

Contents

Introduction	vii
About the contributors	xvi
Part I. Aspects of existential sociology	1
1 Existential sociology Jack D. Douglas	3
Part II. The fundamental issues and existential sociology	75
2 The emergence of existential thought: philosophical perspectives on positivist and humanist forms of social theory Richard H. Brown	77
3 The existential thought of Jean Paul Sartre and Maurice Merleau-Ponty Andrea Fontana and Richard Van de Water	101
Part III. The phenomenological sociologies and existential sociology	131
4 The sociology of Alfred Schutz David L. Altheide	133
5 Ethnomethodology and existential sociology John M. Johnson	153
6 Practical reasoning in action John P. Anderson	174

Part IV. Beyond the rational frontwork	199
7 Behind the rational appearances: fusion of thinking and feeling in sociological research John M. Johnson	201
8 Occasioned transcendence John M. Johnson	229
Part V. The existential self	255
9 The chronic pain experience Joseph A. Kotarba	257
10 The existential self in the gay world Carol A. B. Warren and Barbara Ponse	273
Appendix: the origins of existential sociology Jack D. Douglas	291
Notes	299
Bibliography	309
Index	323