

Cambridge University Press

0521323657 - Pathways in the Workplace: The Effects of Gender and Race on Access to Organizational Resources

Jon Miller

Index

More information

Index

- achieved status, 26 achievement, 8
 age, 3, 26; special effects for nonwhite women, 71, 94; special effects for white women, 39, 91–2 ascription, 3, 5, 6, 8–11; see also age, gender, race assistance, see informal networks authority, 3, 13, 24–6, 56–9; see also achieved status authority structure, 1, 3, 5, 6; access to, 24–6, 61 autonomy, see job autonomy
 Barnard, Chester, 87
 Benson, Kenneth, 19
 Blau, Peter, 88, 98
 Brown, Richard Harvey, 100n1 bureaucracy, 17–18, 19; and professionalism, 8–11; and race–gender differences, 8–11; Weber’s ideal type, 6, 56–9, 100n3 bureaucratic imperative, 60 bureaucratic leveling effect, 11, 13, 21–2, 32, 38, 92 career expectations: and motivation, 86–7, 89; of men and women, 13–14 career mobility, 13, 21, 87, 90 careers, 86, 96
 centrality, see network centrality class structure, 87
 client–practitioner homophily, 11, 88; and access to the formal structure, 72–4; and network centrality, 43–6 clients, 6, 14, 43–6; see also juvenile offenders, status offenders coalitions, 20
 community activism: effects on access to authority structure, 77–8; effects on centrality, 43, 52–6, 75, 78; measurement, 52–3 community-based treatment, 4, 14, 16, 19–20, 100n1 community ties: and access to formal authority structure, 74–7; and network centrality, 6, 43, 46–52; measurement, 47–9 competition, 22, 23, 95, 98 conflict, 81
 contact with supervisors, 3, 4, 5, 24, 61; differences by race and gender, 62–6; determinants for nonwhite men and women, 71–2; determinants for white men and women, 68–71p core–periphery distinctions, 13, 21
 Dahrendorf, Ralf, 81 decision-making structure, see authority structure deinstitutionalization, 100n1 demography, 5, 14–15; and white male domination, 21; of client pool, 42–6 discrimination, 7, 10, 11, 12, 91, 92, 94, 99; see also inequity division of labor, 4 domination, 15, 21, 24, 38, 82; see also power, subordination education, see achieved status effectiveness, 105n1 evaluation of contact with supervisors, 61; comparison by race and gender, 62–6; determinants for nonwhite men and women, 71; determinants for white men and women, 69–71 exchange theory, 88 experience, see achieved status expertise, 8, 18–19, 56–9 external contacts, see community ties external status system, 20–1; see also class structure formal structure, see authority structure
 Fox, Mary Frank, 12
 gender, 1, 2–3, 5, 6, 8–12; and access to formal authority structure, 62–6; and network centrality, 59–60; and power, 14–15 Halaby, Charles N. homophily, see client–practitioner homophily income, 13
 inequity, 7, 13, 37, 91, 92, 94, 99; and bureaucratic rationality, 11, 21–2, 37, 42; see also discrimination influence, see informal networks informal networks, 1, 3, 4, 6, 100n2; of assistance, 3, 4, 23; of influence, 3, 4, 23, 56–9; of respect, 3, 4, 23; of support, 3, 23; of work contacts, 3, 23; see also informal structure

114 Index

- informal structure, 5, 6; see also informal networks
- interaction with co-workers, see informal networks, work contacts
- interaction with supervisors, see contact with supervisors
- interorganizational networks, 15–16
- interpersonal ties, see informal networks
- investments, 13, 27
- job autonomy, 24, 105n1
- job type, see achieved status
- juvenile justice system, 16–17, 19, 100n1
- juvenile offenders, 4, 14, 15–16, 44; see also clients, status offenders
- Kanter, Rosabeth Moss, 11–13, 87, 100n4, 103n6
- labor market, 5, 21, 87–8, 98; segmentation of, 13, 90
- legitimacy, 18, 56–9
- leveling effect, see bureaucratic leveling effect
- March, James G. (and Herbert A. Simon), 9
- Miller, Jon, 11–12, 13
- motivation, see career expectations
- negotiation, 6, 38, 93, 98
- network centrality, 4, 6; and age, 41; correlates of, 29–32; determinants for non-white men, 39–40; determinants for non-white women, 41; determinants for white men, 38, 40–1; determinants for white women, 41; measurement, 22–4, 26, 36, 102n13; see also informal networks
- occupation, 3; see also achieved status
- occupational structure, 1; see also labor market
- organizational coupling, 5, 6, 20, 62, 71–2, 79, 88
- organizational networks, see informal networks
- organizational symbolism, 18
- organizational theory, 5, 38, 79, 82, 83–5; and the concept of bureaucracy, 7; functional theory, 101n7; garbage can theory, 19; human capital theory, 2, 60, 69, 92; rationalist theory, 2, 60, 79, 82, 89, 92, 96, 97
- participation in decision making, 4, 5, 25, 61; comparisons by race and gender, 62–6; determinants for nonwhite men and women, 71–2; determinants for white men and women, 69–71; see also authority structure, access to
- particularism, 42
- people-processing organizations, 11, 19, 97
- periphery, see core–periphery distinctions
- Perrow, Charles, 18–19, 42
- Pfeffer, Jeffrey, 20–1, 86
- power, 13–14, 91, 98; and authority, 56; imbalance of, 21; and race and gender, 14–15, 21; see also domination, subordination
- professionalism, 9, 56
- race, 1, 2–3, 5, 6, 8–11, 12–13; and access to formal authority structure, 62–6, 68–72; and network centrality, 59–60; and power, 14–15; see also ascription
- racism, see discrimination, inequity
- rank, see authority, achieved status
- rationality, 2, 8–11, 37, 42–3; compartmentalized, 12, 42, 100n7; see also organizational theory
- relative deprivation, 87–8, 90
- respect, see informal networks
- Ritzer, George, 86
- Rossi scale of seriousness, 44–6
- sexism, see discrimination, inequity
- social isolation, 24, 37, 91; of white men, 58
- social service delivery systems, 17, 20–1, 66, 86, 98
- social service organizations, 6, 14, 20
- sociometric analysis, 3, 102n12
- statistical interaction: tests for, 32–3, 68–72, 102nn3–5
- status offenders, 15–17, 44, 100n1; and delinquents, 18; see also clients, juvenile offenders
- stratification, 5
- subordination, 15; see also domination, power
- superimposition, 81
- support, see informal networks
- surveillance, 64, 105, 106n1
- technology, 18
- training, see achieved status
- treatment philosophy, incompatibilities in, 18–19
- United States Justice Department, 4, 16
- universalism, 18, 42, 66, 99
- Weber, Max, 8, 100nn1–3
- willingness to cooperate, 87; differences by race and gender, 87–8
- Willis, Paul, 88
- Witte, John F., 87
- work contacts, see informal networks
- work place, see achieved status
- work strain, 105n1
- youth: and ability to deal with clients, 26; and social attractiveness of nonwhite women, 94; and social attractiveness of white women, 91–2