

Index

- adultery, 46, 47
 agriculture, 5; and attitudes to work, 137;
 and cottage industry, 127–30; field systems, 31, 128–9, 130, 137, 190; importance of the working year, 81–2; outworkers' attitudes to, 149–50; and proto-industrialisation, 190; redeployment of outworkers in, 158 almsgiving, 154–5, 157, 162; and loss of parish rights, 20, 155, 175; recipients of alms, 10–11, 13, 16
 Appenzell, 146, 175, 179; cottage industry house, 119–20; Hirzel's description of, 135 Ascetic and Economic Societies, 97 associations, see societies bailiffs, 193

 Bärenswil: entry charter, 24; poverty in, 166, 172
 Bauma parish, number of residents, 115–16
 Baumberger, Hans, 13 beggars' weddings, 42–3, 45, 60; and poverty, 158, 165 begging, 16, 155–6, 157, 158, 172–5
 Bernhard, Hans, 30, 113, 114
 Bertschinger, Hans, 18
 Beyel (district captain), 146
 Billeter, Kaspar, 102
 Birch, Inspector von, 137
 Bodmer, Anna, 16
 Boller, Johannes, 120 books: in country schools in Zurich, 95–6; at the Wädenswil Reading Society, 103
 Bösch, Michael, 78
 Bosshart, Elsbethli, 16
 Brägger, Ulrich, 68, 72, 109, 152 bread consumption, 63, 65 bread dole, 155, 175 bread prices, 162–3
 Breitingner, Jakob, 101
 Brennwald, Pastor, 105–6
 Brunner, Hans, 19

 Bubikon: entry charter, 24; poverty in, 166 building restrictions, 33; and the decline of agriculture, 130; in villages, 31, 51, 112, 122–4
 Bülach, population, 53
 Burg, Magdalena, 15
 Bürkli, David, 157

 calico industry, 179–80 carriers, 139; and attitudes to work, 142, 143–4; and payment of outworkers, 143–4,
 145; and poverty, 160
 Caspar, Josef, 12
 charcoal-burners, 13, 137 cheating, among outworkers, 142–3, 144 childbirth, attitudes to, 51, 55 children: attitudes to, 51, 54–5; migration of, 14–15; of the poor, 17, 158; and Rast- giving, 54, 55–9; as spinners, 12, 13, 16, 17, 18, 132–3, 139, 152; at spinning places, 92–3; and the work ethic, 132–3 chimneys, and village rights, 121, 123 churches: inauguration of Wädenswil, 99, 100; and the outworkers, 93–5; parishes, 193, 194; and Poor Relief, 155; sittings in (kirchenörter), 61–2; see also clergy; Protestant work ethic; religion class consciousness, 151 clergy: attitude to poverty, 163–4, 165, 168, 169; see also churches; religion clothes, 69–74; clothiers, 80; outworkers, 69–74; women in Maschwanden, 105–6; young unmarried girls, 86–7 clothiers, 4, 80–1; and attitudes to work, 143–4; clothes, 80; education and culture, 98, 101; houses, 126; and payment of outworkers, 143–4, 145; and poverty, 160; and revolutionary philosophy, 108 clubs, 106; see also societies coffee, consumption of, 64–5 community: need for, 2–3; sense of, among outworkers, 149–53

228 Index

- conversation circles, 101–2 cotton spinning, 144 cotton weaving, 145, 148 179–81
 courtship, 42–6, 83, 85–6, 192
 Custer, Annemarie, 108
- daughters: attitudes to work, 140, 141; lack of housework skills, 66; obligations of, 54 day-labourers, 14, 19, 20–1, 137, 193; attitudes to work, 138; poverty of, 11–12 diet, see food divorces, 45, 46, 47
 dress, see clothes
- earnings, see payment system; wages Ebel, J., 126
 economic rationalism, and attitudes to work, 141, 146 education: country schools in Zürich, 93, 95–6; and cultural change, 97–105
 Egli, Hans, 19
 Ehksam, Hans, 12
 embezzlement, see cheating entry charters to villages, 22–5, 122, 124, 193–4 Erisman, Margaret, 15
 Escher, Heinrich, 95, 96
 Escher, Johann Kaspar, 70, 88
- Factory Ordinance (1717), 142, 144, 145 famine, 162–3
 farmers, see peasants farming, see agriculture farmsteads: and churches, 93; and the collapse of the spinning industry, 179; cottage industry smallholdings, 118–19; house design, 118–19; living conditions, 125; neglect of, 57, 165; numbers of inhabitants, 116; selling of (Stutz family), 149; and spinning work, 124 fertility, 53–4, 191
 Fischenthal: landless outworkers in, 172; numbers of marriages, 39; population, 53, 166; poverty in, 166
 Flarz houses, 48, 117–18, 120, 121, 123, 127, 186 flax, growing and spinning, 8, 9 folklore analysis, 1–3 food, 62–8; of clothiers, 80; and entertainment of visitors, 82; price rises, 159, 160, 181–2; in times of poverty, 151
 French Revolution, influence of philosophy, 108
 Fretz, Diethelm, 97, 99, 100–1, 103
 Frey, Jakob, 12
 Furrer, Jagli, 18
- geographical distribution, of the cotton putting-out industry, 33–4, 35
 Goethe, J. W. von, 140 going to the light (zu Licht gehen), 44, 46
 Graaf, Salomon, 160
 Grob, Adam, 160
 Grüningen district: agriculture, 128, 129; earnings and attitudes to work in, 148; and revolutionary ideas, 108
 Grüningery, Elsbeth, 11
- Halbherr, Hans, 18 hamlets: growth of, 48, 93, 115, 116; living conditions, 125; and spinning work, 124 hawking, 173
 Heidegger, Johann Heinrich, 88, 89
 Helvetic Revolution (1798), 61, 87, 89, 130, 176, 179 hemp, growing and spinning, 8, 9
 Hess, Elisabeth, 63
 Hess, Heinrich, 16
 Hess, Senator Heinrich, 63
Hinausbauen, see villages: building restrictions
 Hinwil: entry charter, 25; population, 52, 53
 Hirzel, J. C.: on agriculture and cottage industry, 127–8, 129, 130; on attitudes of outworkers, 69; on attitudes to work, 134–5, 136, 138; on clothes, 71; description of the Oberland, 30–1, 32; on food consumption, 64–5, 66, 67–8; on landless outworkers, 171; on marriage patterns, 38, 39, 40, 42, 45; on population growth, 51–2, 53–4, 114–15; on the propertied outworkers, 171; on Rast-giving, 58; on religion, 95; on village living conditions, 51
 Hochholzer, Samuel, 156
 Hofmann, Anna, 18
 Hottinger, Johann, 163 house ownership, 17–19; and sittings in church, 62; and village rights, 18, 19, 22, 27–8, 120–1 housekeeping, and putting-out work, 126–7, 140–1 houses, 111–27; building materials, 127; construction of new, 112, 113; Flarz, 48, 117–18, 120, 121, 123, 127, 186; living conditions in villages, 51, 122–7 Hübscher, Anna, 18
- industrial landscape, 184–5 inheritance patterns: changes in, due to industrialisation, 38–9; and cottage industry, 165 insurance, attitudes to, 169, 182–3
 International Association of Workers, 151

Index

229

- Karasek-Langer, A., 185
 Keller, Bertha, 166
 Keller, Wilpot, 18
 kinship groups, and housing, 117–18
 kitchens, communal, in shared houses, 121
 Kläüi, Paul, 34
 Köchli, Heinrich, 101
 Köllin, Major (of Zug), 135
 Krebsler, Heinrich, 53, 67, 107
 Kunz, Hermine, 141
 Kyburg district: agriculture, 128; revolutionary ideas in, 108
- Lähner, Hans, 19
 land: dividing up of common land, 130; patterns of use, 31–2, 128–9 landless outworkers, 19–20; conspicuous consumption of, 73–4; families, 55; and potato growing, 68; and poverty, 165–70, 171–3; and Rast-giving, 57–8 landowning outworkers, see propertied
 outworkers
Lichtstubeten (lighted rooms), 83, 84–6, 192
 linen weaving, 8
Lise and Salome (Stutz), 56
 Lochmann, Hans, 12 luxury: changing attitudes to, 72–80; and living conditions, 125–6; and the Protestant work ethic, 136
- Maater, Jörg, 13
 Männedorf, minister of, on silk weavers, 141, 142–3
 manufacturers, see clothiers marriage patterns, 38, 39–40, 41–7, 59–60, 122; beggars' weddings, 42–3, 45, 60, 158, 165; and changes in life style, 126; community of the unmarried, 83–9; and fertility, 53–4; numbers of marriages, 39; and proto-industrialisation, 191, 192
 Maschwanden, 105–6; living conditions in, 123 meat consumption, 63, 64, 65
 Medick, Hans, 192
 Meier, Johann Ludwig, 67
 Meiners, C.: on diet of factory workers, 65, 66; on houses of factory workers, 125; on improvements after industrialisation, 129; on life style of factory workers, 68, 71; on marriage patterns, 39, 54; on new settlement patterns, 48; on poverty and crises, 159
 Meister, Leonhard, on luxury and ostentation, 75–6, 78, 79
 Mendels, Franklin, 188–9, 190, 191
 Meyer, Gerald, 52–3 migration, from the Oberland, 14–16, 34, 173 military bands (Feldmusikanten), 98–9 money, attitude to, of factory workers, 68–9
 Moos, Lienhart, 11
 Morf, Hans, 166
 Müller, Barbel, 14
 Müller, Felix, 15
 Müller, Heinrich, 160
 Müller, Jörg, 13, 14
 music societies, 99–100, 101, 102, 106
- Nägeli, Johann Jakob, 99
 Niederer, Arnold, 136 Nüscherer, J. C.: on churches, 93; on courtship practices, 44–5; on living conditions in villages, 122–3, 127; on population growth, 61; on Rast-giving, 57;
 on village living conditions, 51
- Oberholzer, Jakob, 63
 Oeri, Jakob, 141
 Oetelin, Jakob, 15 Orelli, Salomon von, 71–2; on life style of clothiers, 80–1; on ostentation among outworkers, 82; on the Stäfa Music Society, 99–100; on Wadenswil societies, 98, 99–100
 ostentation: changing attitudes to, 72–80;
 clothiers, 80–1; and living conditions, 125–6; and the Protestant work ethic, 136 ovens, and village rights, 121, 122, 123
- parish rights, see village rights payment system, in the putting-out industry, 143–5, 146
 peasants: attitudes to work, 136–7, 147; and day-labourers 20; outworkers' attitude to, 149–51, 168; security arrangements, 169–70; and putting-out work, 17, 32; in Zurich, 3–5
 Pestalozzi, Johann Heinrich: on Appenzell and Zurich, 146; on attitudes to work, 141; on the clothiers and culture, 98, 101;
 on culture and education, 97; on luxury and ostentation, 75, 76–7, 78, 79; on unemployment among outworkers, 159
 Peterhans-Bianzano, G., 107
 Pfaffhuser, Felix, 12
 Pfister, Barbara, 11
Picture from the Life of the Common People
 (Stutz), 149–50
 Plato, 156
 poor people: attitudes to work, 137–8; in the Oberland, 10–17, 23–4; see also poverty
 Poor Relief, 154–8, 164, 193; and landless outworkers, 172; and propertied
 outworkers, 171

230 Index

- population: concept of over-population, 21; growth, 24, 34, 51–4, 60, 61, 114–16, 129, 191; numbers in poverty, 166
- potatoes, consumption of, 65, 66–8
- poverty: attitudes to, 151, 153, 154–83; in the Oberland, 10–17, 20, 23, 28–9, 166
- pregnancies, pre-marital, 44, 45, 122
- price rises: and the collapse of the spinning industry, 178; food, 159, 160, 162–3, 181–2; and poverty, 159, 160; and propertied outworkers, 170
- proletarianisation, 148–9
- propertied outworkers: attitudes to poverty, 170–1; and clothing, 69–70; diet, 62–4; families, 54, 55, 56–7; and Rast-giving, 56–7, 59
- property, attitudes to, 20
- prostitution, 46, 47
- Protestant work ethic, 74, 131–6, 138, 153; and poverty, 155, 157, 161
- proto-industrialisation, 188–92
- Rast*, the, 139
- Rast*-giving, 54, 55–9, 66
- reading societies, 98, 101, 102–5
- Regensberg, population, 52, 53
- regional bifurcation, 190
- religion: and begging, 155–6; and the outworkers, 93–6; and Poor Relief, 155–7; and poverty, 161–2; see also churches; clergy; Protestant work ethic
- rights, see village rights
- Ruegger, Heinrich, 11
- Rügger, Elsbeth, 16
- Russeger, Maria, 16
- Sänn, Hans, 16
- Schänkel, Barbara, 15
- Scheller, Martha, 16
- Schinz, Salamon, 166; on the clothiers, 81; on marriage patterns, 40, 41–2; on population growth, 51; on spendthrift habits of factory workers, 68; on the starvation year (1817), 72–3
- Schmidli, Anna, 18
- Schmidt, C. G., 80, 155
- Schneller*, the, 139, 140
- Schönenberg, silk weaving in, 128
- schools, see education
- Schulthess, Johann: on attitudes to children, 55; on beggars, 173; on corruption among outworkers, 142; on diet of factory workers, 65; on marriage patterns, 42, 44, 45–6; on population growth, 51; on spinning places, 90
- Schweizer, L. J., 172
- Seidel, Robert, 134
- Shrove Tuesday nights, 85, 86
- Sigg, Anna, 18
- silk weaving, 128, 141, 142–3, 148
- Singing Schools, 98–9; see also songs
- smallholdings, cottage industry, design of, 118–19
- social class: in the countryside, 193, 194; and the putting-out industry, 181; in Zurich, 3–4
- societies, 97–108; conversation circles, 101–2; importance of statutes, 104, 105; music, 99–100, 101, 102, 106; reading, 98, 101, 102–5
- songs: of spinners, 139–40, 149–50; sung at spinning places, 90–1, 92
- spinners: attitudes to work, 138–41; children as, 12, 13, 16, 17, 18, 132–3, 139, 152; clothes, 69; eating habits, 66; living accommodation, 124, 125; songs, 139–40, 149–50; wages, 164
- spinning: collapse of hand spinning, 37, 177–81; hemp and flax, 8, 9; and poverty, 10–14; and the work ethic, 133
- spinning parlours (Spinnstuben) 85, 86, 90–3
- spinning places, 90–3
- Spörri, Jorg, 16
- Stäfa Music Society, 99–100
- statutory regulation, of the putting-out industry, 144–5
- stealing, among outworkers, 142–3, 144
- Steinmann, Jakob, 15
- Sternenberg, poverty in, 166
- story-telling, at spinning places, 90, 91, 92
- stoves, and village rights, 121–2
- Straub, Anna, 16
- Strehler, Hedwig, 84
- Stucki, Barbel, 16
- Stutz, Jakob: on attitudes to work, 142; on beggars, 173; on clothing of outworkers, 74; on food consumption, 66; on poverty, 162; on Rast-giving, 56; sale of parental farm, 149; on Shrove Tuesday practices, 85; songs of spinners, 139–40; on spinning places, 90, 91, 92; on the starvation year (1817), 168; stories of childhood, 132–3; on tradition, 147; as weaver, 152
- Sulzer, J. C., on food consumption, 63
- Sundays: observance of, 132; social life of the unmarried on, 86–7
- Swiss Farmer in the Age of Early Capitalism* (Schmidt), 80
- Tawney, R. H., 157
- Temperli, Jageli, 13
- tithes, payment of, and potato growing, 66–7
- Toggenburg, 175; cottage industry house, 119–20

Index

231

- town burghers: clothes, 70; houses, 127; and the transmission of culture, 97–8, 99, 100; in Zurich, 3–5
- town councils, 193
- tradition: and attitudes to work, 136–7, 146–8; belief in, 2–3
- Trüb, Elsbeth, 14–15
- Trüb, Jagli, 14
- unemployment, 14, 158, 159
- unmarried, community of the, 83–9
- vagrants, see beggars
- vandalism, 83–4
- village rights: and agriculture, 130; and entry charters, 22–5, 122, 124, 193–4; and forms of housing, 120, 121–4; and house ownership, 18, 19, 22, 27–8, 120–1; loss of, by alms recipients, 20
- villages: administrative structures, 193–4; building restrictions, 31, 51, 112, 122–4; living conditions, 51, 122–7; and population growth, 114–16
- villeins, 19, 194; and village communities, 25–6, 27
- Vogel, Heini, 12
- Vogler, Magdale, 12
- Wädenswil: agriculture in, 129; inauguration of church, 99, 100; population, 52; societies, 98, 102–5, 107–8
- wages (earnings): and attitudes to poverty, 157; in the calico industry, 180; hand spinners, 17, 177; and marriage patterns, 40; of outworkers, 88, 148, 150–1; and poverty of outworkers, 158, 159, 160, 164
- Wald parish: care of poor children, 158; development of, 48–9; potato growing in, 66–7; sittings in church, 61–2; societies, 106, 107
- weavers: attitudes of different types, 152; attitudes to work, 138, 140, 141; life style of women, 72; living conditions, 124–5, 126–7; male, 91; wages, 164
- weaving: silk, 128, 141, 142–3, 148; linen, 8; transition to domestic weaving, 179–81
- Weber, Hans, 16
- Weber, Hans Jageli, 12
- Weber, Max, 130, 134, 157
- Weiss, Richard, 109
- Werndly, Jageli, 14
- Wettstein, Jakob, 16
- Wildberg, poverty in, 166
- Winkler, Jageli, 15
- Wirth, Jageli, 11–12
- Wohlegemut, Jakob, 18
- women: abandoned wives and widows, 15, 16–17; attitudes to work, 140–1; in Maschwanden, 105–6; weavers, 72, 126–7
- work, attitudes to, 131–53; and the outworkers' sense of community, 149–53
- work places, 89–93
- worker movement, Swiss, 151
- Wyla, poverty in 166
- Wyss, Klein-Jagli, 18
- yarn production, 8
- yarn spinners, 152
- young people (community of the unmarried), 83–9
- Zappert, Conradt, 14
- Zschokke, Heinrich, 103
- zu Licht gehen*, see going to the light
- Zuppinger, Heinrich, 12
- Zurich, textile industry, 3–6, 8–10
- Zwingli, H., 131, 132