

CONTENTS

Illustrations	page viii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgement	xi
Introduction	I
1 Literature, history and war	5
2 Literature, commitment and propaganda	17
3 Literary genre, narrative technique and language in the first-wave Civil War novel	31
4 Myth creation and reinforcement in the Nationalist novel	65
5 Commitment and propaganda in the Republican novel	94
6 The gods that failed: disillusionment in the novel of the Civil War	126
7 The novel as chronicle: Gironella's trilogy	163
8 The novel as symbol: La cabeza del cordero	183
9 Irrationalism and anti-historicism in the later novel of the Civil War (1967–1975)	207
Conclusion	221
Appendix	229
Glossary of Civil War terms	230
Bibliography	240
Index	268