

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More information

Index

- Abraham, William ('Mabon'), S. Wales miners' leader, 37
- Adamson, Westgarth, miner, preacher, and radical, 177–8, 186–7; joins Labour Party, 185; in lock-out of 1926, 206; sermons by, 100–1
- addresses, by Methodist speakers, 96, 103–4
- age, status conferred by, 246
- Aged Miners' Homes, 84, 157, 164
- agriculture: in Deerness valley, 64, 68; depression of 1870s in, 29; miners drawn from, 67
- Alden, Percy, M.P., 60
- Amalgamated Society of Engineers, 32
- Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, 32–3
- Anglo-Boer war, 33; opposition to, 35, 47, 59, 62, 63
- Anti-Sweating League, 59
- arbitration between employers and men, 92; Methodist belief in, 189; Pease in favour of, 80, 87, 90, 157; unions' support for, 158
- asceticism, inner-worldly, 20–1, 22; of Methodism, 26, 105, 119, 191; reserve and restraint accompanying, 148; as theme of sermons, 98
- Asquith, H. H., 49, 50, 51
- Bailey, Ben, left out of list of chapel trustees for being left-wing, 168
- Band of Hope, 126, 130, 192
- baptisms, 'superstitious' beliefs about, 94
- Baptists, 57, 125; in Deerness Valley, 70, 74, 82, 242
- Barren, Robert, checkweighman at Cornsay Colliery, 85, 161, 166; offices held by, 162
- Beaumont family, and London Lead Company, 90
- Bell, Richard, L.R.C.-supported M.P. for Derby, 34
- Besant, Annie, 22
- Bible: higher criticism of, 99, 177, 181; radicals use language of, 225; study of, at Sunday schools, 106, 111–12
- Bible classes, 104, 105, 119; discussions at, 169, 170, 174
- Binns, Thomas, missionary and temperance worker in Deerness Valley, 83
- blacklegs: in Cambrian Combine strike, 42; in lock-out of 1926, 86, 167, 204–205, 206–7, 208, 210
- Blatchford, Robert, 171, 172
- bond system, D.M.A. negotiates abolition of (1872), 36
- Bone, under manager at Waterhouses colliery, 85
- Boyne, Lord: coal royalties received by, 68; gives land for chapels, 82
- Bradlaugh, Charles, 104
- Brancepeth, part of Deerness Valley in parish of, 71
- Brandon and Deerness Valley (Methodist) circuit, 70–1
- brick-making, in Deerness Valley, 66, 81, 245
- British Socialist Party (1911), 35, 44
- British Workmen's Public Houses, 83
- Brotherhood Church, 171, 225
- Browell, under manager at Cornsay Colliery, 85, 193
- Burleigh, Richard, school attendance officer and preacher, on Christian Socialism, 169
- Burnham, William, chapel trustee at Waterhouses, 135
- Burnip, William, Methodist leader in Crook: and founding of Waterhouses chapel, 95
- Burns, John, M.P., 48
- Burt, Thomas, M.P., 157
- bus service, in Deerness Valley, 64, 216
- Cairns, solicitor's clerk and preacher, on fringe of I.L.P., 176
- Cambrian Combine strike (1910–11), 40, 42
- Campbell, R. J., 57, 176, 228; The New Theology by, 99, 174, 202, 227
- Campbell-Bannerman, H., 47, 50
- capital punishment, campaign for abolition of, 84
- Carlyle, Thomas, Methodists on, 99
- Carnegie, Andrew, Esh Winning Methodists receive grant for organ from, 12, 29

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- Carpenter, Edward, J. G. Harrison and, 171, 198, 225
- cash nexus, emergence of, 3, 5; Quakers and, 78
- census reports, for Deerness Valley, 67–68
- chapels (Methodist), in Deerness Valley, 70–1; gifts for building of, 81–2; land for building of, 76, 82, 135; problems arising on closing of, 124, 136; renting of, for payment of unemployment benefit, 211; trustees for, see trustees
- checkweighmen, 16, 36, 87
- Cheek, Alfred (son of D. Cheek), miner, Methodist, member of I.L.P., 170, 178; imprisoned (1926), 206
- Cheek, Charlie, Jack, and Joe (sons of D. Cheek), miners, Methodists, members of I.L.P., 170, 178
- Cheek, David, hewer, non-Methodist, Liberal, 154, 181; in Citizens' League, 162, 193; offices held by, 145, 162, 170, 175–6
- Chinese labour in S. Africa, 35, 48
- choirs of Methodist chapels, 115–16, 216; dismissals from, 138
- cholera, 152
- Christian Endeavour meetings, 126, 129, 130
- Christian Science, 171, 173
- Christian Social Brotherhood (1898–1903), 60
- Christian Social Union, 55, 56, 60
- Christian Socialist League (1894–8), 60
- Christian Socialists, 54–63, 169
- church, development of sect into, 120–3, 133
- Church Commissioners, coal royalties paid to, 71, 72
- Church of England: in Deerness Valley, 70, 71–2, 83; in Education Act debate, 76, 192; electoral rolls of (1931–66), in Hamsteels and Waterhouses, 72, 242; relations of Methodists with, 76, 77; seen by Methodists as associated with drink trade and Tory party, 76, as associated with colliery owners, 180, as closed group, 127, 237, 238, and as countenancing gambling, 142; supporters owners (1926), 203, 204, 207, 212
- Citizens' League, opposing 1902 Education Act, 162, 163, 192–3
- Clarion Clubs, 35
- class conflict: Methodism and, 13, 23–4, 26; Socialism and, 12
- class consciousness, 14; as form of deviance in period discussed, 17; Methodism inhibits development of, 26; preceded by trade union consciousness, 18, 43
- class meetings of Methodists, 118, 119
- Clifford, John, Christian Socialist, 57, 60
- Clough, T., miner, preacher, union lodge secretary, member of I.L.P., 170, 184, 201; in lock-out of 1926, imprisoned, 204, 205, evicted from house and employment, 208, and struck off preachers' list, 211, 215; triumphant return of, to village, 215, and election of, to R.D.C., 208
- coal: cost of mining, 89; exports of, 16, 28, 30, 36, 45; free, for miners, 147, 154; gifts of, to poor, 81; 157; miners' strategy of restricting output of, 38, 86, 88; price of, for ironworks, 158, 159; production of, in county Durham (1880–1905), 29; sliding scale system of tying miners' wages to price of, 37, 39, 81, 88, 158; from tips, 87, 210
- coal mines: closure of, causes loss of contact between Methodists and non-Methodists, 215; government control of, in war-time, 30–1; nationalisation of, 17, 31, 45, 161; percentage of population employed in (Brandon and Byshottles U.D.), 243; run-down of (1951 onwards), 31
- coke ovens, 75, 244
- collectivism, not readily accepted by Methodists, 186
- colliery managers, 84–6, 156; not involved in choice of Methodist ministers, 144
- colliery owners, 78–84, 156, 224; lock-out by (1926), 203, 210; mostly Liberals, 145; as Non-conformists, united with Methodists in opposition to brewers and 1902 Education Act, 195; and Non-Political Union, 209; patrons of Methodist chapels, 150–1, but not involved in choice of ministers, 144
- communion service, of Methodists and of Church of England, 127
- compromise, industrial, 37, 92, 151, 229; end of, 154; rejected by J. G. Harrison, 174; stressed by Methodists, 63, 145–6, 167
- Congregationalists, 56, 57
- conscientious objection (First World War), 198–200, 201–2; association of I.L.P. with, 176–7, 182; conflicts within Methodism over, 227
- conscription, 49
- Conservative Party: and drink trade, 76, 160, 192; and Ireland, 49; and First World War, 49
- Conspiracy and Protection of Property Act (1875), 31
- conversion: experience of, in Methodism, 23, 93, 96, 103; of drunkards, 142; worldly consequences of, 142
- conversionist sects, 120, 121; Methodism begins as, 123
- Cooke, Edward, smallholder and I.L.P. member, 169, 176

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- co-operation, industrial, 60
 Co-operative stores in Deerness Valley: credit from (1926), 203, 211; late opening of, on Fridays, 130; manager of, a leading Methodist, 74; Methodists as office-holders in, 155, 162–4; savings in, 143; as sources of employment, 73
 Cornsay Colliery (village), owned by Ferens and Love, 64, 66, 78, 81; arrival of Methodists in, 135; in lock-out of 1926, 207; Methodist chapel in, 82, 250; Methodist membership in (1935–68), 241; Methodists in I.L.P. in, 170–7; occupations in, 244; population of, 68; voting for and against strikes by union members in, 165 corporations, industrial: growth of, 29
 Craddock, George, miner, Methodist, member of I.L.P., 170, 176; in women's suffrage movement, 171 craftsmen, capitalism and, 3
 Crawford, William, Methodist, Durham miners' leader, 12, 37, 157, 158 crimes of violence in Deerness Valley, 140, 141, 179–80; decline in, 152
 Crofton, manager at Esh Winning colliery, 84–5, 87, 88, 156, 166
 Crook Circuit Methodists: resolution of, on industrial situation (1926), 213
 Curry, Michael, manager at Cornsay Colliery, 82, 84, 85, 86; on bench (1926), 204; on Lanchester tribunal (First World War), 199
 Dack, James, missionary and temperance worker in Deerness Valley, 83, 160
 Deerness Valley, 64–8; history of Methodism in, 134–6; population of, 66, 67–8, 140; 'the Singing Valley', 115
 Deerness Valley Temperance and Prohibition Association, 192
 Derbyshire coalfield: housing in, 64; Labour Party in, 189–90; miners' unions in, 37, 183 disestablishment, Welsh concern with, 182 domestic servants, offers to employ miners as, 154
 Dove, Sam, hewer and checkweighman, Liberal, 145, 166; and Labour Party, 168; offices held by, 162; speaks at presentation to manager, 167 dramaturgical method of research, 235–236 drink trade: Conservative Party and, 76, 160, 192; issue in 1905 election, 48, 107; Methodist opposition to, 108, 227 drunkenness, in Durham coalfield, 140, 141, 147, 179, 192; fall in, 152
 Dublin, strike in, 41, 42
 Dukhobors, 225
 Dunglass, Lord (Sir Alec Douglas Home), 154
 Dunnico, Herbert, M.P., 61
Durham Chronicle (Liberal), reports temperance activities, 192
 Durham coalfield: differences between Yorkshire coalfield and, 15–16, 17, 28; export of coal from, 16, 28, 36; miners' unions in, 36, 37; wages and unemployment in, 46; worked from west to east, 31, 66
 Durham county: population of, 66, 67; results of elections in constituencies of (1885–1910), 52, 53
 Durham County Council, first to be Labour-controlled (1919), 52
 Durham Diocesan Society for the Employment of Additional Clergy, 71
 Durham Miners' Association (D.M.A.), founded 1869, 36; affiliates to Labour Party, 40; Annual Gala of, 39, 44, 141, 158, 179, 188; breaks with Liberal Party (1908–9), 184, 185; call to expel conscientious objectors from, 200; and compensation for death of blackleg, 206; I.L.P. resolutions to, 183; lodge banners of 146, 229; Methodist office-holders in, 161, 162–164; Socialists elected to executive committee of, (1898), 39; only union recognised by Owners' Association, 209; voting for and against strikes by members of, compared with national vote, 165
 Durham Miners' Progressive Federation, 175
 Durham Miners' Reform Association, 175, 181
 East Hedleyhope (village), 64, 141, 157; colliery at, 79 ecumenism, 122, 123; irrelevant to social life of chapels, 228; see also Methodist-Anglican union education: advocated by colliery owners, 79–80; Church of England and, 77; sacrifices of Methodist parents to obtain, for their children, 143
 Education, Royal Commission on (1871), 79
 Education Act (1902): issue in 1905 election, 48, 109; Liberals and L.R.C. stand together on, 35, 49; Methodist opposition to, 159, 227; modifications of (1909), 194; passive resistance to, 60, 160, 192–3
 Education Act (1918), 'Geddes axe' and, 45 eight-hour day: campaign for, 16, 17, 40, 47, 89, 175; legislation on, 39, 42, 159; opposed by Durham and Northumberland miners, 38–9, 47–8, 183 elections: general, (1905) 43, 48, 107, 109, (1910) 41, (1918) 50, (1922,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- elections: general – contd.
 1923, 1924), 45; local, in Deerness Valley (1877), 68; results of general, in county Durham constituencies (1885–1910), 52, 53
- elective affinity: between clusters of ideas, 120; between religious and other ideas, 23, 26
- Ellis, Connie, women's suffrage leader, 171, 177, 200
- Emerson, R. W., 57; Methodists and, 104, 171, 199, 225
- Employers' Parliamentary Council, 32, 43
- endogamy, among Methodists, 127, 129
- Engineering Employers' Federation, 32
- entertainment, commercial, 215–16
- equality: assumption of, by Methodists and trade unionists, 223
- Esh Winning (village), owned by Pease and Partners, 64, 78; Baptists in, 82; colliery at, 65, 68, 153, 244; housing in, 66, 68; Irish in, 75; leisure activities in, 84–5, 131, 141; in lock-out of 1891, 86–7; in lock-out of 1926, 204, 208, 210; Methodist chapels in, 82, 135, 136; Methodist membership in (1935–68), 241; Methodists in D.M.A. lodge in, 161; Methodists oppose licence for new public house in, 192; Non-Political Union in, 208; occupations in, 244; occupations of Methodist leaders in, 251, 252; population of, 68; proposed temperance hall in, 193; recruits from (and casualties), First World War, 200; Roman Catholics in union lodge at (1966), 214; shops in, 73; voting for and against strikes by union members in, 165, 166
- ethics: Gladstone's mixture of prudence and, 47; of older men, 153; recognition of differences between Methodists and others in, 125, 237, 238; in Sunday school lessons, 107–11; tension between politics and, 101
- evangelical revival (1739), Halévy on, 6–7
- Evans, Isaac, S. Wales miners' leader, 37
- examinations: for local preachers, 145; for teachers and scholars at Sunday schools, 110, 111
- Fabian Society, 4, 34; Christian Socialists and, 60, 62
- Faulker, Bella (Mrs J. G. Harrison), women's suffrage leader, 171
- Fenianism, in county Durham, 75, 76
- Fenwick, Revd J., 99
- Ferens, colliery owner, Methodist circuit steward, 84, 251; gives coal for poor, 157
- Ferens and Love, colliery owners at Cornsay, 64, 89
- finances of Methodist societies, 133–4; effects of 1926 on, 211, 216; fund-raising activities for, 130; and house for minister, 149; rationalisation of, and fund-raising activities, 123, 136
- Findley, Isaac, Methodist, speaks for miners at presentation to manager, 167
- First World War: casualties in, 200; coal mines during, 30; cost of living during, 29; Labour Party during, 44; and Liberal Party, 49; Methodist attitude to, 196–7, 214; pacifists in, 62; sermons during, 102; temperance work during, 108
- Fitzpatrick, James, chapel trustee at Waterhouses, 135, 192; offices held by, 162
- Flanagan, Revd James, speaker on work in E. End of London, 135
- Fletcher, G., manager at Hamsteels colliery, 85
- Foster, D. B., Methodist and socialist, 59
- Foster, William, coke-burner and preacher: offices held by, 163; sermon register of, 102
- Fox, George, J. G. Harrison and, 171, 174, 198
- Free Church Socialist League (1909), 60–1
- free trade, debate on, 30, 50
- funerals: of conscientious objector, 200; as expressions of communal solidarity, 69, 216, 221
- Gainford, Lord (J. A. Pease), 90
- Galbraith, S., Lib.-Lab. M.P. for Spennymore, 52, 160, 179, 197; D.M.A. secretary, 161
- Galley, George, preacher, member of I.L.P. group, 176
- gambling: Labour Party and, 187; Methodist disapproval of, 96, 108, 119, 131, 142; Peases and, 83; resolutions of Methodist quarterly meetings on, 159; as a serious problem in Deerness Valley (1909), 141
- Garr, S., chairman of Esh Winning Union lodge, imprisoned (1926), 204
- 'Geddes axe', 45
- General Strike (1926), 46, 161, 203, 210
- George, Henry, influence of, 55, 56, 61
- Gibbon, George, miner, spiritualist, member of I.L.P., 170
- Gladstone, W. E., 47–8, 224
- Godwin, William, J. G. Harrison and, 171
- gold standard, return to (1925), 46
- Good Templars, Independent Order of, 130, 192
- Gore, Charles, 56, 60
- Gott, T., founder of Waterhouses Labour Party, 169, 184

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- Grayson, Victor, M.P., 35, 60
 Green, T. H., 55, 61
 Greener, agent for colliery owners, 87
 Guild of St Matthew (1877–1909), 55
- Hague Conference (1907), 48
 Hammell, James, labourer and then shopkeeper, 143, 160; on military service tribunal, 199, 200; offices held by, 163
 Hamsteels (hamlet), owned by Johnson and Reay, 64, 78; Church of St John the Baptist at, 72, 242; colliery at, 65, 180; in lock-out of 1926, 207; rugby football team from, 84; voting for and against strikes by union members at, 165, 166; see also Quebec-Hamsteels
 Hardie, Keir, M.P. for Merthyr, 34, 40, 173, 175, 202
 Harrison, Esther, women's suffrage leader, 171
 Harrison, John, miner and preacher, 101, 169, 175; addresses by 101, 102, 104–5, 114
 Harrison, John George (son of John), preacher and I.L.P. member, 170, 178, 181, 183; authors read by, 171–172; imprisoned as pacifist (First World War), 198, 199, 200; views of, 172–4; in women's suffrage movement, 171
 Harrison, Joseph, shopkeeper, Liberal: in conflict with Catholic Church over land for chapel, 76, 135; offices held by, 163, 170; in protest against 1902 Education Act, 192
 Harrison, William, Liberal, 168; J. G. Harrison on, 198
 Harvey, Derbyshire miners' leader, 37, 40, 100
 Haslam, Derbyshire miners' leader, 37, 40
 Hayson, Ralph, trustee of Waterhouses chapel, diary of, 135, 151
 Hayson, Ralph, jun., 153; opposes 1902 Education Act, 193, 195
 Headlam, Stewart, 55, 56
 Headlam, Mrs. wife of Tory M.P., 154
 Henderson, Arthur, Labour M.P. for Barnard Castle, 183
 Henery, John (Jack), early Methodist, 132, 135; offices held by, 163; in First World War, 197, 200 hewers, high status of, 245, 246
 Hewitson, Isaac, leading Methodist, 132, 138; breaks up Sunday pitch-and-toss school, 131
 Hind, Revd R., 98, 99, 102
 historians, on religion in development of modern world, 13–14; Methodist (Wearmouth), 3, 11–13, 226; rationalist Liberal (Buckle, Halévy, Lecky, Weber), 1–2, 5–8, 25, 226; Socialist (Hammonds, Hobsbawm, Thompson, Webbs), 2–3, 8–11, 13, 25; Toynbee, 3–4
 Holmes, John, Roman Catholic, active in Labour Party, Irish League, and trade union, 169–70, 178, 183; represents Hamsteels in D.M.A., 181
 Home Office reports, give figures for numbers employed in mines, 67
 House, William, of D.M.A., 176 housing in Deerness Valley, provided by colliery owners, 64, 66, 81; evictions from (1926), 208, 210; notice to quit, on retirement of miner, 154–5; regarded by R.D.C. as mine-owners' responsibility, 52, 179
 Housing of the Working Classes Act, 179
 Howard League for Penal Reform, 84
 Huddleston: opposes temperance hall, 193, 194; refuses to pay rates in opposition to 1902 Education Act, 193
 Hughes, Hugh Price, 58–9, 61, 108, 181
 hymn-singing by Methodists, 115, 117, 147
- independence, Methodist spirit of, 143, 145, 152; strain of economic depression on, 153
 Independent Labour Party, 34, 43, 91; and Christian Socialists, 62; disbanded on growth of Labour Party, 185; in North of England, 40, 44, 62; paper on, read to Methodist Bible class, 169; Quebec group of, 168, 170–7, 183, 198, 225; resolutions of branches of, to D.M.A., 183; summer camp of, 176; and First World War, 44 individualism: in Methodist response in 1926, 210; of Methodists and Liberals, 167, 168; not easily reconciled with collectivism, 186; Protestantism and, 223
 Industrial Workers of Great Britain (1910), 41, 42
 Industry and Trade, Royal Commission on (1885–6), 29
 Ireland, Liberals and, 47, 49
 Irish: in Deerness Valley, 66–7, 180, 230; in county Durham, employed to build railways, then unemployed, then sink mine shafts, 75
 Irish Transport and General Workers' Union, 42 iron and steel industry: British, overtaken by Germany and U.S.A., 30; coal for, 28; interests of colliery owners in, 78, 80, 88, 158, 159; introduction of Bessemer process in, 88
 Isaacs, Lord Chief Justice, 50

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- Jacques, George, Durham I.L.P. member, 39
- James, Thomas, under-manager at Waterhouses colliery, 84
- Johnson, Isaac (1867–1950), hewer, leading Methodist, Liberal, 132; 144; family tree of, 128; joins Labour Party, 210; offices held by, 163
- Johnson, J., miner, Methodist, Liberal: offices held by, 164
- Johnson, J. B., colliery owner, 78, 83, 179, 207
- Johnson and Reay, colliery owners at Quebec-Hamsteels, 64, 78, 84; gifts to Methodist chapel from, 83
- Joicey, Sir James, Durham colliery owner, 38
- Keeble, S. E., 58, 59
- Kenworthy, J. C., 60
- Kropotkin, Prince, at D.M.A. Gala, 39
- Knox, manager at Cornsay Colliery, 85
- Labour, Royal Commission on (1891), 157, 158
- Labour Colleges, 44, 216
- labour exchanges, 49
- Labour Party, 33–5, 43; continuity of, with Liberal Party, 12, 190, 229; in Durham county, 40, 52, 182–90; influence of, begins to be felt at local level (1907), 168; Methodists and, 63, 155, 184; Methodists vote for, but would still vote Liberal if candidate available, 186; separation of Methodism from, 187, 216; and Socialism, 19, 35, 43, 44, 52; trade unions and, 44, 45; see also Independent Labour Party
- Labour Representation Committee (L.R.C.), 33, 34, 35, 40, 51
- labourers, not represented in Methodist leadership, 73–4
- Lakin, Jimmy, miner, Methodist, member of I.L.P., 170, 178; in First World War, 198
- Lancashire, miners' unions in, 36
- landowners, in Deerness Valley, 68
- Lansbury, George, 40
- Larkin, Jim, 42; in Deerness Valley, 171
- Lawther, Will, Labour candidate, 184
- leaders of Methodist chapels, 131–2, 139, 153; aged, difficulties of removing from office, 139; women reluctant to act as, 74, 124
- Leak, Dr Charles, M.P., 60
- Lee, Miss, popular missionary, 135
- Lee, Peter, Labour chairman of Durham County Council, 52, 178
- Leeds Brotherhood Church, 59
- leisure activities, in Deerness Valley, 77, 84, 131; connected with chapels, 130, 215, 227; not shared by Methodists and non-Methodists, 156
- Liberal Party, 47–50; colliery owners and trade union leaders as members of, 145; continuity of Labour Party with, 12, 190, 229; decline of, 50–1, 184; Labour government of 1923 dependent on, 45; Methodists in, 155, 162–4, 168; overlapping of union and chapel membership in, reinforces position of, 188, 189; resists Socialist ideas, 40; and social reform, 35, 43, 47, 49; in Waterhouses and district, 159–60; working-class M.P.s of, 33, 34; First World War and, 49
- Liberalism: association of Methodism and, 11, 23, 33–4, 58, 63, 159–60; Gladstonian, of high ethical quality and laissez-faire economics, 47, 48, 52; Socialism as an extension of, 4
- licensing laws, movement for reform of, 83, 109, 160, 191–2
- Lincolnshire, migration to Deerness Valley from, 66
- Llewellyn, Richard, How Green was my Valley by, 153
- Lloyd George, D., 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50
- local government, Methodist office-holders in, 155, 162–4
- Local Option Bill (1926), 108
- lock-outs by colliery owners: (1891, Esh Winning), 86; (1893, Durham), 16, 36, 39, 56; (1926), 46, 86, 91–2, 167, 202–3, 224, 227
- lodgers in Deerness Valley houses, 67, 76
- London, migration to Deerness Valley from, 66
- London Labour Church, 57
- Love, Joseph, hewer, Methodist preacher, becomes colliery owner, 78, 81, 84, 151; colliery appointments made by, 86; in conflict with Catholic Church over land for chapel, 76; gifts to chapels from, 81–2; national figure in Methodism, 156, 251; and trade unions, 82, 157
- Lowden, manager at Hamsteels colliery, 85
- Lowden, Jack, miner, Methodist, member of I.L.P., 170
- Lowes, Emma (Mrs George Craddock), women's suffrage leader, 171
- MacDonald, Ramsay, 43, 45, 59, 175
- MacDonald, Cuthbert, member of I.L.P., 170, 176, 178; takes up case of widow of blackleg (1926), 206; in First World War, 198
- MacDonald, Robert, checkweighman, Methodist, Liberal, 145, 178; member of I.L.P., 170, 175, 176; offices held by, 164; on R.D.C., 208; in First World War, 198

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- McKenna, checkweighman at Waterhouses colliery, militant in 1926, 208
- McLane, George, miner, 87, 142; conversion of (1880), 135; offices held by, 160
- McPhail, Revd Peter, 87
- Mann, Tom, 39, 158; in Deerness Valley, 171
- Manson, Revd C. L., Christian Socialist, 62
- Marconi scandal, 50
- market, economy based on a 'free', 158–9; Liberals and, 23, 52; miners accept, 17, 38, 39, 86, 88, 156–7, 224; miners prepare to resist, 91–2, 154, 168; owners interfere with, 80; 81; Peases see industrial conflict as result of imperfect understanding of, 78–9
- Marshall, Alfred, 55
- Marx and Marxism, 14, 43, 44, 114–15, 184, 225
- Matthews, under manager at Esh Winning colliery, 85
- Maurice, F. D., 55, 59, 176, 225; J. G. Harrison and, 171, 172
- means test (1931), 46
- Mechanics Institutes, 69, 77
- Methodism: anti-radical, 12, 186, 201, 210; associational features of, 134, 136, 137; beliefs of, 93–7, 125, 233; and Christian Socialism, 58–60, 63; collective expression of beliefs of, 115–118, 123; communal nature of, 27, 96, 126, 127, 137, 139; conflicts within, 132; as established religion of Deerness Valley, 77, 137; focuses political action on issues with ethical aspect, 58; history of, 5–14; ignorance of structure of, 124–5; individual reform/social reform dilemma in, 113–115; isolating effect of, 130–1, 132; and Labour Party, 12, 187, 216; and Liberalism, 11, 23, 33–4, 58, 63, 159–160; offers personal ethic, not political programme, 21, 26, 223; patriarchs in, 131–2, 139, 153; sociologists on, 4, 14; and the state, 11, 196; unions within (1907, 1932), 136; universalism of, 24; in villages compared with metropolitan, 123, 129
- Methodist-Anglican union: answers to questions on, 237–9; attitudes towards, 127, 142; votes on, 122–3, 124–5
- Methodist Connexions, 133, 231
- Methodist New Connexion, 81, 82, 231; leaders in, 250–1
- Methodist Times* (1885), 58, 59
- Methodist Weekly*, 59
- Methodists in Deerness Valley: occupations of, 73–4; occupations of leaders of, 249–53; numbers of, 70; numbers of, now declining, 214–15, and average age advancing, 216–17; see also Primitive Methodists, Wesleyan Methodists
- migration: into Durham coalfield, 64; out of Durham coalfield, 83, 202
- military service tribunals, First World War, 163, 199, 200, 201–2, 214; conflicts within Methodism aroused by, 227
- millenarianism, 181, 186
- miners, 35–40; of Ashton area, Yorkshire, 15–16; face-workers among, as craftsmen and artisans, 22; Liberal-Non-conformist leadership of (up to First World War), 13, 36; Liberals lose support of, 52; in Methodist leadership, 73, 74; numbers employed as, county Durham (1880, 1905), 29; occupations of fathers of, 74; occupations of sons of, 74, 149–50, 215; percentage of population of Deerness Valley employed as, 72–3; restriction of output by, 38, 86, 88; transfer to Labour Party of (1920s), 169, 178–9; unemployment among, 46, 69–70, 153, 202; widows of, in company houses, 81; in First World War, 45, 197
- Miners' Federation of Great Britain (M.F.G.B.), 36, 38–40; and Cambrian Combine Strike, 42; last big union to affiliate to Labour Party, 35, 40, 183
- Miners' Institutes, 66, 84
- Minimum Wage Bill (1912), 51; for minimum wage, see under wages
- ministers of Methodist chapels, provided by the Connexions, 133; as active Liberals, 160; travel by trustees to hear preaching by, 144
- missionaries, appointed by Pease and Partners, 83
- Moll, Revd W. E., Christian Socialist, Newcastle, 62–3
- Morgan, David, S. Wales miners' leader, 37
- Morley, John, 48
- musical performances, by chapel members, 116, 130; see also choirs
- mysticism, other-worldly and inner-worldly, 20
- National Free Labour Association (strike-breakers), 32, 33, 42
- National Council of Labour Colleges, 216
- National Insurance Act (1911), 49
- navy, Liberals and, 48
- negotiation, of miners with owners: machinery for, in Durham coalfield, 39, 89
- Noel, Revd Conrad, Christian socialist, 62

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- Non-conformist Anti-Socialist Union (1909), 57
- Non-conformists: and Christian Socialism, 56–7; and Liberal Party, 49, 52
- Non-Political Union (1926), 205, 208–9
- Northumberland: miners' unions in, work with Durham unions, 36, 37, 38; unofficial strikes in, 39; wages and unemployment in, 46
- occupations in Deerness Valley, 66, 67, 72–3, 243–5; of Methodist leaders, 249–53; of Methodists, 73–4; relative status of, 245–7
- old age pensions, 49
- Orange demonstrations, in county Durham, 75
- Osborne judgement, on political levy by trade unions, 41, 47, 49
- Owners' Association, bound to recognise only D.M.A., 209
- pacifism, 52, 198; of Christian Socialists, 61, 62
- Paine, Tom, 104, 171
- Palmer, manager: speeches and presentation at retirement of, 167
- Pankhurst, Mrs, in Deerness Valley, 171
- parishes: creation of new, in county Durham, 72
- parochialism, of Methodists, 127
- paternalism of colliery owners, 78, 84, 92, 151, 168; erosion of, 89; final destruction of (1926), 92, 202, 208
- patience, inculcated in Sunday schools, 110
- Patterson, W. H., to Royal Commission on Labour (1891), 157, 158
- peace, retrenchment, and reform: slogan of Gladstonian Liberals, 47
- Peace Society, 84
- Peake, author influencing J. G. Harrison, 174
- Pearson, Tom, checkweighman, Liberal, 145, 154, 166, 167; offices held by, 164
- Peart, Miss, popular missionary, 135
- Pease, Arthur, 80, 82
- Pease, Sir A. F., 89–90, 91
- Pease, John Whitwell, 80
- Pease, Joseph (1799–1872), colliery owner, M.P., and leading industrialist, 78, 90, 156
- Pease, Joseph Albert (Lord Gainford), 90
- Pease, Joseph Whitwell (1828–1903), 78, 83, 84, 90; contributes to Baptists and Methodists, 82; in favour of arbitration, 87, 92, 157; stresses partnership, 79–80; and unions, 79, 80, 81, 209
- Pease and Partners, colliery owners in Deerness Valley, 64; appointments in collieries made directly by, 86; become limited liability company (1898), 78; dividends paid by, 89, 154; gifts of coal by, 81; habitual drunkards sacked by, 142; ironworks of, 78, 159; lock-out by (1891), 86; in lock-out of 1926, 153, 154–5, 159; missionaries and temperance workers appointed by, 83; paternalism of, 78, 89, 92, 151; personnel and welfare officer employed by, 204; recruiting offices of, Lincolnshire and London, 66; said to favour Methodists in recruiting, 70
- Peases West (hamlet), 78, 81
- Peel, Sir Robert, on education, 79
- perfection, Methodist doctrine of, 95, 102; preached by J. G. Harrison, 174
- Pickard, Ben, Methodist, Liberal, secretary of Yorkshire miners' union, 16; chairman of M.F.G.B., 17
- picketing, by miners in 1926, 203–4
- pietism, of present-day Methodism, 221
- playing cards, Methodists and, 142
- police: during lock-out in 1926, 167, 204; during strike in 1892, 87–8
- political levy, by trade unions, 41, 46–7, 209
- political organisations: Methodist avoidance of, 58; vocation for work in, 21–22
- politics: and drink trade, 108; separation of religion from, 211; tension between ethics and, 101
- Pontefract, troops called to (1893), 16
- population of Deerness Valley, 66, 67–8; occupational structure of, 72–4, 243–245; Roman Catholics in, 71
- prayer meetings of Methodists, 117–18, 126
- preachers, Methodist local, 219; examination and trial sermon required from, 145; occupations of, 249, 251, 252
- Prest, Archdeacon, temperance speech by, 140–1
- prices, retail (1896–1913, 1920), 29
- Priestley, Joseph, 57
- Primitive Methodists (P.M.s), in Deerness Valley, 68, 70, 82, 231; miners under-represented in leadership of, 73, 74; number of (Waterhouses, 1892–1931), 240; office holders of, 162–4; resolutions passed by quarterly meetings of (1892–1932), 159
- Pritchard, George E., miner, Methodist preacher, member of I.L.P., 170; checkweighman, county councillor, 178; in lock-out of 1926, 206; in First World War, 198
- Pritchard, J. (brother of George), in prison as conscientious objector, 198, 199
- profits, of colliery owners, 154
- Progressive League (1907), 57
- Protestant Ethic, 2, 19–20, 222–6

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- public houses, in Deerness Valley, 83 public works, set in hand by R.D.C. for unemployed during suspension of benefit, 208 publicans, compensation for non-renewal of licences of, 191–2 punctuality, inculcated in Sunday schools, 110
puritanism, Halévy on, 5, 7
Pyle, preacher, non-Methodist, leader in 1879 strike, 175, 181
- Quakers, 57–8; Pease family as, 78, 81
Quebec (Quebec-Hamsteels) (village), owned by Johnson and Reay, 64; attitude to owners in, 179; drunkenness in (1870), 140; economic death of (1926), 182, 244; I.L.P. in, 168, 170–177, 183, 198, 225; in lock-out of 1926, 206–7, 210; Methodist chapel in, 83, 135; Methodist membership in (1935–68), 241; Methodists in, 70; miners as Methodist leaders in, 73; occupations in, 244; occupations of leading Methodists in, 250, 252, 253; population of, 68; social conditions in, 179–80; in First World War, 200
Quebec Liberal Association, 160
- Raikes, Ribert, 103, 104
railway, in Deerness Valley, 64
Raine, Isaac, chapel trustee in Waterhouses, 135, 143
‘rate-busters’, 86
Rattenbury, Revd J. E., Methodist member of Free Church Socialist League, 60
Reay, colliery owner: gifts to Methodists from, 83; see also Johnson and Reay recruiting committees, First World War: Methodists on, 197
Redistribution Act (1884), 32
Reform Act (1884), 32
religion: cultural influence of, 25; different aspects of, 93; interpretation of experience of, 232; separation of politics and, 211 religious affiliations, of population in Deerness Valley, 68–72 religious conflicts, in Deerness Valley, 75–7 religious groups, associational and communal, 27, 121–2, 187, 226–9; associational features of Methodism, 134, 136, 137; communal nature of Methodism, 27, 96, 126, 127, 129, 137, 139; tension between communal and associational tendencies, 136 respectability, concept of, 146, 148, 156; challenge to, 174; Labour Party and, 189; Liberalism and, 189; social stratification in terms of gradation of, 144, 210 revolution: religion in avoidance of, in Britain, 2, 5
Richardson, Aron, hewer, Methodist, Liberal, 85, 132, 166, 168; in lock-out of 1926, 206; offices held by, 164; opposes 1902 Education Act, 193; radical, but not in I.L.P. group, 177, 178 (joins Labour Party, 185); son of, leaves mine to become minister, 150
Ritson, Revd J., 100 ritual of Methodists, 115–18, 237, 238; recognition of differences between Methodists and others in, 125 road, built in Deerness Valley, 64
Roman Catholics in Deerness Valley, 66, 70, 71, 74, 140; attitudes of Methodists towards, 129; and land for chapels, 76, 135; on Methodists, 149; in trade unions (1966), 214
Rosebery, Lord, negotiates settlement of 1893 coal strike, 39
Royal Commissions: Education (1871), 79; Industry and Trade (1885–6), 29; Labour (1891), 157, 158 royalties on coal, 68, 71
Russian Revolution, 182
Rust, Revd E. C., Vicar of St John’s, Hamsteels; and J. G. Harrison, 198; in lock-out of 1926, 180, 207
Ryle, agent for Pease and Partners, 84, 85, 166; presentation on leaving of (1926), 210
- Sabbatarianism of Methodists, 119, 143–144, 147
sacred–secular dichotomy: in approach to ‘the world’, 56, 119, 177; in sermons, 98, 99, 100, 104
Saddler, Basil, on bench (1926), 204
Saddler brothers, buy Hamsteels Colliery (1921), 78, 207; appointments in colliery made by, 86; in lock-out of 1926, 206
St John the Baptist Church, Hamsteels, 72; electoral roll of (1931–66), 242
St Paul’s Church, Waterhouses, 72; electoral roll of (1931–62), 242
St Stephen’s Mission, Esh Winning, 84 salvation, 9, 21, 119, 223; as theme of sermons, 98, and of Sunday school teaching, 106
Salvation Army, in Deerness Valley, 242
Samuel Commission, 46
Samuels, Turner, Labour candidate, 185
Samuelsson, Sir Basil, colliery owner, advocates education, 79–80
Sankey Commission, 30, 45
schools: colliery managers at, 85; at Cornsay Colliery, 82; at Esh Winning, 66, 79, 82; at Waterhouses, 65; see also Sunday schools Scotland, miners’ unions in, 36, 38 seamen, strikes of, 41, 42

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- Second World War, coal mines during, 30–1
- sect: development of, into church, 120–123, 133
- sedition, early association of Methodism with, 8
- self-assurance, aspect of Methodism, 95, 96
- self-discipline of Methodists, 116, 119, 144
- self-improvement classes of Methodists, 96, 104–5, 119
- sermons, of Methodist preachers, 96, 97–103, 116, 118–19, 219, 231–2; trial, from local preachers, 145
- service: enhanced status as bonus for, 150; as theme of Sunday school lessons, 106–7, 113
- services in Methodist chapels, 126, 216, 218–21
- Shelley, P. B., J. G. Harrison and, 171
- shopkeepers: in Esh Winning (1908), 73; in lock-out of 1926, 211; religious affiliations of, 74, 253; status of, 246–247
- sliding scale, tying miners' wages to price of coal, 37, 39, 81, 88, 158
- smallpox, 152
- Smiles, Samuel, 4, 81, 104
- Smillie, Robert, 51
- Smythe family of Flass Hall, Catholics, 67, 76; build houses in Esh Winning, 68
- Snowden, Philip, 60
- social class: development of consciousness of, 17, 18, 19, 43; development inhibited by Methodism, 26; religion in context of, 4; in status, 246; working-class views of, 14–15, 18
- social mobility, 24, 248; sometimes a result of Methodism, 123, 149, 150; and trade union leadership, 234
- social and political issues, Methodists and, 63, 98, 101, 104, 109, 114
- social reform: Liberal Party and, 35, 43, 47, 49; Methodists and, 224
- social status, 245–7
- Socialism: definitions of, 4, 19; form of deviance in period discussed, 17, 19; First World War and attitude to, 200–1, 202; Labour Party and, 19, 35, 43, 44, 52; Methodism and, 12, 174, 186, 225, 228; miners and, 39–40; rise of, 34; see also Christian Socialism, Independent Labour Party.
- Socialist Democratic Federation, 34
- Socialist Quaker Society, 57
- socialists: among London unemployed (1880s), 32; in Labour Party, 43–4; and miners, 39, 40
- sociologists: and church-sect dichotomy, 120–3; and religion in development of modern world, 1–2, 4–5, 14–19
- solidarity: Methodist services as rites of, 220; Methodist funerals as rites of, 69, 216, 221; more relevant than status, 246
- soup kitchens, 143, 157, 211
- South Wales coalfield: miners' unions in, 36, 37, 38; wages and unemployment in, 46
- Sprott, Col., Tory colliery owner, 151
- Stacy, Revd Paul, Christian Socialist, 62
- standard of living: rising (1850–86), 28; falling (1899–1913), 29, 88
- state, the: Christian Socialists and, 61; Hegelian view of, 55; Methodist attitude to, 11, 22, 196; Toynbee on functions of, 4
- Stephenson, John, conversion of (1880), 135
- Stephenson, Jonathan, Methodist, 87
- Stephenson, Joseph, miner and Methodist: offices held by, 164; in First World War, 197
- strikes, 40–2; see also General Strike
- strikes of miners, 36, 158; (1844), 80; (1879), 80, 157, 159, 175; (1887: Northumberland), 39; (1892: Durham), 11, 36, 39, 54, 87–8, 166; (1910–11: Cambrian Combine), 40, 42; (1910: Durham), 41; (1912), 41, 54, 165, 166; (1921), 46; percentage of union members voting for and against (1909, 1912), 165, 166; see also lock-outs
- suffragettes, 48
- Sunday schools, Methodist, 105–6, 147; attendances at, 70, 240–1; anniversaries of, 103, 111, 126, 146, 216, 217–18; children of non-Methodists at, 137, 144; closing of (1960s), 252; colliery managers at, 85; entry to Methodism mainly through, 125–6, 153; habits and attitudes inculcated at, 109–13; lessons at, 106–9; teachers at, 73, 111, 249, 250
- Sunderland Bible Institute, 99
- swearing, Methodist disapproval of, 131, 144
- Syndicalists, 41, 42–3, 44; in North of England, 62
- Taff Vale decision, on picketing by unions, 32–3, 34, 40, 49, 51
- Tariff Reform, 35, 45, 160
- Taylor, Joseph, master's weighman, Methodist preacher, member of I.L.P., 102, 170, 176; diaries of, 104, 105, 169
- temperance: as feature of Methodism, 96, 119, 131, 141–2, 148, 182; Labour Party and, 187, 225; movement for prohibition (1920s and 1930s), 152; Pease and Partners and, 83; resolutions of Methodist quarterly meetings on, 159; sermons on, 101, 140–1; in

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- Sunday school lessons, 107–9; see also drink trade
- temperance workers, appointed by Pease and Partners, 83
- theology: of church and sect, 120; of Methodism, 96, 237; not a criterion defining religion for Methodists, 125; subterranean, 94
- Thompson, Revd J. D., 98
- Thompson, Revd Peter, Methodist and Socialist, 59
- Thoreau, H. D., J. G. Harrison and, 171, 172, 225
- Thorne, Stephen, secretary of Quaker Socialist Society, 57
- Thorne, Will, 32
- thrift, Methodist virtue, 119, 143, 149; inculcated in Sunday schools, 110
- Tillett, Ben, in Deerness Valley, 171
- Tolstoy, J. G. Harrison and, 171, 172, 198, 199, 225
- Towers, schoolteacher and organiser of Labour Party branches, 184
- Toynbee, Arnold, 55
- trade cycle, 159
- Trade Union Act (1871), 31
- Trade Union Act Amendment Act (1876), 31
- trade union consciousness, 14, 18, 43
- trade unions, 4, 31–3; in choosing of parliamentary candidate and bringing out vote, 188; colliery owners and, 79, 80, 81, 82, 209; co-operation between management and, 151, 157, 167, 223; and Labour Party, 44, 45; leadership of, 20, 145, 210, 214, 224, 234; Methodists in, 13, 145, 155–68; political levy by, 41, 46–7, 209; vocation for work in, 21; see also Durham Miners' Association
- Trades Disputes Act (1906), 35
- Trades Disputes and Trade Union Act (1927), 46–7
- Trades Union Congress, 32, 42; and General Strike, 46; parliamentary committee of, 38
- Triple Alliance (of miners, railwaymen, and transport workers), 41, 44, 46
- Trust Houses, 83
- trustees for Methodist property, 143; occupations of, 250, 251, 252
- Turnbull, Tom: address by, 105; pietistic non-political position of, 187
- unemployment of miners, in 1920s and 1930s, 46, 153, 202; reflection of, in reports of Methodist chapels, 69–70
- Unemployment Insurance Act (1922): benefit under, 153–4; benefit suspended 1 week in 5 under, 208
- Unitarians, 57
- Ushaw College, Roman Catholic seminary, 66; coal royalties received by, 68; and land for Methodist chapel, 76, 135; in population figures, 71
- Ushaw Moor (village), owned by Pease and Partners, 64, 78; Irish at, 66; Methodist chapel at, 83
- Utilitarians, 4
- vocation or calling, 21, 22
- Voltaire, 104
- wages, 28, 88; pressure for minimum, 16, 17, 37, 39, 40, 51, 89, 175
- wages of miners: as percentage of cost of mining coal, 89; relatively high until 1920, 156, then relatively low, 46; sliding scale for, in some areas, 37, 39, 81, 88, 158
- Wales: migration to Deerness Valley from, 66; political development in, 182; see also South Wales coalfield
- Wallace, Bruce, Christian Socialist, 60
- Waterhouses (village), owned by Pease and Partners, 64, 78; Church of St Paul at, 72, 242; colliery at, 88, 153, 244; in lock-out of 1926, 204, 210, 212; Methodist chapels in, 82, 124, 136; Methodist membership in, 240, 241; Methodist Sunday school in, 73, 240–1; Methodist weekly activities in, 129–30; Methodists in, 70; Methodists in union lodge in, 161; occupations of Methodist leaders in, 250, 251; population of, 68; recruits from (and casualties), First World War, 200; in strike of 1892, 87, 88; voting for and against strikes by union members in, 165, 166; Young People's (Methodist) Institute in (1926), 114, 179
- Watkins, Archdeacon (Durham), 72
- Weardale: London Lead Co. in, 90; migrants to Deerness Valley from, 66; migrants often Methodists, 94–5, 135; Wesley in, 95, 137
- welfare state: Liberal contributions to, 49; Methodist misgivings about, 186
- Wesley, John, in county Durham, 94, 95, 137
- Wesleyan Conference (1894): 'our great work is to save the soul from sin', 54
- Wesleyan Methodists (W.M.s), in Deerness Valley, 70, 82, 231; miners under-represented in leadership of (except at Quebec), 73; numbers of (1911–32), 241; occupations of leaders of, 251–2; unite with Primitive Methodists at Esh Winning (1932), 70
- Westcott, Brooke, Bishop of Durham, 56, 108
- White, Matthew (1862–1932), hewer, leading Methodist, Liberal, 132, 135, 144; approves mutual trust of owners and miners, 145–6, 154; conversion of (1880), 135; family tree of, 128; ideologically Liberal, 168, 179, but

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29752-3 - Pit-Men, Preachers and Politics: The Effects of Methodism in a Durham Mining Community

Robert Moore

Index

More informationIndex

- White, Matthew – contd.
 joins Labour Party, 185, 189, 210; in lock-out of 1926, 167; offices held by, 145, 160, 164, 166; Sabbatarian, 143; sons of, not miners, 150; speaks at presentation to manager, 167; stops swearing at work, 131
- Wicksteed, Philip, 57
- Widdington, Revd P. E. T., Christian Socialist, 62
- Williams, Aneurin, M.P., at Waterhouses Methodist picnic, 197
- Wilson, Revd J. Stitt, American socialist, 62
- Wilson, James, early Methodist in Deerness Valley, 134
- Wilson, John, Methodist, leader of D.M.A., Liberal M.P. for mid-Durham, 12, 37, 146; in Deerness Valley, 105, 160; and Gladstone, 47; on military service tribunal, 199; opposes eight-hour day, 38; opposes Socialism, 183; stands for compromise between owners and miners, 39, 158; speaks at temperance rallies, 192; his views come to be rejected, 215
- Winter, J. G., miner, Methodist, attached to fringe of I.L.P.: dies as conscientious objector, 199; funeral of, 200, 206
- Wollstonecraft, Mary, 57; J. G. Harrison and, 171, 172
- women: active in Methodist membership, but not leadership, 74, 124; chapel activities only source of entertainment for, 130; drunkenness among (1870s), 140, 141; in Methodist homes, 146, 147; recently drawn into roles of society officers, 133
- women's suffrage movement, 171, 175
- work discipline, Methodism as a source of, 9, 20
- Workers' Educational Association, 216
- working-class leaders: from Methodism, 9, 12, 13, 222, 226; from Protestantism, 3
- Working Men's Clubs, 225; consider running candidates for parish and county councils, 192; dangerous for Methodists to try to rival, 193; drinking at, 142; Methodist opposition to, 152
- Yorkshire coalfield: competes with Durham coalfield, 89; differences between Durham and, 15–16, 19, 28
- Younger, Revd W., Methodist member of Free Church Socialist League, 60
- 'Zinoviev letter', 45
- Zola, Emile, Germinal by, 77