

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-36821-6 - The Business of Research: RCA and the VideoDisc

Margaret B. W. Graham

Index

More information

Index

- Acoustical & Electromechanical Research Laboratory (A&ER), 68, 87, 89, 90–2, 94
- Adler, Robert, 170
- advanced materials control, 21
- advertising, 213
- Airco Technical Company (Canada), 163
- Alcoa, 227, 233
- Alexanderson Alternator, 35
- Alexanderson, Ernst, 35, 52
- Alic, James, 207
- Allied, 233
- AM signal format, 101, 135, 137, 153
- Ampex, 68, 91, 226
- antitrust litigation, 41, 81, 139–40
- Applied Research Group, 98
- Applied Technologies Division, 99
- Armstrong, Edwin, 54
- Arthur D. Little, 155
- AT&T, 8, 15–16, 31, 37, 43, 121, 218
- audio disc technology, 174, 203
- autocoater, 163, 185–6, 198, 201, 211
- Avco, 146, 150
- Baker, Walter, 55, 64
- Ball, Henry, 125–6, 130–2, 138, 151, 160
- Banquet frozen foods, 12
- Barone, Stephen, 193
- basic materials research, 51
- basic science research, 69–75
- Bell & Howell, 132, 146, 149–50
- Bell Laboratories, 57
- Bendix, 233
- Betamax (Sony), 22–3, 181, 188–91, 194, 205–6, 208
- Biewener, John, 171, 177, 179
- Bilby, Kenneth, 190, 205
- Bitting, Robert
- assembles Video Playback System Team, 124
 - background and experience, 118, 228
 - conflict with RCA Laboratories, 125, 178–9
 - heads new venture team, 118
 - leaves RCA, 147
 - relinquishes programming responsibilities, 140
 - reports to Consumer Electronics Division, 145
 - succeeded by Bricker, 149
 - warned of Japanese competition, 130
- Bradshaw, Thornton
- analyzes VideoDisc failure, 217
 - appointed chairman, 217
 - focuses on core business, 217
 - withdraws VideoDisc, 213
- Brandinger, Jay, 207
- Bricker, Gordon, 149, 166, 171, 177
- Brown, George, 65, 86, 89, 92, 95, 106
- building-block research, 71–3, 75, 78–80, 103, 224
- Burns, John, 11, 81–3, 84, 87, 171
- cable television, 107–8, 151
- caddy, 16–17, 194, 200, 203
- California space program, 73
- Camden (N.J.) facilities, 44, 51–3, 56, 58, 60, 63, 70, 82, 91–2, 96, 98–9, 117–18

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-36821-6 - The Business of Research: RCA and the VideoDisc

Margaret B. W. Graham

Index

More informationIndex

- capacitance systems, 5, 20, 22, 24, 93, 97–8, 101–2, 135, 153, 156–7, 169, 175, 183, 208, 212; see also Discpix, VideoDisc
- Cartrivision (Avco), 22, 146, 150
- cathode ray camera, 53; tubes, 59
- CBS building systems technology, 10 color camera technology, 114 color television systems, 61–2; early sales, 65; kinescope opposed, 66; withdrawn from market, 65 disc production capability, 208–9
 divisional structure, 61
 EVR videoplayer announced, 22, 100, 102; color version promised, 109, 115; competitive RCA stance, 109, 111, 116–17, 168; press reaction, 120–1, 133; written off, 146; see also EVR
 formed, 43
 Hytron acquired, 61
 McCoy joins, 208–9
 NBC rival, 43
 postwar systems RCA competitor, 61, 170, 226
 prewar RCA rivalry, 21, 61
 RCA disc agreement, 21, 208
 VHF TV spectrum requested, 61–
 2; FCC grants, 62–3; decision reversed, 64–5
- CIT Financial Corporation, 26, 208, 217–18
- clean-room production, 21, 133, 155, 163
- Clemens, Jon, 97, 135, 137
- Close, Frederick, 227
- color encoding, 151
- Colortrak, 158–9, 207
- Columbia Pictures, 128
- compression molding, 203
- Conrad, Anthony, 13, 150, 156–7, 171, 179, 182, 184, 186–8, 190
- consumer electronics industry, 6, 24, 128, 183, 191, 194, 217
- Consumer Electronics Division (Indianapolis), 73, 96, 130–1, 133, 136–7, 145–7, 207
- Consumer Electronics Laboratory, 90, 98–9
- consumer safety issues, 17, 202
- Coronet Carpets, 12, 26
- cross-licensing agreements, 45, 68
- Daniels, Josephus, 36
- David Sarnoff Research Center, 27, 29, 48, 61, 76, 78, 102, 104–5, 225
 see also RCA Laboratories
- Decca, 22, 134, 181
- decoding circuitry, 17
- deForest, Lee, 35
- Depression, 53, 56
- Discovision, 23
- DiscoVision Associates, 212
- Discpix, see also VideoDisc capacitance technology, 96–7, 108 feasibility goals, 112
 Morsey applies pressure on, 110
 PREVS decision against, 116 project started, 96–8
 proprietary technology, 108
 Records Division dislikes, 117, 123 renamed VideoDisc, 136
 Stanley-Tan report considers, 102, 107–8
 Teldec approach judged inferior, 135 tentative introduction date, 116
- discs, 15, 16, 17, 177
 coated, 15, 18, 92, 154–5, 162, 180, 185–6, 197–200, 202, 211
 conductive, 202–3, 226
 uncoated, 15, 92–3, 97–8, 199, 201–3
- Dynagroove, 87
- electromechanical technologies mastering, 15, 18, 112
 pickups, 15, 134
 recording, 101, 134, 154, 156, 201, 203
- electron beam equipment, 137, 163– 4
- electron beam technologies
 mastering, 15, 17, 163–4, 180, 186, 201
 microscope, use in, 81, 101, 222
 recording, 92, 101–2, 153–5
 scanning, 151, 154

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-36821-6 - The Business of Research: RCA and the VideoDisc

Margaret B. W. Graham

Index

More informationIndex

- Electronic Components Division, 80 electronic retrieval devices, 15 electronic systems, 217
 Electronic Videorecorder, see EVR electronics industry, 218, 224
 electronics research, 68–9, 71–2, 90, 218
 Electronics Research Laboratory, 93, 98–9
 Emerson, 60
 Enders, William, 107–9, 112–13, 115, 130
 Engstrom, Elmer backs long-range research, 83 director of research and engineering, 69 favors central funding, 56 focuses on home information, 218 head of RCA Laboratories, 80–1 institutes research budget, 81
 notes Sarnoff's lack of formal training, 229 RCA president, 83 replaced by Robert Sarnoff, 103 research director, 51 supports RCA Laboratories, 78 supports Homefax, 89
 European Common Market, 12
 Evanoff, George appointed corporate staff member, 113 functions taken by Sonnenfeldt, 171 marketing report videorecorder, 1969, 116 marketing review prerecorded videoplayers 1974, 165–6, 174 plan rendered obsolete by Philips–MCA entry, 177 recommends Videodisc, 166
 EVR (CBS), 22, 100, 102, 108–9, 115–17, 119–21, 126, 129, 134–5, 146, 168, 226, 233
 Ewing, Douglas, 70, 72, 82

 Farnsworth, Philo, 53 fast search capability, 20
 Federal Communications Commission (FCC), 52, 55, 61–3, 89, 144 Federal Trade Commission (FTC) investigation, 41
 film, see high-density information storage media film companies, 142
 FM signal format, 54, 62, 101, 135, 137, 153 follower strategies, 182–5
 Folsom, Frank, 60, 65, 81
 Ford, 12, 223
 Fotomat, 214
 “Four Star International,” 140
 Fox, Len, 202, 226
 frame-by-frame information format, 92, 97, 117
 freeze-frame, 112, 161, 203–4
 Frey, Donald, 146, 149
 Frost & Sullivan videoplayer report, 195

 General Electric announces videodisc venture, 212
 divests RCA, 45
 electronics R&D, 69
 forms NBC with RCA, Westinghouse, 43
 Harrison (NJ) electric tube plant transferred to RCA, 45, 51, 74 nonmagnetic television recording, 92
 radio, little interest in, 50
 RCA, joint stake in, 31, 37–9
 rights to Alexanderson Alternator, 35 standardization committees, active in, 40, 55, 63–4 supports JVC disc model, 212 television research, 52, 60, 65 views RCA disc demonstration, 198
 General Electric Laboratories, 44, 57
 Ginsberg, Charles, 68
 Goldmark, Peter, 61, 109, 170
 Goldsmith, Alfred N., 32, 49–50
 Goodman, Julian, 108 government research contracts, 11, 58–9, 70, 75, 78, 82–5, 92
 Griffiths, Edgar H. agrees to continue VideoDisc program, 190–5 appointed RCA CEO, 14, 188

Index

- Griffiths, Edgar H. (cont.) chooses new VideoDisc leadership, 206–7 commits RCA to VideoDisc launch, 21, 196–7, 205–6, 207–8 follows traditional RCA policies, 205–6 orders market report for VideoDisc, 188 prefers VideoDisc program cancellation, 184 provides RCA Laboratories with support base, 225 questions importance of technology leadership strategy, 182 reviews VideoDisc program, 190–5
 Sonnenfeldt link, 228
 Gruber, Peter, 128
- Halter, Jerry, 154, 156
 Hannon, William, 99, 118, 135
 Harbord, General James, 39, 58–9
 Harrison (NJ) facilities, 45, 51–2, 56, 58, 74
 Harvard Business School, speeches at, 35, 42
 Hazeltine facilities, 63
 Hear-See player, 91, 94, 96
 Hertz, 12, 26
 Hewlett, Richard, 227
 high-density information storage media, 15, 17, 218 high-density recording, 90, 96, 134 high-resolution recording, 222, 225 Hillier, James appointed head of RCA Laboratories, 82 attempts restructure of RCA Laboratories, 76, 78, 80, 84–5, 87–9, 224–5 attempts technology transfers, 158–9, 174, 180 backs Videodisc program, 156, 164, 171, 179 considers technology leadership strategy, 113–4, 230 corporate vice-president Research & Engineering, 89, 106, 108, 164; replaced, 188 creates laboratory linkages with product divisions, 86–7 emphasizes home entertainment, 85
 investigates EVR, 100
 opposes Magtape, 150 prefers Discpix, 115
 speech to IEEE, 76
 states RCA Laboratories planning priorities, 84–5 supports electron-beam technology, 101–2 technical background, 82
 vice-president RCA Laboratories, 76
- Hitachi, 209
 Hittinger, William, 148–50, 158, 188, 191
 holograms, 98–9, 132–3 Holopix becomes Holotape project, 104, 107 description of technology, 98 disc format dropped for tape, 107, 117 hologram research, 98–9
 pricing goals, 100 rival to Discpix project, 99, 102
see also Holotape
- Holotape
 budget ended, 145
 candidate for home information center, 121 crash program at Laboratories, 115, 118–19, 223 designed to rival CBS EVR, 120–1, 134, 233 gains corporate attention, 123–5, 230 high component costs, 112 loses corporate favor, 134, 136, 145, 156 product divisions dislike, 153
 proprietary technology, 108, 115
 public demonstration, 104, 115, 117, 119, 120–1, 122, 128, 168 relations with corporate staff worsen, 119, 125 research advances, 117, 118–19, 126, 132–3

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-36821-6 - The Business of Research: RCA and the VideoDisc

Margaret B. W. Graham

Index

More informationIndex

- rivals Discpix and Phototape projects, 107–9, 116, 117, 123, 127, 130, 135
- schedule adjustment, 130
- specifications reopened, 126, 132–3
- target prices, 116, 129, 133, 178
- technologies involved, 111
- Homefax, 89–90, 107, 121
- Honeywell, 13
- Husky Company (Canada), 163, 185
- Hytron, 61
- IBM, 11, 12, 107, 111, 121, 212, 218, 227
- ICL, 13
- iconoscope, 52–3, 59
- Indianapolis facilities, 45, 60, 63, 73, 91, 94, 96, 132, 135, 145, 147, 152–3, 157–9, 169, 179–80, 184, 186–7, 196, 198, 200–2, 204, 207, 211
- information encoding, 131, 151, 204
- information storage formats, 15
- injection molding, 163, 203
- innovations, 1–7
- incremental, 19, 35
- nonincremental, 35, 223
- Institute of Electrical & Electronic Engineers (IEEE), 76
- Institute of Radio Engineers, 32
- Interim Research Planning Committee (IRPCO), 87–90
- Isom, Rex, 63, 117, 154, 158
- ITT, 12, 45
- Japan Victor Corporation (JVC), 24, 156, 199, 206, 212, 216
- Japanese color television, 107
- Japanese competition, 23, 28, 111, 128–9, 131, 149, 155–6, 170, 188, 191, 194–5, 216, 235
- Japan, demonstrations in, 175–7, 198–9
- J. C. Penney, 209
- Johnson, James, 165
- Joliffe, Charles, 54, 61–2
- Keizer, Eugene, 90–1, 96–8, 135, 153
- Kell, Ray, 100
- Korean War, 63, 70
- Kreuzer, Barton, 94, 96, 145–6, 149
- Lancaster (PA) facilities, 60, 107, 112, 136, 147
- Land, Edwin, 227
- LaserDisc (Pioneer), 23
- lasers, 19, 96–9, 101, 124, 151, 169, 212
- see also* optical mastering
- Laservision (Philips–MCA), 23, 206, 212
- leadership strategy, 113–14, 182–4
- Lend-Lease Act, 57
- Lewis, Henry, 99
- Lockhart, Kenneth, 153
- long-playing (LP) records, 15–16, 140, 218
- McCoy, Donald
- advises Colortrak on colorimetry, 159
- appointed chief technical officer for VideoDisc, 180–1
- attempts VideoDisc technology transfer, 159, 162–3, 169, 171
- attends Philips demonstration, 151
- demonstrates VideoDisc in Japan, 175
- develops disc production capacity at CBS, 208–9
- director of Consumer Electronics Laboratories, 123, 133
- reports on VideoDisc technical problems, 177–9
- revises Holotape price upwards, 133
- McDermott, Thomas, 140–5, 147, 176, 205, 209
- Magnavision (Magnavox), 206
- Magnavox, 23, 146, 206
- magnetic technologies
- discs, 91
- head pickups, 15
- recording, 92, 226
- tape, 14–15, 68, 91–2, 94, 148–50, 160, 165, 181, 191, 212
- videocassettes, 22

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-36821-6 - The Business of Research: RCA and the VideoDisc

Margaret B. W. Graham

Index

More informationIndex

- magnetic technologies (cont.)
 videorecorders, 94–5 videotape players/recorders, 22, 107, 111, 124, 129–30, 136
- Magtape
 Bell & Howell arrangement, 132, 149–50
 Consumer Electronics Division prefers, 136
 corporate backing decreases, 150, 157
 Hillier opposes, 15
 mass market economics lacking, 156 programming, 144, 147
 project started, 132; ended, 148, 157, 167
 proprietary technology lacking, 156
 startup plan by Venture Group, 138–9, 145
 system, 146–7; difficulties, 147
- Marconi (British), 31
 Marconi, Guglielmo, 31, 33–5, 53
 Marconi Wireless Company of America concentrates on growth, 32
 neglects technology, 33–5
 patents expiring, 35
 precedes RCA, 30
 sold to GE, 37
 U.S. Navy takes over, 36
 wireless research, 34–5
- mastering systems, 15, 137, 153–4, 175, 185–6, 193, 199–202
- materials research, 222
- Matsushita, 10, 27, 154–6, 175, 183, 191, 195, 199, 205–6, 216, 234
- MCA, 23, 151, 161, 166, 168–9, 171, 177, 181, 206, 212, 217
see also Philips N.V.
- media
 contributes to VideoDisc failure, 216–18
 favors VideoDisc, 212 negative effect on research, 233 reaction to Magtape shelving, 148
- Melpar, 82, 86
- Mills, Delbert, 108
- Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing
 (3M), 111
- MIT, 70, 118
- Morse, Chase
 background at Ford, 106, 223
 backs Corporate Venture Group, 122 backs videoplayer research, 108–9 cuts off Homefax support, 107 heads corporate new product planning, 106
 new marketing plan, 122 puts pressure on Discpix, 110 puts pressure on Holotape, 116, 121–2
 refuses McDermott funds, 144 seeks programming director, 140 sees CBS as threat, 109–10, 114– 15 sets up Advanced Product Planning group, 107
- Motorola, 146
- Nally, Edmund, 33, 37, 39
- National Research Council (NRC), 50
- National Television Standards Committee (NTSC)
 first, 55, 62
 second, 63–5
- NBC
 and Alic, James, 207
 cable television project proposed, 107
 Discpix involvement suggested, 102 financial difficulties, 206–7
 formed, 43
 President Julian Goodman, 108;
 Robert Sarnoff, 11, 105; Herbert Schlosser, 20, 205
 profits, 183
 programming expertise, 139, 141
 RCA disliked, 105, 124, 140
 Selectavision demonstration, 8 Sonnenfeldt moves to, 206 television costs, 60–1, 66
 “Today” show, 19
 “Tonight” show, 114
- nonmagnetic technologies approach, 92, 94, 96–7, 102
 tape, 15
 videoplayers, 90

Index

- Olson, Harry, 89, 91, 93
 optical technologies
 discs, 22–3, 168
 images, 15
 mastering, 15
 systems, 24, 151–2, 161, 212
 optics, 59, 222
 orthicon, 59
 Owens-Illinois, 233
- patents, 222
 see also RCA patents pattern innovations, 75
 pause capability, 20
 Philco, 68
 Philips, N.V.
 Discovision, 23
 Japanese market sought, 174–5, 199–200
 Laservision made by Magnavox,
 206
 MCA, joint venture with, 23, 168, 177, 181, 217, 233; videodisc demonstrated, 168–9; press coverage, 169–70; mass market not sought, 170, 183, 200, 233
 North American, 23
 optical videodisc system demonstrated, 151, 161; system features, 161–2, 165
 organization, 10
 RCA VideoDisc rivalry, 162, 165, 169–71, 191, 195
 technology to Japan, 235
 videocassette system demonstrated, 131, 149; compared to RCA Magtape, 131
 videodisc technology, 169–70, 195, 217
 visited by RCA Venture Group, 145
- photographic images, 15, 22
 photolithography, 222
 Photophone sound recording, 44
 Photopix, 97, 100
 Phototape, 100, 108, 110, 115
 pickups
 laser, 15, 24
 magnetic head, 15
 optical, 174
 piezo electric needle or pressure, 15–16, 154–5, 174, 183, 234 (see also capacitance systems) pilot programs, 174–5, 179–80, 184, 194, 196, 201, 211, 221
 Pioneer, 23
 playback vs. recording concept, 188 player design, 152–3, 178, 184, 196, 201, 203–4, 208–9, 212–13, 216,
 218 Playtape, 111
 playtime, 18, 151–2, 161–2, 181, 195, 203
 Polaroid, 227
 Pollack, Roy
 Consumer Electronics Division
 head, 148, 177
 Group Vice President, 20, 188, 207
 opposes VideoDisc, 188, 190–1, 227 replaces Sonnenfeldt, 206–7 television turnaround, 207 timing described as VideoDisc failure, 217
 Prerecorded Electronic Video Systems (PREVS), 108, 110, 115–17
 prerecorded tapes, 217, see also programming process control, 18, 222 process innovation, 18
 programming, 112, 136, 139–44,
 146–7, 165–6, 178, 181, 183–5, 195, 201, 207, 209, 214–26
 proprietary advantages, 9–10, 68,
 92, 103, 108, 115, 144, 155–6,
 180, 191, 194, 199–200, 225,
 234–5
- radar research, 59
 Radio Company, 37
 see also RCA
 Radio Corporation of America, 12,
 31, see also RCA
 radio industry,
 buffs in, 33, 39
 early history, 32–40
 first stations, 38
 sales, 38–9, 42
 Sarnoff's Radio Music Box, 32, 38
 standardization of components, 40

Index

- Radio Keith Orpheum (RKO), 94
 Radio Manufacturers Association, 55 radio spectrum disputes, 54–5
 Radio Shack, 209
 Radio Trust, 41, 43; Justice Department suit against, 44–5
 Radiotron Division, 40, 45, 51, 56
 Radiotron Standardization Committee, 40
 Ramberg, E., 92
 RCA (see also RCA Laboratories; RCA research; RCA television) acquisitions, 12–13, 43, 121, 208 (see also RCA divestments) advanced development groups, 26, 72–3, 86–7, 94, 130–1, 135, 145, 152–3, 162
 Advanced Product Planning, 107, 130
 Board of Directors, 13, 81, 94, 177
 Broadcast Division, 91 camera technology, 114
 Communications Research, 56 computers, 10–14, 27, 82–3, 93, 106–7, 126, 144, 156, 164, 171, 180, 190, 193, 233 consumer electronics, 8, 10–11, 14, 191, 195
 Consumer Electronics Division, 15, 23, 26–7, 107–8, 110–11, 117, 120, 124, 148–50, 152–3, 157–8, 162, 201, 207–8
 Consumer Electronics Laboratory, 123, 159
 Consumer Electronics Sales & Marketing, 207 corporate facilities, 178 corporate staff organization, 12–13, 106, 130, 144, 161, 164, 166, 225; strengthened by R. Sarnoff, 106 cross-licensing, 37
 dealers, 8, 19–21, 25, 40, 60, 164–6, 183, 191, 194, 195, 207, 209, 213–16, 218 development costs, 83
 diversification, 43
 divestments, 208, 217–19
 Electronic Components, 11, 107
 financial difficulties, 13–14, 143–4, 197, 213, 217, 225 government contracts, 11, 107 Government Systems Division, 80 holding company structure, 45
 Home Instruments, 11, 94, 102, 108–9 (see also Consumer Electronics Division) image, 12, 19–20, 28, 105, 190, 205, 228 Industrial Electronics, 82, 86 integrated systems strategy, 21
 joint ventures, 12
 License Laboratory, 50–1
 licensing, 13, 27, 41, 50, 56, 65, 71, 80–4, 86, 105, 135, 145–6, 150, 154, 164, 169–70, 174–5, 178–9, 183–5, 191, 193, 199, 206, 211, 216, 231, 234
 Licensing Department, 23, 193, 231
 Licensing Division, 184 management shake-up, 182, 188
 “Manhattan Project,” see VideoDisc product program Manufacturing Company, 54 manufacturing locations, 59, 60, 66, see also Camden, Indianapolis, Lancaster marketing, 104–6, 112, 130, 144, 165, 183, 194, 226, 231
 New Business Programs, 171 operating divisions organization, 1970, 12
 organization 1965, 11
 origins, 37
 overseas licensees, 13, 106
 patents, 10, 37–8, 40–1, 54, 56–7, 60, 65, 81, 131, 171, 186, 202 product divisions, 17, 72, 80, 82, 86–8, 226–7
 Professional Broadcast Division, 94–5
 Professional Broadcast Equipment, 11
 Records Division, 26–7, 87, 91, 102, 111–13, 117, 123–4, 136, 139–41, 152–6, 158
 Research Center, 14, 26 (see also RCA Laboratories)

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-36821-6 - The Business of Research: RCA and the VideoDisc

Margaret B. W. Graham

Index

More informationIndex

- research and development budgets, 26, 78, 149
- Research & Engineering, 188, 193
- sales, 26, 39, 102
- satellite research laboratory, 26
- service, 11
- service company, 60
- shareholders, 13, 85, 187, 190
- Special Programs, 142, 145, 147
- strategy, 229–35
 - diversification, 106, 223
 - focus on R&D, 74
 - research control, 50, 56, 58
 - research role played down, 105–6
 - review, 165
- Systems Research Laboratory, 86, 90–4, 96, 98
- technical organization, 8, 10
- technology transfers, 65, 157–60
- vacuum tube technology, 40
- venture group, 113–16, 122–6, 129–32, 135–8, 141, 145–7
- Victor, 45, 52, 60
- Video Playback Systems Team, 124
- see also* Selectavision; VideoDisc
- RCA Laboratories, 5–7, 15, 17, 46, 76, 131, 136–7, 144–5, 150–1, 153–9, 164, 174, 177–9, 186–7, 190, 197, 201–3, 211, 218, 224–6, 231
- back prerecorded video concept, 107–9
- budgets introduced, 81
- corporate control of, 110
- criticized by Robert Sarnoff, 104–5
- electronics focus, 48, 68–9
- fundamental research emphasis, 69
- group rivalries, 82, 88
- increased staff, 83
- leadership change, 81
- magnetic tape focus, 94–5
- New Business & Research Evaluation, 89, 98, 107
- postwar staff, 67–70
- Princeton facility built, 58, 61
- Princeton University ties, 58, 70
- product division links, 80, 86–7, 105
- relation to corporate staff, 225
- restructuring, 87
- Section 13 1/2, 93
- seed money, 86, 94–5
- share in corporate R&D budget, 78
- staff divisions, 70–1
- strategic planning, 84–5
- television, color, focus on, 66
- RCA research
 - advanced electronics, 51, 58
 - allocated corporate funds, 56
 - applications-oriented stress, 82
 - combination of groups involved, 51
 - color television emphasis, 61
 - core electronics technology, 83
 - data processing, 82, 85, 88, 93
 - early history, 49–52
 - entertainment electronics focus, 85
 - fundamental, emphasis on, 91
 - funding by manufacturing divisions, 55; corporate, 56
 - long-range emphasis, 56, 83
 - organization, 17, 26, 45, 159–60
 - product-oriented focus, 88–90
 - radio, 50, 54
 - staff goals, 222
 - television, 52–3; as pattern innovation, 75
- RCA television
 - black and white, 52
 - color, 8, 10–12, 14, 52, 107, 157–8
 - early research, 52
 - field testing, 54
 - iconoscope, 52–3, 59
 - investment costs, 53
 - orthicon, 59
 - patent protection, 54
 - sales, 138, 207
 - singled out by Sarnoff, 53
 - spectrum, 54–5
 - standardization, 55, see also National Technical Standards Committee
- real-time mastering, 18, 133, 137, 151, 154, 164, 178, 200, 203

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-36821-6 - The Business of Research: RCA and the VideoDisc

Margaret B. W. Graham

Index

More informationIndex

- replication, 193, 200
- research, negative stereotypes of, 220–1
- research and development (R&D)
 - definition, 221
 - institutional character, 224
 - joint ventures, 234
 - managing, 220–35
 - mistrust of, 220–1
- researchers, 220–1, 226
- Rhodes, Roland, 153, 162
- Riverhead (Long Island) facilities, 49, 56
- Rockefeller Center demonstrations, 168, 178, 197
- Rockville Road facilities, 184, 211
- roll-out plans, 179, 194, 208, 211, 219
- Royal Navy (British), 33

- Sanyo, 29
- Sarnoff, David
 - alarmed by EVR, 100
 - anniversary presents, 49, 67, 223
 - backs Laboratories, 225
 - builds company, 9
 - cites importance of self-obsolence, 49
 - commitment to innovation, 227
 - commitment to technological leadership, 41–2, 46–7
 - continuing leadership, 11
 - creates corporate research center, 4–5
 - dislike of bureaucracy, 46
 - early years Marconi, 31–6
 - early years RCA, 37–9
 - entrepreneurial vigor, 118
 - executive vice-president, 45
 - failing health, 113
 - focus on home information, 218; on innovation, 291; on television, 52–5
 - frequent visitor to Laboratories, 48–9
 - known as the General, 48, 54, 67, 100
 - lack of formal engineering training, 229
 - leadership becomes less effective, 67
 - leadership style, 30, 47, 205
 - Navy service, 36
 - pressure on researchers, 223
 - promotes licensing abroad, 84, 234
 - RCA career, 29
 - receives Japanese award, 84
 - relies on color television, 85
 - research strategy, 231
 - speech “Message to Broadcasters,” 1947, 30
 - speech to Harvard Business School, 1928, 35, 42
 - spokesman for Cold War, 73
 - supports color television, 62–5; electronics, 72; Homefax, 89; RCA Laboratories, 78, 83; research, 56–7; VideoDisc, 20
- Sarnoff, Robert
 - appoints McDermott, 140–1; Sonnenfeldt, 171
 - CEO, 103
 - commits RCA to technological leadership, 170
 - dislikes CBS competition, 114
 - ends Magtape, 150
 - introduces Selectavision, 104
 - loses faith in Selectavision, 231
 - modifies David Sarnoff’s research strategy, 11, 231
 - planning session, 171
 - presents Holotape, 120–2
 - PREVS presentation, 115
 - replaced, 182
 - reviews VideoDisc, 156–7
 - style of management, 12, 104–10
 - survives reshuffle, 164, 166
 - VideoDisc, 168, 179
- Sauter, Jack, 25–6, 207
- Savage, Donald, 113
- scanner module, 131
- scanning electron microscope, 137
- Schairer, Otto, 56
- Schlosser, Herbert, 20, 205, 207
- Screen Actors Guild, 142
- Sears, 209
- Selectavision
 - business plan, 183
 - corporate budget, 145
 - dealers, 194
 - early products, 190

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-36821-6 - The Business of Research: RCA and the VideoDisc

Margaret B. W. Graham

Index

More informationIndex

- label, 205
- program announced, 117, 231
- projects, 15, 147, 159, 165, 228, 232
- status report, 150
- Selectavision Holotape, see Holotape
- Selectavision Magtape, see Magtape
- Selectavision VideoDisc, see VideoDisc product program
- Selectavision Business Development, 145
- semiconductors, 80, 86, 200–1, 217, 222
- sensors, 17
- Sharp, 209
- Siemens, 10, 13
- signal encoding, 15, 92, 96–7, 203
- signal-to-noise ratio, 18, 96, 152
- skipped field approach, 131
- SLX (Sony), 166
- solid-state research, 69, 91, 158
- Sonnenfeldt, Richard
 - appointed to VideoDisc, 171
 - assesses Japanese competition, 199–201
 - backs VideoDisc continuance, 194–5
 - cancels pilot operations, 201
 - effectiveness, 228
 - familiarity with statistical process control, 222
 - goes to NBC, 206–7
 - imposes schedules, 186
 - management approach, 180
 - presides at VideoDisc demonstration, 168–9
 - presses for improvements, 197–8
 - promotional abilities, 190
 - qualifications, 171
 - reassigned, 206
 - reports to Conrad, 179, 182–4
 - solidifies control, 178–9
 - staff vice president for VideoDisc, 168
 - studies VideoDisc, 174, 177
 - visits Indianapolis, 180
- Sony, 23, 94, 129–30, 166, 181–2, 188, 190–1, 194–5, 197, 208
- Sorenson Consulting Group, 112–13
- Stancel, Al, 154–5
- standardization, 138, 193, 206
 - see also* National Television Standards Committee
- Stanley, Thomas, 93, 96, 98, 102, 107–8, 113, 115, 123, 125, 160
- Stanley-Tan Report, 102–3, 107
- statistical process control, 222
- stereo, 20, 213, 217
- stop motion, 112
- stylii, 17, 93, 153, 158, 169, 175, 177, 184, 194–5, 198, 201–4
- systems
 - advantage, 166
 - approach, 51, 90, 113–14, 122, 139, 197
 - innovation, 20, 61, 66, 113
 - Research Laboratories, 65
- takeover threats, 217
- Tan, Henry, 102
- tape
 - formats, 131
 - replication, 131, 133
 - transport mechanism (TTM), 132, 149
- technology
 - leadership, 184–5, 190, 193
 - obsolescence, value of, 35, 49, 85, 205
 - sharing, 60
 - transfer, 86, 135, 179–80, 223, 232, 235
- Telefunken, 10, 22, 35, 134, 145, 152, 181
- television (see also television, black and white; television, color)
 - defense-related research, 55
 - early experimental station, 52
 - FCC restricts syndication, 144
 - field testing, 54
 - interests sacrificed to radio, 143–4
 - market decline predicted, 84
 - orthicon used in, 59
 - production technology improved, 59
 - RCA alienates industry, 65
 - regulatory environment, 54
 - standards, 55, 62–5; RCA standard adopted, 65
 - Worlds Fair broadcast, 55
- television, black and white
 - obsolescence foreseen, 85

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-36821-6 - The Business of Research: RCA and the VideoDisc

Margaret B. W. Graham

Index

More informationIndex

- television, black and white (cont.)
 pricing experience, 226 programming, importance of, 139
 RCA mass-market receiver, 60 roll-out marketing pattern, 219
 Sarnoff insists on its introduction, 60 success frequently cited, 228 technology sharing, 60
- television, color
 advent of, 61
 burden on RCA consumer divisions, 80 commercial broadcasting begins, 65 golden age, 8
 growth predicted, 85 importance as RCA product, 120 improvements, 193
 Japanese competition, 107, 188, 191
 manufacturing investments, 191 pricing experience effect, 226 programming scarcity, 139
 Sarnoff tries to force development, 223
 Sonnenfeldt influenced by experiences of, 194
 Sony enters market, 181–2
 Systems Research Laboratory role in developing, 86, 92
 Zenith gaining market share, 107, 182–3; losing to RCA, 208
- Teldec, 22, 134–5, 137–8, 151–2, 154, 160, 181
- Texas Instruments, 228
- Thompson Brandt, 10
- Thomson (France), 151
- Thorn, 10
- time-shift capacity, 167
- Toshiba, 10, 209
- transistors, 91, 94
- turntables, high-speed, 17
- UHF spectrum, 62
- Umatic (Sony), 23, 129, 166
- United Fruit, joint owner of RCA, 31, 37
- United States
 Congress defeats Navy proposal, 36
- House Marine & Fisheries Committee, 36
- Justice Department, 44
- Navy, 35–37
- Office of Naval Research, 69
- Office of Scientific Research & Development, 59
- Senate, 55
- Supreme Court, 63
- vacuum
 coating techniques, 180, 222
 tubes, 51, 59, 80
- Van Cortland Park (NY) facilities, 49–50, 52
- venture groups, use of, 104, 113–14, 228
see also RCA venture group
- VHF spectrum, 54–5, 62
- VHS (Matsushita), 22–3, 27–8, 205–6
- VHS (RCA), 205
- Victor Talking Machine, 43–4, 51, 56
- videocassette recorders (VCRs), 23, 131, 149, 206, 208, 212, 214, 216–19, 229
- Videodisc development project advanced development groups involvement, 152–6; technology transfer to, 157–61, 169 background, 75, 97, 136 (see also Discpix) research, 28, 137–8, 152–5; re-search team low morale, 123 Sarnoff, Robert, backs, 148, 156–7 technical performance goals, 18, 152, 177 technology, 150–1; compared to competition, 151–2, 161–2
 Webster supports, 164, 179–80
- VideoDisc product program accelerated development, 196–7, 207 announced, 168–9
 Bilby supports, 190
 business plans, 166, 177–8, 182, 188–9, 194 competition, 181, 188, 194, 199, 216–17

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-36821-6 - The Business of Research: RCA and the VideoDisc

Margaret B. W. Graham

Index

More informationIndex

- Conrad commitment to, 157, 182, 187
- Consumer Electronics Division unenthusiastic, 27
- dealers negative toward, 214–15
- demonstrations in Japan, 174–7, 199
- description, 16, 19
- feasibility questioned, 190–5
- Griffiths and, 182, 188, 196, 197, 208
- Hillier supports, 164, 179, 188
- introduction, 8, 19–22, 24–5; scheduled, 178, 187, 191, 199–200, 206, 213; too late, 229
- investment costs, 26, 165, 196, 204; losses, 213, 218
- lessons of, 200, 226
- management staff, 207–8, 225
- manufacturing, 21, 162–4, 185–6, 198, 201, 211
- marketing, 25–6, 188–9, 194, 209, 211, 219
- pilot program, 180, 184–5, 196, 201
- Pollack opposes, 190–1, 188, 227
- press hostility, 217
- pricing, 20, 23–4, 178, 188–9, 200, 204, 208, 213, 216
- production discontinued, 213
- programming, 20, 140–4, 146, 165–6, 183, 209–11
- proprietary advantages, 185, 191, 193–4, 199
- RCA Laboratories involvement, 27, 137–8, 150–1, 200–5, 211
- risks, 21, 195, 208
- sales, 213, 216
- Sarnoff, R. supports, 148, 156, 182
- Sonnenfeldt heads, 168, 171; consolidates, 178–9; reassigned, 206
- stereo version, 213, 217
- strategy assumptions, 218–19
- technology improvements, 170, 181, 188–9, 211
- videodisc systems
- description, 14–15, 17–18
 - magnetic tape competition, 212;
 - price advantage over, 206
 - marketplace entrance, 181, 212
 - next-generation, 180
 - Philips' features, 170
 - RCA publicity, 151, 168
 - research applications, 281
 - technology, 174, 200
- videoplayers, 14, 17, 22, 90, 103, 129, 183, 195, 221–2, 225–6, 230, 232, 234
- videotape recorders, 68, 90–2, 149, 193, 195, 200, 205, 226
- videotapes, 23, 214–26
- vidicon, 97, 99, 112, 124
- Wards, 209
- Warner, John, 40
- Warren, Ray, 96, 124, 131–2, 137, 149, 160
- Watson, Thomas, 227
- Webster, William
- background, 89, 98
 - budget cutbacks managed, 145
 - criticizes erratic funding, 225
 - discounts CBS videoplayer claims, 100
 - electromechanical recording opposed, 154
 - Electronics Research Laboratory experience, 93
 - fosters competition among researchers, 91
 - Laboratories head, 89, 98
 - magnetic tape opposed, 130
 - pressured to promote VideoDisc, 179
 - PREVS strategy meeting, 113–14; project backed, 223
 - VideoDisc examined, 138; seeks product status for, 156, 158–9, 164
 - videoplayer technology, undecided on, 123
- Wertheim Report, 211
- Western Electric, 233
- Western Union, 43
- Westinghouse
- color camera, 114
 - divests RCA stock, 34
 - electronics R&D, involvement in, 69

Index

- Westinghouse (cont.) facilities given to RCA, 50–1, 73–4
 NBC, forms with RCA and GE, 43
 radio, little interest in, 50
 RCA, joint stake in, 31, 37–9
 standardization, participation in committees on, 40
 WJZ, joint project with RCA, 38
Woodward, J., 92
- Writers Guild, 142
Xerox PARC, 224
Young, Owen D., 37, 38
Zeiss, William, 170
Zenith, 27, 65, 107, 170, 182, 188, 190, 208
Zworykin, Vladimir, 52–3