EDITOR'S PREFACE

One of the pleasures of editing this Festschrift for Maurice Dobb has been the warmth of the response—from so many people, in so many parts of the world—to all my requests for contributions, advice and assistance. I have had the invaluable co-operation of the Editorial Board and of Piero Sraffa in the planning of this volume; Ezra Bennathan, Ruth Feinstein, Michele Salvati and Bob Rowthorn have helped me with translations from German, Russian, Italian and matrix algebra; and Jennifer Warren did most of the work for the compilation of the bibliography.
