West African Poetry
West African Poetry
A CRITICAL HISTORY

Robert Fraser
FOR

Susheila Nasta

AND FOR

Stewart Brown
Contents

Introduction 1

1 From oral to written verse: development or depletion? 7
2 Ladies and gentlemen 20
3 The négritude movement 42
4 Poetry and the university, 1957–63 73
5 The achievement of Christopher Okigbo 104
6 Continuity and adaptation in Ghanaian verse, 1952–71 138
7 Two Ig poets 168
8 ‘Psalmody of sunsets’: The career of Lenrie Peters 200
9 The road to Idanre, 1959–67 231
10 The poet and war, 1966–70 251
11 The poetry of dissent, 1970–80 273
12 The return to orality 311

A guide to availability 341
Index 346
Acknowledgements
