Phoenician trade in timber, purple dye, etc., 81
- Caesar, C. Julius (100–44 BC),

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More informationIndex

- assassination, 17, 49; member of first triumvirate, 46; Gallic campaign, 46f; crosses Rubicon (49), 47, 95; and Cleopatra VII, 48, 132; victory at Zela, 48; African campaign, 48; relations with Jews, 73f; writings of, 211
- Caesarea (Maritima), built by Herod on site of Straton's Tower, 102; Vespasian and Titus at, 118; 123
- Caesarea Philippi, see Panion
- Caius (AD 37–41), great-grandson of Mark Antony and Octavia, 55; military experience and early life, 59; nicknamed Caligula, 59; reign of terror, 59; anti-Jewish measures, 59, 74f, 161f; death, 59; support for Agrippa I, 107, 111; proposed statue for Temple, 59, 74f, 111f, 138, 140
- Caligula, see Caius
- Callias, peace of (449/8 BC), 11
- Calpurnius Siculus (AD 50–60), 211
- Cambyses (530–522 BC), son of Cyrus, 7; extent of empire, 10, 141
- Caracalla (M. Aurelius Antoninus) (AD 211–17), Roman citizenship granted throughout empire by, 70, 135, 143; campaigns of, 70
- Carrhae (Harran of OT), battle of (53 BC), 17, 70, 95
- Carthage, Roman conquest of (202 BC), 8, 13, 41; founded from Tyre, 81
- Cassius, Caesar's assassin, 49, 96; supported by Antipater and Herod, 96f; death at Philippi (42 BC), 97
- Catiline, conspiracy of (63 BC), 45
- Cato, M. Porcius (95–46 BC), support for Cicero, 45; suicide, 48
- Cato, M. Porcius Tusculum (234–149 BC), 211
- Catullus, C. Valerius, 211
- Celsus (fl. c. AD 178–80), opponent of Christianity, 201f, 212
- Cerinthus (fl. c. AD 100), gnostic thinker, 205
- Cestius, legate of Syria, and Jewish revolt, 116
- Chain of Tradition, handing on of Law, 187f
- Ch'ang Ch'ien, Chinese ambassador, visited Mithradates II, 15
- Chronicler, his writings, 2ff, 25, 149
- Cicero, M. Tullius (106–43 BC), Pro Flacco, 35, 73; political career, 45; death, 49; Jewish dislike of, 74; 212
- Cilicia, links with Syria, 34
- Cimon, victories against Persians, 11
- circumcision, necessity of, 27; departure from, 86f; forced on Idumaeans, 91; prohibition of, 123; permitted for Jews only, 125
- Claudius (AD 41–54), grandson of Mark Antony and Octavia, 55; election as emperor, 59f; character of, 60f; revision of administration, 60f; in Britain, 61; succession of Nero, 61; death, 61; relations with Jews and Christians, 75; orders reciprocal respect to Jews and others, 138; Letter to Alexandria, 139
- Claudius II (AD 268–70), 72
- Clement of Alexandria (c. AD 150–215), mentions Letter of Barnabas as 'disputed', 199; Christian teacher, 208
- Clement of Rome, Letters of, 200
- Cleopatra VII, and Caesar, 48, 132; and Antony, 50f, 132; suicide, 51, 101, 133; enemy of Herod, 100f
- Clodius Albinus, rival to Septimius Severus, 69
- Clodius, P., opponent of Cicero, 45; made annona free (58 BC), 54
- Codex Sinaiticus, 199
- Coele-Syria, 78f
- Colossae, Essene heresy in, 36
- Columella (Lucius Junius Moderatus) of Gades, 212
- comitia*, named by senate, 38
- commerce, between Palestine and other lands, 36; Roman, 41f; of Phoenician cities, 81; Egyptian, 133; facilities for, in Alexandria, 136
- Commodus (AD 177–92), joint ruler with M. Aurelius (AD 177–80), 69; murder, 69
- Constantine (AD 312–37), and Christianity (311), 19, 73; far-reaching reforms of, 73
- consul*, supreme magistrate, 38; debasement of consulship, 51; suffectus during empire, 66
- Coponius, first procurator of Judaea, 108f
- Copper Scroll, from Qumran, 183
- Corbulo, legate of Syria, Armenian campaign, 18; settlement with Parthia, 62; suicide, 63
- Cornutus, Lucius Annaeus of Leptis, 212
- Crassus, M. Licinius, triumvir, 46;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More informationIndex

- defeated at Carrhae (53 BC), 16f, 46, 95;
crushed slave revolt, 45; plundered
Temple, 95
- Croesus (c. 560–46 BC), 33
- crucifixion, first Jewish use of, 92; of Jesus, 110
- Ctesiphon, 23; referred to in Josephus
and the Talmud, 24, 30
- culture, influence of Greek, 42; Jewish opposition to 'alternative', 87
- Cumanus, Ventidius (AD 48–52), procurator of Judaea, suppression of Jews, 113
- Cuspius Fadus (AD 44–6), procurator of Judaea, suppression of rising under Theudas (Acts 5:36), 113
- Cyprus, Phoenician colonies in, 82; decree against Jews following revolt, 143
- Cyrene (Cyrenaica), 6; history and extent of, 140f; Jewish relations with Rome in, 141f; restoration of, 142
- Cyrus, king of Persia (550–530 BC), 2, 7;
conquest of Babylon and extent of empire (539), 9f; policy, 21f, 25;
defeated Croesus of Lydia, 33
- Cyrus Cylinder, the Restoration of the Jews, 3, 10, 21f
- Damascus, staging-post, 23; capital of Syria/Aram, 79; Jewish population of,
83; Paul's visit to, 83
- Damascus Rule or Damascus Covenant, historical introduction of, 175f; dating from, 176; varying attitude to foreign domination, 176f; description of, 181
- Darius I (522–486 BC), extent of empire,
7; inscription at Behistun and defeat at Marathon (490), 10
- Decapolis, 94, 116
- Decius, C. Messius Quintus (AD 249–51),
first general persecution of Christians,
72; killed in battle with Goths, 72
- Decretum Gelasianum, 169
- Delos, early inscription referring to synagogue, 147
- Demetrius I (162–150 BC), 85; attacks on Judas Maccabaeus and death, 89
- Demetrius II (145–139, 129–126 BC), imprisoned by Mithradates I, 14, 89;
death, 90; intrigue with Ptolemy VI, 131
- Demetrius III, support for Pharisees, 92;
mention in Commentary on Nahum,
177, 179
- Demiurge (workman), gnostic doctrine
of, 205f
- Deuteronomic history, 31
- Diadochi, Alexander's successors, 8, 127
- Diaspora (dispersion), 4ff
- Didache (teaching), dating and content
of, 199f
- Dio Cassius of Nicaea, historian, coup against Hadrian, 68, 71, 122ff; ban on Jews in Cyprus, 143, 212
- Diocletian (Diocles) (AD 284–305), 37;
successes of, 72f; persecution of
Christians, 73; reforms of tax system, 135
- Diodorus Siculus of Agyrum, 212
- Dionysius of Halicarnassus, 212
- Domitian (AD 81–96), 65–8
- 'Donations', vision of Eastern empire by Antony and Cleopatra, 132f
- Drusilla, sister of Agrippa II, wife of Felix (Acts 24:24), 67
- Drusus, stepson of Augustus, 55
- Dura-Europos, 15, 23; excavation of site, 30, 126, 147
- Ebla, (Tel Mardikh), discoveries at, 81
- Egypt, 6; Jewish mercenaries in (455 BC),
11; Roman infiltration of, 42; Tiberius'
attitude to religion of, 74; Caesar's war with Ptolemy XIII, 48, 96; relations with Greek overlords, 127f;
establishment of independence, 129f;
later Ptolemies, 131f; civil war, 131;
settlement by Augustus, 133;
commerce, 133; Roman administration and taxation, 133ff; influence of Greek culture, 134, 138; defeat of Jews
(AD 119), 139
- Elagabalus (AD 218–22), 70
- Eleazar, captain of Temple Guard, 115f;
at fall of Jerusalem, 119
- Eleazar b. Azariah, and Gamaliel II, 189, 192
- Elephantine, 132, 136; temple at, 145
- Elephantine, papyri, date of Nehemiah and Ezra, 3f; evidence of Jewish settlement, 136; folk tale of Ahiqar, 166f
- Eliezer b. Jacob, 191
- Ennius, Quintus, of Rudiae, 212
- 1 Enoch (Ethiopic Enoch), content of,
163; fragments from Qumran, 182
- 2 Enoch (Slavonic Enoch), 163
- Epictetus of Hierapolis, 212

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More informationIndex

- Epiphanius, date of Symmachus, 154;
reference to Aquila, 193
- Eratosthenes of Cyrene, 212f
- Essenes, adherence to the Law, 36;
Herod's respect for, 103; synagogue as opposed to Temple, 148; possible links with Assumption of Moses, 164;
spiritual descendants of hasidim, 172;
description of by Philo and Josephus,
172ff; description of by Pliny the Elder, 175
- Esther, book of, 5
- Euphrates, boundary between Parthia and Rome, 16, 24
- Eusebius, 81, 139, 154, 200; Christians escape to Pella, 118; stories of descendants of David, 121f; revolt against Hadrian, 122f; Christian Church in Judaea, 124; Philo's works,
140; fragments from Papias, 201;
quotations from apologists, 203
- Evil-Merodach, see Amel-marduk
- Exile, beginning of period, 1; differing Jewish attitudes to, 21; OT writings during, 30f; viewed as divine punishment, 31
- Ezra, 3; Persian references in book of, 22;
responsibility for canon, 152, 164; and
Oral Law, 186
- 4 Ezra (Ezra Apocalypse), origin and content of, 164
- Felix (AD 52–60), procurator of Judaea
(Acts 23–4), 113f; murder of high priest Jonathan, 114; recalled to Rome, 114
- Fertile Crescent, the Diaspora, 6;
Alexander's empire, 12, 35
- Festus (AD 60), procurator of Judaea, and Paul (Acts 25–6), 114f
- Flaccus, A. Avillius, prefect in Alexandria, opposition to Jews, 138
- Flavius Silva, capture of Masada, 119f
- Florianus (AD 276), 72
- Frontinus, Sextus Julius, 213
- Fronto, Marcus Cornelius, of Cirta (c.
AD 100–c. 166), opponent of Christianity, 201, 213
- Gabinius, reached the Tigris, 16; in Judaea, 94f, 96f; governor of Syria, 94;
influence in Egypt, 132
- Galatia, history of, 34
- Galba (AD 68–9), 64, 118
- Galen of Pergamum, 213
- Galerius (AD 305–11), and partial reversal of Diocletian's persecution, 73
- Galilee, 125f, 147
- Gallienus (AD 253–68), intellectual opposition to Christian Church and support for Neoplatonist Plotinus, 72
- Gamaliel I (fl. AD 30–40), president of Jerusalem academy, 121, 188f
- Gamaliel II (c. AD 90–110), president of academy at Jamnia, 125, 189, 192;
autocratic behaviour, 192
- Gaons, teachers of Talmud, 19
- Gedaliah, 2f
- Gellius, Aulus, 213
- gemara* (completion), part of Talmud, 195
- Genesis Apocryphon, 168; content of, 181
- Geniza (Cairo), documents from, 154,
166, 181, 196
- genuzim* (hidden), definition of, 155
- Germanicus, Julius Caesar, 55; rivalry with Tiberius, 57f; 213
- Geta, rivalry with Caracalla, 70
- Giants, Book of, 182
- gnosis* (knowledge), religious application
of, 203f
- gnostics, origins of and opposition to,
203ff
- 'Godfearers', Gentiles attending Jewish worship, 74
- Gospel according to Didymus Judas
Thomas, 206
- Gospel according to Mary (Magdalen), 207
- Gospel of Peter, gnostic fragment, 207
- Gospel of Philip, 207
- Goths, raids on empire, 72
- Granicus, battle of the (334 BC), 12
- Greece, 6; Roman settlement of, 42;
Nero's tour of, 63f
- Greek, and 'barbarian', 33; representatives
as emperors, 70
- Habakkuk, Commentary on, from Qumran, 175, 180f; possible identification of Wicked Priest and Teacher of Righteousness, 177ff
- Hadrianus, Publius Aelius (Hadrian)
(AD 117–38), negotiations with Parthia, 19, 68f, 143; cultural interests and tours, 68; the Wall in Britain, 68;
buildings and restorations in Judaea,
122f, in Cyrenaica, 142; hated by Jews,
125; 140; 162; forbade punishment of Christians, 202

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More informationIndex

- haggadah* (story-telling), 32, 165, 168, 197
 Haggai, on rebuilding of Temple, 4
halakah (way), legalistic teaching, 26, 32, 103, 185, 197
 Hananel, Babylonian Jew, high priest, 25, 100
 Hanina (or Hananiah), 191
 Hannibal, flight to Antiochus (202 BC), 13, 41; suicide (c. 183 BC), 13
 Hanukkah, 187
 Harran, 17, 20, 27
hasidim (pious ones), 91; origin and beliefs of, 172
 Hasmonaeans, Parthians show favour to, 14, 25; revolt against Seleucids, 14, 88, 157; as high priests, 89ff; links with Rome, 91; Herod's attitude to, 99f; fortresses of, 103; links with Qumran period, 171
 Hecataeus, Egyptian historian, 84
 Helena of Adiabene, conversion of, 26ff; became Nazirite, 28f; burial in Jerusalem, 28f
 Hellenism, values of, 85f; influence on Judaism, 86f, 103, 138, 176; Parthian attitude to, 14; Herod's support for, 102; in Egypt, 127f, 134; elements of in Essene teaching, 174f; gnostic systems in, 204
 Heracleon (fl. AD 145–80), gnostic teacher, 206
 Herod of Chalcis, given right by Claudius to appoint high priest, 113, 115
 Herod the Great (37–4 BC), besieged Jerusalem (37), 17; and Babylonian Jews, 25f; patronage of Athens and other cities, 36, 102f; friendship with Antony, 50, 100; governor of Syria, 97; co-tetrarch of Judaea, 97; fled to Masada, 97; recognition by senate as king of Judaea, 98; reign of, 99ff; attitude to Hasmonaeans, 99f; marriage to Mariamme I, 99f; relations with Octavian, 101; execution of Hyrcanus, 101; family intrigues, 101f; building activity, 102f; Temple of, 102; rebuilding of Hasmonaean fortresses, 103; respect for Pharisees and Essenes, 103; expansion of territories by Augustus, 103f; relations with Agrippa, 104; designated Antipater as successor, 104; quarrels amongst sons, 104f; opposition from Syllaeus of Nabataea, 105; council at Berytus, 105; death and will, 105f
 Herodes Atticus of Athens, 213
 Herodian of Syria, historian, 71, 213
 Herodias, wife of Herod Philip and Antipas, 107
 Herodotus of Halicarnassus in Caria (c. 484–424 BC), 33; reference to Syria, 78
 Hexapla, of Origen, 155
 Hezekiah, received envoys from Merodach-Baladan, 20; Testament of in the Martyrdom of Isaiah, 160 high priests, descent from Zadok and importance of office, 83, 166; covenant of Phinehas (Ecclus. 45:23f), 85; Menelaus, non-Zadokite, 87; Jonathan, first Hasmonaean, 89f; Antigonus, last Hasmonaean, 17; political appointments of, 109; appointment by Herod of Chalcis, 113; murder of Jonathan, 114; cessation of office, 121; and hasidim, 172
 Hillel, 26, 188f; school of, 190; dominant halakhic interpreter, 190 hisonim (outside), rejected books from the canon, 155
Historia Augusta, biographies of emperors, 71; unrest in Diaspora, 122f, 125
 Hiyya, rabbi editor of tosephta, 197
 Horace (Quintus Horatius Flaccus) (65–8 BC), 74, 213
 Hyrcanus II, 25; and Pompey, 74, 93; appointed high priest by Salome, 93; ruler (67, 63–40 BC), 93, 97; support from Aretas of Nabataea, 93; power restricted, 94f; support for Caesar, 96; ethnarch of Judaea, 96; made unfit for high priesthood, 98; taken prisoner to Parthia, 98; execution of, 101
 Ignatius (c. AD 35–c. 107), Letters of, 200, 201
 Intersacerdotium, 178
 Irenaeus (c. AD 130–202), fragments from Papias, 201; opposition to gnosticism, 204f; teaching of, 207
 Isaiah Scrolls, 180
 Ishmael b. Elisha (d. AD 135), 193
 Isidorus, Alexandrian Greek nationalist, 139
 Issus, battle of (333 BC), 7, 12
 Italy, 6; Jews in, 37ff; subjugation to Rome, 43f
 Izates of Adiabene, conversion, 26f; burial in Jerusalem, 28

Index

- Jamnia, 26; historical importance of, 120; establishment of academy in, 120; Council at, 151
- Jannes and Jambres (2 Tim. 3:8), 169
- Jason, high priest (175–172 BC), support for Jerusalem as hellenistic city, 86; Zadokite, 87; usurped by Menelaus, 87
- Jerusalem, respect for, 4f; destruction of (597 and 587 BC), 20, (37 BC), 99, (AD 70), 67, 119; under Seleucids and Ptolemies, 79f; capture of by Pompey, 94; ruled by aristocratic council, 95; walls rebuilt, 96; Herod's buildings in, 102f; internecine war, 116ff; renamed Aelia Capitolina, 122f; 'ploughing up' or marking of pomerium, 124; colony with three toparchies, 124; idealized in Letter of Aristeas, 159
- Jesus, active in reign of Tiberius (Luke 3:1ff), 58; visited Phoenician cities (Matt. 15:22 and Mark 7:26), 82; crucifixion, 110; references to in Vision of Isaiah, 160f; Son of Man sayings in 1 Enoch, 163; parallel sayings in Ahiqar, 167; relations with Pharisees, 184, 186f; and 'traditions' (Oral Law), 186; possible references to in Talmud, 192; gnostic teaching about, 205f
- Jewish revolt, outbreak of (AD 66), 63, 115; extent of, 116ff
- Jews, attempt to set up places of worship within pomerium of Rome, 73; relations with Caesar and Pompey, 73f; relations with Augustus and Tiberius, 74; relations with Caius and Claudius, 74f, 138f; expulsion from Rome, 73, 75; catacombs in Rome, 75; known as Antiochenes, 79, 82; in Syria and Phoenicia, 82f; in Judaea, 83ff; privileges granted by Antiochus III, 85; uprisings against Rome, 95; Caesar's protection of, 96; united with Samaritans against Archelaus, 106; granted privileges by Vitellius, 111; revolt of (AD 66), 63, 115ff; return to Palestine, 126; in Alexandria, 128f, 136ff; defeat in Egypt (AD 119), 139; rebellion in Cyrenaica against Rome (AD 115), 141; Diaspora in later centuries, 143ff; defence against hatred of in 3 Macc., 161
- Johanah b. Zakkai, 26; established academy in Jamnia, 120f, 189; and Oral Law, 186; establishment of Judaism centred on community, 191; disciples of, 192
- John Hyrcanus (135–104 BC), 15; high priest, 90f, 94; Qumran dating, 171; possible 'Wicked Priest', 179; mentioned in Josephus, 184f
- John of Gischala, assistant to Josephus, 117; in Jerusalem, 118f
- John the Baptist, beheaded by Antipas, 107
- Jonathan (160–142 BC), 89; possible 'Wicked Priest', 90, 178f
- Jonathan b. Uzziel, 191
- Joseph and Asenath, 169f
- Josephus, the Restoration, 3, 22f; Demetrius II and Parthia, 14; meeting hosted by Herod Antipas, 18; Hananel, high priest, 25; Herod's private army at Bathyra, 26; conversion of rulers of Adiabene, 26ff; Antiochus III's transportation of Jews to Phrygia, 35f; forecasts Vespasian as emperor, 65, 117; favourable measures to Jews in Alexandria, 75; life of, 76, 117; writings of, 76f, 81, 211; Jewish population in Syria, 82; Hezekiah and Onias II, 84; Jewish privileges from Antiochus III, 85; delegation of 'the nation' to Pompey, 94; building of Herod's Temple, 103; incidents relating to Pilate, 109f; riot under Cumanus, 113; murder of high priest Jonathan, 114; abolition of sacrifice on behalf of Caesar, 115; in charge of Galilee, 116f; siege of Jotapata, 117; Onias III (IV) in Egypt, 136; refutation of anti-Jewish slanders, 137; instructions to pray, 146; synagogues, 147f; fixed list of the Writings, 150; details of canonical books, 152; Essenes, 173ff; Intersacerdotium, 178; Pharisees, 184f
- Jotapata, siege of, 117
- Juba II, king of Mauretania, 52f
- Jubilees, 160; fragments from Qumran, 182
- Judaea, under Romans, 94ff; settlement by Pompey, 94; divided into five districts, 95; Caesar's restoration of, 96; Herod appointed king of, 98; earthquake in, 101; Archelaus last Herodian ruler, 106; became Roman province (AD 6), 108; military colonies established, 120; Bar Kokhba revolt, 123f; became Syria-Palaestina, 125

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More information

Index

- Judah ha-Nasi' I (AD 135–219)
(nasi' = chief), rabbi, restoration of religious observances, 125; in Beth She'arim, 126; relaxed laws on sabbatical years, 127; chief compiler of Mishnah, 189, 197; life and work, 194f
- Judaism, formation as system of belief and practice, 1; influence of priests from Babylon and Jerusalem, 31; piety of Jews in Phrygia, 35f; Roman attitude to, 74; hellenistic influence, 86f, 103, 176f; Antiochus' outrages against, 87f; emergence of Pharisees, 92; opposition to census (cp. 2 Sam. 24), 109; after destruction of Temple, 120ff; centred on Galilee in later centuries, 147; commendation of in Wisdom of Solomon, 156; exaltation of in Letter of Aristeas, 159; traditions of Stoicism, 162; Essene teaching, 174; early rabbinic, 184ff; establishment of community view of, 191; gnostic systems in, 204
- Judas Maccabaeus (c. 166–160 BC), guerilla warfare led by, 88f; death at Elasa, 89
- Judas of Galilee, armed protest against census, 109, 116
- Judas of Sepphoris, popular leader during war of Varus, 106
- Jude, brother of Jesus, Eusebius' story of grandsons, 122
- Jupiter Capitolinus, supported by Jewish Temple tax, 121
- Justin Martyr, apologist, Bar Kokhba's persecution of Christians, 123; life and works, 202, 209
- Juvenal (Decimus Junius Juvenalis), dislike of Jews, 74, 214
- Kittim (Cypriots), 82, 179f
- Laenas, C. Popillius, in Egypt, 42
- Lampo, Alexandrian Greek nationalist, 139
- laographia*, definition of, 138
- Law, composition of the Pentateuch, 149; emphasis on validity of in Jubilees, 160
- Legatio ad Caium*, list of places inhabited by Jews, 5f, 36; reason for, 59; pogrom under Flaccus, 138, 140
- Leontopolis, Jewish temple and settlement established by Onias IV, 136, 145, 179
- Lepidus, triumvir with Antony and Octavian, 49; retirement of (36 BC), 50; death (12 BC), 54
- Letter of Barnabas, 199
- Letter to Diognetus, 201
- Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum* (or Pseudo-Philo), 170
- Life of Adam and Eve (and Apocalypse of Moses), 166
- Lives of the Prophets, 170
- Livy (Titus Livius) of Patavium, 214
- Longinus, 214
- Longinus, C. Cassius, commander in Judaea, 95
- Lucan (Marcus Annaeus Lucanus), 214
- Lucian of Samosata (b. c. AD 120), opponent of Christianity, 201, 214
- Lucilius Bassus, capture of Herodium and Machaerus, 119
- Lucius Verus (joint emperor with M. Aurelius, AD 161–9), 69
- Lucretius (Titus Lucretius Carus), 214
- Lusius Quietus, legate of Judaea (AD 117), 122, 143
- Maccabees, see Hasmonaeans
3 Maccabees, 161
4 Maccabees, 161f
- Macedonian empire (c. 333–320 BC), 7
- Macrinus (AD 217–18), 70
- Maecenas C., friend of Augustus and patron of arts, 50
- Manetho, author of Egyptian chronicle, 128; reports hostility to Jews, 137
- Manichaeism, 182
- Marathon, battle of (490 BC), 10
- Marcion (fl. c. AD 140, d. c. AD 160), 201; teachings of, 206
- Marcus Antonius Aurelius (AD 161–80), joint emperor with L. Verus (161–9), and with Commodus (177–80), 69; Stoic philosopher, 69; campaigns, 69; Meditations, 69; opposed by Avidius Cassius, legate of Syria, 126; 201; 202f
- Marduk, god of Cyrus, 21f
- Mariamme I, wife of Herod, 99f; execution of, 101
- Marius C., military reforms under, 44
- Martial (Marcus Valerius Martialis) of Bilbilis, 214
- Martyrdom of Isaiah (and Ascension of Isaiah), 160f
- Martyrs, Acts of the, 208f
- Masada, Herod at, 97; rebuilding of, 102;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More information

Index

- Zealots' attack at, 115; 116; capture of, 119f; links with Qumran, 175
- Masoretic text (masora = transmission), 149; origin of, 151
- Mattathias, priest of Modin, leader of Hasmonaean (Maccabean) revolt, 88
- Maximinus (AD 235–8), Thracian soldier, chosen by army, 70; death in civil war, 71
- Megilloth (scrolls), use for sacred occasions, 150
- Meir (fl. AD 140–65), rabbi, 184, 194
- Mekilta (of R. Ishmael), 193
- Melchizedek, Qumran fragment of treatise on, 182f
- Meleager of Gadara, 214
- Melito, Bishop of Sardis, 203
- Memphis, ancient capital of Egypt, 129
- Menelaus, high priest, supported by Tobiads, 87; embezzled Temple treasure, 87; encompassed murder of Onias III, 87; dismissed, 89
- Merodach-Baladan, sent envoys to king Hezekiah, 20
- Mesopotamia, 6, 15; Jewish settlements in, 24; recovered by Severus Alexander, 70
- Messiah, hope of in Psalms of Solomon, 161, in 4 Ezra, 164; coming of in 2 Baruch, 164f
- middoth* (measures), associated with Hillel and Ishmael, 193
- midrash*, 32, 167; haggadic material as pseudepigrapha, 168, 169, 170; Pharisees' involvement in politics, 184; definition of, 196f
- Minucius Felix, Marcus, 214f
- Mishnah (what is repeated), 9; Hananel, high priest, 26; Agrippa I, 112; destruction of Temple, 120; Temple courses (1 Chron. 24:4ff) and ma'amad, 145; care for biblical text, 151; Pharisees as quietist sect, 184; concern with religious and social matters, 186; and the Oral Law, 187, 197; compiler of, 189, 194f; contributors to, 191ff; descent through R. Meir and R. Akiba, 193; definition of, 197
- Mithradates of Pergamum, 48, 96
- Mithradates I (c. 171–138 BC), king of Parthia, 14; captured Demetrius II, 14
- Mithradates II (c. 124–87 BC), extended Parthia to the Euphrates, 15; death, 16
- Mithradates VI (120–63 BC) of Pontus, 44, 46
- Monobazus I, 26f
- Monobazus II of Adiabene, 18, 27f
- Mucianus, support for Vespasian, 65ff, 118
- Munda, battle of (45 BC), 48
- Muratorian Fragment, of the NT canon, 199
- Mysia, importance and history of, 33
- Nabonidus, last king of Babylon, 10, 21
- Nag Hammadi, gnostic discoveries at, 204, 205, 206
- Nahum, Commentary on, from Qumran, 175; possible identification of 'Wicked Priest', 92, 177f
- nasi*' (patriarch), replaced high priest, 125f
- Nehardea, 23, 24, 29f
- Nehemiah, 3; use of Aramaic, 21; and Oral Law, 186
- Neo-Babylonian empire (626–539 BC), scholarly activity in, 9
- Nero (AD 54–68), settlement of Armenia (60–3), 18, 34; reputation, 61f; genealogy and life, 62f; fire and results, 63; conspiracy against, 63; tour of Greece, 63f; Corinthian canal, 64; suicide, 64, 118; appointed Vespasian for Judaeae campaign, 117
- Nerva, M. Cocceius (AD 96–8), policy of reconciliation and choice of successor, 68
- Nicander of Colophon, 215
- Nicanor, general of Seleucus I, 30
- Nicolaus of Damascus, historian and Herod's diplomat, 105; 215
- Nicopolis, founded by Octavian (Titus 3:12), 51
- Nisibis, 23; referred to in Josephus and in the Talmud, 24; 28
- Noah, Book of, 163, 182
- Numenius of Apamea, 215
- Numerianus (AD 283–4), 72
- Octavian, see Augustus
- Odes (of Solomon), Christian character of, 161
- Odes (or Canticles), 162
- Old Testament, writing and editing during Exile, 30f; later writings, 31; history of Syria, 79; Jews in Egypt, 135; content of, 149ff; transmission of text, 151; growth of canon, 151f; links with pseudepigrapha, 168; Qumran fragments, 180f

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More information

Index

- Onias II, high priest (c. 245–220 BC), refused tribute to Ptolemy III, 84
- Onias III, high priest, deposed and murdered (171 BC) (2 Macc. 4:32–4), 85, 87, 179; flight to Egypt, 136
- Onias IV, temple and settlement at Leontopolis, 136; 145; 179
- Oral Law, 149f; origin of, 186; Jewish traditions regarding, 187; 197
- Oreine, one of toparchies of Jerusalem (Luke 1:39, 65), 124
- Origen (c. AD 185–255), Symmachus' translations of Scriptures, 154f; Hexapla, 155; 169; 200; teaching and influence of, 208
- Orodes II (57–38 BC), battle of Carrhae (53), 16f
- Orosius, expulsion of Jews from Rome, 75; 139
- Otho (AD 69), 64
- Ovid (Publius Ovidius Naso), 215
- Oxyrhynchus, literary fragments found at, 134
- Pacorus (d. 38 BC), raid into Syria (51), 17; support for Antigonos, 17, 97; death, 17
- Palestine, 6; under Ptolemies and Seleucids, 8; derivation of, 78
- Palestinian Talmud (or Yerushalmi), 195
- Pallas, financial secretary of Claudius, 61; brother of Felix, 114
- Palmyra, 23, 72
- Panion (Panias, later Caesarea Philippi), battle of (200 BC), 13, 83, 130; added to Herod's territories, 104; rebuilt by Philip (Mark 8:27), 108
- Pantaenus (fl. c. AD 170–90), Christian teacher at Alexandria, 208
- Papias (c. AD 60–130), fragments of Expositions of the Oracles of the Lord, 201
- Parthenius of Nicaea, 215
- Parthia, the Diaspora, 5; period of Jewish history (c. 140 BC–c. AD 226), 7; Mithradates I, king of, and the Seleucids, 14f; struggle with Rome, 10ff, 41, 50; support for Antigonos, 97f; conquered by Ventidius and Antony, 98; peace with Rome, 18, 107
- patres*, patrician senators, 37
- Paul, native of Tarsus, 34; contests Essene heresy among Colossians, 36; persecution with Peter under Nero, 63; earliest sure testimony to Christians in Rome, 75; visit to Damascus (Acts 9), 83; before Felix and Drusilla, 114; Letters of, 198, 201; Marcion's canon, 206
- Pentateuch, priestly recension of, 31
- persecution, of Jews in Babylonia and Seleucia, 30; of Christians in Rome, 63; of Jews and Christians under Domitian, 67f; of Christians by Decius and Valerian, 72; Maccabean response to, 88; of Christians, 123
- Perseus (179–168 BC), contacts with Rome, 42
- Persian empire (539–333 BC), 7
- Persius (Aulus Persius Flaccus), 215
- Pertinax, Publius Helvius (AD 193), attempts at reform, 69
- Perusine War, under Augustus, 49f
- Pescennius Niger, rival to Septimius Severus, 69
- pesher* (meaning or interpretation), in Qumran fragments, 177, 180f
- Petronius, 215
- Petronius, legate of Syria, preparation of Caius' statue, 112
- Pharisees, emergence of, 91; political power of, 92; peace with Salome Alexandra, 92f; Herod's respect for, 103; 177; comments on from Josephus, 184; oral teaching of, 186f; list of the 'Fathers', 188f
- Pharsalus, battle of, 48, 96
- Phasaël, Herod's brother and co-tetrarch of Judaea, 25, 97; suicide, 98
- Philip (4 BC–AD 34), tetrarch of Gaulanitis, Trachonitis, Batanaea and Panias, 105f; coinage inscriptions, 107f; wise rule of, 107f; marriage to Salome who danced before Antipas (Mark 6: 17–28), 108; died without heir, 108
- Philip II (359–336 BC) of Macedon, 11
- Philip V (221–179 BC) of Macedon, confrontation with Rome, 41f
- Philip the Arab (Julius Philippus) (AD 244–9), led thousandth anniversary of foundation of Rome (248), 71; good relations with senate, 71f; pressure from Goths, 72
- Philippi, battles of, deaths of Brutus and Cassius, 49, 97
- Philo (c. 15 BC–AD 45), Legatio ad Caium, 5f, 36, 59, 78, 138; Agrippa's letter on Pilate, 109; incident of shields, 110;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More information

Index

- Against Flaccus*, pogrom under Flaccus, 138, 140; life and works of, 140; mention of synagogues, 147f; description of Essenes, 172f
- Philodemus of Gadara, 216
- Philostratus, 216
- Phoenicia, 6; cities of, 80; shared Canaanite culture, 80; commerce of, 81; alphabetic writing in, 81; colonial foundations by, 81f; Jesus' visits to, 82
- Phraates II (138–128 BC), defeated Antiochus VII, 15
- Phraates III (70–58 BC), alliance with Tigranes (64), 16
- Phraates IV (40–3 BC), 25
- phylacteries, from Qumran, 183
- Pirqe Abot, see Abot
- Pliny the Elder (Caius Plinius Secundus) (AD 23/4–79), 169; description of Essenes, 175; 216
- Pliny the Younger (Caius Plinius Caecilius Secundus) (AD 61–112), criticism of Domitian, 68; approval of Trajan, 68; 216
- Plotinus, Neoplatonist philosopher, 72
- Plutarch of Chaeronea, 216
- politeuma*, definition of, 137; Jewish in Alexandria, 137f; 143
- Pollio, Caius Asinius, 216
- Polybius of Megalopolis, 216
- Polycarp (c. AD 70–c. AD 156), Letter to the Philippians, 200f; and Cerinthus, 205; 208
- Pompeius Trogus, 216f
- Pompey (Cnaeus Pompeius) (d. 48 BC), fixed boundaries with Parthians (64 BC), 16; consul with Crassus (70 BC), 45; member of first triumvirate, 46; death, 48, 95, 161; relations with Jews, 74; siege of Jerusalem, 80, 94; negotiations with Hasmonaeans, 93f
- Pontius Pilate, prefecture of (AD 26–36), 58, 109ff; adverse comments on by Philo and Josephus, 109f; crucifixion of Jesus, 110; character in gospels, 111; dismissal owing to massacre at Mount Gerizim, 111
- Posidonius of Apamea, 217
- Praetorian Guard, emperor's bodyguard, 58; importance of prefect of, 58, 59, 62, 64, 70, 72; size reduced, 67; opposed to reforms of Pertinax, 69
- prefect (praefectus), definition of, 108
- Probus (AD 276–82), 72
- procurators, of Judaea, Jewish revolt against, 63; definition of, 108; Coponius and successors, 108ff; Cuspius Fadus and successors, 113ff; misgovernment under Albinus and Gessius Florus, 115
- Propertius, Sextus, 217
- prophetic books, formation in Babylon, 31; composition of, 149f
- proseuche* (prayer), changes in usage, 146, 147
- Psalms 151, 167
- Psalms of Solomon, 161
- Psalms Scroll, from Qumran, 167, 182
- pseudepigrapha, definition of, 158; preservation in various languages, 158; main books of, 159ff; Martyrdom of Isaiah, 160f; Psalms of Solomon, 161; Odes of Solomon, 161; Odes or Canticles, 162; Sibylline Oracles, 162; 1 Enoch, 163; 4 Ezra, 164; 2 Baruch, 164; 3 and 4 Baruch, 165; Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs, 165f; Ahikar, 167; modern rearrangements of, 167f; haggadic midrash, 168; fragments from Qumran, 182
- Pseudo-Phocylides, 170
- Ptolemy (fl. AD 140), gnostic Letter to Flora, 206
- Ptolemy (Claudius Ptolemaeus), of Alexandria, 217
- Ptolemy I (304–283 BC), extent of empire, 8; worship of Sarapis, 128; 129
- Ptolemy II (283–246 BC), struggle with Macedonia and Syria, 129f; origins of Septuagint, 153, 159
- Ptolemy III (246–221 BC), Library at Alexandria, 129; extension of empire, 130; synagogues under, 147
- Ptolemy IV (221–203 BC), victory at Raphia, 83, 130; 161
- Ptolemy V (203–181 BC), defeat at Panion, 13, 130; loss of Syria–Palestine, 130
- Ptolemy VI (181–145 BC), intrigue with Alexander Balas and Demetrius II, 131
- Ptolemy VII (Euergetes II) (170–164, 145–116 BC), attempts at reform, 131, king of Cyrene (163–145), 141; 162
- Punic War, Second (218–201 BC), 44
- Purim, 187

Index

- Quadratus, early apologist, 202
- Quintilian (Marcus Fabius Quintilianus), of Calagurris, 217
- Quirinius (P. Sulpicius), legate of Syria, 108; census of (Luke 2:1–5), 108f; appointed Ananus high priest, 109
- Qumran, Essene teaching at, 36, 172ff; Jonathan possible 'Wicked Priest', 90; crucifixion of Pharisees possibly referred to in Commentary on Nahum, 92, 177; apparent destruction in Judaean campaign, 118; refugees in Masada, 119f; ascetic life at, 140, 172ff; Hebrew fragments of Jubilees found in, 160; fragments of 1 Enoch found in, 163; literary parallels with Assumption of Moses, 164; possible fragments of Testaments of Twelve Patriarchs found in, 166; Psalm 151, 167; Genesis Apocryphon, 168; investigation of sites and scrolls, 171ff; ḥasidim background, 172; documents, 175ff; 'Wicked Priest' and 'Teacher of Righteousness', 177ff; main documents, 180ff; new material from widespread library, 182f; fragments in Greek, 183
- Rab (Abba Areka, AD 180–247), founder of academy at Sura, 189, 197
- Ras Shamra (Ugarit), 20; excavation of, 81
- Restoration (Return) (from 538 BC), 2; according to Josephus, 22f
- Rome, the Diaspora, 5; empire in Middle East, 8f; rivalry with Parthia, 16ff; history of, 37ff; functioning of constitution, 40f; expansion in Europe and N. Africa, 41f; settlement of Greece and Asia Minor, 42; infiltration into Egypt, 42; provincial administration and corruption, 42f; extension of power throughout Italy and Sicily, 43f; reforms under Tiberius and Caius Gracchus and under C. Marius, 44; Sulla and Civil War, 44f; revolt of slaves, 45; consulship of Cicero, 45; Pompey's successes in East, 46; first triumvirate, 46; granting of imperium to triumviri, 46; power of generals, 47; Caesar secures absolute power, 48; collapse of Republic, 49; establishment of Empire, 49ff; appointment of Octavian as princeps, 51; imperium granted to Octavian, with title Augustus (27 BC), 51f; reorganization of provinces (22–12 BC), 53; moral and religious reforms under Augustus, 54; achievements of Agrippa, 54; 'year of four emperors', 64f; 'Antonine' emperors, 69; struggle for imperial power, 69; conflict between senate and army, 71; thousandth anniversary of foundation (AD 248), 71; attacks from Goths, 72; Jewish catacombs in, 75; expulsion of Jews by Claudius, 75; influence in Egypt, 130ff; racial rivalry in empire, 139
- Rule of Qumran (Manual of Discipline), 181
- Sadducees, 91, 184
- Salamis, battle of (480 BC), 10
- Sallust (Caius Sallustius Crispus), 217
- Salome Alexandra (76–67 BC), Hasmonaean queen, 92; made peace with Pharisees, 92f; relations with Pharisees according to Josephus, 185
- Salome, Herod's sister, family intrigues of, 100f, 104
- Samaria, destruction of by John Hyrcanus, 91; rebuilt as Sebaste, 102
- Samaria papyri, fourth century Sanballat, 4
- Samaritans, united with Jews against Archelaus, 106; massacre by Pilate at Mount Gerizim, 111; temple of Jupiter on Mount Gerizim, 125; version of Pentateuch, 149; early stage of text, 151
- Sanballat, Nehemiah's adversary, 4
- Sanhedrin, Jews from Bathyra supplied chiefs of, 26; suspension of, 121, 124; restored at Usha, 125; presidents and vice-presidents (Father of the Court), 188f
- Sarapis, cult of, 128
- Sardis, Jewish grave inscription (349 BC), 35
- Sassanians, new Sassanid Persian dynasty, 7; supported by Jews, 19
- Scaurus, Pompey's lieutenant in charge of Syria, 94
- Scipio, opposed Caesar, 48
- Scythopolis, inscription regarding Jewish privileges from Antiochus III, 85; member of Decapolis, 94
- Sejanus, L. Aelius, conspiracy of, 55;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More information

Index

- prefect of Praetorian Guard, 58; death, 59; anti-Jewish attitude, 74, 110f
 Seleucids (c. 320–c. 140 BC), 7; decline of, 24f; end of power of, 93
 Seleucus I (312–280 BC), extent of empire, 8, 12, 30, 127
 Seleucus II (246–225 BC), defeat at Ancyra, 12f
 Seleucus IV (187–175 BC), 14, 85
 senate, role in Roman constitution, 37ff; role under empire, 39f; under Sulla, 45; declining power of, 47; revival of under Claudius, 60f; approval of Vespasian, 66; excellent relations with Antoninus Pius, 69; conflict with army in appointment of emperor, 71f
 Seneca, Lucius Annaeus of Corduba (AD 1–65), philosopher, adviser to Nero, 62; suicide of, 63; 217
 Sepphoris, restored by Antipas, 107; joined Vespasian, 117; renamed Diocæsarea, 123; academy established in, 125, 189, 195
 Septuagint (LXX), 146, 149f, 159; arrangement of biblical books, 151; precursor of, 151; origins of, 153; adoption by Christians, 154, 193, 200; list of books in Apocrypha, 156f, 198f; inclusion of Psalms of Solomon, 161; Psalm 151, 167 settlements, of Jews in Babylon, 24; in Mesopotamia, 24; under Seleucids and Parthians, 25
 Severus Alexander (AD 222–35), recovered Mesopotamia, 70
 Severus, L. Septimius (AD 193–211), struggle for power, 69; provincial campaigns, 69, 79; died at York, 69; ban on Jewish proselytizing, 125f; established local senates in Egypt, 135; 143; 154
 Sextus, works of, 203
 Sextus Empiricus, 217
 Sextus Pompeius, 50
 Shammai, 188f; and his school, 190; strict application of Law by, 190
 Shepherd of Hermas, 199
 Sheshbazzar, governor of Judah, 4
 Sibylline Oracles, 162
sicarii, terrorists, 114f
 Sicily, Roman province, 44
sifre (books), midrashic presentations by R. Ishmael and his school, 193
 Silius Italicus, 217
 Simeon (d. AD 70), last president of rabbinic school in Jerusalem, 121, 188f
 Simeon III, moved academy from Jamnia to Usha, 125, 189
 Simon II, high priest (c. 220–200 BC), memorial in Ecclus., 50, 84f; 188
 Simon bar Giora, leader of rebels, 118f
 Simon Magus (see Acts 8:9–24), and early gnosticism, 204f
 Simon the Hasmonæan (142–135 BC), opposition to Hellenism and friendship with Parthia, 14; high priest, acted like king, 90; highly esteemed (1 Macc. 14), 90; murdered by Ptolemy, his son-in-law, 90; possible ‘Wicked Priest’, 179
 Sosius, Antony’s lieutenant, supported Herod in capture of Jerusalem, 98f
 Spain, Roman settlement of, 41f
 Spartacus, revolt of slaves (73–71 BC), 45
 Spasinou Charax, reached by Trajan, 19; 27
 Statius, Publius Papinius of Naples, 218
 Strabo of Amaseia (c. 64 BC–AD 21), reports Alexander Jannæus as first Hasmonæan king, 91; 218
 Suetonius (Caius Suetonius Tranquillus) of Numidia (b. c. AD 69), and Index rerum a se gestarum of Augustus, 56; assessment of Tiberius, 58; death of Caius, 60; Nero and the fire, 63; disturbances instigated by Chrestus, 75; reports building activities, 102; 122; 218
 Suetonius Paulinus, governor of Britain (AD 58–60), 62
 Sulla, reached Euphrates (92 BC), 16, 44; civil war (88–82 BC) and rise to power, 44f; influence in Egypt, 132
synagoge (assembly or meeting-place), 146
 Syllæus of Nabataea, opposition to Herod, 105
 Symmachus, revision of OT translation by, 154 synagogue, 32; at Dura-Europos, 30, 147; building of, especially in Galilee, 126; origins of, 145f; archaeological evidence for, 147f; mention in Josephus and NT, 147; in Alexandria and Antioch, 147f; sacral nature of, 148; geniza in, 154, 155
 Syria, 6, 78; history of during OT period, 79

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More information

Index

- Tacitus (AD 275–6), chosen by senate, 72
 Tacitus, Cornelius (c. AD 56–115), reference to Antiochus IV and Jews,
 14; persecution of Christians under Nero, 63; comment on Vespasian, 67;
 reference to Domitian, 68; mentions
 Simon during war of Varus, 106; 218
 Talmud (study), beginning in 597 BC, 1; rabbinic traditions and sealing of (c.
 AD 500), 19; affinity with Martyrdom of Isaiah, 160; possible references to Jesus in, 192; gemara additions to, 195;
 versions of, 195
 Tanna (teacher), 195, 197
 Targum, character of Septuagint, 153; of Job from Qumran, 183, 196; definition and examples of, 196
 Tarsus, capital of Cilicia, 34f
 Tatian, 202
 Teacher of Righteousness, 176, 182;
 possible identity of, 177ff
 Temple, Jerusalem, rebuilding of, 4; tax collected at Ctesiphon, 24; tax collected in Asia Minor, 35, and in Italy, 73; Caius' proposed statue in, 59, 74f, 111f, 138, 140; tax collected under Domitian, 68; provision for upkeep of by Antiochus III, 79; desecration of altar in, 87f; destruction of Herod's
 (AD 70), 88, 103, 119; profanation of by
 Pompey, 94; Herod's building of, 102f;
 Herod's eagle over gate of, 103; date of completion of (Josephus and John 2:20), 103; sacrifice on Caesar's behalf stopped, 115; tax collected by Vespasian, 121; hopes of rebuilding dashed, 123; temples of Jupiter and Hadrian on site of, 124; need for places of assembly and prayer in addition to
 (Neh. 8:1–18), 145f; as place of prayer
 (1 Kings 8; Isa. 56:7), 146
 Temple Scroll, from Qumran, 183
 Tertullian (c. AD 160–225), Christian teacher from N. Africa, 208
 Testament of Abraham, 168f
 Testament of Hezekiah, see Martyrdom of Isaiah
 Testament of Job, 169
 Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs, origin and content of, 165f; fragments
 from Qumran, 182
 Thanksgiving Psalms, from Qumran,
 182
 Thapsus, battle of (46 BC), 48
 Theodotion, revision of OT translation
 by, 154; 191
 Theophilus of Antioch, life and works of,
 203
 Therapeutae, Jewish ascetics described by Philo, 140
 Thermopylae, battle of (480 BC), 10
 Tiberias, built by Antipas, 107; later importance of, 107; lake named after (John 6:1, 23; 21:1), 107; capture by Titus, 117; academy established in, 125
 Tiberius (AD 14–37), stepson of Augustus, achievements of, 55; adopted as heir to Augustus (AD 4), 56f; received tribunicia potestas, 55f; success in Pannonia, 57;
 rivalry with Germanicus, 57f;
 consolidation of empire, 58; character of, 58; retirement and death, 58f;
 attitude to Jewish and Egyptian religions, 74
 Tiberius, Julius Alexander (AD 46–48), nephew of Philo, procurator of Judaea,
 113, 134
 Tibullus, Albius, 218
 Tigranes, taken prisoner, 15; king of Armenia, 16, 93f; usurped title 'King of Kings', 16; alliance with Phraates III,
 16; 28; 34
 Tigris, 16, 24
 Tiridates II (AD 35–36), 17f
 Titus (AD 79–81), 65; capture of Jerusalem
 by, 67, 119; Arch of, 67; and Berenice,
 67; popularity of, 67; part in Judaeen campaign, 117ff
 Tobiads, virtual vice-regents under
 Ptolemy III and IV of Egypt, 84;
 support for Menelaus, 87
 Torah, support for by Antiochus III, 85f; varying attitudes to, 92; Zealots approved, 98; Agrippa I's support for,
 112; reading of in Diaspora, 145f;
 'fence for the Torah', 151; later
 recensions of, 186; and the Oral Law, 187
 Tosephta (supplement), 148, 195;
 definition of, 197
 Trajan (M. Ulpius Traianus) (AD 98–117), disputes with Parthia, 18f, 30, 143;
 background and successes, 68;
 settlement with Cyrenaica, 141f
 Treatise of Shem, 170
 tribunes, of the people, 38f; growth in power, 45
 triumphs, Roman, 40; of Caesar (46 BC),

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-28557-5 - The Jewish and Christian World 200 BC to AD 200

A. R. C. Leaney

Index

More informationIndex

- 48; of Augustus (29 BC), 52; of Pompey, 94; of Titus, 119; of Marcus Aurelius, 126
- Trypho, pretender to Syrian kingdom, supported by Jonathan, 89f
- Ugarit, see Ras Shamra
- Ur of the Chaldees, 20
- Valentinus (fl. AD 140), gnostic teachings of, 205f
- Valerian (AD 253–60), defeated at Edessa (260), 19; persecution of Christians by, 72
- Valerius Maximus, 218
- Varro, M. Terentius of Reate, 218
- Varus, suppression of Judaeen rebellion (4 BC), 56, 106; suicide (AD 9), 56f
- Velleius Paterculus of Campania, 218
- Vergil (Publius Vergilius Maro) of Andes (70–19 BC), 52, 218f
- Vespasian (Titus Flavius Vespasianus) (AD 69–79), in Judaea, 63, 65; campaigns in Britain, Africa and Judaea, 65, 117ff; support for imperial candidature of, 65; claim to accession, 66, 118f; building in Rome, 66; restoration of military discipline and other successes, 67; establishment of military colonies in Judaea, 120
- Vision of Isaiah, see Martyrdom of Isaiah
- Vitellius, legate of Syria, 18, 107; ordered Pilate to Rome, 111; granted privileges to Jews, 111
- Vitellius, Aulus (AD 69), 64f, 118f
- Vitruvius Pollio, 219
- Vologeses I (AD 51–76), reaction against Hellenism, 18; 28
- Vonones I (AD 7–12), 17
- Wall, Hadrian's (AD 23), 68
- War Scroll, 181f
- Weidner Tablets, 2
- Wicked Priest, the, 90; possible identity of, 177ff
- Xerxes (486–465 BC), son of Darius I, 10, 22
- Zealots, origin of, 98; attacked Romans in Masada, 115; supremacy in Jerusalem, 118; at fall of Masada, 119f; contrast with hasidim, 172
- Zechariah, rebuilding of Temple, 4
- Zenon papyri, Zenon's visit to Tobias, 84
- Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, 4, 10
- Zeugma, 23
- Zeus Olympios, altar to ('Abomination of Desolation' Dan. 11:31; 12:11; 1 Macc. 1:54; Mark 13:14, etc.), 87f