

Cambridge University Press

0521360641 - Different Worlds: A Sociological Study of Taste, Choice and Success in Art -
Liah Greenfeld

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

Introduction	page 1
1 Historical background	9
The pre-State period: intelligible art	9
From the foundation of the State to the mid 1960s: the appearance of Abstract art and the beginning of the split into subsystems	15
From the mid 1960s to the present: the split into two subsystems	25
2 The population of painters and the split into subsystems	42
3 Patterns of success	52
4 The “gatekeepers” – critics	77
5 The “gatekeepers” – curators	95
6 The “gatekeepers” – gallery owners	110
7 The artists – attitudes of Conceptualists and Lyrical Abstractionists	126
8 The artists – attitudes of figurative painters	136
9 The publics	146
10 Conclusion	161
Appendices	178
Notes	197
Index	205