Preface

Parts of this study have appeared in different form in The Bulletin of Hispanic Studies (1971), Symposium (1975) and J. Ortega (ed.), Convergencias y divergencias (1973). The reader should be warned that the translations are all my own and are merely literal aids to a reading of the originals and in no way pretend to literary self-sufficiency. My thanks are due to the Fondo de Cultura Económica for permission to quote from Libertad bajo palabra, and to Editorial Joaquín Mortiz for permission to quote from Salamandra and Ladera este. Finally, many people, not least Sr Octavio Paz himself, have generously contributed to the elaboration of this study; I will not write a list as the debts are too complex and numerous, except mentioning the late Professor R. O. Jones who in a subtle and intelligent way started me off in the pleasure of criticism and Michael Black who skilfully tidied up my manuscript.
