

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More information

Index

- Abt Associates, 68, 76 acceptable risk; 8 accidents: avoidance of automobile (fear example), 54; death toll estimates and, 19–20, 21; denial of risk and, 292; injury and automobile, 280, 281, 282, 284, 285, 290–1; seat belts and probability of, 28 acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS), 116, 120; as health behavior model example, 124–7 adaptive behavior, precautions and, 209, 211 adjustments (hazard), 209–11, 213 adolescents: heart disease prevention program and, 91; motor vehicle training and, 284; peers and smoking and, 326; preventive health behavior analysis and, 132–4; smoking behavior and health behavior models and, 127–9; smoking behavior and social learning and, 47; smoking prevention study and, 4; see also children; smoking prevention programs (designed for adolescents) advertising: community studies and mass media, 153, 155; crime prevention program and council concerning, 267–8, 269; financial rewards of, 92; heart disease prevention and techniques of, 92; injury prevention and, 287; tobacco, 52
 Ajzen, I., 124, 140, 176–7, 181
 Aker, R. L., 128
 Alcalay, R., 153
 alcohol abuse, 291; health promotion in work place and, 300 alcoholic beverages, injury prevention and, 289 Alquist–Priolo Special Studies Act, 204, 217
 American Cancer Society, 161, 164
 American Heart Association, 8 anger, 75
 anxiety: smoking cessation and management of, 47; smoking prevention and, 171, 180
 Aristotle, 58
 Arkin, R. M., 176, 178, 179
 Arp, E., 301
 Asian flu, 121
 assertiveness, 179–80
 attitudes: smoking prevention and, 172–6, 180; work place programs and, 311
 Australian North Coast Project, 159 automobiles: child restraints in, 282, 286, 290; headrest restraints in, 292–3; injury and, 280, 281, 282, 284; reaction time and, 290–1; see also accidents; driving; seat belts autonomic states, 52
 availability heuristic, risk perception and, 19–21, 37
 Averill, J., 12, 327
 avoidance, 49; crime analysis and, 231, 232, 233, 235–6, 239–40, 241, 249; denial and, 58
 Baker, G., 199
 Bandura, A., 42, 152
 Barnes, K., 199
 Baumann, D., 220, 224
 Becker, M. H., 120, 122, 123
 behavioral intentions, smoking prevention programs and, 181–3 behavioral rehearsal, 180, 181, 183
 behaviorism, social learning theory and, 42 behavior management, work place safety programs and 300–1, 304–11 behavior modification: injury and, 284, 287–8; precautionary preparedness and, 212–13; preparedness and adaptive behavior and, 209, 211; social learning and, 43 beliefs, formation of, 43
 Belloc, N. B., 132
 Berkanovic, E., 135, 161
 Best, J. A., 161
 biases: diffusion and proinnovation, 86; information program (natural hazards)

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More information

338

Index

biases (cont.)

and, 223; precaution adoption process and, 192; prevention responsibility and 7–8; protective behavior and judgment, 19–22; risk information programs and, 37; smoking cessation student reports and, 161

Bickel, R. C., 82

Bickman, L., 259

Big Thompson Canyon flood, 198, 211, 221

blacks, crime and, 235, 238, 242, 245

blame, 108; diffusion analysis and, 86

block watch programs, 265, 274; see also citizen patrol programs body as symbolic vehicle, 102–3

Boggs, S., 242

Book of Job, analysis of emotions and, 62, 71

Botvin, G. J., 179–80

bounded rationality, 14, 18–19

Bregelman, J. L., 161

Breslow, L., 132, 153–4

brochures (information program), 220, 222, 223–4

Brock, B. M., 121

Bullough, B., 134, 136

Burby, R., 225

burglary, 254, 256, 258, 264–5

burns, 281

Burton, I., 193, 209, 212

bystanders, Genovese case and, 241

Califano, Joseph, 99

California Earthquake Education Act, 217

Calnan, M. W., 122, 123

cancer, 97; breast, 122; lung, 36–7

capitalism, 111

cardiovascular disease, 89–92, 93, 97, 157, 158, 160

Carson, Rachel, 65

Carter, President, 88

causality, 43

causes, emotions as efficient and formal, 58–60 certainty: precautionary behavior and, 201; warning messages and, 198

channels of communication; see communication channels

Chassin, S. J., 134

Cheatham, L., 225

childhood, health behavior analysis and, 132–4; see also adolescentschildren: auto restraints and, 282, 286, 290; injury and, 282–3, 290, 291; see also adolescents

Christensen, L., 223 chronic disease, see diseasecigarettes: self-extinguishing, 283; tax on, 162, 164; see also smoking entries citizen patrol programs, 259–60 citizen surveillance and reporting program, 259 civil defense programs, 227, 229

classical conditioning, 43; injury prevention and, 284, 287–8

Cleary, P., 70, 115, 116, 132, 133, 291, 325

Clifford, R., 197

Cloward, R. A., 243

Cobb, S., 120

Coe, R. M., 177

cognition: emotions and, 64–6; fear and, 57; health behavior and, 130 cognitive models of health behavior: critique of, 129–31; health belief model and, 120–3; limitations of (AIDS and smoking examples), 124–9; theoretical models relative to preventive behaviors and, 119–20, 140–3; theory of reasoned action and, 123–4 cognitive processes in conditioning (social learning theory analysis), 43

Cohen, A., 117, 332

Cohen, H. H., 301, 319

Cohen, J. D., 177

Cohn, E. S., 237, 238

Combs, B., 26

commitment, smoking prevention program and public, 182–3 communication channels: community smoking cessation studies and, 151–2; crime and, 266–72; diffusion of innovation and, 79, 81–3; heart disease prevention program and, 90–1; information and persuasive, 220; interpersonal, 152; precautions and, 13; work place safety programs and, 311, 312–15, 318 community-based cooperative activities: appropriateness of approach and, 331–2; crime and, 231, 234, 237–8, 239, 242–6, 247–8, 249, 255–7, 260–1; energy conservation and, 89; future directions and, 333–5; heart disease prevention program and, 90, 91

community studies of smoking cessation, see smoking cessation community studies conditioning: injury prevention and, 284, 287–8; social learning theory and cognitive processes in, 43

Conklin, J. E., 232, 238

Conrad, R. J., 301

consequences: information lack and, 334; innovation diffusion analysis and, 85–6;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More informationIndex

339

- natural disaster preparation and, 190–1;
 seat belt use and long-term, 49; smoking prevention program and social, 177–8 conservation of energy, 85, 88–9, 93 construct validity (smoking prevention studies), 184
 contraceptives, 80, 87, 92
 control: conceptual, 141; health as concept of, 103–7, 108, 109, 111, 112; preventive care and, 140; warning response and locus of, 200; work place hazard control programs and, 298–302
 coping, 133, 139; crime threats and, 271
 Cornelius, Randy, 76
 corporate health promotion programs, 101–2 Corrigan, B., 26
 cost-benefit analysis: failure to adopt precautions and, 325–6; indirect-risk preventive behavior and, 140; natural disaster consequences and, 190–1 courts, 242, 275
 Crawford, R., 13, 329
 Creswell, W., Jr., 178
 crime (precaution against), 117; avoidance and, 231, 232, 233, 235–6, 239–40, 241, 249; beliefs about efficacy of sources of help and, 241–2; community crime prevention activity differences and, 237–8, 239, 242–6, 247–8, 249; death toll estimates and judgmental biases and, 19; defining behavioral response to, 232–4; determinants of individual responses to, 234–42; emotional responses and, 55; gun ownership and, 231, 233, 236, 237;
 hazard categories and, 5; household protection and, 231, 233, 237, 239; initiation versus maintenance of responses to crime and, 246–9; prevention programs and, 6; response dimensions and, 231–2; self-protection and, 231, 233, 236–7, 239, 241; study conclusions (responses to) and, 249–50; theoretical perspective on prevention and, 11–12
 crime prevention programs: citizen activities and, 257–60; communication and persuasion strategies and, 266–72; community activities and, 255–7; conclusions concerning, 275; incentive to encourage citizen participation and, 272–4; key elements of, 261–3; model programs for, 263–6; protective behavior promotion and, 266; public concern and attitude toward, 254–5; reduction of barriers to citizen participation and, 274–5 Crime Stoppers Program, 273 criminal justice system, 242, 275 Crouse, E., 177
 culturally heterogeneous and homogeneous neighborhoods, crime prevention and, 244–5, 246, 263
 Cummings, K. M., 121, 141
 Cutter, A., 199
 Dahl, R., 212
 Danaher, B. G., 161
 Darwin, C., 62
 Davis (California), 89
Day After, The, (television movie), 68–9, 76
 death toll estimates: injury and, 280; judgmental biases and, 19–20, 21; risk comparisons and, 38
 decision frames: risk information programs and, 37; seat belt study and, 28; unstable, 23–5
 decision making: bounded rationality and,
 18–19; crime prevention programs and, 270; difficulty of risk, 326; information programs and, 36–9; innovation diffusion and, 83–4; perceived risk research and, 28–36; precaution taking and, 325; protective behavior study example (NFIP and seat belt) and, 25–8; rational model of protective, 15–18; risk perception judgmental biases and, 19–22; smoking prevention and, 171; unstable preferences and, 22–5; voting and, 51; warnings of disaster and, 196, 199–200 defenses (psychological), self-protective behavior and, 55, 56–8, 71
 denial, 57–8, 71; injury and, 292; risk un-derestimation and, 329
 Denver Urban Drainage and Flood Control
 District, 2
 Dewey, J., 66
 diffusion of preventive innovation, see innovation (diffusion of preventive)
 Diggory, J., 198–9
 Dillon, P. B., 135
 disaster experience, see experience with hazard
 disasters, see natural hazards precautionary behavior
 disease: breast cancer, 122; cancer, 97;
 death toll estimates and, 19–20; emotions analysis and concept of, 73; emotions and responses to, 56; heart disease prevention program, 89–92; lung cancer therapy study and, 36–7; shift from infectious to chronic, 96–7, 97–8; stress and, 110; vaccination program example and,
 16, 25; see also names of specific diseases

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More information

340

Index

- distress, health behavior and, 138–9 Drabek, T., 199
 driver training programs, 284–5 driving: accidents and reaction time and, 290–1; drunk driving programs and, 289; of fork lift, 301; motorcycle helmets and, 289, 290; protective behavior analysis and, 20–1; see also automobiles; seat belts drug abuse, 291; AIDS and, 126 drunk driving programs, 289
 DuBow, F., 232, 234, 235, 244
 Dubren, R., 161
 Durkheim, E., 234
- ear protection (work place hazard example), 308–10
 earthquakes, 92; California educational efforts and, 217, 218–19; FEMA program and, 217–18; hazard precautions and, 203; insurance and false sense of security and, 194; protective action programs and, 222–3; SCEPP and, 216–17 economics, health analysis and, 106, 111 education: crime and, 266–72; health behavior and, 122, 132–3; injury prevention and, 284–7; natural hazards and, 200, 202, 219, 228; protective behavior and, 327–8, 331–2; smoking and, 163; work place safety, 301, 318; see also information programs educational approach: emotions and, 67–73, 75; health program, 97–8, 99–102; social learning theory and, 52 efficacy enhancement, smoking and, 47 efficient causes, emotions as, 58–9 elderly: crime and, 235–6, 238, 239, 256; injury and, 291; work place and, 319 electrocution (injury), 281 emergency preparedness, see natural hazards precautionary behavior emotions: analytical approaches to, 55; as causes of behavior (efficient and formal), 58–60; cognition and, 64–6; cultural and subcultural norms and, 74–5; examples of influence of, 54–5; fear and, 54, 55, 57, 58, 59, 60, 62, 63, 64, 69, 70, 72, 74–5; health behaviors and, 130; identifying emotional responses and, 55–6; persuasion and appeals to, 67–73; physiological arousal and, 66–7; psychological defenses and, 55, 56–8; psychological mediating mechanisms and, 60–4; significance and meaning of, 73–4 employees, participation in work place hazard programs and, 315–17 energy conservation, 85, 88–9, 93 energy production, injury and, 281 environment, riskiness of, 332 environmental change, smoking cessation studies and, 153–4, 161, 163, 164 environmental hazards, perception of, 96, 98 ethnic groups: crime and, 263; health behavior and, 134–5; see also culturally heterogeneous and homogeneous neighborhoods evaluation (formative program), 90, 91; see also program evaluation exercise equipment, 92 experience with hazard, 328; labile values and evaluation of risk and, 22, 23; risk and, 20–1; value of, 329–30 extended sure-thing principle (rationality analysis), 17
- Fabrega, H., Jr., 135 families, 330; community studies and, 152, 153; NFIP and, 191 family planning, 86–8, 93 Farquhar, J., 154, 156, 160 fault tree study, 21, 22
 fear: crime prevention programs and, 257, 260, 270, 271; crime responses and, 232, 234–40, 254; denial and, 57, 58; emotion analysis and, 54, 55, 59, 60, 62, 63, 64, 69, 70, 72, 74–5; Grimm's tale concerning, 76; health behavior and, 138–9; natural hazard programs and, 221; precautions and, 12–13, 202; protective behavior and, 327–8; smoking and social learning and, 47; work place program and, 313
 Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA): earthquake awareness program of, 217–18; legal action program of, 216 federal government: crime prevention programs and, 275; disaster insurance and, 27; hazard categories and, 5; health agencies of, 98
 Feins, J. D., 248
 Ferrone, L., 181
 films: persuasive (emotionally), 68–9, 76; smoking prevention, 175; work place program, 312
 Finland (smoking cessation program in Karelia), 48, 156–9 fire-related injury, 281, 287
 Fischhoff, B., 12, 18, 22, 26, 129, 137, 291
 Fishbein, M., 124, 177, 181
 Fisher, E. B., Jr., 177
 Flay, B. R., 161, 177
 flood plains: information programs and,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More informationIndex

341

- 222, 224; land acquisition plans and, 216; land use plans and, 225; NFIP protective study case example and, 26–7; prevention case study and, 2–3; protective decisions model and example of, 16; risk perception and, 193; theoretical perspective on prevention and examples of, 11; warnings of flood and, 196, 197, 198, 200, 221; see also National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP)
- Folkman, S., 140
- formal causes, emotions as, 59–60
- frames, see decision frames; time frames
- Framingham Study, 97
- French, S., 225
- Fritz, C. E., 197
- Furstenberg, F. J., 232
- Geertsens, R., 135
- genetics, 131
- Genovese case, 241
- Gerber, B., 161
- Gill, A. D., 258
- Gilroy (California town), 154–5
- Glasgow, R. E., 116, 175, 177
- Glynn, L., 134
- goal setting (realistic), 46
- Goodwin, D. W., 131
- Gourash, N., 82
- government, see federal government
- gratification delay, 44
- Gray, R., 135
- Greenberg, S., 64, 117
- group approaches: crime prevention and, 270; precautionary measures and, 331
- group comparisons, community studies and, 162–3
- Guardian Angels, 260
- gun control, 289
- gun ownership, 231, 233, 236, 237
- guns, injury and, 282
- Guten, S., 121–2
- Guze, S. B., 131
- Haas, J. E., 224
- Haddon, W. Jr., 282
- Haefner, D. P., 121
- Haitians, AIDS and, 126
- Hansen, W. B., 161
- Harris, D. M., 121–2
- Harris, R., 301
- Hawaii, 226–7
- hazard adjustments, 209–11, 213
- hazards: awareness of, 1–2; defining, 208–9; emotions and defenses and, 55; multi-hazard approach to protective behavior studies and, 5–7; perception of increased environmental, 96, 98; personal contact with, 329–30; politicalization of health, 98; see also experience with hazard; natural hazards precautionary behavior; work place hazards; names of specific hazards
- health behavior: see health consciousness (new American); health risks (health behavior and precautions against)
- health consciousness (new American): commercialization of health promotion and, 101–2; cultural roots of prevention and, 99; health as control and, 103–7, 108, 109, 111, 112; health as metaphor and, 102–3, 112; health as release and, 107–12; hospital and corporate health promotion programs and, 101–2; individualized responsibility for health and, 98–9; lifestyle changes and, 95, 96, 107, 109; politicalization of health hazards and, 98; popular health movements and, 99–101; public health education programs and, 97–8; social and experimental subsystems and, 96–102
- Health Consequences of Smoking, The*, 154
- health foods, 101
- health information, long- and short-term, 174–6
- health issues: acceptable amount of risk and, 8; multihazard approach to protective behavior and, 5; social learning theory and, 47–9
- health promotion, commercialization of, 101–2
- health promotion programs, 101–2, 116, 139; work place and, 300–1
- health risks (health behavior and precautions against): adolescent smoking and, 127–9; adult social and cultural influences and, 134–6; AIDS and, 124–7; childhood and adolescence influences and, 132–4; cognitive models critique and, 129–31; cognitive models of health behavior and, 120–4; genetics and, 131; problem of incorporating complex issues into models of, 140–3; risk assessment and, 136–8; social psychological factors and, 138–40; theoretical models relative to preventive behaviors and, 119–20, 140–3
- heart disease, 97, 157, 158; prevention and, 89–92, 93, 160
- Heinzelmann, F., 117
- Heller, N. B., 258
- helmets (motorcycle), 289, 290

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More information

342

Index

- Henderson, A. H., 175
 Hermansen, L., 131
 heuristics, risk perception and availability, 19–21, 37
 Hirschman, R., 134
 Hochbaum, G. M., 120, 121
 holistic health, 100, 110
 homicides, 19, 21
 homosexuals, AIDS and, 126
 Hopkins, B. L., 302, 304, 307, 319
 Horwitz, A., 135
 hospital health promotion programs, 101–2 household injury hazards, 286 household protection (crime), 231, 233, 237, 239, 256–7, 272–3 housekeeping (work place), 300, 302, 304
 HTLV-III screening tests (AIDS), 124–7 Hurd, P. D., 179, 182, 183
 hurricanes, 198, 221, 223, 330
 Hutton, J., 195, 225
 Hynes, M., 22
- illness behavior models, see cognitive models of health behavior incentives: crime prevention and, 272–4; family planning, 87; natural hazards and precautions and, 195, 202; NFIP and, 215; protective behavior and, 327–8; seat belt use, 49; smoking cessation, 47–8; social learning theory and, 44; work place safety programs and, 311 income, 106, 122
 information: crime precaution and, 249; crime prevention and, 266–70, 271–2; natural hazards and public, 202; precaution and risk, 194; precaution and warning message, 195–201; risk, 327, 328, 331–2; short- and long-term health, 174–6; work place safety program, 301, 303, 312–15, 318
 information processing, 56
 information programs: future directions and, 333–5; precautionary actions and, 212–13, 219–21, 222–5; risk, 36–9; self-protective behavior and multihazard approach and, 6; smoking prevention program and, 174–6, 183 initiation, adoption of precautions and, 246–9, 330 injury prevention: conclusions concerning, 293–4; data and background on, 280–1; individual and organizational limits and, 290–3; laws and, 288–90; public health strategies and, 283–8; technical strategies for, 281–3; types of injury and, 281; work-related disorders and, 300
- innovation (diffusion of preventive): characteristics of innovation and, 80–1; communication channels and, 81–3; decision process and, 83–4; defining, 79–80; diffusion research and, 80–6; energy conservation and, 88–9; family planning diffusion and, 86–8; heart disease and, 89–92; innovativeness and, 84; rate of adoption of, 81, 84; significant contribution of diffusion perspective and, 93–4; social system and, 84–6; time element and, 83–4; weakness of diffusion approach and, 86, 92–3; work safety and, 299–300 insurance, 92; crime prevention programs and, 272–3; decision frames and example of, 25; false sense of security and, 194; flood, 222; hazard adjustment and, 209 intentions, smoking prevention programs and, 181–3 interpersonal networks, diffusion of innovation and, 82, 83, 91, 93 intrauterine device (IUD), 86–7 introspection, 138
 irrational behavior, 44
 Irwin, R. P., 178
- Janis, I. L., 59
 Janz, N. K., 120, 122, 123
 Jason, L. A., 181
 Jensen, R. C., 301, 319
 Jessor, R., 128
 Jessor, S. C., 128
 Jette, A. M., 121
 job safety, see work place hazards jogging, 95
 Johnson, C. A., 161, 179
 judgmental biases, protective behavior and, 19–22
- Kahneman, D., 18, 23, 25, 37, 137, 193
 Kane, R. L., 135
 Kasl, S. V., 120
 Kates, R., 209
 Kessler, R. C., 133
 Kirscht, J. P., 120, 123, 124
 Klauber, M. R., 135
 Knight, Frank, 18
 knowledge: preemergency, 200; smoking prevention and, 172–6; work place programs and, 311
 Kolde, R. A., 258
 Koskela, K., 158, 161
 Krohn, M. D., 134
 Kunreuther, H., 26, 195, 202

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More informationIndex

343

- Lakatos, I., 63
 Land acquisition plan, 216
 Land-use plan (flood plain), 225
 Langlie, J. K., 122, 136, 140
 Lavrakas, P. J., 233, 238, 250 law: injury prevention and, 288–90; motor-cycle helmets and, 290; seat belt, 289–90; work safety, 299
 Lears, Jackson, 111
 Leathar, O. S., 161
 legal action program of FEMA, 216 legislation: injury prevention and, 288–90; motorcycle helmets and, 290; seat belt, 289–90; work safety, 299; see also regulation
 Leventhal, H., 59, 72, 120, 121, 134, 138, 139, 141, 176
 Lewis, D. A., 233
 Lichtenstein, S., 12, 18, 22, 26, 129, 137, 291
 Liebowitz, B. D., 236
 Life Skills Training Program, 180
 Lifestyles, health and changes in, 95, 96, 107, 109
 Lindbloom, C., 212
 locus of control, warning response and, 200; see also control
 London Civil Servants Smoking Trials, 159 Lord, W., 225
 lower class, see social class Luepker, R. V., 179 lung cancer therapy study example, presentation of risk information and, 36–7

 McAlister, A., 161, 177, 329, 330
 McCaul, K. D., 116, 177, 183
 Maccoby, N., 154, 161 machine function dangers, 299
 Mack, R., 199
 McKay, H., 128
 McKinlay, J. B., 135
 McNeil, B. J., 36
 magazines, health care and, 102
 Maile, M. C., 141
 Maiman, L. A., 123, 141
 maintenance (work place), 300, 302 Maslow, A., 44
 mass media: community studies and, 151–2, 155, 161, 164; crime programs and, 267–70, 273; future projects and, 334; heart disease prevention program and, 90, 91, 93; injury prevention and, 287; innovation diffusion and, 81, 83; seat belt programs and, 50
 Maxfield, M. G., 234, 238
 Mechanic, D., 132, 138 media, see mass media
 mediating mechanisms (psychological), 60–4 medical testing, 102
 Mendelsohn, H. 271
 mental health, 133
 Merton, R. K., 128
 middle class; see social class
 Mileti, D., 116–17, 195, 197–8, 200, 225
 Minnesota, 216
 minority neighborhoods, 243, 244–5; see also neighborhood entries mobilization and crime response, 232 modeling: innovation diffusion and, 82; natural hazard adoption and, 202–3; natural hazard programs and, 221; seat belt use programs and, 49; smoking and peers and parents and, 128; smoking cessation and peer, 48; social learning theory and, 45–6, 52 models: diffusion research, 80; social, 326; see also cognitive models of health behavior Mollica, M., 181
 moralization of health behavior, 99, 104, 105, 108, 111 moral power, influence on behavior and, 212 morbidity, 130
 Morgan, D. L., 82
 Morgenstern, D., 16
 mortality, 130; cardiovascular disease (Finland), 158; injury and, 280, 285; see also death toll estimates
 Moss, S., 122, 123
 Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), 75 motivation: appeals to, 329; precaution against crime and, 233–4, 234–40, 246; precautionary behavior, 203–4; social learning theory analysis and, 44; work place safety program and 302–4, 305, 306, 307, 309 motorcycle helmets, 289, 290 motorcycles, drive reaction time and, 291 motor vehicles, see automobiles; driving; seat belts
 Multiple Risk Factor Intervention Trial, 159
 Murray, D. M., 179, 182

 National Consumer Health Information and Health Promotion Act of 1976, 99
 National Crime Prevention Campaign, 267, 269

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More information

344

Index

- National Earthquake Hazards Reduction Act, 217
- National Flood Insurance Program: (NFIP) natural disaster precautions and, 191, 195, 202, 203, 204; precaution adoption and, 213, 215–16, 220, 225, 228; as protective behavior study example, 26–7; see also flood plains
- National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), 117, 298, 302, 312, 315, 333
- National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), 218, 220, 221
- Nationwide Insurance Company, seat belt use study and, 3
- natural hazards precautionary behavior: adoption and, 201–4, 209, 211; appeals to motives other than self-protection and, 203; consequences of natural disasters and, 190–1; defining hazards and, 208–9; hazard adjustments and, 209–11; information programs and, 219–21; precautionary action determinants and, 191–5; program evaluations and, 221–8; programs that encourage, 208, 212–19, 228; protective action maintenance and, 203–4; public information and education and, 195–201, 202; research and, 189, 222–6; risk (perceived) and, 193–4, 201; social pressure and, 202–3; warnings and 195–201
- neighborhood protective behavior (crime), 257
- neighborhood response to crime, 231, 234; differences in, 237–8, 239, 242–6, 247–8, 249, 255–7, 260–1; see also crime entries
- newsletters, crime prevention, 269–70
- newspapers: community studies and, 164; heart disease prevention programs and, 90
- Newton, I., 282
- nicotine, 47
- Nisbett, R., 18
- Nixon, President, 97, 288
- noise (work place hazard example), 308–10
- norms, cultural and subcultural, 74–5
- North Dakota, 216
- North Karelia Project, 48, 156–9
- nuclear power: precaution warning analysis and, 199, 200; risk perception studies and, 34–5
- nuclear war, film to promote nuclear disarmament and, 68
- O'Brien, D. J., 243
- occupational hazards, see work place hazards
- Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), 312
- O'Keefe, G. J., 271
- O'Neill, H. K., 177, 178
- opinion leaders: crime prevention programs and, 247–8; heart disease prevention program and, 91; innovation diffusion and, 83; smoking prevention and peer and adult, 178–9
- overconfidence, protective behavior decisions and, 21–2
- Palm, R., 222
- Pauker, S. G., 36
- Pavlov, I., 43
- Pechacek, T., 7, 179
- peers: family planning and, 87; heart disease prevention program and, 91; innovation diffusion and, 82–3, 93; seat belt use and, 50; smoking and, 47, 48, 134, 326; smoking prevention and, 171, 177, 178–9, 182, 183; as social learning models, 45; voting behavior and, 51–2
- perceived risk, see risk perception
- performance expectations, 46
- Perry, R., 199
- personal hygiene, 97, 302
- personality traits, 76
- personal protective equipment, 299, 300, 302, 307–8
- persuasion, emotional appeals and, 67–73, 75
- physicians, 330; injury education and, 285–6; not taking advice of, 327; self-care movement and, 100
- physiological arousal, 56, 66–7
- Piven, F. F., 243
- Planned Parenthood, 86
- Podelefsky, A., 244
- police, 239, 243, 247, 255, 260, 264, 272, 289
- politicization of health hazards, 98
- popular health movements, 99–101
- Pratt, L., 132, 136
- precautions: determinants of action and, 191–3; failure to adopt, 325–7; fear and, 12–13; hazard awareness and, 1; imitation and social pressure and, 330; prevention responsibility and, 7; theory of, 193–5; see also crime (precaution against); health risks (health behavior and precautions against); natural hazards precautionary behavior; protective behavior
- pregnancy prevention, 80
- prevention: cultural roots of health consciousness and, 99; future directions in, 333–5; hazard awareness and, 1–2; mul-

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More informationIndex

345

- tihazard approach to study of protective behavior and, 5–7; responsibility for, 7–8; theoretical perspective on, 11–13; unsuccessful programs in, 332; see also crime prevention programs; injury prevention; smoking prevention programs (designed for adolescents)
- prevention case studies: seat belt use, 3; smoking and teenagers and, 4; urban flood plain, 2–3
- preventive behavior: analysis of general issues and social learning theory and, 52–3; application of social learning theory to health and safety promotion and, 47–52; basic concepts of social learning theory and, 43–6; development of social learning theory and, 42–3, see also health risks (health behavior and precautions against)
- preventive innovation, see innovation (diffusion of preventive)
- production (work safety), 300
- program evaluation: crime prevention 262–3; formative, 90, 91; prevention programs and, 334; work place behavioral change and, 304, 316
- property-marking programs, 256, 258
- protective behavior, 115; bounded rationality and, 18–19; emotions and, 55; 74–5; hazard awareness of, 1–2; information programs and, 36–9; judgmental biases in, 19–22; moralization of health behavior and, 99; multihazard approach to, 5–7; NFIP study example and, 26–7; overview of analysis of, 14–15; psychometric scaling paradigm of perceived risk and, 28–33; rational model for protective decision making and, 15–18; risk evaluation difficulties and, 22–5; risk perception research and, 33–6; seat belt study example and, 27–8; social learning theory and general questions and, 52; theoretical perspective on prevention and, 11–13; time delay and, 130; voting and, 50; see also crime (precaution against); health risks (health behavior and precautions against); injury prevention; natural hazards precautionary behavior; precautions; work place hazards
- protective equipment (work place), 299, 300, 302, 307–8
- Protestant world view, health and, 104, 105, 108, 111
- pseudocertainty, 25; see also certainty; uncertainty
- psychological characteristics of precautionary behavior, 194–5, 200, 201
- psychological mediating mechanisms, 60–4
- psychometric scaling paradigm, perceived risk studies and, 28–33
- public commitment (smoking prevention program), 182–3
- public health education programs, 97–8; injury prevention and, 283–8
- public response, risk perception studies and, 34–6
- punishment, 45; injury and conditioning and, 287–8; work place safety programs and, 309
- Puska, P., 156, 158, 159, 160, 161
- Quake-Safe Program, 221; see also earthquakes
- race, crime and, 235, 238, 242, 245; see also blacks
- radio, 155; crime surveillance and, 259; heart disease prevention program and, 90, 93
- radioactive emissions, 328
- Rapid City flood, 200; see also flood plains
- rationality: model of protective decision making and, 15–18; protective behavior and bounded, 14, 18–19; smoking and, 129
- Reactions to Crime Project, 233
- Reagan administration, 88
- reasoned action (theory of), 123–4, 128, 129, 140
- recombinant DNA technology, perceived risk study and, 35–6
- Red Cross, 221, 229
- Reeder, S., 135
- regulation: health hazards and, 98; injury and, 292; natural hazards and, 212, 213; see also legislation
- Regulska, J., 218, 219
- rehearsal (behavioral), 180, 181, 183
- reinforcement: community studies and, 152, 153, 155; seat belt use and, 49, 50; smoking and social, 47, 48, 49, 161, 163, 164; social learning theory and, 44–5; social modeling and, 45, 46; voting and peer, 51–2; work place programs and, 310, 317–18, 332
- release, health as concept of, 107–12
- Repucci, N. D., 82
- responsibility: crime and intervention, 241, 254–5, 262, 274; crime precautions and, 231; hazards and government agency, 5; heart disease program and, 90; individualized health, 98–9; prevention, 7–8
- Richardson, B., 199, 200

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More information

346

Index

- Rieff, Phillip, 103, 111
 Rindfleisch, M., 135 risk: acceptable amounts of, 8; decision difficulty and, 326; denial and underestimating, 329; heart disease program and reduction in, 90; information about, 327, 328, 331–2; injury and denial of, 292; precautions and information concerning, 194; see also health risks (health behavior and precautions against) risk behavior theory, 325–7 risk comparisons, 37–8 risk compensation theory, 292 risk evaluation, 136–8 risk perception: bounded rationality and, 18–19; information programs and, 36–9; judgmental biases in, 19–22; natural hazards and, 193–4, 201; protective behavior and research concerning, 33–6; protective behavior study examples and, 25–8; psychometric scaling paradigm and, 28–33; rational model for making protective decisions and, 15–18; responses to crime and, 240–1; risk factor analysis and, 1; unstable preferences and, 22–5 robbery, 254
 Roberts, B. R., 243
 Robertson, L., 73, 118, 318, 319, 332
 robotics, 319
 Rogers, E., 13, 330
 role playing: smoking cessation programs and, 49; smoking prevention programs and, 171
 Rosenstock, I., 120, 121, 240, 271
 Ross, L., 18
 Ruch, C., 223
 rural sector, crime and, 242–3
 Ruth, M., 120

 safety (occupational), see work place hazards Salloway, J. C., 135
 Savage, L. J., 17
 Schelling, T., 128, 129
 Schirmerman, S. R., 258
 Schinke, S. P., 180, 181
 Schneider, A. L., 232
 Schneider, P. B., 232 schools: seat belt use and, 50; smoking prevention case study and, 4 Schulsinger, F., 131 seat belts, 330; diffusion of innovation and, 80; emotional persuasion and, 69; injury and, 282, 284, 288, 292, 293; laws governing, 289–90; as prevention case study, 3; as protective behavior study example, 27–8; social learning theory and, 49–50; see also automobiles; driving Seattle, 263–4
 security survey programs, 258–9
 Seeman, M., 140
 Seeman, T. E., 140
 seismic safety elements program, 218–19; see also earthquakes self: educational programs and sense of, 75; theories about, 63 self-care (health), 300
 self-confidence, 46
 self-control, 44
 self-destructive behaviors, 44 self-efficacy: health behavior and, 139–40; social learning theory and, 46, 52; voting behavior and, 51 self-esteem, 52, 133, 139, 180, 326 self-help groups (health), 100–1 self-protection (crime), 231, 233, 236–7, 239, 241, 256 self-protective behavior, see protective behavior self-reinforcement, see reinforcement sense of security (false), insurance and, 194 sex differences: crime and, 235–6, 239; health and, 110; smoking cessation and, 158, 178 shame, use of, 75
 Shaoul, J., 285
 Shaw, C., 128
Silent Spring (Carson), 65, 68
 Simon, H. A., 18, 65, 68
 Sims, J., 220
 skill acquisition, 45
 Skogan, W. G., 233, 234, 238
 Slesinger, D., 136
 Slovic, P., 12, 18, 22, 26, 129, 137, 192, 291, 328, 334 smoke detectors, 284, 285–6 smoking, 116, 120; cancer and, 97; consequences of cessation and, 85; developmental factors and, 134; health behavior model example and, 127–9; heart disease and, 97, 157, 158; heart disease prevention program and, 89, 90, 91, 92; identical twin studies and, 131; parents and, 134, 161; peers and, 326; prevention case study and, 4; social learning theory and, 47–9; statistics on, 95; taxes on cigarettes and, 162, 164; value of stopping, 327 smoking cessation community studies: Finland project and, 48, 156–9; future research and, 163–5; methodological problem

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More informationIndex

347

- lems and, 162–3; related studies of, 160–2; similarities in studies of, 159–60; study characteristics and, 150–1; theoretical basis for planning, 151–4
- smoking prevention programs (designed for adolescents): discussion (conclusions) concerning, 183–4; intentions and, 181–3; knowledge and attitudes and, 172–6; measures of subjective norms and, 176–7; overview of, 170–1; peer versus adult leaders and, 178–9; social competence and, 179–81, 182; social consequences and, 177–8
- Sobel, J. L., 161
- social class: crime and, 243–4, 245, 263; distress and, 133; health as control and, 103, 106; health as release and, 107–8; wellness movement and middle, 100
- social competence, smoking prevention programs and, 179–81, 182
- social isolation, 52
- socialization, 133
- social learning theory, 12; analysis of general issues and, 52–3; application of (in promotion of health and safety), 47–52; basic concepts of, 43–6; development of, 42–3
- social modeling, see modeling
- social network: community studies and, 152, 164; diffusion of innovation and, 82–3, 91, 93
- social pressure: natural hazard adoption and, 202–3; precaution adoption and, 330; protective motivation and, 326; smoking prevention and, 174, 175
- social psychological factors, health behavior and, 138–40
- social reinforcement, see reinforcement, social subentries
- social skills: smoking prevention study and, 180; smoking prevention study program for, 4
- social support: community studies and, 153, 158, 164; health behavior and, 135–6; self-confidence and, 46
- social system: innovation diffusion and, 84–6; precaution decisions and, 199–200
- Sontag, Susan, 103
- Sorenson, J., 116–17, 199, 200, 220, 225, 226
- Southern California Earthquake Preparedness Project (SCEPP), 216–17
- Sox, H. C., Jr., 36
- Spitzzerri, A., 181
- Stanford Heart Disease Prevention Program, 82, 89–92, 93
- Stanford three-community (smoking cessation) study, 154–6
- Starr, C., 33
- Stauffer, D. J., 178
- Stenzel, W. W., 258
- Stephenson, J., 199
- Stinchcombe, A., 240
- stress: disease and, 110; health and, 139; self-confidence and, 46; smoking and feelings of reduction of, 47; social programs and, 52
- stress management: heart disease program and, 90, 93; social ties and, 153
- Strickland, B. R., 140
- styrene exposure (work place hazard example), 304
- Suchman, E. A., 135–6
- suicides, 21
- sure-thing principle (rationality analysis), 17
- surgery, 283
- Sutherland, E. H., 128
- Swiss National Research Program, 159
- Syme, S. L., 153
- Symons, M., 301
- taxation, smoking cessation and cigarette, 162, 164
- “teachable moments” (trigger events), 92, 272
- technology, risk perception studies and, 34–6
- teenagers, see adolescents
- Telesky, C., 135
- television: community studies and, 155, 164; hazard information programs and, 223; heart disease prevention program and, 90, 91, 93; injury prevention and, 287; smoking cessation program in Finland and, 48, 161; see also videotaping
- Texas Coastal and Marine Council, 218
- theory of reasoned action, 123–4, 128, 129, 140
- therapist, social learning theory and, 46
- Third World nations: diffusion model applied to, 80; family planning and, 86, 87, 88
- threats: crime, 271; preoccupation with short-term, 52
- Three Mile Island nuclear power plant, 199, 200
- time frames: innovation diffusion analysis and, 80, 83–4; perceived probability of disaster and, 2–3, 27, 28; self-protective behaviors and, 130
- Time* magazine, 68, 126

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-32435-9 - Taking Care: Understanding and Encouraging Self-Protective Behavior

Edited by Neil D. Weinstein

Index

More information

348

Index

- Titus, R., 248, 260, 274
 tornado warnings (Wichita Falls, Kansas), 211; see also warnings Tough Times Never Last but Tough People Do (Schuller), 106 toxic substances, 299, 328
 Trainer, P. B., 224 training programs: driver, 284–5; work place safety, 302–4, 305, 306, 307, 318 transitivity (rationality analysis), 17 trigger events, 92, 272
 tsunami hazard program, 224
 tuberculosis, 121
 Tversky, A., 18, 23, 25, 37, 137, 193
 twin studies, smoking and, 131 uncertainty: innovation adoption and, 80; precaution adoption and, 330; warning message inconsistency and, 197, 198

 United Nations, 86
 University of Minnesota, 179 unstable preferences (risk evaluation difficulties), 22–5
 Urban Crime Prevention Program, 248
 U. S. Agency for International Development, 86 utility: of a course of action, 16; protective programs and, 226 vaccination: decision frames and, 25; program example for, 16 values: innovation and existing, 81; precautionary behavior and, 195; risk evaluation difficulties and labile, 22–3 van Ert, M. D., 301

 Vanmarcke, E., 22
 Veatch, R. M., 130
 ventilation controls (work safety), 299–300, 301 victimization (crime), 236, 238, 239, 240, 250, 255, 256, 259, 272, 275 videotaping: safety training and, 305–6; smoking prevention program and, 180, 182; see also television von Neumann, J., 16
 voting behavior, 50–2

War and Peace (Tolstoi), 65 warnings: characteristics of effective, 197–9; flash flood, 221; hazard adjustment and, 209, 227; personal and situational factors and, 199–201; research on, 195; response process and, 196–7; social pressure and, 202–3; utility of heeding, 16
 Waterstone, M., 223, 225
 Watsonville (California town), 154–5
 Watts, J., 72
 weight control, 89, 90, 91, 92, 115–16
 Weinberg, A. M., 34
 Weinstein, N. D., 130, 137
 wellness movement, 100
 White, G. F., 209
 Wichita Falls (Kansas), 211
 Williams, T., 301
 Winokur, G., 131
 women: crime and, 235–6, 239, 256; work place and, 319 work ethic, 104, 105, 108, 111 working class, see social class work place hazards: behavioral measures and control programs for, 300–1; behavior management approach application and, 304–11; conclusions and recommendations concerning, 317–20; methods of shaping self-protective actions and, 302–4, 305, 306, 307, 318; nature of hazard control behavior and, 301–2; need for hazard control and, 298–9; nondirective approach to fostering self-protective actions and, 311–17
 World Health Organization European Collaborative Trials, 159

 Zohar, D., 308, 310