

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29769-1 - Ambiguous Ethnicity: Interracial Families in London

Susan Benson

Index

More information

Index

- Africans in England, see black settlement in the UK; West Africans
- Bagley, Christopher, 22
- Banton, Michael
 predicted increase in interracial unions, 7–8 research in Stepney, 6–7
- birthplace and ethnic origin, correlation of, 14–16
- ‘black men’s women’, stereotype of in Brixton, 49, 50, 70, 75, 96 response of interracial couples to, 96, 97, 119 in UK-based West Indian press, 12
- black partners, research set alienation from cultures of origin, 60–1, 82–3 and ‘assimilationist’ attitudes, 61–2 and attempts to dissociate themselves from the local black population, 61, 97–9, 100, 122, 127–8 commitment to black Brixton world, 101 conjugal expectations of, 82–3, 91–3 contact with kin overseas, 103 contact with kin in the UK, 103–5 detachment from family and kin at time of meeting with partner, 60, 70, 103–4 disrupted childhoods of, 59–60 ethnic identity of, 51–2 and a family history of interracial unions, 61 migration to the UK, 51–4, 59 reaction of family to interracial union, 70–2 relations with kin of white partner, 74 and scapegoating of other ethnic groups as a response to stigma, 97–9 see also isolate families; social networks, research couples
- black settlement in the UK
 after World War II, 6, 7 and the American War of Independence, 4 diminishing importance of in the nineteenth century, 4 in the era of the slave trade, 3–4 see also Brixton, ‘Coloured Quarters’, Lambeth, London Borough of, New Commonwealth and Pakistani population
- Bott, Elizabeth
 on the character of conjugal role relationships, 81 n.1
 on social networks, 95
- Brixton
 black population of, 34 black residents’ attitudes towards, 36–8 black settlement in, 29–30 changes since this study, viii, 23–4 n.1
 English population of, 30–1 ethnic divisions in, 43–8 history of, 24
 outsiders’ attitudes towards, 35 perception of ethnic differences in, 39–42 position of mixed race children in, 134 relationships across ethnic boundaries in, 48–50 research couples’ attitudes towards, 99–102 as a residual area, 30 social deprivation in, 28–9 social geography of, 23 white residents’ attitudes towards, 35–6 see also ethnic divisions; ethnic identities; Lambeth, London Borough of
- Cayton, Horace, 95
 children of mixed race position in Brixton, 134 research on patterns of friendship choice among, 134 see also children, research set
- children, research set ambiguous position of, 138–9 friendship choice, 143–4

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29769-1 - Ambiguous Ethnicity: Interracial Families in London

Susan Benson

Index

More informationIndex

- children (cont.)
 predominantly English upbringing of, 84–5, 137–8 rejection of black ethnic identity, 139–40, 141–3
- Churches, 45
- Collins, S.F., 1, 9
- colour
 as diacritical sign of ethnic identity, 39
 as social stigma, 39 stigma of neutralised by class position of the individual, 49–50 see also race, European concepts of ‘Coloured Quarters’, 6–7
- common-law unions
 in the Caribbean, 82 n.2
 financial insecurity and, 87 long duration associated with absence of kin ties, 77
- Community Projects, 46
- Drake, St Clair, 95
- drinking clubs, 48–9
- ethnic divisions in Brixton and class divisions, 37, 49–50 and guest–host relationships, 48 and interracial sexual relationships, 48–50 and perceptions of ethnic difference, 39–41 reinforced by differences in appearance and culture, 41 in schools, 43–4
 signalled by differences in appearance and culture, 41 and the social ecology of the area, 44–8 in work situations, 43
see also colour, ethnic identities in Brixton
- ethnic hypergamy, 2–3, 21–2, 56
- ethnic hypogamy, 21–2
see also reciprocal compensatory pairings
- ethnic identities in Brixton negotiated by individuals, 42–3 situational selection of, 40, 42 see also colour, ethnic divisions
- General Household Survey, 14, 145
- Goffman, Erving
 and the concept of ‘spoiled identity’, 96
- Golden, J., 95
- Harkness, James, 35
- Hill, Clifford, 9, 95
- ILEA
 ILEA definition of the ‘immigrant’ child, 31 n.5
- Inner Area Survey, 30, n.3, 34
- interracial unions and assimilation in UK, 95
 in the ‘Coloured Quarters’, 6–7 cultural differences and incidence of, 19–21 demographic variables affecting the incidence of, 7–8, 15–16, 19 in England in the era of the slave trade, 4–5 as an essential feature of British race relations, 7–8 incidence in the contemporary UK, 15, 16–19 in post-World War II areas of black settlement, 8–9 and problems of classification in UK official statistics, 145–6 in the slave societies of the Americas, 2–3 and social isolation, 95 on the West African coast in the era of the slave trade, 2 see also interracial unions, black people’s attitudes towards; interracial unions, English attitudes towards; research couples
- interracial unions, black people’s attitudes towards
 in Brixton, 70, 75, 76, 85
 in the Caribbean, 12
 among colonial students in the 1950s, 7
 in the ‘Coloured Quarters’, 7
 in Nigeria, 71–2
 in Rhodesia, 56
 as reflected in the press, 12–13
- interracial unions, English attitudes towards and the British press, 10–12
 in Brixton, 76
 in the ‘Coloured Quarters’, 6 in the area of the slave trade, 5 as focus for anxieties about immigration, 9–10 in post-World War II black settlements, 9 and scientific racism, 5–6, 10, 12 n.4 social surveys of, 9
 in World War II, 56
see also miscegenation

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29769-1 - Ambiguous Ethnicity: Interracial Families in London

Susan Benson

Index

More informationIndex

- isolate families
 Ademola case history, 129–30 definition of, 117, 129 and isolation from kin, 130–1 and lack of fit between social resources and aspirations, 131–2
 and personal problems in making friends, 131
 and problems with children, 143
- Lambeth Housing Occupancy Survey, 28, 30
- Lambeth, London Borough of,
 demographic structure of black
 population of, 34
 disadvantage among black population
 of, 34
 geography of, 23
 housing stress in, 25–8 levels of unemployment among minority groups living in, 31 migrant settlement in, 24–5, 31 numbers and distribution of black population of, 31–4
 social and economic characteristics of
 population of, 28–9
see also Brixton
- marginality
 as a factor in the decision to enter into an interracial union, 59–61, 66–7 as a result of the detachment of an individual from his/her ethnic community, 49–50
- Merton, R.K.
 and the theory of ‘reciprocal compensatory pairings’, 22, 64, 68
- Milner Holland Report, 25
- miscegenation
 alleged harmful effects of, 5–6, 10, 11, 12, 73
see also interracial unions; race, European concepts of
- New Commonwealth and Pakistani population (UK)
 definition of, 7, 15 n.4, 145–6 demographic structure of, 7–8 extent of interracial union within, 145 size as at 1971, 145
see also black settlement in the UK
- patois
 use within the research set, 61 use within West Indian population of Brixton, 42
- Patterson, Sheila, 9, 11, 29, 95 prediction of increase in interracial marriages in the UK, 8–9
- polygamy
 as a disruptive factor in Yoruba domestic life, 61, 83
- Powell, J. Enoch, 12 n.4, 35, 146
- prostitutes
 accompanying original settlers to Sierra Leone, 5
 in Brixton, 9, 36, 49
- race, European concepts of, 5–6 research couples
 associational contacts of, 112–13 attitudes towards Brixton and surrounding areas, 99–102, 110 disagreement over children’s ethnic identity, 136
 disagreement over domestic organisation, 79, 85, 91
 disagreement in friendship choice, 108–9
 domestic division of labour among, 88–9
 emigration to black partner’s country of origin, 93–4
 ethnic composition of social networks
 of, 116–17
 financial organisation, 85–6
 friendship choice, 107–8
 kin resources, 102–4
 leisure activities of, 89–93 longstanding friendships of, 107–8 parental preferences for children’s ethnic identity, 134–6 preferences in cuisine, 79, 83, 85 preferences in domestic decor, 83 reactions of wider community to, 75–6, 96, 111
 reciprocal compensatory pairings and, 64 recruitment for this study, 151–4 relations with neighbours, 109–11 relations with workmates, 112–13 role of kin in anchoring the research family in a social field, 105–7 role of kin in supplying goods and services, 76–7, 104–5 socio-economic characteristics, 51 strategies for handling children’s problems, 138–9
 strategies for handling the stigma attached to their position, 97–9 termination of relationships among,
 93

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29769-1 - Ambiguous Ethnicity: Interracial Families in London

Susan Benson

Index

More informationIndex

- research couples (cont.)
 'working misunderstandings', development of among, 87–8, 92–3 see also black partners, research set;
 isolate families; social networks,
 research couples; white partners,
 research set
- Rhodesia
 racial inequalities in, 55–6 social segregation of white and Coloured in, 56
- Rhodesian Coloured, definition of, 51 n.1
 'Rude Boys', 37, 47
- skinheads, 49
- social networks, research couples black-oriented, 117–20
 ethnically composite, 128–9 ethnic composition of, 116–17 and 'fit' with aspirations of the couple, 132–3
 interstitial, 125–8
 and 'Janus' households, 122–5 segregation in, 108–9, 129 and social resources, 113–15 white-oriented, 120–2
see also isolate families
- street crime in Brixton, 35
- West Africans
 distribution in Lambeth, 34
 occupational patterns in Lambeth, 34
- West Indians
 conjugal roles, 82, 85
 hostility in Brixton towards West Africans, 40
 liaisons with white girls, 49
 occupational patterns in Lambeth, 34
 settlement in Lambeth, 29–30 and youth clubs in Lambeth, 46–8
- white partners, research set and attempts to dissociate black partner from his/her ethnic group, 92, 121–2
- conjugal expectations of, 79–81, 91–2 contact with black people before present union, 57–8
 contact with kin, 104
 ethnic stereotyping of partner's domestic failures, 88, 89, 90 prejudice against black people, 110–11 reactions of families to interracial union, 72–4
 reactions of friends to interracial
 union, 75
 reactions to stigmatisation of interracial union: and anxieties about self-presentation, 97; by dissociating black partner from his/her ethnic group, 74, 97–8, 111; and emphasis on respectable status of black partner, 62–4, 99–100; and scapegoating of other ethnic groups, 62–4, 99–100
- rebellion against family background and decision to enter into an interracial relationship, 66–8
- 'reciprocal compensatory pairings' and, 64
- refusal to make adjustments to partner's culture of origin, 79, 84
- socially disadvantaged status of, 64–6 see also isolate families; social networks, research couples
- working wives effect upon domestic division of labour, 88–9
 effect upon financial organisation of the household, 85–6
- Yoruba
 child-rearing practice, 84
 conjugal roles, 82, 85
see also West Africans
- youth clubs, 46–8, 49
- Zimbabwe, see Rhodesia