abbas (Irish ap), 249, 269
abbot controlled material assets of a church, 273 derived high status from the rank of his church, 267 extent of authority of some abbots, 251
in Ireland wide sense of, 225 relatively likely to be given a patronym in the annals, 273–5 title is associated with a church, 264–5
Abelenus, bishop of Geneva, kinsman of Agrestius, 364 Aberlemno churchyard, Pictish sculpture in, 301
Achad Bó, see Aghaboe acquired land, 88–9 Adaloald, Lombard king, 374, 376
adhar ríg, ‘material of a king’, 91 Additamenta in the Book of Armagh, 11
admonitio (tecosc), 138–40
Ado, 371
Adomnán, ninth abbot of Iona, 181
Bede on, 438–7
brings back the captives taken from Brega to Northumbria, 344 converted to the Roman Easter, 410, 426 friend of Aldfrith, king of the Northumbrians, 326, 341 friend of Ceolfrith, abbot of Wearmouth-Jarrow, 326, 436–7 Adomnán, Life of St Columba, 3–4, 191–2, 283–5, 483 and Wilfrid’s championship of the Rule of St Benedict, 325–6 audience of, 289–90
central aims of, 488, 525–6
not propagandist for the Ui Neill, 494 on Aed Slane and Diarmait mac Cerball, 507–8 on Colmán Elo, 66–8
on Columba and the Picts, 304–5 on Columba and the Ui Neill, 441–2 on deaths of kings, 303–4 on Diarmait mac Cerball, 63 on early descendants of Niall, 432 on Irish names, 3–6
on kings of Tara, 493–4
on Niall, 194–6, 198
on prophecy and miracles of power, 191–6 presents different picture of Columba from that in the Amra, 286–90 adoption, 439
adventus of a king, 475–6
Aed, bishop and subsequently anchorite of Sleaty, 261–2 Aed Allán (Aed mac Fergaile), king of Tara, 280, 479, 511
aggressive policy towards Leinster, 520, 575
and the promulgation of the Law of Patrick, 584 killed at the battle of Serethmag, 573
meets Cathal mac Finnguini at Terryglas, 394 victor at the battle of Áth Senaig, 575 victories over Cenél Conaill and the Ulaid, 573 Aed Bennain, early king of Munster from Éoganachta Locha Léin, 537
Aed Dub, bishop of Kildare, 95
Aed Dubh/Aed the Black, king of Dál nAraidaí, 394 killed Diarmait mac Cerball, 63, 295, 547
Aed Firthliath (Aed mac Neill), king of Tara, 591 Aed mac Ainnmarc, king of Cenél Conaill and of Tara, 55–90, 305, 487–490 and the ‘conference of the kings’ at Druimn Cete, 487–8, 491 behind the foundation of Durrow, 555
Aghaboe (Achad Bó), monastery of St Æthelfrith, king of Bernicia and Deira, Agilulf, king of the Lombards, an Arian, Agrestius, former monk of Luxeuil,
Áed Sláine, Uí Néill joint-king of Tara,
Áed mac Echach, king of the Connachta, Áed mac Colgan, king of Leinster,
Áed mac Dharmata, 95
Áed Oirduide (Áed mac Néill), 198, 278, 557, 588–9
Áed Sláine, Uí Néill joint-king of Tara, 6, 21, 491, 520
Agribo (Achad Bó), monastery of St
Ailbe, patron saint of Senchue (Shancough), Ail Clúaide, equivalent to Aileán, Ailerán,
Áed Sláine, Uí Néill joint-king of Tara, 6, 21, 520
Agribo (Achad Bó), monastery of St
Aill Molt, supposed king of Tara, 460–4, 468
airc, 'patience', recommended by Seála Cao aire tuísea Aircéadair, equivalent to Ailbe, patron saint of Eile, associated with a provincial cón, 516
Ailbe, patron saint of Sechnae (Shanough),
Aidne, district of, 49
Aircol, king of Dyfed,
Ailbe, patron saint of Eile, associated with a provincial cón, 516
Ailbe, patron saint of Sechnae (Shanough),
Áed Sláine, Uí Néill joint-king of Tara, 6, 21, 520
Agribo (Achad Bó), monastery of St
Ailbe, patron saint of Eile, associated with a provincial cón, 516
Ailbe, patron saint of Sechnae (Shanough),
Aidne, district of, 49
Aircol, king of Dyfed,
Index

military obligations of, 461, 511 origin-legend of (The Three Collas), 513–14
Amand, saint, Jonas assists in his mission, 551, 596, 599
Ambrosius Aurelianus, parents of, wore the purple, 168
Albald (Olaf), son of the king of Laidirith, takes tribute from the Irish, 597
Amianus Marcellinus, fourth-century
Roman historian, 157, 158, 160
Amolngada, sons of, 25, 48, 51
Amolngid mac Conaing, king of Munster, 558
Amolngid mac Éndae, king of Munster, 538
Amlaíb (Óláfr), son of the king of Laithlind, 530–531
Amon, abbot of Iona, 326
Amurath, Briton, and then exile from overseas, 222
Albann, Briton, king of the Lambards, 347, 464–5
Anglo-Saxon royal centres, 474–5
Anglo-Saxon missionaries in Germany, 177
Anglo-Saxon royal centres, 474–5
Ammianus Marcellinus, fourth-century
Roman historian, 157, 158, 160
Anmchad mac Con Cercae, king of Osraige, 594
Annals of Inisfallen, king-list in, 483–4, 487
Annegray, monastery founded by Columbanus, 8, 326, 336
Armchair, grade of poet, 131
Applecross, monastery of (Wester Ross), 245 Aquileian schism (Three Chapters schism, Trecapitoline schism), 594 history of, 372–4 Aquileians, attitudes of, as perceived by Columbanus, 372–6 aor, ‘charioteer’, the servant of the aor ‘chariot warrior’, 544
Arad, 544
Araid, ‘charioteers of Clíu’, a Munster people, 532 archbishops
and the pallium, 419–20 bishops of Armagh and Kildare claimed to be, 416, 426–8 in Gregory the Great’s Registrum, 419–20 Justian I and, 420–1 very rare in the West in the sixth and seventh centuries, 244 Arét, 293
Arild of Brigit, 31, 32
Ardagh, Co. Longford (Ardachad), 23 (Map 3), 31, 32 linked with the cult of Brigit, 260 royal dynasties, 494, 521–2 Aicme, 48–9
presents different picture of Columba from that in Adomnán’s Life, 285–90
Aloid, king of the Ui Neill, 597
Amolngid mac Conaill, may have been ally of Congal Cáech, 493
Ailbhe, render-payer, base client, commoner, 101, 134–5, 137
Ailbuird, ‘doorkeeper’, 132
Ailcheth, laird of a duch, 139, 153, 155
Ailfóidhsháith, ‘base-client people’, 139, 546, 557
and cáin, 599
aithe, public surety or guarantor, and the cáin, 563, 566–7 aithe chuardai, guarantor of a treaty, 567
Alan, a federation of peoples, 138, 160
Altair, 485
Alþanur, the, and thus exile from overseas, 222
Ailmuin, king of the Lambards, 347, 464–5 rejected Catholicism in favour of Arisantine, 374 Ailgin, 131
Ailfrith, king of Northumbria, 330
friends of Aedhmain, abbot of Iona, 263, 326, 341, 436 sponsoring in confirmation by Ailbehain, abbot of Malmesbury, 340 Willfrid allowed back from exile after his death, 441 Ailbehain, abbot of Malmesbury and subsequently bishop of Sherborne on English in Ireland, 9, 337 sponsored Ailfrith (later king of Northumbria) at confirmation, 340 ale of Cúalaí, as prerogative of the kingship of Léinster, 95 Alexandria, status of patriarchate of, 207
Alges, 64
Ailfrith, sub-king of Deira, supporter of \( \text{Alf} \)
Ailfrith, king of Deira, 318–20
Ailfrith, a唯一的 king of Tara among
Index

- Ardbraccan (And Brecchain), 18 (Map 2)
  - episcopal, 272
- see dál
- Assal, 22, 242
- Arverni, 199
- Artbranan, a naturally good pagan, see
- Asterius, bishop of Milan, resided at Genoa, 252
- Argaman, battle of, 594
- Argyll, Irish settlements in, 161
- Arian, 267–7
- Ardbraccan (Ard Breccán), 57
- and Delmain Assail, 27
- and Emain Macha, 489
- and Emain Macha, 519
- and Mide, 467
- and the expulsion of Desiderius of Vienne, 278
- and Delbnae Assail, 416
- and Mide, 467
- and Mide, 542
- and the expulsion of Desiderius of Vienne, 278
- Art mac Cuinn, legendary ancestor of the
- Atacotti, allies of the Scotti, 160
- perhaps a federation led by the Ulaid, 159–60
- Áth Chlath ("Hurdle-Ford"), ford over the Liffey by Dublin, 553–4
- Áth Fadat (Aghade, Co. Carlow), perhaps a church associated with Bishop Iermínus, 234
- Áth Fábot, identified with Áth Fadat, 234
- Áth Goan, battle of, 498
- Áth Truin, see Trim
- Athairne, legendary fhi, as prophet of Christ, 197
- Athula, abbot of Bobbio, 346, 389
- and Bertulf, 390
- date of death, 364
- Jonas acted as assistant to, 353
- Athfo/a, Pethic province, 305
- Atila, 207
- Augustin, bishop of Canterbury, 223
- Augustine, bishop of Hippo
  - and the salvation of people before Christ, 209
- De Doctrina Christiana, 177
  - on the Fall, 203
- Ausoecus na Æc, The Primer of the Poets', 579–80
- augu{n|a}thi, 'labourers, substitute labourers', 110
- Authari, Frankish noble and father of Ado, 422–3
- Dado and Rado, 276
- Bazán mac Cairill, possible king of Tara, 276
- Bazán mac Muireadaig (mac Maic Ercae), king of Tara, 489–90
- Bazán mac Nimeda, king of Tara, 491
- Baille Chainn, 491–2
  - Baireadh, see of Sachellus and main church of
  - Ciarraige nAí, 44–5
- significance of the name, 45
- Baitheine (alias Conin), second abbot of Iona, 4–6, 307
  - belonged to Cenél Conaille, 482
  - banchomarbae, "female heir", 87, 103
- Bangor, monastery of, 52, 67, 99, 224
- and its dependent houses, 245
- attacked by Vikings, 396
- Columbanus goes into +peregrinatio +n. from, 344
- Cormac, abbot and patron saint of, 344
  - foundation of, 250
- Bann disk, as evidence of the aesthetic culture of Iron-Age Ireland, 148
- barbarian conspiracy of AD 597, 160–1
- Bambó Commons, 102
- bair, "treetop", a metaphor of kinship, 84
- base clientship, see clientship, base
- Bèst, saint, Rule of, 387, 398
Index

676

Book of the Angel (Liber Angeli), 11, 27
date of, 438–9
see also Armagh, archiepiscopal claims of Book of Armagh, see Armagh, Book of Book of Cíamait, lost set of annals, 460–1 border region, around Slieve Bloom, 31, 393–6 Bosa, bishop of York, 340
bothach, category of half-free, 71, 80, 112, 133, 135
Bothdonnach (Bodoney, Co. Tyrone), 53
Boyle, monastery of, probably subject to Iona, 259 Bradwell-on-Sea, former Roman fort and Ceddi’s church, 316
Brandub mac Echach, king of Leinster, 490
Bran mac Conaill, king of Leinster, 262 Bran mac Muiredach (Bran Ardchearn), king of Leinster, 459–70
married to the sister of Domnach mac Donnall, king of Tara, 578
Brandub mac Echach, king of Leinster, 490,
500
Brecán, merchant of the Ui Néill, 387–8 Brege, 15–22
attacked by Vikings, 389
churches of, 271–3
contrasted with Connacht, 36
earlier probably part of Leinster, 136, 431–8
English invasion of, 417, 432–3; 434–5; 438
‘the head of all paganism and idolatry’
(Munich), 17
Southern, 233–4
Bregenv, Columbamus preached at, 383
Bregmaine, 16 (Map 1)
Brendan, patron saint of Birr, 277
allied with Columba according to Adomnán, 283–4
Brendan, patron saint of Clonfert
allied with Columba according to Adomnán, 283–4
associated with cium, 566
Bresal, abbot of Iona, promulgates the Law of Columba, 563, 578
Bresal mac Murchadha, 394
Bréach, the, 52
Botha Comainchasa, legal tract on neighbourhood, 81, 100–2
Botha Nuin Tó isch, Munster legal tract, and base clientship, 75 and Tara, 383
Bretuns, 510
Brt Éile, battle of, 461–2
Brt Garad (Cell Garad), church of Céthech
(Cethniachus, Caetonicus), 42–4, 46
Brt Léith (Co. Longford), 4
Brian Borúna (Bornú), 483, 570
Bridei, see Bruide
Brigants, 187
Brigantes, 99, 186–7
Brigantia, 186–7
Brigit, saint, 187
and Bishop Brón mac Ínui, 49 and Fothairt, 14 and Leinster, 238–9 and Southern Tethbae, 31, 35 and Wales, 238–9
as a slave, 69, 108
father of, Dubthach, 69, 108 hagiography of, on maps, 198
parochia of, 435
see also Cognitous, Bethu Brigt Britain
Irish settlements in, 138–63
Roman, 153–8
British Church
and education, 176–9 Britons, and the conversion of the Irish, 184–6 lands of, used to encode Rípón, 330 moved away from their Roman past, 323 Britons of Strathclyde or Dumbarton, 61 involved in the conversion of the Picts, 306–8
relations with Dál Riata, 306–7
Broichán, Pictish sage, 304 Brón mac Ínui, saint and bishop, disciple of Patrick, of Caiel Errai, 43, 49–51
Bructeri, constituent people of the Frankish federation, 158
Bruide mac Maelchon (Breidius filius Maelchon), king of the Picts, 294, 296, 322 and Columba’s mission to the Picts, 306 and the marriage of her sister Galw something in Chlipere, 350
and the marriage of Ingud to Herrononegell, 356
and the marriage of Theuderic II to Ermenegild, 359–60
destruction of her descendants by Chlothar II, 352–9
hagiographical and historiographical onslaught on her reputation, 353–5 implications of her death for Jonas’ Life, 352–9
made a scapegoat by Jonas for ecclesiastical disputes, 359
made a scapegoat for the faults of the Frankish royal family, 353
Index

a second Jezebel according to Jonas, 337
brath, ‘soure’, as personal quality, 143 Bréhmaing (kingdom in south Wales),
bilingual inscriptions in, 172
Irish settlements in, 164
‘bull-ruler’ (báthphlas), 320
fán, ‘trunk’, a metaphor of kinship, 84 Burgundy, Frankish kingdom in which Cáin Adomnáin supported by Loingsech mac Óengusa, 280
re-enacted and associated with relics, 564
associated with the beginning of a reign, 565
forus cáno
kings of Munster in the guarantor-list of, 280 geographical scope of, 524 promulgated at Birr, 281 operation of, 566–9 promulgated at a rígád, also seen as ‘the Irish synod’, 569
re-enacted and associated with relics, 564
referred to in Crích Gablach, 280 supported by Loingsech mac Óengusa, 280 Gáin Lámsna, legal tract on sexual unions and their dissolution, 109–11
Gáin Fuinhibe, 525, 580
Caínnech, patron saint of Aghaboe, 121–22, 262–4
allied with Columba according to Adomnán, 263–4
cana, ‘alliance, treaty’, 104, 113
as a mode of royal authority over Irish settlers, ‘free peoples’, 539, 584
Caisel, see Cashel
Caisel Érte (Ire), church of Bishop Brón, 42–3, 49–54
Calatruiu (Gadairiu), 18 probable royal seat of a branch of the Ui Chernaig, 579, 577
call of the road, 31
Callraige Tremain, 22
Cambus (Camos), monastery of, 57
Candidus, papal rector in Provence, cano, grade of poet, 131
Canno mac Gartnáin, Dál Ríatan prince, probable royal seat of a branch of the Uí
Chernaig, 579, 584
Cáin F·uithre, 311
Cainnech, patron saint of Aghaboe, culri, ‘alliance, treaty’, 104, 113
Carrac, church of, acquired by Clones, Cashel, royal seat of kings of Munster, 146, 522 by ninth century known as ‘Cashel of the kings’, 481
entry of kings into, 475 Murchad mac Brain, king of Leinster, made inaugural expedition against, 481 ‘necdy of king of, 560
see also ‘Connall Corc and the Corcu Loígde’ (Corcu Loígde), Frithfólad Muman and ‘The Story of the Finding of Cashel’ Cassin, John, and cenobitic monasticism, 225
Bíslíte, 386–8
on dunam and on the eight principal vices, 287 works of, known to Columba and to Cummian, 287
Cathal mac Áeda (of Uí Chernaig), 478–9
Cathal mac Bóthgar, king of Munster, 280, 478, 529
Cathal mac Muireidigh, king of the Conmaichi, 478–9
Cathbad, legendary druid, 141–2
Cambridge University Press
0521363950 - Early Christian Ireland - T. M. Charles-Edwards
Index

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
monk should not be buried in paternal, 7 Cenandus, see Kells Cenad Albe, battle of, 430
cowl, ‘kindred’ but also ‘descendent’, 92–3 unanimus, ‘of equal descent’, 94
Cenél nAongae, a name for Eóganacht Aine, 536
Cenél nÉrdgaib (of the southern Uí Néill), 16
(Map 1)
Cenél nBogomn (branch of Cenél Connáill), 52
Cenél Coirpri (of the Uí Néill), 408
Cenél Coirpri Droimna Clach, 38, 59 distribution of territories of, 16 (Map 1), 20, 39 (Map 4), 40, 521
genealogy of, 607
object of Tírechán’s hostility, 20, 29, 571
Cenél Comgaill (one of the constituent cona of Dál Riata), 296–7 Cenél Connáill (of the northern Uí Néill), 52, 55 allies of Cenél Coirpri, 571 alternate with Cenél nÉogain in kingship of Tara, 494
and Tírechán, 37
and the Uí Néill, 444–3
Columba their saint, 37 decline of, 572–4
genealogy of, 605
most abbots of Iona belonged to, 286 powerful when Iona was founded, 286–7
Cenél nÉndai (of the southern Uí Néill), 16
(Map 1), 28, 52 (Map 6)
Cenél nÉogain (of the northen Uí Néill), 14
n., 35, 51, 52
aggressive policy towards Leinster, 570–1 alternate with Cenél Connáill in the kingship of Tara, 494
alternate with Cenél Conaill in the kingship of Tara, 571–3
and Cenél Conaill, 444–3
found within, 495–6, 571
genealogy of, 605
not favoured by the Chronicle of Ireland, 704, 840, 501
rise of, at the expense of Cenél Connáill, 572–4 Cenél Fergus Scandail, a branch of Eóganacht Airthir Chlach, 531–4, 544
Cenél Fáilchach (of the southern Uí Néill), 16
(MAP 1), 28, 49, 446
genealogy of, 605
lost territory after the sixth century, 534–5
see also Aed mac Bricc, Fir Chell, Tir Coll, Unnich
Cennél Naomh (one of the cona of Dál Riata), 60, 296–7
Index

Chlothar II, king of the Franks, 300–1, 363
Chagnoald, Frankish noble, bishop of Laon, 557, 558

Cenél Laarn (one of the Cénél of Dál Riata), 6, 55, 296–9
Cenél Loair (one of the Cénél of Dál Riata), 6, 55, 296–9 Cenél Loigiae (of the southern Uí Neill), 16 (Map 1), 19 associated with the church of Trim, 273 Cenél Maini, 16 (Map 1)
as king-makers, 34, 5, 96, 548
Cenél nÓengusa (one of the Cénél of Dál Riata), 295–7
Cenn Fíarac mac Blathmac, king of Tara, omitted by Baile Chaon, 432 Cerdiluit, abbot of Wearmouth-Jarrow and Adomnán, 326, 341, 416, 436–7 and events of 688, 341
and Lindisfarne, 341 commissions the Codex Amiatinus, 335 letter to Nechtan, king of the Picts, 391–2, 419, 411–12, 414–15
pupil of Wilfrid and monk of Ripon, 324, 336
Cere (Carra), district of, 47
Gertrude, Munster people, 544
Córtach (Ceththucha, Cartachus), bishop, patron saint of Br Garad, 43–8, 50 name probably British, 43–4 Chad, saint, bishop of York and later of Lichfield, 320, 340
body of, enshrined at Lichfield, 342 his supporters labelled ‘Quartdecimans’ by Wilfrid’s supporters, 320
Chagnard, Frankish noble, bishop of Laon, 383 welcomed Columbanus, 371
Chaledon, Council of, 206–8
Charles the Bald, 591, 597
Childebert I, king of the Franks, summons Council of Orleans in 549, 373
Childebert II, king of the Franks, 332, 388 children, 70–1, 82–3, 108, 113–15 protected by ‘the Law of the Innocents’, 70
Chilperic, king of the Franks, 370
Chlothar I, king of the Franks, and Radegund, 379–80
arrangements for his burial, 382
Chlothar II, king of the Franks, 310
godfather of Merovech son of Theuderic II, 351, 393
his interests served by Jonas’s Life of Columba, 353–5
Chronicle of Ireland, six and the manner of death, 593–4 dispassionate between 650 and 710, 501 does not include non-Uí Néill rulers, but impartial among the Uí Néill between 540 and 610, 503
favourable to Cúladh Cholmain between 740
and 840, 501
for fifth and early sixth centuries, 443–4 447–51, 458, 462–4
on Croatia mac Neill, 447–51
on kings of Tara, 501–3
church
community of a church, 117–23
grades of the Church, 125–31, 132–3 head of, derived high status from his church, 267 local organisation of, 239–40
churches
alliances of, 122–3
and dynasties, 264
dependent, 27–8, 39–40, 245, 259–7 episcopal, lose episcopal rank because of political failure of their kingdoms, 58–61, 267 linked headships of, derived from a genealogical connection, 61 status of, 132–3
violence between, increasing in the late eighth century, 594–6
ciall, ‘calculating intelligence’, 142
cialluald, ‘wily ruler’, 142
Ciamhacht Breg, 16 (Map 1), 21, 273, 499, 511, 540 distribution of lands of, 553–4 part of their lands taken by the Uí Néill, 551
Chonaing, 551
Ciamhacht Glinne Géimh, 52 (Map 6), 36
(Map 5), 541
Ciamhachtach, origin legend of, 459, 466–7, 501–4
and the Uí Néill, 466–8
for Ógaha, said to be related to the Eoganachta, 549 Ciarán of Clonmacnois, later became the leading saint of the Connachta, 67
Law of, 501–2, 506
Ciarán of Snaigé (Séchnáir), 27, 341 n.
Claraíocht, 57
Clairvaux n’Airt, 39 (Map 4)
Clareairc, 37, 39, 40–41, 44–6, 58
Claireairc, Connacht, 37, 39
Clariarraig Ilushairt, 522 summer, ‘one in bounds and liable to death-penalty’, 118, 241, 571 Cinéide mac Ailpin, king of Picts (and of Irish in Britain), 590 Cinéide mac Conaille, king of North Brega, rebelled against Mael Sechnailt, 597 court (visor)
as expression of lordship, 10
circuit (saint) (cont.)
of overking and poet, 15 cloister (City of refuge), 120 has a judge, 246
Clann Cholmáin, branch of Uí Néill ruling Mide, 6, 16 (Map 1), 21–2, 34, 467 alternate with Cenél nÉogain in the kingship of Tara, 571–3. favoured by the Chronicle of Ireland, 749–840, 204
genealogy of, 664
peaceable policy towards Leinster, 570
rise of, 572
supporters of the Columban federation, 519, 583
Clann Donnagail, branch of Eoganacht Claisil, 538
clerks protected by ‘the Law of Innocents’, 70 Clermont, 243
di, grade of poet, 131
client, base, as kinsman, 89–90 ‘feuds’ his lord, 74
clientship, base, 68, 71–80
the basis of nobility, 133–4 generally ensures till death of the lord, but in Munster often longer, 74 in Munster, 75–9
of kings and peoples, 399–4 rests on scarcity of livestock, 75 clientship, free, 71
of kings and peoples, 591–1
clientship, ministerial, 542–5, 547, 548
no good evidence outside Munster for, 555–6
Cluain Ernáin (Clonarney),
23 Cluain Éois (Clones),
120
Cluain Fertae Mo Lua (Clonfertmulloe), 25
Cluain Fertae (Clonfert), 42 (Map 2), 253
Cluain Fertae Mo Lao (Clonfertmullroe), 251, 257
Cluain Fosta Bánaimn Aba (Clonfad), 22 n., 23
(Carlisle), ‘playing-field’, 114
Craobhae, see Kith
Coedhab, bishop of Iona, 308 n.
Coel Dé (Cédlub) mac Íta, 454 Cogitosus, ‘the Bishop of Béigín’
date of, 438
on roads and the construction of a tower, 147, 259–30
on the archiepiscopal status of Kildare, 416, 427–9
Coille Follómmna, later representative of Clann
Cholmáin in Bicó, 16 (Map 1), 477
Coimrid maccss Baird, 39
Coinnidi, see Connor Coire Béasc, Corryvreckan, ‘the cauldron of Béasc’, 537–8
may originally have been Macdonnell’s Race, 538
Coimire mac Néill, eponymous ancestor of Cenél Coipri
according to Tírechán, called ‘the enemy of God’ by Patrick, 28
‘the accused Coipri’ in the Tripartite Life, 34 cursed by Patrick at Tailtiu according to Tírechán, 446 listed among kings of Tara in Béigín, 484–5
more greatly treated in the Vita Prima of Bígg, 22 n.
Coirethch, king of Alí Chlíaitha, see Coroticus
Colm mac Fáithlín Flaind, king of Munster, 538
Col+mair (Gall Rainbain), church of, 55, 57
59–9, 261

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
Index

Colla Fochríth, 355
Colla Mendl, supposed ancestor of the Maguernae, 515-16
Colla Uais, supposed ancestor of Uí Maccu Uais, 514-15
‘Collas, The Three’, 513-16
Collateral inheritance, 87–8
Collectio Canonum Hibernensis, 126-7, 128, 233, 281, 338 and Bible, 265 and bishops, 258, 421-6, 431
and Bishops’ Synod, 243-7 and metropolitan bishops, 421-6, 431
and paschal question, 415
compilers of, 265
Colmán, bishop of the Northumbrians, 319-20
Colmán Eó-Colmán mccu Sainín, patron saint of Llynally, 62-3 allied with Columba according to Adomnán, 263–4 became a general Uí Néill saint, 555
ádnach of, 557
‘the second patronus’ of Connor, 61
Colmán mac Feradaig, king of Orcaige, 262–3
Colmán of the Britons, abbot of Slane, possibly author of a lost Life of Patrick, 11–12
Cologne Prologue, and paschal chronology, 492–3
Colp, Co. Meath, as Inber Colptha Columba, saint, founder of Iona
and Cenél Conaill, 57
and Connacht, 465
and lay people, 284
and the First, 299-308
and the Uí Néill, 441–3
as prophet, 191-4 community of, go to Tara to excommunicate Aed Oiridhne, 471 date of birth, 110
education of, 290-3
encounter with a naturally good pagan, 192–200
encounters with magi, 193-6 family of, 290-1
forces alliance between Uí Néill and Dál Riata, 281 founded Iona, 282–3
funeral of, 539-50
gave of, 549
inaugurated Ædán mac Gabráin as king, 356–7 knowledge of astronomy and the paschal computus, 288
Law of, 501, 563
Life of, or Adomnán, Life of St Columba, oral traditions about, 268 prognostic of, less far-reaching than that of Columba in, 264 portrayed by Adomnán in the tradition of the great monastic saints, 283 relationship with contemporary monastic leaders, 283–4 relationship with kings, 283 seen by Adomnán as the St Benedict of the Irish, 292–4, 293
sources for, 283–90
tried before a synod at Tailtiu, 278, 599 Columbanian monasticism different views of, 345–6
in a stronger political position by the 670s, 356–7
Columbarum (Colmán), common name based on Latin columna, 5 Columbarus, saints, 179, 344-90 and Aquileian schism, 372-78
and Gildas, 362
and Irish nationality, 374-5, 389-90 and the monastic precinct, 358 and the Paschal question, 358
and the Roman Empire, 375
and the Rule of St Benedict, 383–8
appealed to Gregory the Great, 357 attitude of Frankish bishops to, 388–9; indicated by the letter of Laurence, 366 compares Irish and Frankish Christianity, 240, 247 conception of the monastic life, 381–3 diet in his monasteries, 356-8 in his monasteries, 380-1
education of, 177–80, 344
founder of Ancegray, Luxeuil and Fontaine, 8, 352 influence of, 371–2
Latin style of, 170
a Leinsterman, leaves Ireland for Francia as a peregrinus, 8, 344 Letter I, to Gregory the Great, 362, 367, 368, 389, 406
Letter II, 362
Letter III, 368
Letter IV, 389, 388-9
Letter V, 372-77
Life of, or Jonas of Nusa
no shrine of, 359 possessed a file of penitential texts, 352 Regula Columbari, 386 Regula Mensaliana, 384, 386 relations with Theuderic II and Brunhild according to Jonas, 357-8, 364, 367

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
Cambridge University Press
0521363950 - Early Christian Ireland - T. M. Charles-Edwards
Index

Columbanus, saint (cont.)
remembered Palladius as the first great mis-ionary in Ireland, 182–3, 239–40, 375 royal support for, 316, 318–9 travelled to Burgundy via Brittany, 344 welcomed by Chloethir II, 372
why exiled, 368–71
wrote to Pope Boniface, 182, 183
connubia, see neighbourhood
connuatha, 'neighbour', origin of term, 101
connuain, 'joint alliance', 'full alliance', 541, 546 Connall, saint, founder of Bangor, 99
allied with Columba according to Adomnán, 283–4
Connann, patron saint of Roscommon (Ross Commóin), 47
Law of, 561, 563, 566
common pasture shared by a túath, 102 commoner, basis of status of, 134–4 compensation for killing or injury, 124
Connait Muirthemne, people and kingdom (approx. modern Co. Louth, north of the R. Deo), 16 (Map 1), 553 power of Conel aErainn over, 573–4
Connair Mór, legendary king of Tara, 142–3, 229, 575
Connall Cernach, legendary hero, 83, 98
Connall Corc and the Corco Luige, 503 written at Cloynne, 523
Connal Cremthainne, see Connal mac Neill Connal Goil Mac Maïl Coba, king of Tara, not included in Baile Chuana, 484–5 Connal Grant, of Uí Chernaig, victor in the battle of Kells, 571 Connal Guibin (Connal mac Néill, ancestor of Cord Cenann), 59–11
Connal mac Conmaic, king of Dál Riata, 295–7
granted Iona to Columba, 282
not involved in the battle of Moín Lothair, 203 Connal mac Eilaid mac Amolngada, ancestor of Tircéin, 48, 51
his descendants were 'servants of Patrick', 48 Connal mac Neill (Connal Cremthainne), 310 ancestor of leading ruling dynasties of the southern Uí Neill, 21 favoured by Tircéin, 20–1 in the Fís Ríona of Brigit, 21 n.
said to have given the land for, and marked out, Domnach Patriaíc, 21 Connal mac Suibni, king of Mide, 498 killed Aed Shine in revenge for his father, 507–8

Conchobar mac Domnchada, king of Tara, 475–80
disrupts the dún of Tailtiú, 557, 558 relative ineffectiveness of, and the Viking attacks, 529
Conchobor mac Nessu, legendary king of Ulster, 54, 59, 83, 95, 103, 114–15
as túath, 319
Conmach mac Dubh da Leithi, abbot of Armagh, 278
Congal Cáech, Cruithnian king of Tara, 60, 549–9, 590, 594
Congalach mac Conaing, king of north Brega,
577–8
Conmaicne Réim, 16 (Map 1)
Conn Cétchathach, 515, 517
and his judge, Caratnia, 144
as eponymous ancestor claimed by the Connachtach, 36, 465 descendants of, kindred of, 51
see also Aigialla, Dál Caimin, Leth Caimin Connachta, 3
and Columba, 485
and the Uí Neill, 518–19, 519, 520, 596
óena frequent among, 566
genealogy, 627
a group of dynasties claiming descent from Conn Cétchathach, 36
king of, as deputy king, 510
king-list, 638–9
kings of Tara as kings of, 508–10 lands of, 36–37
Law over, 472
never ruled Mide or Brega, 465
north-east boundary, for Tircéin, at Foyl, for Tripartite Life at Drowes, 37–8 origin-legends of, 578
see also Aíill Molt Connor (Conderi, Condaire), episcopal church of, 55, 57, 261
associated with Llylaid and Laraghbryan, 61–4
by 640 probably already the leading church among the Cruithni, 38–9 founded by Mac Nissi, 59
an instrument of the political ambitions of Uí Chechaidh, 62
possessed many churches in Éirinn, 58
taken by Uí Thuiatrí in post-Viking period, 67–8
see also Dál Sailiúi Constantine, patriarch of, 206–7
Second Council of, never accepted by the Franks, 375
Constantius, Life of Germanus, 204

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

conversion to Christianity, 182–240
and the aristocratic life-cycle of the English, 308–9
as a cultural change, 186 chronology of the conversion of the Irish, 239–40 evidence of Latin loanwords for; 184 of the English, 308–17 of the Picts, 299–308
of royal households, 308–9 opportunity to construct a web of artificial kinship, 39 pagan gods and, 186–7
Cork (Corcach Mór), monastery of, 30 Glossary attributed to (Coroticus (Coirthech, Corictic), Cormac Snithéne, 30
Cormac mac Suibni, abbot of Clonard, scribe Cormac mac Airt, legendary king of Tara Córus Béscnai
Corcu Themne (Temenrige), Corprige, possibly Corcu Óchae (Óche), gens Corc mac Luigdech (Conall Corc), supposed ancestor of Corcu Duibne, ruling
Corcu Loígde, ruling Corcu Mo Druad, Munster
section of, migrated to Fernmag, and Mo Lua of Clonfertmulloe and
and the aristocratic life-cycle of the English,
on succession to a church,
co-wives,
craftsmen,
crowning, often royal Covergaighe, 281
Crich Endai Chomnacht, 28
Crimthann mac Aed mac Senaig, king of Leinster, 458
Crimthann mac Endai Chomnacht, 234
Ceith Gallach, legal tract on status, 128, 190–2, 137–5 on requisitions, 256–7
on the construction of a slate, 150 on the king’s slate, 257 on ‘man of withdrawal’, 74 on the ‘man of withdrawal’, 74
on the noble’s land, 80 on the ‘sweige’, 360
on the relative status of king and bishop, 254
Crémán, bishop of Nendrum, 260
Cros Patraic, church of, 39–1
Crotta Clíach, ‘Harps of Clíu’, the Galty Mountains, 532 ‘inner circle’ of Eoganacht Chaimel, Eoganacht Glendamnach and Eoganacht Ame in a ring around, 358
Cruachain (Crauchai, Rathcroghan), 40, 47, 113, 146
as a seat of kingship, 472–4 as the site of an oisín, at which an oisín was promulgated, 356–3 contrasted with Clonmacnois, 419
Cruithnechán, Columba’s foster-father, 264 Cruithnai, a group of peoples of NE Ireland, 54–9
genealogy, 626
Cruancha mac Agnómain, 137
Cú ēn Mathair, king of Munster, 337
Cú Chulaíarn, king of Dál nAraidi, deprives
Army of lands, 50
Cú Chummaic, 107
Cú Chualain, legendary hero of Ulster, 54, 69, 81, 95, 144–5, 147–2, 273 child of a human mother and a divine father, 201 Cú Dínaic mac Collaí, king of Íarmumma, 339
sú gét, ‘grey wolf’, exile from overseas, 222 Cúisnaile, district of, 16 (Map 1) cuckold’s rights over presumed child, 82–3 Courrane, Courcne, 16 (Map 1), 31–2
Cúl Dréimne, battle of, 254–5, 510
Cuméne the Fair (White, Albus, Find), seventh abbot of Iona, extent of Iona’s influence in England under him, 316–17 on Domnall Becc, 437–8 on the inauguration of Áedán mac Gabráin, 360–1 wrote Book on the Miracles of Power of Columba, 283
Cuméne of the Mugdornai, 360
Cuméne the Tall, a significant dairying, possibly not practised in Iron-Age Ireland, 133
Dál nAraidi, ruling dairying, possibly not practised in Iron-Age Ireland, 133
Dál naSceachaidh, ruling dairying, possibly not practised in Iron-Age Ireland, 133
Dála nAraidi, ruling dairying, possibly not practised in Iron-Age Ireland, 133 dal mBháin (Bourrige), 61, 64–7

Dál Cais, 480
Dál Caladbaig, 532–4, 544, 546
an antichristiath, 533 outlying territories of, among Corcu Mo Druad and Uí Gláintine, 534 Dál Conchobair, gens associated with the church of Antrim, 61 subsumed within Déisi Breg, 272
Dál Cuinn and the Airgíalla, 512–13
Dál nEchdach, ruling gens of the Ruthair, 29–30
Dál Fiaitach, ruling gens of the Ulaid, 54, 65
genealogy, 624–5
Dál Macnata, 516–17
Dál Riata, ruling gens and kingdom in NE Co. Antrim and in Argyll, 6, 54, 55 and ‘the land of Erc’, 293 Army the principal church within the Irish section of, 59 artistic links of, 331–2 constitutional context of, 296–7 relationship of Iona to, 282 settlement in Scotland, 293
Dal Sainii, gens associated with the church of Conn, 55, 61–4 associated with the churches of Lynally and Laraghbryan, 61 regarded as an antichristiath, 61 retains separate identity, 63–4 Dalkey Island, a possible emporium, 136
Dallán Forgaill, 192, 306
see also Anna Chloinn Chilb dán, ‘company’, 113
damnus rig, ‘material of a king’, 31–2
Danail, bishop of Winchester, on how to argue with pagans, 201
Dar Í, law of, 355 n.
Dark Age, as term for the late Iron Age in Ireland, 145–6 daughters’ rights of inheritance, 87
dúine, 487, 543 n.
Deer Park Farms, 57, 134, 151
dúis, ‘retinue’, 112–13, 133, 135
Déis Déiscirt (Southern Déis), 525, 539 (Map 13)
Déis Thuaibiscirt (Northern Déis), 532 (Map 13)
Déisi, see Déisi
Deblane Assail, 16 (Map 1), 22, 574
and Armagh, 27, 255
Deblane Bethra, 16 (Map 1), 26, 31, 257
Demetae, see Dyfed
dóchmáin, ‘dracon’, 152 deputy kings, see king

dolith, 852, 858, 100

derry, monastery of the Columban federation, 250
date of foundation, 282, 306
descent and jēos, 'excellence', 91-2

desiderius, bishop of Cahors, 385 desiderius, bishop of Vienne, expulsion of, 393
déisi (Déisi), bishops, 272

déisi munan, South Munster ( Desmond), 539-40, 544 diarmait (alias Mo Dimmuoc), patron saint of Killshin (Glen Ussoin), 5 diarmait mac Aedha Slaine, king of Tara, 485
domnach Combair (Muckamore, Co. Antrim), 79
donnach vessel, 63

donnach mór (near Navan, Co. Meath), 271
donnach mór maige coba (Donaghmore, Co. Down), 113

donnach mór maige fia (Donaghmore, Co. Down), 53

donnach mór maige láidat (Donaghmore, Co. Kildare), 14 n., 61
donnach mór maige scolail, 42 (Map 5), 43
donnach mór maige tsúrraí (Donagh, Carndonagh, Co. Donegal), 53
donnach mór roighn (Donaghmore, Co. Kilkenny), 236 (Map 10), 263-4 donnach mór 'super shannah rochlin', church of macnco, 42 (Map 2), 43, 59-1 donnach patraic (Donaghpatrick, Co. Meath), 17, 18 (Map 2), apparently not episcopal, 271
donnach sechtaí (Dunshauglin, Co. Meath), 18, 234

apparently not episcopal, 271
donnach bishop, 30
donnach brecc, king of Tara, 60-1, 307

donnach mac, king of Tara

donnach mac Áeda at the battle of Mag Roth, 495 donnach mac Carbaill, king of Tara, 63

donnach mac donnai, 394 donned, and Patrick's Letter to the Soldiers of Coroticus, 226 dinniscath, 'reaver', 113, 143, 222, 228-9 dicho mac trichim, 65-6 diocese in Late-Roman sense, 242

diocese, see parting

do biu (Do Bu), patron saint of Inis Causcraid (Inch), 66 do bonnai maccau baird, 30

dóine, 277
dóire, 235

dom liacc (Duleek), 18

associated with cianmac ìar breg, 271

had bishops and skeira, 272

donnach, 188-5, 246, 263-4

donach Mór Maige A, 240
donnach combair (Muckamore, Co. Antrim), 79 donnach maigen (Donaghmorey, Co. Monaghan), 57 (Map 7), 260
donnach mór (near Navan, Co. Meath), 271
donnach mór maige coba (Donaghmore, Co. Down), 37, 240

donach mór maige échnaich, 255
donnach mór maige fia (Donaghmore, Co. Down), 53

donnach mór maige lúadat (Donaghmore, Co. Kildare), 14 n., 61
donnach mór maige scolail, 42 (Map 5), 43
donnach mór maige tsúrraí (Donagh, Carndonagh, Co. Donegal), 53
donnach mór roighn (Donaghmore, Co. Kilkenny), 236 (Map 10), 263-4 donnach mór ‘super shannah rochlin’, church of Macnco, 42 (Map 2), 43, 59-1
donnach patraic (Donaghpatrick, Co. Meath), 17, 18 (Map 2), apparently not episcopal, 271
donnach sechtaí (Dunshauglin, Co. Meath), 18, 234

apparently not episcopal, 271
donnach bishop, 30
donnach brecc, king of Dal Riata, 60-1, 307

donnach mac, king of Tara

adomnán on, 593-4 defeated and killed congall cáech, 494 included by bult choinn, 264-5

donnach mac earca, king of Tara, 291-5, 519

donnach mac murchada, king of Tara, 477-90

ain of a saint becomes common during his reign, 365

peaceable policy towards leinster, 359, 575, 579

succession struggle at the end of the reign of, 394

victor at the battle of Serethmag, 254

donatus, bishop of besançon, godson of columbanus, 336, 393

rule of, 394

donnchad mac donnail, king of Tara, 469-7, 556 aggressive policy towards munster inherited by mael sechnall I, 557-8 attacks 'the north', 374

defeats Síl nÁeda Slaine, 377-8

disrupts the sinoa of Taillinn, 538

favours the fama of Columba, 563

generally peaceable policy towards leinster, 379, 576-7

in dynastic struggle in last years of his father's reign, 594

insults the Staff of Jesus and the relics of

Patrick, 593

occupies Ráith Alínne, 576-7

© Cambridge University Press

www.cambridge.org
Dum nae Achar, battle of, 496–2
Dumbarton (All Cladi), 247–8 Dumnoni, church of alleged with Tamnach, 253–7 claimed by Columcille, 252
also, ‘feet’, 149, 327–8, 327–8
Dún Mílle, battle of, 594
Dún Cúain, 278, 327, 348
Dún MhCúilliu (Doonahill), royal seat of Ceall Fergusa Scannail, 531, 533, 535, 548
Dún naGairce, 499–500
Dún Lethglaise, see Downpatrick
Dún Scuingi (Dún Seosainche, Dunseverick), 57, 38, 59
Rock of Patrick at, 59
Dunad, royal fort in Dál Riata, excavations at, 592–2
Dúngal Rainél, king of Eoganacht
Rathlind, 537
Durham Liber Vitae, 382
Durrrow (Dairemac, Daarmag), and Cenél Raithlind, 555
date of foundation, 282, 306
a dependent house of Iona, 250 in or close to Mag Léne, 251 involved in violence, 594–595–6 patronised by the kings of Mide in the eighth century, 26, 595
Dyfed (kingdom in south-west Wales)
Irish origin claimed for the dynasty of, 163–4
Irish settlements in, 163–5–7
dynastic prophecy, 361–2 dynasties, failing, 40
Eadberht, bishop of Lindisfarne, 341
Eadfrith, bishop of Lindisfarne, scribe of the Lindisfarne Gospels, 341
Eadfrith, bishop of Lindsey, 339
Eanfled, Oswiu’s queen, observed Roman Easter, 318
Eanfrith, king of Bernicia, 302, 301
Easter, date of, 392–2
Alexandrian or Dionysiac, 392–3; adopted in Rome between 632 and 641, 408–9 and the Paschal and Feast of Unleavened Bread, 396–8, 399–400
Celtic, exegetical basis of, 401–2
Cummmian’s exegesis, 402–4
Cycles, 365–6
First Council of Nicaea on, 394
in the New Testament, 398–9
see also paschal controversy Eata, abbot of Lindisfarne, later bishop of Lindisfarne and Hexham consecrated to Lindisfarne and Hexham by Archbishop Theodore, 390, 390 position of, 337 removed from Ripon to make way for Wilfrid, 319
East Anglia, 310, 313
eclesia, meaning when used by Gregory of Tours, 249, 378 ecclesiastical titles, plurality of, 267
Esgericht, king of Kent, 433
Esgericht of Rath Mucklagh and Iona, 329, 336–7, 339, 435 and Bede’s Ecclesiastical History, 436–7 Esgrith, king of the Northumbrians, 392 his army invaded Broga, 341, 417, 432–3 killed at the battle of Nechtanesmere, 350, 432 role in first expulsion of Wilfrid, 339, 439
uinc, 267, see also episcop, scholar Echadena, church of, 41 education, 176–81
Edwin, king of the Northumbrians, 312 translation of body to Whitby, 342 Eilne (Mag nEilni), kingdom between Bann and Ballygawley, 54, 55, 56 (Map 7), 90 conquered by a branch of the Uí Choelchad (Dál nArad), 59
Einhard, Life of Charlemagne, 339
uirt, see ambach Eithne daughter of Mac Nae, mother of Colmán, 290–1
Elen, island monastery of, dependent on Iona, 250
Él, people in north-east Munster, 332 (Map 13), 546
Eliuch, bishop, founder of Solisga, 385
Erla, British kingdom conquered by Edwin of Northumbria, 313 Élodach mac Dúnain, king of Desmond, 539
ilt, ‘desertion’, ‘evasion of obligation’, 557
Emain Machaire (Navan Fort, Co. Armagh), 37, 114, 115, 145–6, 154
Oenghus the Culdee on, 470
saga’s explanation of the meaning of the name, 447–8
empana, ‘gateway communities’, 136
Emlyn (Emlich nan), monastery of, 132, 251 Éadóc mac Néill (eponymous ancestor of Cenél nEadail), 28, 30
English in Ireland, 9 monks in Ireland receive free maintenance, 9 students in Ireland receive free teaching and maintenance, 9
English invasion of Ireland in 604, 417 occasion for a nobility, 500–1 entry by a king into his seat of kingship, 475 Eochaid mac Domnaill, king of Tara, 484–5
Eochu mac Corpi, 447–9
Eogan mac Aidella (Eogan Mór), eponymous ancestor of the Eoganachta, 469–90, 518–3
Eogan mac Conláir, bishop of the Connacht, 261
Eogan mac Cruithne, of Ul Fidhesta, 538 Eogan mac Néill, eponymous ancestor of Cenél nEogan, 26 and n.
Patrick’s ‘faithful friend’, 51 Eoganachta Aine (when excluded either Cenél nAngae or Uí Êadál), around Emly, Co.
Limerick, 352 (Map 13), 534
excluded and named Cenél nAngae in ‘Conall Corc and the Corco Lioghe’, 536
genealogy of, 515
part of the ‘inner circle’ in Frithiolad Maman, 534–6
Eoganachta Aithir Êchlaich, on borders of Co.
Limerick and Co. Tipperary, 332 (Map 13) and Cenél Fergus Scannail, 531–2 Eoganachta Chaisil, 532 (Map 13), 540 attitude of genealogical poem to, 538–9
genealogy of, 564
part of the inner circle, 534–7
Eoganachta Glendarnaich, around Glanworth, Co. Cork, 332 (Map 13) favoured by Cloyne, as in ‘Conall Corc and the Corco Lioghe’, 547 gave the land for the foundation of Cloyne, 536, 547–8
genealogy of, 603
part of the ‘inner circle’ of the Eoganachta, 534–7
Eoganachta Leach Loín, around Killarney, 532, 532 (Map 13)
excluded by Frithiolad Maman, 534–6
genealogy of, 606
see also lártacha, Iarmuman
Eoganachta Raithblind, 532 (Map 13) ‘Conall Corc and the Corco Lioghe’ hostile to, 475
excluded by Frithiolad Maman, 534–6
owe military service, 546
Eoganachta (ruling dynasties of Munster), 3 Emly the principal church of, 132 establish their power in Munster in the sixth century with Uí Êell help, 484–90 genealogies of, 610–16 inclusive view of, presented in the poem of Luccrith moocu Chiara, 537–40
Eoganachta, (cont.)
inner circle of, 534–7, 586–7
origin-legends of, 489–90, 579–83
peripheral (not of inner circle), treated as free clients by Frithulfad Maman, 540–1, 546 political divisions among, 534–43 Erc mac Dego, patron saint of Slane, 254–5 relics taken on circuit, 532
Etnus, patron saint, patronus, 33, 257, 275
Errinbeg, Visigothic princess, betrothed to Thesveric II, 539
esanid, ‘betrothal, vicarious binding’, and royal inauguration, 34
erríd, ‘chariot-warriors’, as a term for nobles, 79
Erris, see Irris Domann
Ess Rúad (Assaroe), 53
Essar, 316
Ethac of Mo Cháe of Nendrum (staff of Mo
Ess Rúad (Assaroe), 28
Etreciell mac Maile Umai, king of Munster, 539
Eustasius, abbot of Luxeuil, 346 missionary work among the Bavarians, 366 probably Gallo-Roman, 389 refused Agrestius’ request that he be allowed to preach to pagans, 393 said to have been commanded by Columbanus to seek the patronage of Chlothar II, 393
see also Agrestius, Synod of Méacon
exculus principe, 285 exile, as penalty for infringement of a cáin, 397 exile, status of, 222
exculusid, ‘exorcist’, 232 Exposition of the Deisii’, early Irish origin-legend, 163–4
face and honour, 105–7
value of, 119
Feiléan mac Colmáin, king of Leinster, 95, 436
Feiléan mac Díonna, king of Ul Fidgerti, 237–8
Feigilgus mac Niall Froich, king of Eoganacht Chaisil, 538–9
Faillbe, eighth abbot of Iona, 313
Faillbe Flann, king of Munster, 498–9
Faileige Berraide, eponymous abbot of the Ul Faidi, 449–50
fair, see sáench faithle, 107–8
Fallonmac mac Con Congalt, king of Mide, 477, 478–80

Index

eponomous ancestor of Coille Fàllamin, 477 Fals Judgments of Caratnia (Gáisbreth Caishtail), legal tract, 144
fame, 142
fфиауна, monastic, 119–23
Fañat, 52
Fauxmontiers-en-Brie, murrery of, 346
Rule followed at, 384
Faroes, 386
Faustus of Riez, 185, 224
fína, ‘personal excellence’, and claims to office, 93–2, 480
Fedelm the prophetess, 192–3 Feidlimid (Feidlimid, Fjelidm), abbot of Kilmoeone and mair of Breiga for Patrick, 235
Feidlimid mac Crimhthann (Feidlimid), 280, 357, 393
in early ninth century, southern Uí Néill suff ered much more from him than from the Vikings, 399, 396
reasons for his aggression against monasteries, 599
successes of, reversed by Máel Sechnaill, 597–8
Feidlimid mac Tigernach, early king of Munster
said not to have entered Cashel, 475
Feilrath (Féilharte), patron saint of Donnach
Mór Maige Seólai, 43
Féilbe, bishop of East Anglia cooperated with Fursa and had high regard for Aidan, 318 likely to have had a Columbanian background, 356–7
Felice, 96 (Map 1), 31
Femen (district close to Tara; another Femen was between Cashel and Clonmel)
battle of, 453–4
Féni, originally a term for a confederation of peoples, 160
as the dominant people of all Ireland, 383
as a term for one coal, ‘race’, in Ireland, 350 Fénn Farsaid, 579–80
for fiathla, ‘man of withdrawal’, 190 fer midhuit, ‘man of middle huts’, 130–1
Feradach Find Fruithacht, legendary king, 138
Fergal mac Maíl Duin, king of Tara, 480, 511
aggressive policy towards Leinster, 350, 357, 358–9
kills Conall Grant in 718, 571 Fergus mac Léi, legendary king of Ulster, 105, 6, 381, and Dorn, 517
Index

Fergus mac Roig, legendary hero, 103–4
Fergus Scandal, early Munster king, 533
Fermag, kingdom of Ul Nad Shiáig, 52
(Map 6), 457
Ferad, 113
among the Ul Néill, 495–9 and Cúa, 568
and sanctuary, 120
Fiac, supposed first bishop of the Leinstermen, 196
Flachna Cassán, ancestor of the Airthir, Fíachna Cassán, ancestor of the Airthir, Fíachna mac Báetáin, possible king of Tara, Fíachu mac Néill (eponymous ancestor of Fíachrae mac Cíaráin, ‘one of the two fían fidchell
Fib (Fife), 502
Fidholl, a board game, 114
fief of base clientage, 73–4
as ‘forepurchase’ of annual renders, 75
fidi, ‘learned poet’, see’, 125, 127, 128–9, 131, 135–7, 169
and the teisce, 138–40 origin of the term, 192
see also Dubhchathach macu Lagair, Uinscíth na Ríos Finán, bishop of the Northumbrians, 316–17 Finbar (Finnian, Vimauson), bishop and patron saint of Mag mBili, 471 connection with Dal Flatach, 292 possibly author of the Penitential of Vinuinius, 293
probably Columba’s principal teacher, 291–3
Findchadh (Finchad, Fianchad) mac Garraun, augustine, early Leinster king, 447–9, 454 Findglas (Finglas), monastery of, 16 associated with Gallenga Becca, 271 had bishops and scribae, 372
Findmag, 47
Findubhair Abac (Fennor), 18
fion, ‘kindred’, 168 Finnian (Finnio maccu Theldubh), patron saint of Clonard, 291
relics of, taken on circuit, 355
Finneoinchtae Flidch, king of Tara, 433–494, 500
Finten son of Telchán, see Mummi Flann Febla, both abbot and bishop of Fotacht (Faughart, Co. Louth) Florianus, bishop of Arles, Flavian, patriarch of Constantinople,
Fochart (Fochluth)
Flann mac Áeda, of Síl nDlúthaig, Flann mac Ceill, early Leinster king,
Flann mac Eóda, of Síl nDlúthaig,
Flann Mainistrech, verse king-list of Ríg Flann Sinna, king of Tara Marianus Scotus’ king-list derives from one drawn up during his reign (879–916), 485–6
Flavian, patriarch of Constantinople, 207
fiosach, category of minor, 131
Florisius, bishop of Arles, 419
Fochart (Faughart, Co. Louth)
Foclóir, grade of poet, 131
Fochloth (Fochluth, Vochl), Wood of, 215, 217
see also Domnach Mór ‘super siluam Fochlae, Fochlae (ind F·ochlae, ‘the North’), 38, 511 increasingly separated from Mide and Brega, 574
fudhla, grade of poet, 131
Fochloth (Fochluth, Vochl), Wood of, 215, 217
see also Domnach Mór ‘super siluam Fochluth’
Fogartach mac Néill, 558
Fonrtins, 41
Fontaine, monastery on the slopes of the Vosges founded by Columbanus, 8, 532 food-renders, 134
force, use of, discouraged in kings, 193–40
Fordrum (church in Delbae Assad), 27, 255
Forguide, 31
Fergus mac Maic Ercae, king of Tara, 294–5, 510 forsluinti, ‘external kindreds’, 548
fort, see dun
Forth Mountain, 102
Fóragh na Forgnaide, 196
Forth Mountain, 102
and Raíú Chúine, 597

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Fothairt Maige Ítha, category of minor, 182
Fothairt Fea, 99
Fothairt Airthir Lifi, 99
Fothairt Airbrech, 99
plurality of foster-parents, 112
distribution of, 14.3
in making a king, 102
men of, defeated by Vikings, 302 largely lacks Pictish sculpture, 87
'man of', 96, 115–17, 221 may have been excluded from participating in making a king, 549 fosterage, 82–3, 96, 115–17, 221
plurality of foster-parents, 112
Fothairt, 14, 529–30
Fothairt Airbrech, 99
Fothairt Airfach, 99
Fothairt Fia, 99
Fothairt Maige Ítha, 99, 102
Foy, river and lough, for Tírechán the north-east boundary of Connaught, 37–8
Frankish capitals, 474
Frankish slaves compared with Irish client, 71–3, 79–80
Franks
and the conversion of the English, 310 and the shrines of saints, 347–8 a federation of peoples, 178, 180
links with Ireland, 8–9 never accepted the authority of the Second Council of Constantinople, 576
'source of the name Baile thuath Bhaile Abhainn', 45 Freydag, historian of the Franks followed Jonas in his onslaught on Brunnhild, 353–4 free churches, 350–1
free clientship, see clientship, free freemen, 69
Frēnú (Frēnáin), battle of, 430–1
Friðfridil Íslann, 'Counter-Obligations of Munster', 522–3, 534–48 and ministerial clientship, 542–4, 547, 548 elevates the inner circle of Éoganacht Gleannlannach, Éoganacht Chaisil and Éoganacht Aíse, 540, 541–2 Frēoch mac Fhinc Chadha, 448–9 fride, category of half-free, 71, 80, 108–9, 133.
135 Fursa (Fursa), Irish póngins in England and Francis, 345
collaborated with Felix, bishop of East Anglia, 318, 316
in East Anglia, 317–18
Irish origins, 318 and n.
Gabháin mac Domongaírt, king of Dál Riata,

Fursa (Fursu), Irish póngins in England and Francia, 345

690

Index

Gailenga Becca, 16 (Map 1), 271, 273
Gailenga, 273
Gailenga Coluimnach, category of minor, 131
'guicolaith, 'armed man', 69
'guil', 'head', 'passion', as a personal quality, 143
'Gall', 'Gaill' and thus exile from overseas; later Scandinavian, 222
king of the Gaill, 557
Galic chronicler of AD 437, 214
Galloway, evidence for early Christianity in, 186
'Gaill', monastic life of, before Columbanus, 378–80 Gelasius, 86–8
Gemmán, Columba's teacher, 291
'sex (séx, dál, nígh)', 96–100 and gens, 97
different from the títh, 98 and status, 98–9
'genitic', 96
'gelp', 'youth', 'body of young English noble-men', 309
Germanus, bishop of Auxerre, 185, 203, 210
Life of, used by Adomnán, 195
second mission of, 213
Gerrthide mac Rónáin, king of Cíannacht
promulgates Law of Patrick over the Connachta, 473

Gildas, 170, 176
'second mission of', 213
Life of, used by Adomnán, 195
Gillgas, 86–8
God, English nobleman of mature age, 309
'gifts, 220–1
'gone (gón)'
and n.
Gildas, 160, 164, 168, 176–9, 232
corresponded with Venmanus, probably Findbarr of Movilla, 292
girls, education of, 71
Glas Neiden (Glasnevin), monastery of, 18
(Map 2)
Glaire (Glore), church of, 37 (Map 7)
god, pagan Glas Neiden (Glasnevin), monastery of, 18
(Map 2)
Glaire (Glore), church of, 37 (Map 7) goddess of sovereignty, 34 gods, pagan as demons, 105, 6, 201
as idols, 196
'sehernésed, 201–2
Gogó, Austrasian mayor of the palace, 334–5
'goi', 'warmth, justiar', 110
Gormgal mac Dínlaithaig, abbot of Armagh
promulgates Law of Patrick over the Connachta, 473

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
Index

Gráine (Graney, Co. Kildare), 448 Granad (Granaire), Co. Longford, the see of Northern Tuatha, 23 [Map 3], 33, 448 battles of, 447–9
first bishop, Graisacht macu Buain, foster-brother of Patrick, 36 Gregory, bishop of Tours
as metropolitan bishop, 417–18
hagiographical approach of, 346–7 on terms for a church, 249 on the Jura fathers, 338 Gregory the Great, pope, 207 on liturgical diversity, 413, 415
on St Benedict, 191 refers to Leo the Great on missions, 377 response to Columbanus, 370 sends mission to the English, 310, 323–4 gilofthach, ‘false-judge’, 144
guesting season, 73
Guntram, king of the Franks, 344, 352 made ascent into Orleans, 475–6 opposed to a Gothic alliance, 390 saved Clotilhár II when he became his godfather, 363
qu, ‘passion’, ‘instinctive kindness’, 143 Gwynedd, 398
half-free, se hathach, findiu half-fiscal, 166, 332–4 change from Phase I to Phase II, 332–9 Hebrides, had been Pictish, 159
hermits, 383
Hexham, church of, 324, 329
Eata, bishop of, 340
given to Wifried by Queen Ethelhryth, 340 Hiberna, 153
Hibernia, 159
Hibernians (party among the Irish that adhered to the Celtic Easter), 336, 391
Hiberniaca, 160
Hilary, saint, bishop of Poitiers, shrine of, 347, 350
Hild, abbess of Whitby, 320, 337
Hill of Ward, or Tlachtga
Hinba, dependent monastery of Iona, 250, 256, 383
Historia Finnana, 110
Holyhead, 137
Honorius, metropolitan bishop of Camerbury
and Felix, bishop of East Anglia, 366 had high regard for Ailán, 318 Honorius I, pope charged Bobbio with the defence of orthodox against the Arian Lombards, 364–5 encouraged Birinus in his mission to the English, 365 followed Gregory the Great in supporting monasticism, 365
granted privilege to Bobbio, 364 sent letter to the Irish Church urging conformity with Roman pastoral practice, 365 visited by Irish legates in 631 Honorius, Roman emperor, enacts law against Pelagians, 203
honour and status, 125, 129, 136–44 horse-race, at Arauch, 137 hospitality given to lords and kings, 523–6 hospitality given to an overking, 527–9 house (hoda), 107–11
and the status of a commoner, 134 household (muinter), 106–12
episcopal, 121
Hughes, Kathleen
on the organisation of the Irish Church, 243–7
on the Picts, 390–3 ‘Icnjor, 85–6, 88
Imlech (west of Sláib Láechra) owned military service, 546 used by Frithflad Muan in preference to Iarmannus, 540
Iarmannus (West Munster), 539–40, 544
Iceland, 396–7
imbas for-samu, ‘knowledge which illuminates’, 190–3 Inbhléch nÓgona (by Elphin, Co. Roscommon), church of Buteus, 43.
Inmlech Sescaimn, church acquired by Chonnmacnoin, 26
Inher Colphai, emphus, 16, 18 [Map 2], 136, 551
Inher nDea, 235–7
imfus, 85–6, 88, 100
inlu, 84–6 inheritance of land, 83–99 inheritance of office, 90–2 alteration in, go–t ‘circuit around the branches of a kindred’
in, 92
father-to-son succession, 91 inheritance of status, 92–5 Inis Bó Finne (Inishbofinn), island monastery founded by Bishop Colman, 42 Inis Bó Finne (Finne), island monastery in Lough Rea, 33
Index

Irish settlements in Britain, 159–72 and the economic revival of Ireland in the fourth and fifth centuries, 161–2 and the Irish raids on Roman Britain, 161 Iron Age in Ireland correlated with the early Christian period, 143–50 southern Ireland an enigma in, 172–3 Irsus Domann (Erris), 39 (Map 4: 48)
see also Mag nDomann
Iberius, bishop, 233–4, 245
Indore, bishop of Seville, on patriarchs, archbishops and bishops, 401 Isle of Man, 157, 202
as Viking base, 389–90
Italy, Ostrogothic, 108 religious situation in 512, 372
Jedidah, and Irish law, 197
John, pope-elect, letter of, 225, 477, 499, 445 joint horning (comastium), 101 joint ploughing (anaum), 104
John Scottus Erigena, 391
Jonas of Susa, 351, 390 showed sympathy for Austrasia and Burgundy, 336–7 used Irish informants, 180
Jonas of Susa, Life of St Columbanus, 179, 345–5, 388–9
audience of, 347, 387–8
Gospel of Luke and Acts as model for, 347 influenced by the destruction of Brunhild and her descendants, 333–4, 336–8 monastic orientation of, 325–6 on the sexual vices of Theuderic II and the evil counsel of Brunhild, 357–8 presents Columbanus’ foundations as if they had lacked royal support, 322
sources for, 334
structure of, 346–7
Jouarre, 9 Judaism, and Christianity
as seen by Ceddith, 411–12 and the origins of Easter, 392
judge (brofrit), 125 and king, 136, 143–4 ecclesiastical, 49, 126
judgement of a king, 144 Julian, Roman emperor, 160
Julius Caesar, 169–90, 198
Juba fathers, 348
Justin II, East Roman emperor, reconciles Franks, 373
Justinian I, East Roman emperor and ecclesiastical organisation, 442, 420–1, 425 and the Three Chapters, 372–3 Inis Caín Dega (Inishkeen), monastery of, 37, 573
Inis Cruacbraid (Inch, Co. Down), church of, 57, 66–7 Innocent I, pope, advocate of liturgical uniformity, 413
inscriptions memorial inscription for Voretorix, 164–9
ogam used for Irish, 167–8 until the seventh century Roman capitals used for Latin, 167–8 Inse Gall, ‘the Islands of the Foreigners’, the Hebrides, 387 Insular art, 321–3
and trial-pieces, 239
and Wearmouth-Jarrow, 334–6 Insular cultural province, 321–2 Insular script, 328, 323–4 and the Insular hierarchy of scripts, 328, 334 Iona
annals, 443, 453–3
attacked by Vikings, 387
island monastery founded by St Columba, 224 and the claims of Wilfrid, 432, 434–5 and the English, 308–26
and the sea, 358–9 dependent monasteries of, 270 end of its control of most of the English Church, 377–20 English monks of, 398
fertility of, 299
foundation of, 282–3, 293–99
involvement of Britons with, 307–8 Oswin’s possible intentions for, 434, 437 principe of, 251
situation of, 9, 298–9 threatened by the plans of Wilfrid and Oswin, 434, 437
Ireland
northern half of (Loch Caisn), 10
see also Loch Caissn
Irish cultural uniformity of, 312 identity of, 529–80 Irish language attested in Britain, 163 increasing use of, in written texts, 392 Latin loanwords in, 184 origins of standard Old Irish, 383 uniformity of the literary language, 312
Irish party in the Easter dispute, see Hibernians Kelleher, J. V., on the Uí Néill and the kingship of Tara, 505
Kells, 301, 327
patronised by the kings of Ír Míd, 26
Kendig, Glanmor gan, bilingual inscription from, 170 Kildare, 53, 238 (Map 10)
and the Tóthair, 14
archiepiscopal claims of, 416, 428–9, 437–8 in the addition to the Book of the Angel, 425 threatens independence of Sleaty, 261–2 Killare, see Cell Air kindred of poets, 93
king accessibility of, 527–8 advice directed at, 138–40
and cáin, 524
and judge, 135, 143–4
deputy, 479–80, 518
designation of royal heir to be distinguished from inauguration, 361 dán of, 130, 527–8 grades of, 130–32, 518–19 hospitality to, 525–6 inauguration of, 34, 360–1 of a province, 518
of a tíath, 126 perceived as one kind of lord, 533 truth/justice of, 144
see also seats of kingship, n. Tara king of Leth Cumna, 476
king of Uí Néill
in the poem on the Aingilla also styled lord of Taitlitr, 476 kingship
physical blemish a disqualification for, 25–6 Kinney, monastery of, on the edge of Tír Cill, 554 kinship, 84–96
ancestor-focus and ego-focus in, 85 and alliance, 95–6 artificial, constructed by conversion, 49–50 kinship of inheritance patrilineal, 84–7 maternal, and kingship, 93–5
terms, 84–6
Knudsbjörn (Gnúgabháin), 15, 58 (Map 3), 473
Laidcenc mac Bairceda, early poet, 454
Laigin Desgathair (southern Leinstermen), 93 attacked by the king of Leinster at the óenach of Colmain, 537
Lairén, third abbot of Iona, 307
Îsinneus constítueach, ‘sexual union of joint-contribution’, 109–11
Lann Leire (Dunleer), episcopal church, 272
Laxtlingham, monastery of, 478
Latharnae (people and kingdom around Larne), 36 (Map 7) uncertain whether they belonged to Dál nAraidi, 99 Lathrach Béinth (Laraghbryan, Co. Kildare), 60, 238 (Map 10)
Latin
as a spoken language in post-Roman Britain, 169–72
Innómsins in Irish, 114
Laurence, metropolitan bishop of Canterbury, letter to the Irish Church, 396 law, Irish and natural goodness, 197
as prophecy, 197
on the kingship of Tara, 518–20 ‘law of the face’, 117
law of nature and Irish law, 197
see also seats of kingship, n. Tara Leinster
province of, 476 (Map 3), 293 (Map 10)
abandons Celtic Easter 317 and conversion, 233–40
and Roman imports, 158
and the Uí Néill in the eighth century, 574–9 early kings of, ruled Tara, 434–8 genealogies, 93, 167–72 involved in Irish settlements in Britain, 159 king of, and the Loígsi, 531; may attend an óenach in Míde, 537, 589 king-lions, 608–19
larger in the fourth and fifth centuries, 136, 457–8
no provincial cáin attested for, 586, 589, 584 overlordship over, claimed by Munster, 593 Patrician claims to churches in, 12 seventh-century kings of, came from three dynasties, 498 warfare on borders of, 570–1 Leinstermen, distinguished from Feni and Uí each, 587
Leo the Great, pope, 213, 239 links with Prosper, 207–8, 210
on the missionary role of Rome, 206–7, 375
Leontius, metropolitan bishop of Bordeaux, 418 694

Leiris, monastery of, 224
le, ‘enclosure’, ‘enclosed farmhouse and buildings’, ‘ringfort’, 107, 120, 149
see also ringfort
Lech Cam, battle of, 557
Leith Caim, 476 extent of, 559
Law imposed on, 559 political order of, indicated by, Sola Égan 7 Cormín, 592
Leith Moga, 593
feasbocht, ‘lector’, 722
Liath Mainchín (Leamnachan, Co. Offaly), monastic of, 23 (Map 3), 31, 280
Libar Asíndó, 398, 412
Librán, monk of Columba, 349–50
Librán, monk of Columbanus, 371
Life (Liffey), plain of, see Mag Liffi, river (= Ráithreach), 18 (Map 2)
Life of a saint, concept of, 359–61
Lindáchaill (Anmagasan), church and, later, Viking fortress, 18 (Map 2), 308, 590–91, 596, 598
Lindisfarne (Maccoc), 311 (Map 11), 314 and Wilfrid, 346, 347 remained loyal to the memory of Aidán, 338 Lindisfarne Gospels, see manuscripts literacy, beginnings of, 172–7 literature, early Irish, intended audience of, 137 livestock, part of the basis of a commoner’s status, 134
Llyn (Llyˆn peninsula), origin of the name, 159
Loch Awe, Columban monastery at, 230
Loch Cluan (Strangford Lough), 36 (Map 7)
Loch i Charach (Lough Neagh), 38 (Map 7)
Loch nÉchach (Lough Neagh), 56
Loch Awe, Columban monastery at,
Lleyn (Llyˆn peninsula), origin of the name, 311
Lindisfarne (Medcoit), 341
Lind Dúachaill (Annagassan), church and, 582
Líath Mancháin (Lemanaghan, Co. Offaly), 32
Loch nGabor (Lagore), 7
Loch nÓaithne (Lough Ooney), crannóg of, 56
Loch Loig (Belfast Lough), 56
Loch nÉchach (Lough Neagh), 56
Loch nÓaithne (Lough Ooney), crannóg of, 56
Loch Cúan (Strangford Lough), 56
Lochéne Menn, both sons and wituæ, 106
Loignech mac Oengusso, king of Tara, 584
Lorcán mac Senaig, 256
Lorcán mac Cathail, king of Tara, 584
Lord, 130–4
required to judge justly, 144
see also clientship, noble
Lothian, date of Northumbrian conquest of, 397, 313
Lúachair, battle of, 444 n., 450–1
Luccreth moccu Chíara, poem on the Eoganachta attributed to, 537–40 Lug, pagan god, 198
Luaid mac Loingir, supposed early king of Tara, 461
Lugmad (Loth), monastery of, 57 (Map 7)
Columban monastery close to, 230
Lugnae Fer Tri, see Luigne Fer Tri
Lugnasa (originally the feast of the god Lug, at the beginning of August), 198
‘onach’ of Tailtain probably held at, 458, 556
Luigne Fer Tri, legendary fosterer of Cormac mac Airt, 581–2
Luigi, 16 (Map 1), 59 (Map 4), 466–8, 511, 574
Lusk (Lusca), monastery of, 18 (Map 2), 62 and a branch of Clannacht Breg, 552 had bishops and scribes, 272 shrine of the patron saint of, insulted at ‘onach Tailtain’, 559 Luxeuil, monastery founded by Columbanus, 8, 352 abbots of, see Columbanus, Eustasius, Waldebert made its peace with Chlodush II, 365 nursery of bishops, 384 probable royal involvement in its foundation, 308 site of, 383
Lynally (Lann Elo, Lann Ela), monastery of, links with Connor, 23 (Map 3), 61 may not have been a son of Níall, 459 portrayed as accompanied by druids, but defeated by St Patrick, 17–19 portrayed by Muirchú as the emperor of the barbarians, 479 portrayed by Muirchú as the Nebuchadnezzar of pagan Ireland, 17, 472 supposed authority as king of Tara, 32, 458–9 Loige Ríta, 531
Loigí Laíchí, 236 (Map 9), 531
Loingech mac Oengusa, king of Tara, 584 collaborates with Adomnán in the promulgation of ‘The Law of the Innocents’ (C útadhainn), 534 Lombards, invasion of Italy, 373–4
Lommainch, king of the Maugdornai, 495
Lommain, patron saint of Trim, 16, 32
Lonán mac Senaig, 256
}

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

Mag nEchmach, 22, 27
Mag nEchredd, 22
Mag nEilinn, see Eilinn Mag nEó na Saxan (Mayo of the English), monastery of, 42 (Map 3), 370, 376
Mag nLoing, 52, 50 (Map 7)
Mag nluis, territory of the Uílaid, 260
Vikings defeated in, 589 Mag nluo (nluhta)
in the north-west, 52
in the south-east, Mag níthta Fothart, 102
Mag Latrain, 52 (Map 6)
Mag Léine, Synod of, 251, 277
Mag Lif, 16–17
Mag Line, leading kingdom of the Cruithni and Dál nAraith, 54, 55 (Map 7), 570, 60, 61, 99, 159, 577
and royal forts, 528
see also Dál nAraith, Raith Becc, Raith Mór, Uí Chlébhad Mag Lunge (Columban monastery on Tiree), 290, 296, 299
Mag Maccrama, site of legendary battle, 581
Mag Mairtemhinae, 95, 114
Mag Rath, see Mag Roth
Mag Róin, in Osraige, 282–4 Mag Roth (Mag Rath, Moira, Co. Down)
site of, 57 (Map 7)
battle of, 637), 60, 494–5, 571
Mag Sceath, 52
Mag Singite, 22–3
Mag Taiden, 22
Mag Tóich, 22
associated with St Brigit, 24 served by eighteen churches, 24
see also Fir Tóichach Mag Tóchuir, 49, 52 (Map 6)
Mag Tóire (Moytirra, Moytura), 41 magi confronted of Columba, 154–6 equated with druids, 153
Maglocunus (Maelgwn), 176
Maxe Éirc (branch of Uí Ailile), 41 Magen, church lost by heirs of Patrick to the community of Columba, 26
Maine, bishop of, Echamnech, protects Maicc
Éirc from Patrick, 41 Maime mac Néill (pseudonym of Cenél Maini), 33–5
as king-maker, 34–5
Maine mac Néill, of Uí Chernnaig, 571 Mainistr Buti (Monasterboice), 18 (Map 2)
an episcopal church, 272
Mainius, seat of kingship of the Uí Dúinlange and later the Uí Muintir daig, 498
some Fothart settled nearby, 14 n.
Mellbretha
Mél, saint and bishop of Ardagh, 33

Medcoit, British name for Lindisfarne, 314
Mél, saint and bishop of Ardagh, 33
Móenech (Moínech, Móenach) mac Móin Daire Lothair, battle of, 598–7
Móctha, bishop of the Uí Néill and patron saint of Nendrum, 27
Mocu, maccu, 'household', 36
Monasterboyce, see Mainister Buíti
monasticism, and Patrick, 223–6
MonChoine mac Fíachnai, father said to be Mnádsœlechta
Móin Daire Lothair, battle of, 598–7
monastic rules, 383–4 Monasterboyce, see Mainister Buíti monastery, community of, 117–23
in pagination, 257
rule of succession in, 257–8 monastic, and Patrick, 223–6
Móin Daire Lothair, battle of, 255–6
Mo Cháe, patron saint of Nendrum, 27–8
Mo Chlochair, early Leinster king, 454–7
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 361–9
Móine, 'of Mide' as an epit...
Index

Muirechtaig mac Muiredaig (Mac Ercae), 447 active in Munster, 490
see also Cenél Mac Ércae Muirechtaig, Life of Patrick by, 11, 16, 184
date of, 439–40
on Dubhchaoinech mac Lugair, 196–7 on Patrick’s confrontation with the druids of Lóegaire, 196–7 on Saul and Downpatrick, 66–7 Muiredach mac Murchada, his ancestors through women, 93–4
Muiredach mac Rúadrach, king of Leinster, Murchad mac Brain, king of Leinster
Munster, province of, 512–13
Munis, bishop, of Forgnaide, 33
Munu (also Finten mac Telcháin) patron saint of Taghmon, 4 and his nameg, 118
as foster-father, 116–17
Munster, province of, 522–48
abandoned Celtic Easter, 317 and the Uí Neill in the sixth century, 489–91 claimed overlordship over Leinster, 593 king of, 531–2
major monasteries in, 132 northern frontier of, a zone of great
churches, 593–4
origin-legends of, 579
Murchad mac Brain, king of Leinster
made inaugural expedition against Cashel, 481, 546 Murchad mac Diarmata (Murchad Midi), as ‘king of the Uí Neill’, 496, 579 Murchad mac Maile Dúin, king of Cenél
nEogain, 357, 389
Múscraige (Munster people scattered among different kingdoms), 532 (Map 13), 543 and rights of ‘weck’, 489–1 have the right to provide an ‘öllass’ in Cashel, 542 high rank of their king, 543–4
Múscraige nBreogain, 531, 532 (Map 13)
Naoa (Naoi), royal seat, 235, 298 (Map 10)
Nad Frosch, ancestor of the ‘inner circle’ within the Eoganachta, 536–7 Naimh mac Dhuach, 310 names of kindreds, 6 names of persons in Irish, 3–7 additional name (forónim/eognomatum), 6, 44–5 borrowed, from British, 6; from Latin, 6–7 nicknames, 106
patronymics, 6
pet-names of monks, used by Irish and Britons, 5
Nath Í, supposed early king, father of Ailill
Loth, 492, 498
Nath Í mac Gairchon, 253
Nechtan son of Derilei, king of Picts, 301 Nechtanesmere, battle of, 502, 532 neighbourhood (comainnech), 100–2 and kinship, 100
created by an exchange of ‘forpledges’, 100 nemed, ‘sacred’, used of freemen, 190, 198
Nendrum (Nóendruim), 56
Crónin, bishop of, 260
peppercorn rent demanded by the heirs of Patrick from, 27, 48, 31 principal episcopal church of the Ulaid, 260
site of, 57 (Map 7)
Tírechán’s Patrick avoids, 57
Newgrange, 15, 18
Niall Gaille (Níall mac Æeda), king of Tara, 501 and the Vikings, 500–1
victor in the battle of Leth Cam, 557
Niall Fossach, king of Tara, 573, 576, 577
Niall mac Conall Grainn, 577–8
Niall Noígíallach, ‘Níall of the Nine Hostages’, ancestor of the Uí Neill, 441
date of, 441
Nicetius, bishop of Lyons, 370
Nicetius, bishop of Trier wrote letter to Chlodosusinth, 347 wrote letter to Justinian I, 376 Níonan (Nynai), saint of Whitburn, and the southern Picts, 304–7 nobles, 130–4
were the intended audience of most early Irish literature, 137
Nóendrum, see Nendrum
Nóitín Uladh, saga, 157
Northumbria, expansionism of, 437 visited by Ségéne, abbot of Iona, 254
see also Ethelfrith, Bernicia, Deira, Edwin, Oswald, Oswiu
Northumbrian Church
divisions in, after the Synod of Whithby, 340–1 Synod of Whithby gives Oswiu control over, 319
Nutub, in the Book of Armagh, 11–13
Níada, abbot of Armagh, 39, 255
and the promulgation of the Law of Patrick
in Connaught, 565
Orosius, fifth-century historian, on the Isle of Óno, heirs of, and the church of Imblech

Ongom, bishop and patron saint of Armoy,

ogam alphabet,

ogam inscriptions, distribution of,

Óengus mac Colmáin, king of the Uí Néill,

Óengus mac Nad Froích

Óengus, (bishop) of the Ulstermen,

Óentrab (Áentrab, Antrim Town), monastery

Óengus the Culdee (Óengus mac Óengobann)

Óengus mac Amolngada,

Óengus mac Colmáin, king of the Uí Neill, 480–1

possible king of Tara, 492–3

Óengus mac Nád Frósich

ancestor of Eoghanacht Chanail and Eoghanacht Glendamnach, 536–7

Óengus mac Tígraini, 22 n.

Óengus the Culdee (Óengus mac Óengobann) on oppressive kings, 520

on Tara, 489-71

Oenrech (Aenrech, Antrim Town), monastery of, 57 (Map 7)

ogam alphabet, 7, 183–9

and Latin grammarians, 166

origin of, 173

ogam inscriptions, distribution of, 173

Óelán, bishop and patron saint of Armoy, 44, 52, 59–60

Óelán, priest of Cell Ochtair Múaide, 49

Óchobhar mac Canaola, king of Munster, victorious against Vikings, 396

Ollamh Fiadh, 'chief poet', 126, 129, 131

Ollamh Miceathach, 'head of a great monastery', 135, 137

Ollamh Caisil, 'office of chief poet at Cashel', claimed by Máscraige, 544

Oisdean, also Moín Daire Lothair, battle of, 295–6

Ono, heirs of, and the church of Imblech

O’Nouinn, 255

described by Tírceach as 'the Kindred of Dougait', 458

open field, 39, 102

Orléans, 242

as recognised place for national church councils, 244

Council of (244), summoned by Childebert I to respond to the condemnation of the Three Chapters, 253

Orosius, fifth-century historian, on the Isle of...
Index

699 cambridge controversy contrast with the familia, 123

of Patrick, 231

spelling of parochia, 244

see also parochia

paternal authority in the Church, 412–13

and definition of a day and a month, 393–4 and exegesis, 413–15

and paschal cycles, 406–7

and Pelagian heresy, 415

and Synod of Mâcon, 364–5

and synods, 276–7

four phases in, 408–10 importance of, 391, 411–15

in England, 419–20

issues in, 392–6, 407–8

role of Columbanus in, 405–6

see also Easter

pastoral care

the range of those who benefited, 118–19

paternity, natural and presumed, 82–3

patriarchs, very rare in the West, 242

Patrick, saint, 128, 185, 210

and annals, 443–4, 460

and conversion of slaves, 223, 224

and kings, 220–3

and law, 232–3

and monasticism, 223–6

and Palladius, 213, 214–5, 458

and rusticity of style, 231–3 biblical style of, 231–3

Bréinéich of, 27

career of, 216–22

chronological position of, 239–40

community (familia/minister) of, 10

Confessio of, 187, 216–23

described by Cummian as papa minor, 183, 426 described in the Book of the Angel as ‘apostolic teacher’ and ‘supreme pontiff’, 426–7 development of hagiography of, 9–13

education of, 230–3

evidence of his writings on the Ireland of his day, 188–9

family of, 216

had an eschatological perception of his own mission, 215–16

later Latin Lives of, 11

Law of, 473; 564–5

Letter to the Soldiers of Carnaxide of, 187, 216, 226

on kings and judges, 188–9

parochia of, 10

remembered as the apostle of the Irish, 182–3 said to have made circuit of northern half of Ireland, 10

said to have triumphed over druids, 17, 19, 47, 48 supposed artificial kindred of, 32

trial of, 217–19

see also, Armagh, Muirchú, Tírchen

patron, see ilón

patronymics and churchmen, 273–4

Peach, king of the Middle Angles, 316

Péthelm, bishop of Whithorn, likely source

Pelagianism, 8, 103

teregnam, renouveau kindred and homeland, 82

Péronne, 318 n. 591

see also Farsa

personal identity and names, 4–7 personality, perception of, 142–3

Pictish sculpture, 300–3, 328–9

Picts, 157–8

allies of the Scotti in the 500s, 160

and Gàin Adomnán, 524, 529

and Ninian (Nynias), 299–300, 304–7

‘apostate’, 186

as ‘the peoples of the Tay’, 302

campaigns of Oswiu and Egfrith against, 432 converted by Columba, 299–301, 305 divided between northern and southern

Picts, 303–4

place-name evidence for their conversion, 306–7 pilgrimage, see peregrinatio plague, 152–3

Ploki

equivalent to Irish báthu, 248

in the Bishops’ Synod, 237–8

Pomn on the Anglia, on Táithne and its ruler, 476

poetry, 126–9

and ‘the law of the face’, 107

have a circuit, 15

not tied to a túath, 103

see also fíadh

Poitiers, monastic life at, 380

shrine of St Hilary at, 347, 370

pollen data, and the Iron Age, 148

polygyny, 112

Poutonius, 189
præpositi, 250, 256
prayer for the dead, 119
prænobilis, ‘chief kings’, 523
prænobilis (archbishop) derived high status from the rank of his
  church, 267
  in the Bishops’ Synod, 248–9
  overlapped with abbot, 266 præsidentia, 274
privacy, 166–8
Prosopon, on the binding of a Sassanian prince, 493
prophecy and miracles of power, 194–8 Prosper of Aquitaine, 239
career of, 204, 210–12
Chronicle of, 183, 204, 211
Contrà Gallatatam of, 204–5, 208, 211
De Usuratis Osumani Gentium of, 207–8, 210–11
proctor, applied to Votaportia, 168 title used in Later Roman Empire, 168 province (size), 12–13
major and lesser, 423–4 Ptolemy, ancient geographer, account of Ireland, 152, 153, 159
public domain, 105–8
public aoros, private business, 546 Quadracemians, 330, 334, 399–400, 412
quaternions, 333–4
quinnions, 333
Radegund, saint, Frankish queen, 379–80
Rac, 271
Rahan, see Rathen
Rahugh, see Riath Aedha mac Brice niall, 149–50
see also ringfort
Riath Aedha mac Brice (Rahugh), 23 (Map 3), 446, 555
Riath Ailinne (Riath Ailinne, Dún Ailinne, Knockaulin, Co. Kilkare), 446–8, 458
(Map 10)
occupied by Domnachad mac Donnaill, 576, 577, 578
Riath Airthir (Orielstown, Co. Meath), 18 (Map 2), 447
seat of kingship of Fer Chul (Sil aDhithaigh), 278, 310
seat of kingship of Sil naDera Slane, 17, 21, 278
where Domnachad mac Donnaill ‘dishon-oured the Staff of Jesus’, 278, 366
Riath Becc, 57 (Map 7), 150, 528

Index

scene of the killing of Dharmait mac Cergeall, 65, 295, 577
Ráith Be (Raphoe), 53 (Map 6)
Ráith Cheolphath (Raholp), 57 (Map 7)
Ráith Chuangai (Roascon), 53 (Map 6) claimed by communities of Columba and of Asastra, 234
Ráith Ingián, royal fort of Uí Fáilgi and seat of kingship, 238 (Map 10), 528
Ráith Isbir, 235, 236 (Map 10)
Ráith Móir Mage Line, royal seat of Mag Line, 57 (Map 7), 170, 528
rape, 112
Rathen (Rahan), monastery of, 23 (Map 3), 31, 563
reclaim, 236
recluse, in Cell Goblaith, 560–1
Rechmann (Rathlin Island), 56 (Map 7) Rechru (Rechmann, Lambay Island, island monastery of, 250
relics, associated with a cón, 564–5 corporeal, Irish slow to show an interest in, 348–50
non-corporeal relics venerated by the Irish, 350 of Peter, Paul, Lawrence and Stephen at Armagh, 427, 504, share of, given to Armoy, 44, 53, 56, share of, given to Balesod, 44, 53, 58
taken on circuit, 594–5, 595
see also shrines
Remigius, bishop of Reims, 223, 348 representation of dead father by son or sons, 83 requisition, compulsory (eranna), 348–7 resharing of inherited land, 88–9 retinue of a lord, 112–13
rhetor, 232
rhetoric, education in, 277, 370–1 Rhyddgech Harl, king of Dumbarton and of the Britons of Strathclyde, 494 a friend of Columba, 283
n. ‘king’
  ti huid, 130–2
  ti cild, 132
  ti neach, 130–2 ti tãidh, 130–2
  see also king
Ríagail Phátraic (the Rule of Patrick), 13 n. on bishops, 256–9
rigide, ‘royal meeting’, ‘meeting of kings’, 278–80
rigamone, ‘royal material’, 91
ringfort (i.e., nál óg), 149, 154, 163
in Co. Down, 153

© Cambridge University Press  www.cambridge.org
Index

Roc, patron saint of Inis Bo Finne (in Lough Ree), 23
Ripon, monastery of, 311 (Map 11), 324 dedication of, 329–30 endowed with the lands of British Quardecimans, 330
Gospel-Book belonging to, 330
traits from Rata and given to Willfrid, 319, 334 roads, maintenance of, enforced by provincial kings, 509–30
Rodán (Rúradán), saint of Dunmoch, 226, 233
Roman capitals, as an inscriptional letter-
form, 70–4
Roman Empire, 145, 6, 153–8
Roman party in the Irish Church, 391 Roman uncial, introduced into Britain, 323
– 4
Rome, appeals to, 765–70
authority of, in the paschal controversy, 411
Róinín, Irishman active in Northumbria, 317–18
Roscommon, monastery of, 410
Roscommon, monastery of, 42, 46–7
Rónán, Irishman active in Northumbria, 317
Royal capitals, as an inscriptional letter-
form, 64
Ruthe, 711
Ruthe, battle of, 60
Saint Andrew’s (in Fife), contained a church of St Caimneach, 121
Saint, kingdom in north Co. Dublin/Fingal, 554 Salduis bishop of Embrun, appeals to Rome, 369–70 sanctuary, 120
apts, 264, 71
and a synod, 270, 277
in the annals, become rarer in the ninth century, 666
sambulis (secular scholar), 271 title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
sapience, meaning of, 266
Sáran mac Coolbad, 59–60
sátir, 198
Saul, Co. Down (Saball Pátraic), 57 (Map 7), 65, 7, 200
Saxons of the Besan, 512 Scandal, king of Dal nAraidi, deprives the church of Armoy of lands, 60 Scandlan mac Colmáin, king of Osraige, at Druimin Ceto, 488–9
Sela ‘news’ as personal identification, 4
Sella Cano (meic Gartnáin), a saga, 141, 271
Sella Caesar (meic Gartnáin), a saga, 141, 271
Scéla Éogain
Scéla Cú Chonnell
— Scéla Cano meic Gartnáin
‘news’ as personal identification, 4
Scéla Éogain
Scéalán mac Colmáin, king of Osraige, at Druimin Ceto, 488–9
Sélsee (in north Britain), contained a church of Drumcu Chuinn, 488–9
Saithne, kingdom in north Co. Dublin/Fingal, 554 sanctuary, 120
salpíde, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Saoirse, title usually not associated with a particular
church, 264, 5
Saoirse, meaning of, 266
Síl Máeluidir, a branch of Uí Chennselaig, 102

Síl nDlúthaig (rulers of Fir Chúl / Cúla Breg), 347

Sinell (Sinilis), teacher of Columbanus, 102

Síl nDaimíni (branch of Uí Chremthainn and Uí Chernaig), 60

Senach Rón, monk of St Caimech

Senán, patron saint of Iuis Seathnaig (Scattery Island), 50

Senán, patron saint of Lathrach Briúin (Laraghboyne, Co. Kildare), 60, 61, 62

Sencha’s, church of, 42, 42 (Map 5)

sexual division of labour, 110–11

Shannon, river, as boundary between Uí Néill and Connacht, 36

peace on, 579

Shelmaliare Commons, 102

ships and Irish domination of the Irish Sea, 152

shrines and saints’ cults, 347–50

no shrine of Columba in Adomnán’s time, 349

síd, ‘fairy mound’, 64

Sigeberht, king of East Saxons, converted, 316

Sigbert I, king of the Franks

Springmount Bog tablets, 168, 180

status close to honour, 136

ecclesiastical, 269

hierarchies of, 123–36

incommensurable, 124–9 inheritance of, 92–5

language of, 136

of churches, 132

of institutions, 132

of the young, 129

ways to sustain, 124

Stephen, Life of Wilfrid on Britons, 313

on dedication of the church of Ripon, 329–30 on Picts, 301–2

on Quartodecimans, 334

‘Story of the Finding of Cashel’, 523

Strathcarron, battle of (AD 642), 61

Stiannach, descendant of, promulgates cóin, 563

subdeacon, ‘subdeacon’,
Index

Tallaght, monastery of, 4, 238 (Map 10) community of, prevents the holding of the sónaich of Tailtiu, 198, 358
táin, grade of poet, 131
Tannach, church of, 42 (Map 5), 43, 226, 254–5
Tara (Temair), 18 (Map 2), 40, 146, 148 contrasted with Armagh, 469 Feast of, 294
king-lists of, 483–7, 490–4 kingship of, 34
and rights of wreck in Munster, 590–1 claimed by kings who were not of the Uí Néill, 482–3, 494–501
D. A. Binchy’s views on, 481
in Rothe, Néal Éceach, 449
in the laws, 518–20
J. V. Kellett’s views on, 505 succession to, 505–6 variable power of, 520–1
not regularly inhabited by kings of Tara, 17 portrayed by Muirchité as the Babylon of pagan Ireland, 17, 471–3
synods of Uí Néill and Leinstermen at, 478, 471, 369
Tech mlithshín (Tilobine), 42 (Map 5)
Tech Mumna, Taghmon, Co. Wexford, 4, 238
(Map 10)
Taghmon, Co. Westmeath, 123
see also Mumna
tóiseach, ‘advice’, genre of literature, 138–41
Tironia Cormac, ‘The Instructions of Cormac’, 443 tollach, entry by claimant onto land claimed, as model for inauguration, 475 Terryglas (Tir da Gla), monastery, rígdíl at,
280, 535 (Map 14), 384
Tethbae, 15, 31
bishop of, 260
contrasted with Connacht, 36
Northern Tethbae (around Granard, Co.
Longford), 16 (Map 1), 33, 260; part of
Patrick’s kinship network, 36
Southern Tethbae (around Ardagh, Co.
Longford), 16 (Map 1), 33, 260; Brigitine
connections of, 35
‘the two Tethbaí’; 33
theft, 108
Theodore, archbishop of Britain, 320
and the Letter of Pope Vitalian, 433–4
authority of, as seen by Stephen’s Life of Wilfrid, 439
date when he became archbishop, 430–1
dedicated the church of Lindisfarne to St
Peter, 432

Tethbae, 15, 31
bishop of, 260
contrasted with Connacht, 36
Northern Tethbae (around Granard, Co.
Longford), 16 (Map 1), 33, 260; part of
Patrick’s kinship network, 36
Southern Tethbae (around Ardagh, Co.
Longford), 16 (Map 1), 33, 260; Brigitine
connections of, 35
‘the two Tethbaí’; 33
theft, 108
Theodore, archbishop of Britain, 320
and the Letter of Pope Vitalian, 433–4
authority of, as seen by Stephen’s Life of Wilfrid, 439
date when he became archbishop, 430–1
dedicated the church of Lindisfarne to St
Peter, 432

Tethbae, 15, 31
bishop of, 260
contrasted with Connacht, 36
Northern Tethbae (around Granard, Co.
Longford), 16 (Map 1), 33, 260; part of
Patrick’s kinship network, 36
Southern Tethbae (around Ardagh, Co.
Longford), 16 (Map 1), 33, 260; Brigitine
connections of, 35
‘the two Tethbaí’; 33
theft, 108
Theodore, archbishop of Britain, 320
and the Letter of Pope Vitalian, 433–4
authority of, as seen by Stephen’s Life of Wilfrid, 439
date when he became archbishop, 430–1
dedicated the church of Lindisfarne to St
Peter, 432

Tethbae, 15, 31
bishop of, 260
contrasted with Connacht, 36
Northern Tethbae (around Granard, Co.
Longford), 16 (Map 1), 33, 260; part of
Patrick’s kinship network, 36
Southern Tethbae (around Ardagh, Co.
Longford), 16 (Map 1), 33, 260; Brigitine
connections of, 35
‘the two Tethbaí’; 33
theft, 108
Theodore, archbishop of Britain, 320
and the Letter of Pope Vitalian, 433–4
authority of, as seen by Stephen’s Life of Wilfrid, 439
date when he became archbishop, 430–1
dedicated the church of Lindisfarne to St
Peter, 432
Theodore, archbishop of Britain, (cont.) had Irish pupils, 437 implications of Roman judgement for, 340 role in the first expulsion of Wilfrid, 339–40 stance on the paschal question, 410, 437
Theodosius, father of the Emperor Theodosius, 160
Theudebert II, king of the Austrasian Franks, 352 attacked Theuderic II in 610, 371 defeated and killed by Theuderic II in 612, 372 granted Bregenz to Columbanus, 372, 388 received Columbanus, 372 Theudelinda, Lombard queen belonged to Frankish noble family, the Agilolfings, 374 supported the Aquileian schism, 374
with Agilulf granted Bobbio to Columbanus, 372 Theuderic II, king of Burgundy, 351–2 probable support for Columbanus, 388–9 weakness after Theudebert’s attack in 610 may have led to expulsion of Columbanus, 371
Three Chapters
Frankish reaction to the condemnation of,
see also Aquileian schism
Tigernach mac Fócaití, king of Loch nGabor, victorious against Vikings, 596–7
Tilbury, Cedd’s church, 311 (Map 11), 316
Tipzate mac Taidg, king of the Connachta, promulgates the Law of Patrick, 473, 562–3
Tir nAmhlóigid (Tirawley), 47–8, 249
Tir Ceill (Land of Churches), 298, 446
Tire Connall, 37
Tirechan, bishop account of St Patrick, 1, 4, 9–67, 164
and Finnechtae Fledach, 510–11
date of his Collectanea, 439 descended from Connall mac Énlaic maic Amnonigda, 48
Latin style of, 179
on Connachta and the king of Tara, 509 on ‘free churches’, 539–1 on monks and nuns, 245–6 on status of churches, 133 purpose in writing, 231–2 structure of his Collectanea, 37 treats southern Uí Néill as the Uí Néill, 433 use of the term gáim, 97
Tlacuha (Hill of Ward), 23 (Map 31), 477–9
Togal Brudha Du Doega, Old Irish saga, 4, 229
togher (tobar, road across bogland), 147
Toledo, bishops of, 419, 436
Torbach, heir of Patrick, Book of Armagh written for, 11
Torcs, 242–3
shrine of St Martin at, 347, 349 trade between Roman Empire and Ireland, 123–4 terms of trade, 135–5 Trahwng, Brycheiniog, bilingual inscription from, 172
transhumance, 102
translation of relics, in England, 332 ‘tobha’, ‘prudent’, ‘good farmer’, 137
Trecastle, Brycheiniog, bilingual inscription from, 172
Tetricus, bishop of Lyons, presides at Synod of Mâcon, 364, 369 Trevet (Treóit), monastery of, 18 (Map 2) associated with Uí Chernaig, 271 episcopal and with irish, 349–50
‘tribe’, for the Irish, 97–8
‘tribal politity’, 100
Trim (Ath Truim), principal church of Cenél Léigiaird, 10 (Map 2), 19, 37 had see also Lomman
Triparite Life of Patrick, 11–13, 39–1, 536
nísí, 12–13, 97–8, 102–6
and ecclesiastical organisation, 243–4, 248 and high church offices, 271
as the public domain, 105–6 comparison between the king and the bishop of, 126 contrasted as ‘the laity’ with the Church, 101
Túatha Dé Déannain (earlier Túath Dé), 41, 201
Túathal Máelgarb, king of Tara, 34, 448 victor over Cíannacht Breg in the battle of Llachair, 439 tua, perhaps bishop of York, 439
Tuilín, see Dalane
Úarán Garad (Ora), well of, 46–7
see also Bró Garad
Uí Amhlóigid (Uí Amhligid), royal dynasty of NW Connacht, 25–6, 38, 39 (Map 4), 40, 47–8, 50–1
‘old kindreds’ among, and the making of kings, 344
Uí Maine, Leinster dynasty, 93, 102, 236
(Map 9), 488
and Columba’s mother, 290
early members of, said to have ruled Tara, 453–7
Uí Bairche Tire, and Sleaty, 262
Uí Beinín, group of Connachtian dynasties, 39–40
Uí Bhriúin, 39 (Map 4), 45–6
Uí Bhriúin Seolat, 39 (Map 4), 43
Uí Beinín in Thystairc, dynasty of the Arighalla, 52 (Map 6)
Uí Chathbad, branch of the Éoganachta close to Cullen, 552 Uí Chérméil, group of dynasties in central and southern Leinster, 108, 236 (Map 4), genealogy, 561
we also Síl Maeldifr Uí Cernaig, branch of Síl nAeda Sláine, 271, 552, 577–8, 577–8 forced to give hostages, 557
Uí Choelbad, ruling dynasty of Mag Líne, 54–6, 59, 95, 65–9
we also Mag Líne, Ráth Béicc, Ráth Mór Uí Chenainn, branch of Síl nAeda Sláine, 571, 577–8 adopted Knowth as a seat of kingship, 473 take lands of Cinnmacht Breg, 551–3 Uí Chremthainn, pair of dynasties of the Airighalla, 52 (Map 6), 239, 314–16, 574 defeated at the battle of Lech Cam, 557
we also Síl nDámhinn, Uí Nad Sluaig,
Fermaig, Clochar Macc nDámhinn, Loch na Dalaine
Uí Chlúdaibh, kindred of the Fothairt, settled at Kildare, 14
Uí Deaga, Leinster dynasty, 236 (Map 9), 456–7
Uí Deirc Chelin, of the Cruithní, 39 (Map 7), 99
Uí Díchon, ecclesiastical kindred of Sual, and perhaps later of Dunsoprick, 65–6 Uí Dúnlainge, Leinster dynasty, 17, 93, 235, 236 (Map 9), 238
genealogy, 520
location of their oldest lands, 262 supposed early kings of Leinster from, 453–7
supposed references to, in fifth-century annals, 448
Uí Eachach Arda, an Ulster dynasty, 36 (Map 7)
Uí Eachach Maige Cobo, ruling dynasty of Mag Cobo (W Co. Down), 54, 99, 240
we also Mag Cobo
Uí Enechglas, 236 (Map 4), 454–5
Uí Eilgí, dynasty of NW Leinster, 236 (Map 9) and the conquest of Mide, 449–50 includes Tíacht Dú Maige, 22
Uí Fíachrach, Ailill Molt and Nath Í belonged to, 462–3 decayed in the eighth century, 462–3
Uí Fíachrach Aidne, Connacht dynasty, 39 (Map 4), 39–40
Uí Fíachrach Arda Satha, dynasty of the Airighalla, 52 (Map 6)
Uí Fíachrach Múaid, Connacht dynasty, 39 (Map 4), 39–40, 59
Uí Fíachrach Murroic, Connacht dynasty, 39 (Map 4), 49–50
Uí Fidgente, Munster dynasty and kingdom, 55 n., 237, 238 (Map 13)
excluded from Proffhulad Muimn, 534–6, 546–7
Uí Garraige, Leinster dynasty, 235–7, 529 See also kings of, described as kings of the Fortúatha Laigen, 530 Uí Latháin, royal dynasty of south-east Co. Cork, 532 (Map 13)
and the foundation of Cloyne, 408
branch of, settled in Britain, 164
in Proffhulad Muimn, 547
Uí Maccu Úais (Uí Maccuais, Uí Macc Cuais, Uí Moccu Úais), 514–15, 574
Uí Maccu Úais Midi, 16 (Map 1), 272, 574
Uí Maccu Úais Mó, 16 (Map 1), 574
Uí Macc Uairthín, dynasty of the Airighalla, 52
Uí Mael, Leinster dynasty, 6, 236 (Map 9), 496, 574
genealogy, 622
Uí Maini, Connacht dynasty, 35, 39 (Map 4) Uí Meca Caille (Imokilly, Co. Cork), branch of Uí Meic Caille (Imokilly, Co. Cork), branch of Uí Mearacaithe, dynasty of the Airighalla, 52
Uí Meic Cuillinn, dynasty of Mag Cobo, (W Co. Down), 54, 99, 240
we also Mag Cobo
Uí Murchadaig, one of three royal branches of Uí Dúnlainge, 93, 236 (Map 9)
and the foundation of Cloyne, 408
Uí Néill, 2–3, 6, 441–68
and the Connachta, 508–12, 518, 520 and the legend of Cormac mac Airt, 458, 579–81
date of the name, 441
decay of the political order established by, 501–9
early allies of, 465–8
feuds among, 495–9
identified by Tírechan with the southern Uí Néill, 15, 37 UI Néill, (cont.)
in hagiography, 445–6
kings of the Southern UI Néill, 15–36 kings of, as deputy kings of the Southern UI Néill, 479–80, 510–11 of Brega, 522
the subject of Book I of Tírechán's Collectanea, 15
UI Segain of Fir Rois, 273
UI Théig, branch of UI Mail, 236 (Map 9), 357
UI Thuirtrí, a dynasty of the Airgíalla, 52
(Map 6), 36 (Map 5), 374
take territory from Dál nAraidi, 63
Uisnech, 23 (Map 3), 24, 28–9, 446
Ulaid (Ulstermen), 36 (Map 7), 99 and Congal Cáech, 405, 497–8
bishop of, 260
Crúithin claim to be 'the true Ulaid', 54 defeated at the battle of Leth Cain, 357 in Prolemy, 152, 259
king-list, 623
may have been leaders of the Atacotti, 159–60
Ultha, bishop of the Goths, 207
Ulster, province of, 54–67 larger Ulster of the fifth century, 146–7
no provincial cain attested for, 386, 389, 384
Uí mac Cúng Chonchobair, bishop of Dál
Conchobair, of Ardbraccan, 61–2, 272
Úlán the scribe, 328
uncial script, 323, 333–6
Unaíchta Beag, legal tract on status, 128, 150–2 Unaíchta na Rí, legal tract on the status of poets, 128, 150–1
urban characteristics of major monasteries, 119–21
Valentinian I, Roman emperor, 160
values, of a commoner, 137
Verona, bishop of Atba Riga, 385–6 Verdun, 249
vernacular literature, 322 Vortunus, constituent people among the Pictish federation, 138
see also Fortun Vortusco of Aquitaine, paschal computus of, 390–3 adopted by the Frankish Church at the council of Orléans (AD 541), 466–7
known to Columbanus, 406 Virilius, pope, and the Three Chapters, 374–3
as seen by the Aquileians, 376
Vikings divided into Dark Heathens and White or Fair Foreigners, 597
first appearance of, 587
in the 840s and 850s, 596–7
long-term effects of, 598–9 stages in the development of their attacks, 598–9
violence, attitudes to, 139–40
Vingus, fourth abbot of Iona, 307–8 Vitalian, pope and the authority of Theodore, 417, 431, 433
and 'islands', 434 saw the northern Irish and the Britons as heretics and schismatics, 433
Vocluit, Wood of, 557
Vorpanix (Nortgornus), tyrant of the Demetae, 164–9
Waldelbert, abbot of Lancesc, 332, 388, 390
Waldelimen, Burgundian nobleman, supporter of Columbanus, 376, 389
warband (fair), 113 warfare, pattern of, 370–1 Wearmouth-Jarrow, joint-monastery of, 341–2
and uncial script, 333–6
see also Bede, Ceolfrith welsh, holy, 40–7
West Munster, see Éoganacht Locho Lein, Iarmmu
West Munster Synod, 322 and the role of kings of Tara and Cashel in inaugurating client kings, 549–50
West Saxons, 313
Whitby, monastery of, 311 (Map 11), 338
Whithby, Synod of, 317, 319, 416, 437
Whithorn, church of St Ninian,
303–11 (Map 7)
Wilfrid, saint alienated the monks of Lindisfarne in 687–8, 346, 341
and Archbishop Theodore, 429–31
and church architecture, 344
and the paschal controversy, 410–11
and the Rule of St Benedict, 335
and uncial script, 324, 334
appealed to Rome, 340
as champion of all things Roman, 325, 334
as metropolitan bishop of York, 430–2 at Lyons and Rome, 313 attempted settlement with Aldfrith, 340 attitude of Bede to, 343–455
Ceolfrith, abbot of Wearmouth-Jarrow, his pupil, 324 characteristics of his party, 337 claimed episcopal authority throughout northern Britain and northern Ireland, 416–7, 432, 434–5 claimed to have got rid of ‘the poisonous weeds planted by the Irish’, 325 first expulsion of, 339–40, 430
his gospel-book, 339, 332
Irish contacts of, 437
may have wanted York to replace Iona, 433
patronised by Alfrith, sub-king of Deira, 318–20 returned from exile after Aldfrith’s death, 343

Willibrord his monk at Ripon, 328
see also Hexham, Ripon, Stephen, Life of Wilfrid Willibrord, archbishop of Utrecht, 328
Winicius, father of Bobolemas, abbot of Bobbio, 336
Winoc the Breton, 347 ‘woman who cuts’, 107
women as non-combatants, 70 protected by ‘the Law of the Innocents’ (Cán Adomnáin), 70 type of, admired by men, 107
Wulfolaic, pillar-saint of Carignan, 379 York, 311 (Map 11), 436
huge size of Willfrid’s diocese of, 339–40 perceived as a metropolitan see, 430–2
see also Bosa, Chad, Tuda, Wilfrid