Acknowledgements

I wish to express my gratitude to the Canada Council and to York University, who aided me in the preparation of this book with Research Grants, and to the dramaturgical staffs of various German and Swiss theatres, without whose assistance and co-operation this study would hardly have been possible. In particular I am grateful to Peter Palitzsch and Claus Peymann for drawing certain productions to my attention and answering my questions, to the various actors who gave me details of their roles, and to the colleagues and friends who offered me encouragement and advice: among others Professor Ann Saddlemyer, Dr Walter Huder, Dr Gilbert Mackay, and Diane Speakman. I would also like to thank the librarians of the Taylorian Institute in Oxford and the Akademie der Künste in West Berlin, David Hamer and Gabriele Engelmann who acted as my research assistants, as well as Ilse Buhs, Rosmarie Clausen, Günter Englert, Werner Schloske, Daisy Steinbeck and Hildegard Steinmetz for giving me permission to use their photographs as illustration. Last, but by no means least, my sincere thanks go to my wife for her criticism, patience and support.
