

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Wurttemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

Index

- age
 at marriage 23, 225, 242–51, 254–5, 302, 460–1
 and family size 268, 269, 270, 271
 and fertility 258, 260
 and household structure 296–8 of children leaving home 291–2 of family members, household size and composition 288–92 of household head 288–90 and kin complexity 298, 299
 of resident offspring 292 structure, and population growth 237–41, 301–2 of weavers' kin 298–9
- agrarian institutions see rural areas, social institutions
- agrarian reforms
Bauernbefreiung in Württemberg 37–8 in Westphalia 410
- agricultural communities, fertility rates 257–8
- agriculture and capital for industrialization 28 labour-intensive 24 and land cultivation in Württemberg 68–9 and land regulation in Württemberg 67 peasant economies 35 productivity, and variations in family size 284–7, 304–5
 and proto-industrialization theories 29–32 proto-industry practised alongside 3 surplus labour 18–19
- Amt* (administrative district) xviii 43–4, 82
- Andreä, Johann Valentin 103, 215
- apprentices (worsted-weavers) admissions to guild 155, 156, 157–61, 173, 179, 180
 and ducal dispensations 176–8 communities of origin 162–7
 enforcement of regulations 143–8
 fines 330, 331
 and household structure 293
 occupational background 167–9 ordinances regulating 140–3 and widows 291
- Austria
 Linzer Wollfabrik 434
 as market for worsteds 3
 merchant companies 435, 436
 rural and regional guilds 428, 429, 430–1 state support for proto-industries 438–9
 urban institutions 413, 416
 urban proto-industrial guilds 424, 426
- Bauern* xviii 243, 281
Bauern, see also farmers
- Beisitz* (Beisitzrecht) xviii
- Beisitzer*
 and the regulation of labour supply 174
 in Württemberg 54–7, 66, 68, 69
- Belfanti, C.M. 425, 439
- Belgium 439
 labour costs 26
 proto-industrialization, and labour quality 26
- Beuteltücher* xviii 395
- Beuteltuchmacher* (Beutelmacher) xviii 367–8, 395
- birth rates see fertility
- Black Forest region age at marriage 243–51

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Württemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

500

Index

- Black Forest region (cont.) development of proto-industry 42 marriage seasonality 251–4 see also Wildberg; worsted industry;
 Württemberg
- 'black' markets 71, 399, 415, 420, 435, 436, 437, 444, 445, 449
 and the state 442
- Bohemia 31, 404, 406, 407, 408 corporate institutions 437
 rural and regional guilds 428
 urban institutions 418
 urban proto-industrial guilds 424, 427
- Bologna city-state of 405, 417 economic development and the state 442 merchant companies 434
 proto-industrial merchants 432, 433
 urban proto-industrial guilds 423, 425
- Braun, Rudolf 18
- Britain, factory labour 25, 26
- Bulgaria (Eastern Rumelia) 408, 439, 440
- Bürgermeister* xviii 59, 311
- Bürgerrecht* xviii
- Bürgerrecht*, see also citizenship
- Bürger*, in Württemberg 45–54
- calico-printing industry 417, 438, 442–3
- Calw 39, 86, 116
 fertility rates 261
 guild conflicts 387–8 merchant company 464 capital 467
 and conflict 268, 364, 376 conflict with worsted-weavers' guild 379–83 and guild inspections 349–50
 and guild sealing 198–9
 restrictions 466
 population growth 234
 serfdom 41
 worsted industry 88–91, 95, 98, 112
 dyers 99–102, 103, 104–6
 guild ordinance (1589) 345 labour supply 140, 145, 146, 153, 154 markets 188
 merchants 96, 97, 102–3 numbers of worsted-weavers 130
 output quotas 189, 218–21
- Calwer Moderation* xviii, xx 78–9, 106–7, 114 abolition of, and guild sealing 201, 351–2
 fertility rates 261
 guild ordinances 141, 253–6, 346–8
- guilds, conflict with merchant company 379–83
- numbers of worsted-weavers 120, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132–3, 138
- spinning rates 354
- and the Wildberg worsted-weavers'
 guild 117, 121
- workshop inspections 193–6
- worsted industry
 legal output quotas 190–2, 216
 market organization 186–7 output of weavers 212–13, 214 worsted-weavers' guilds, and conflict resolution 364
- Calwer Zeughandlungskompagnie (Calw Worsted Trading Company) xviii, xx 3, 77–9, 106–11, 213, 376–83
- Calwer Zeughandlungskompagnie (Calw Worsted Trading Company), conflicts among members 388
- capital and merchant companies 340, 343, 362, 467 opportunity costs of 6
 sources for industrialization 27–8 state regulation of market 440
 and the Wildberg worsted-weavers'
 guild 339–43, 362, 466–7
 worsted industry, and output quotas 220–1, 223–4
- capital shallowing 21
- capitalism and community controls in Württemberg 72
 transition to, and proto-industrialization 37, 398, 438, 455
- capitalists, proto-industrial merchants as 420, 433–4
- Castile 416, 424–5, 428
- Catalonia 416–17, 423, 424, 425, 428, 432
 merchant guilds 432, 435
- Cerman, M. 416
- CFUs (conjugal family units), community variations in size of 279–80
- Chayanov, Alexander 8, 22, 35, 181, 182, 227 theory of family economy 182, 224, 227, 257, 261, 273, 302, 305–6
- child labour 266, 452
 and fertility 457
 and proto-industrialization theories 9–10, 20, 226, 229, 257, 288 and servant labour 300
- child mortality 258
- children age of leaving home 291–2

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Wurttemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

Index

501

- benefits of having 303
- numbers of in families 259, 264–5, 266–76
 - community variations 278–9
 - and household structure 297, 299, 300
 - worsted-weaving households 302–3
- opportunity costs of 9–10, 228–9, 257
- and population growth 21
- cities see towns
- citizenship
 - in England and the Low Countries 401
 - and family size 272, 273, 274–5, 276
 - and marriage 45, 50, 53–4, 61–4, 71, 78–9, 152
 - in Neckarhausen 71
 - and the regulation of labour supply 174
 - and state officials 81
 - in Württemberg 45–57, 61–2, 66, 69, 78–9
- Clark, Peter 412–13
- Clarkson, L.A. 26
- class, and modern economic reasoning 456
- coal industry 409, 438
- communities
 - controls on members 57–72, 245
 - controls on outsiders 45–57
 - effects of proto-industrialization on 20, 36, 42–72
 - origins of apprentices/masters 162–74
 - regulation by, and proto-industry 401–12, 439–40
 - and the Seelentabelle (soul-table) 256–7
 - surveillance of worsted-weavers 206–7
 - variations in family size and composition among 276–88
 - in Württemberg 42–72
 - see also* towns; villages
- community office-holders (Wildberg) 31, 311–12
 - and conflict resolution 382–3
 - and lobbying 371–2
- companies, merchant see merchant companies
- company monopoly, and output quotas 221–2
- company purchase-registers, compared with guild records 201–2
- confessional barriers to citizenship 47
- conflict 470–2
 - among guilds 384–8, 470
 - between weavers' guilds and merchant companies 379–83, 470–1
 - and corporate groups 364–97
 - guild lobbying 266–78
 - and merchant company privileges 435
- consumption
 - community control of 65
 - and population growth 21, 228
 - and proto-industrial production 181
- corporate institutions
 - and conflict resolution 364–97
 - growing regulation by 84, 180
 - and proto-industrialization theories 399–400, 419–37
 - see also* guilds; merchant companies
- corvée labour services see Fronen
- costs
 - and family size 262
 - of interregional trade 453
 - labour
 - and economic development 21
 - and proto-industrialization 24–6
 - proto-industrial 400
 - and social institutions 452, 453–4
 - and rural social institutions 405–8, 411
 - spillover, and population growth 10, 22
 - of Wildberg worsted-weavers' guild lobbying 368–70, 376–8
 - see also* opportunity costs; transactions costs
- cottagers (Heuerlinge) 404
- cotton proto-industry 425, 432, 435
- countryside see rural areas
- courts (in Württemberg communities) 57–9, 65, 66, 68, 69, 70
 - and conflict resolution 389, 390
 - and guilds 75–6, 77
 - and regulation of labour supply 147
 - Rüggericht* xx 67
- crafts, community regulation of 69
- craftsmen
 - age at marriage 243, 245
 - family size and composition 261, 263, 267
 - community variations 277, 278, 279, 280, 282, 283, 284
 - household structure 293
 - rural 22, 36
 - in traditional Europe 35
 - widows of 291
- credit, Landschaft in Silesia 440
- culture see mentalities
- day-labourers 24
 - family size and composition 267, 273–6
 - community variations in 277, 278, 280, 282, 283
- de-industrialization
 - in agricultural regions 29
 - and proto-industrialization theory 25, 29, 33–4

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Württemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

502

Index

- death rates see mortality rates
- demographic behaviour and citizenship in Württemberg 48, 49, 50, 63–4
and proto-industrialization theory 22–4, 225–30
and social institutions 451–3
see also fertility; marriage
- demographic growth see population growth
- Deyon, P. 425
- district (Amt, administrative unit in Württemberg) xviii 43–4, 82
- division of labour according to age 225 familial 225 sexual 225
- drinking 63, 65
- ducal authorities and the Wildberg worsted-weavers'
guild 310, 313–14
conflict resolution 382
lobbying 372–3
- ducal dispensations, and labour supply regulation 174–9
- Durchgang* xix and the Wilberg worsted-weavers' guild 314, 315–16, 338
in Württemberg 58, 59
- dyers
Calw 96, 99–102, 103, 104–6
and the Calwer Zeughandlungskompagnie 106–9
guild ordinances 139–40
merchant organizations 96, 97–8, 99–102, 104, 111, 112
Wildberg, and guild lobbying 376
- earnings
and proto-industrialization theories 226, 288
spinners, and guild regulation 354–5 worsted-weavers, guild members' daily earnings 114–15
- East Anglia 29
- eastern Europe 28, 29, 37, 405–6, 418 corporate economic structures, and the state 438 entrepreneurs 28, 29 feudal landlords 440
proto-industrial merchants 432
proto-industries 37, 405–6
urban guilds 427
urban institutions 418
- economic change, and demographic behaviour 22–4
- economic development/growth and guilds 308–63, 466–70
and population growth 20–2
and proto-industrialization theory 18, 420, 422–3 and state corporatism 473–5
- economic rationality, of proto-industrial producers 9, 301, 306
- economic role of mentalities 7–11, 447, 455–63 of social institutions 5–7, 444–55
- Ehrbarkeit* membership, and family size 272, 273, 274–5
- Eigenbrötlerinnen* (independent unmarried women) xix 63, 64, 303
- emigrants to other communities, and citizenship 52–3
- England
guilds 420, 436–7
market growth in 4, 5, 474
proto-industrial merchants 431
and proto-industrialization theory 17, 26, 33, 73
rural institutions 401, 402, 403, 404, 449 studies of family size/composition 262 studies of fertility in 257–8 studies of marriage seasonality in 251, 252, 254
urban institutions 412–13, 418, 449
see also Britain
- entrepreneurship for industrialization, and proto-industry 28–9
- Europe western development of proto-industries 37, 474–5
urban guilds 427–8
see also eastern Europe
- exports markets 18, 111
and guild monopolies 309 and output quotas 221–2, 223
Württemberg worsteds 187–8
- factories and labour quality 26–7
and proto-industrial labour 24–5
and proto-industrialization theory 33–4 sources of capital for 27–8
- families 254–301, 461–2 breakdown, and proto-industrialization 36 and citizenship 48 labour force 265–6 as labour supply 180 and poor relief 60

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Wurttemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

Index

503

- regulation of individuals by 401–2
- sex ratio within 266
- size and composition 227, 261–3, 303–6, 453, 461
 - changes over time 263–6
 - and life-cycle 288–92
 - variations among communities 276–88
 - variations in 266–76
- sources of information on 254–7
- stem families 225, 226, 293
- structure 293–301, 306
 - and proto-industrialization theories 225–6
- and welfare 402
- see also* households
- family economy
 - Chayanovian theory 182, 224, 227, 257, 261, 302, 462
 - peasant 227
- family formation, effects of proto-industrialization on 20, 225–6, 254–301, 452
- farmers
 - family size and composition 262, 263, 267, 452
 - community variations 277, 278, 279, 280, 281–8
- farming see agriculture
- Feinstein, C.H. 27–8
- female labour see women
- fertility 257–61
 - in agricultural communities 257–8
 - opportunity costs of 9–10
 - in poor economies 456, 457
 - and population age structure 237
 - and proto-industrialization theory 8, 17, 19, 20, 22, 23–4, 225–30, 302–4
 - in Wildberg 259
 - worsted-weavers 259–61, 302–3
- feudal landlords
 - and entrepreneurship 28–9
 - and the state 440
- feudal monopolies 407
- feudalism
 - and corporate institutions 437
 - and proto-industrialization theory 17, 405–8
 - refeudalization 406–7, 440
 - transition to capitalism, and proto-industrialization 37
- finer
 - imposed by the Wildberg worsted-weavers' guild 310, 313, 321–5, 328–9
 - range of activities 329–39
 - for violation of quality standards 329, 330–1, 333, 346, 348, 348–9
- Flanders 17, 24, 29, 444, 474
- Florence, urban proto-industrial guilds 423
- Fohlen, C. 28
- food production, and population growth 21
- foremen, of guild (Obmänner, Kerzenmeister)
 - conflicts between individual masters and 392–4
 - elections 124–5, 126, 392
 - Wildberg worsted-weavers' guild 124–5, 126, 311, 367–8, 370–1
- Fox, Charles James 82
- France
 - entrepreneurship for industrialization 28
 - guilds
 - merchant 435–6
 - urban proto-industrial 423–4, 425–6
 - invasion of Württemberg (1690s) 157, 159, 198, 266
 - labour costs 26
 - merchant companies 434
 - Normandy 31, 404
 - proto-industries
 - demographic behaviour of workers in 24
 - merchants 432
 - and the state 438, 442
 - urban institutions 413, 414–15
 - see also* Languedoc
- 'free-riding'
 - and corporate conflicts 365, 387, 471
 - and guild sealing 469
 - and output quotas 451
- Fronen* (corvée labour services) xix 41–2, 67, 406
- fulling-mill (Wildberg) 341–3, 362, 467
 - access to 384–5
- Fürkaufen* (regrating) xix 70
- geographical mobility, community control of 63
- Gericht* (community court/council)
 - Wildberg 174, 272
 - Württemberg 44, 57–9, 59
- Germany
 - city-states 417
 - factory labour 25
 - family size and composition 262–3
 - fertility studies 258–9
 - feudal states in southwest 440
 - guilds 420–3

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Wurttemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

504

Index

Germany (cont.)

- population growth 230–7
- proto-industries
 - demographic behaviour of workers 24
 - merchants 432
- rural institutions 401, 403
- rural and regional guilds 428, 429–31
- urban institutions 413, 415–16, 417
- worsted industry 87–9, 188
 - and output restrictions 217
- see also* Black Forest region; Osnabrück; Prussia; Ravensberg; Saxony; Silesia; Westphalia; Wuppertal; Wildberg; Württemberg
- Gierke, Otto von 364
- glass industry 2
- Göppingen, number of worsted weavers in 128, 129, 130, 131
- government, local government in Württemberg 43–4
- guilds 4, 35, 72–7
 - Calw dyers 99–100, 102–3
 - and conflict resolution 364–97
 - economic impact of 12, 308–63, 466–70
 - effects of proto-industrialization on 18, 20, 36, 73, 113, 419–37, 444, 448–9
 - foremen see under foremen
 - impact of 463–73
 - and innovation 257–60, 362
 - Leggeld* (guild dues) xx 120–2, 134–5
 - merchant 72, 74, 75
 - monopolies see under monopolies
 - officials see under office-holding
 - privileges, enforcement of 75–7, 108–9
 - and quality control 343–57, 362
 - finest for violation of 329, 330–1, 333, 346, 347
 - regional (rural-urban) 69, 74, 361, 428–31
 - restrictions
 - enforcement of 94–5, 452
 - on marriage 245
 - rural 122, 125–6, 419, 428–31, 437, 444
 - sealing see sealers (guild)
 - and seignorial institutions 407
 - and the state 441–2
 - urban 72–3, 423–8
 - worsted-weavers 78, 89–95, 98, 101, 102, 104–5, 111–12, 306–7
 - and the Calwer
 - Zeughandlungskompagnie 107–9
 - and capital-market imperfections 339–43
 - and community origins of entrants 166–7
 - and company purchase-registers 201–2
 - conflict among 384–8

- conflict within 388–96
- conflict with the merchant company 379–83
- conflict with woollen-weavers 384–5
- and economic development 308–63
- election of the foremen 124–5, 126, 367, 390
- enforcement of regulations 310–39
- finances 93–4, 113–26
- guild ordinances 140, 141, 189, 346
- and innovation 357–60, 362–3, 469–72
- inspection and sealing 197–201, 215, 329
- and kin complexity in families 300–1
- legislation 345–8
- and lobbying 373–4, 472
- market regulation and product quality 352–6
- members' daily earnings 114–15
- monopolies 309–10
- and the organization of markets 186–7
- output quotas 189–92, 206, 216–18, 223
- regulations
 - enforcement of 310–39
 - labour supply 139–80, 452
 - and workshop inspections 194–5, 197
 - and Württemberg legislation 73–5
 - see also* Wildberg, worsted-weavers' guild
- Habukkuk, H.J. 26
- Handwerk* xix 75
- Handwerk*, and honour 334–5
- hausieren* (peddling) xix 70
- Hegel, G.W.F. 364
- Hendrickx, F.M.M. 439
- Heuerling* systems (cottagers) 404
- Heywood, C. 26
- Hippel, Wolfgang von 39–40
- honour (Wildberg worsted-weavers' guild) 333–5, 361
 - finest for offences against 329, 331, 332, 349
- households
 - female-headed 266, 273, 274–5, 289, 290, 291, 299
 - life-cycle 288–92
 - male-headed 272, 288, 289, 291
 - of proto-industrial producers 182
 - servants in 265–6, 267
 - size and composition see families
 - sources of information on 254–7
 - structure 293–301, 306
 - and proto-industrialization theories 225–6
 - see also* families
- Hudson, P. 25, 27

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Wurttemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

Index

505

- human capital investments in LDCs 30
 and population growth 21–2 hunting societies 7–8, 456
- illegitimacy, and citizenship 47–8
- income effects, from price changes 182–3, 185, 459
- incomes, and proto-industrial production 182–3
- industrial relations 378–96
- industrialization 473
 and proto-industrialization theory 17, 18, 33–4, 455 capital sources 27–8 entrepreneurship 28–9 labour costs 24–6
 wage levels 25–6
- industry, branches of see under individual industries, e.g. coal
- infant mortality 258
- inflation, and worsted-weavers' guild revenues 115
- inheritance practices, community control of 63, 304
- innovation, and worsted-weavers' guilds 357–60, 362–3, 469–70
- inspections conflict between guilds over 387 guild ordinances on 347 and sealing of wares 197–201, 215, 329, 368–9
 fines for offences 331, 332, 333, 349 and quality maintenance 348–52, 362 workshops 193–7, 312, 326–7
- institutions see social institutions
- Ireland 26
- iron industry 2, 406, 407–8, 424, 428, 439
- Isacson, M. 25, 27
- Italy
 city-states 417
 community institutions 409 decline of textile industries 87
 as market for worsteds 3, 88, 188
 merchant companies 434
 proto-industrialization, and the state
 439 rural proto-industry 417
 rural and regional guilds 428
 urban proto-industrial guilds 424
 worsted industry, and output restrictions 217
- journeymen (worsted-weavers) attendance at guild assemblies 319 conflicts with masters 388–9
- enforcement of regulations 148–51
 fined by the Wildberg guild 325, 330, 331 guild ordinances on 142, 143, 358–9
- Keller* xix, 338
- Kellett, J.R. 412
- Kerzenmeister* (guild foreman) xix, xx, 311
- kinship, and household structure 293–301
- Kirchdorf-Micheldorf scythe-smiths' guild, Austria 430–1
- Kirchenkonvent* 57
- Kisch, Herbert 411, 430, 434
- Kleemeister*, penalties for associating with 336–8
- Klíma, A. 429
- Krefeld (Rhineland, Germany) 420, 421–3, 437, 444
- Kriedte, Peter 3, 8, 17–18, 22, 24, 25, 31, 32, 34, 35, 36, 37
 on guilds 73, 419, 422
 on household size and composition 262 on marriage seasonality 251
 on population growth 226
 on towns 43
 on village communities 42
- Kussmaul, Ann 251, 252, 254
- labour costs
 and economic development 21
 effects of proto-industrialization on 24–6 family 265–6, 267–8, 303 female see women
 opportunity costs of 6, 461
 productivity, and population growth 21 servants 300 skilled 26–7 surplus
 and population growth 226
 and proto-industrialization theory 2, 3, 17, 18–19, 22–3
see also child labour labour productivity, and population growth 21
 labour quality, and proto-industrialization theory 26–7 labour services/dues corvée (Fronen) xix 41–2, 67, 406 in eastern Europe 406 in Sweden and Russia 407–8 see also feudalism labour supply 127–80, 225, 453
 admission rates 155–62
 and ducal dispensations 174–9

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Württemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

506

Index

- labour supply (cont.)
 enforcement of regulations 143–55, 329
 fines 330, 332, 333, 349
 entrants communities of origin 162–7
 occupational background 167–74 guild rules concerning 139–43 state regulation of 440 and urban guilds 72
 labourers see day-labourers
- land
 admission rates 155–62
 cultivation, community regulation of 68–9 markets 68, 401
 opportunity costs of 6
 land transmission, in Württemberg 38–9 land use, in Württemberg 39–40, 66–7, 72 landholding 399
 and family size 272, 274–5, 276, 278, 304–5
 community variations in 278, 281–8
 and proto-industrialization theory 31–2, 452–3
- landlords/landowners and corvée labour services 41–2
 effects of proto-industrialization on 18, 36, 37–42, 448 feudal 28–9, 37
 princes as 84
 regulation by, and proto-industry 401–9, 445
 and serfdom 40–1
 and the state 439–41
 in traditional Europe 35
see also feudalism
- Languedoc 403, 404, 409, 415, 424, 426, 427–8, 433
 merchant guilds 433, 435
- law, Württemberg law and the guilds 73–5
Leggeld (guild dues), Wilberg guild accounts 120–2, 134–5
- legislation, guild 345–8, 362
- leisure community control of 63, 65
 and proto-industrial production 182, 183
- less developed economies 9, 30, 229, 456–7
- Levine, David 3, 17, 237, 257–8, 262
- Lewis, W.A. 18–19
- linen industry 410, 421, 422, 427, 432–3, 449 Heidenheim 39, 78, 441
 and the state 440, 441
 Urach 78, 441 and the Wuppertaler Garnnahrung 434
- living standards and agrarian development 30 and community regulation of crafts 69 of female spinners 354
 and population growth 9 local government, in Württemberg 43–4 London 412
 Low Countries 2, 73 growth of the market in 4, 5
 guilds 420, 437
 proto-industrial merchants 431–2
 rural institutions 401, 402, 403
 urban institutions 412, 413, 418
see also Flanders; Netherlands
- Mager, Wolfgang 263, 410
- Magnusson, L. 25, 27
- market institutions, shift from non-market to 444
- market regulation, and effect of guilds on product quality 352–6
- markets 399 export 3 foreign 3 formal regulated 399, 420 informal ‘black’ markets 71, 399, 415 420, 435, 436, 437, 442, 444, 445, 449
 land 68, 401
 organization of, and worsted-weavers’ guilds 186–7 and the peasant economy 35 and proto-industries 36, 474 for Württemberg worsteds 186–8
- Marklosung* xx 68
- marriage (nuptiality) age at 23, 225, 242–51, 254–5, 302, 460–1
 and family size 268, 269, 270
 and fertility 258, 260
 and household structure 296–8 and proto-industrial occupation 17, 451–2
- behaviour 460–1 changes in patterns of 451–2
 and citizenship 45, 50, 53–4, 61–4, 71, 78–9, 152
 and proto-industrialization theories 8, 17, 20, 22, 23, 24, 225–30, 242
- seasonality 251–4, 304
 and serfdom in Württemberg 40–1 and the worsted-weavers’ guild 174
- masters (worsted-weavers) admissions to guild 155–7, 158–61, 179, 180
 and ducal dispensations 175–6
 attending guild assemblies 319, 320–1, 322 conflicts among 389–90 conflicts with guild officers 390–4

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Wurttemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

Index

507

- conflicts with journeymen 388–9
- enforcement of regulations 151–5
- fined by the Wildberg guild 325, 330–1, 336
- guild ordinances on 143
- and guild sealing 198, 199–200
- and journeymanship 148–50
- and lobbying 374–7, 378
- occupational background 170–4
- production aspirations 208–12
- in rural areas 325–6, 327, 328, 338, 375
- sons as apprentices 167–70
- workshop inspections, and enforcement of legal quotas 193–7
- mechanization
 - and de-industrialization 25
 - and labour costs 26
 - see also* factories; industrialization
- Medick, Hans 3, 8, 17–18, 22, 24, 25, 31, 32, 34, 35, 36, 37
 - on guilds 73, 419
 - on marriage seasonality 251
 - on population growth 226
 - on towns 43
 - on village communities 42
- Meiners, Christoph 78
- men
 - age at marriage 244, 245, 246–8
 - and family size 268, 269, 270
- Mendels, Franklin 2, 16–17, 22, 35, 37, 43, 72–3
 - on population growth 226
- mentalities
 - economic role of 7–11, 447, 455–63
 - of proto-industrial producers 18, 22–3, 227, 301
 - see also* culture
- merchant companies 4, 72, 77–9
 - and capital 340, 343, 362, 467
 - conflict with worsted-weavers' guilds 379–83
 - economic and social impact of 12
 - and innovation 259–60, 362–3
 - output quotas 189–92, 218–22, 223
 - and proto-industrialization 399–400, 420, 423–7
 - rules concerning labour supply 139
 - and the state 441–2
 - see also* Calwer
 - Zeughandlungskompagnie (Calwer Worsted Trading Company)
- merchants
 - dyers 96, 97–8, 99–102, 104, 111, 112
 - guilds 72, 74, 75
 - proto-industrial 18, 181–2, 431–3, 448
 - in traditional Europe 35
 - worsted, organizations 95–106
- migration
 - and factory labour 25
 - and the worsted industry 87
- military activities, and state monopolies 439
- mining industry 23, 24
 - coal 409, 438
 - iron 2
- Moderation see Calwer Moderation*
- Mokyr, Joel 3, 18, 19, 27, 29, 73, 226
- monopolies
 - company, and output quotas 221–2
 - dyers 98, 111, 112
 - feudal 407
 - fines for production monopoly violations 330, 332, 333
 - guilds 111–12, 308, 309–10, 339, 427, 463, 465–6
 - and quality control 344, 345
 - supplies 459
 - local 69
 - regional quasi-monopolies 444
 - state 439
 - worsted industry 98, 111, 187, 188, 216–17
- monopoly rents
 - guilds 463–4
 - and conflict 365, 366, 385
 - and innovation 358, 359, 469–70
 - and merchant companies 459, 470
- Moravia 406, 407
 - urban proto-industrial guilds 424
- mortality rates
 - infant and child mortality 258
 - Wildberg, and the Thirty Years War 158
- Neckarhausen (agricultural village in Württemberg) 71–2
- Netherlands 439
 - guilds 420
 - industrialization 29–30
 - labour costs 26
 - population growth 235
 - proto-industrialization
 - and labour quality 27
 - and the state 440
 - rural institutions 404, 409
 - worsted industry 87
 - see also* Low Countries
- nuclear families, community variations in size 279–80
- nuptiality see marriage
- Obmänner* (guild foreman) xx 311
- occupational background
 - and age at marriage (Wildberg) 243–5
 - of apprentices and masters 167–74

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Wurttemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

508

Index

- occupational background (cont.)
 families
 community variations 276–85
 size and composition 266–8, 271–2
 and fertility 259–61
 and household structure 293–4
- office-holding community office-holders (Wildberg) 31, 311–12
 and conflict resolution 382–3
 and lobbying 371–2
 guild officials 311 conflict between individual masters and 390–4
 and lobbying 370–1
 and household size 260, 271, 272
 and household structure 296, 297, 300, 301
- opportunity costs 6–7, 400, 453 and agricultural productivity 29–30 of capital 6 of having children 9–10, 228–9, 257 of labour 6, 461 of land 6 for women 9
- Ortiz, Sutti 10–11
- Osnabrück (Westphalia, Germany) 404, 410, 415–16
 agrarian institutions 440–1
 proto-industrial merchants 432, 433, 435, 436
- Ottoman Empire, proto-industry 408–9, 440
- Ottoman Thessaly 25, 409–9, 425
 rural and regional guilds 428–9
- output
 proto-industrial 450–1
 worsted industry enforcement of quotas 192–203 quotas 188–92, 203–16, 339, 451, 458–9 reasons for quotas 216–22
- parliamentary estates (Landschaft), and guild lobbying 372
- Pasquillen* (rhymes or lampoons) 381–2
- peasants and agrarian reforms (Bauernbefreiung)
 in Württemberg 37–8
 Europe as peasant economy 35–7
 families
 effects of proto-industrialization on 18
 and population growth 227
 household structure 293
 mentalities 8, 22, 30, 227, 456
 societies, and proto-industrialization 448 subsistence farming 30, 31
- Pedreira, J.M. 28
- Petmezas, S.D. 425
- Pfister, U. 414
- politics, and state corporatism 475
- Poni, C. 425, 434, 442
- poor economies, behaviour of people living in 456–7
- poor families, and fertility 229
- poor relief 60–1, 66, 230
- poor weavers
 and guild sealing 198
 and output quotas 217–18
- population growth 451–2
 and age structure 237–41 and community citizenship in Württemberg 49–50
- mentalities 460
 and proto-industrialization theories 2, 17, 18, 20–2, 23, 225–30, 301–2 rates 230–7
- Portugal 28, 31, 410–11, 439
- poverty and age of children leaving home 291 and conflict in Wildberg 383
 and family size 272, 273, 274–5, 276, 288
 and household structure 294, 301
- prices and community regulation 69–70 associated with demographic decisions 228–9
 and proto-industrial production 183–5
 of raw wool 352–3 and worsted merchants 99, 100–2, 106, 111 and worsted-weavers' guilds 339, 344, 466, 469
- producers
 proto-industrial 181–6
 mentalities 455–6
- product quality see quality control
- production 186–224 agriculture, and variations in family size 284–7, 304–5 aspirations of worsted-weavers 208–12
 fines for production monopoly violations 330, 333, 349 for quality violations 329
 inspection and sealing 197–201, 215, 329
 legal output quotas 188–92, 203–16, 339, 451 enforcement of 192–203
 reasons for restrictions on 216–22

- over-production in proto-industries 458 see also quality control
- profit-maximization 181, 182, 214–15, 222, 455, 456, 459
- profits, and proto-industrialization theories 226
- proletarianization 31–2 and family size and composition 281–3
- proletariat, rural 17, 18
- property
 - community control of 68
 - transmission of 401
- property laws, and community citizenship 48–9
- proto-industrialization theories 2–4, 10, 16, 34
 - and agriculture 29–32
 - and corporate organizations 113
 - and demographic behaviour 22–4
 - and entrepreneurship for industrialization 28–9
 - and factory industrialization 33–4
 - and the family 301–7
 - and fertility 8, 17, 19, 20, 22, 23–4, 225–30, 302–3
 - and labour costs 24–6
 - and labour quality 26–7
 - and labour supply 161–2, 180
 - and landholding 31–2
 - and mentalities 455–6
 - and population growth 17, 18, 20–2, 23, 225–30, 301–2
 - and proto-industrial production 181–3, 222
 - and social institutions 18, 34, 448
 - and transition to capitalism 17, 35–6, 398
 - and urban centres 32–3
- Prussia, and the Württemberg state 79–83
- quality control
 - effects of market regulation on 352–6
 - finest for violation of 329, 330–1, 333, 346, 348–9
 - and guilds 343–57, 362, 468–9
- quantity control, fines for violation of 331, 332
- Rat* xx 59, 272
- rationality see economic rationality
- Ravensberg (Westphalia, Germany) 404, 410, 415–16, 432, 433, 436
 - agrarian institutions 440–1
- Recess (Rezess)*
 - Calwer Zeughandlungskompagnie 106–7, 188
 - and ‘collation’ of company purchase-registers 201
 - and output restrictions 217, 220
 - and penalties for smuggling 202
 - and quality control 346–7
 - and workshop inspections 195
- refeudalization 406–7, 440
- regional quasi-monopolies 444
- regional variations 446, and ch. 2
- religion, and confessional barriers to citizenship 47
- rent-seeking 66, 365, 471
- rents
 - Württemberg land rents 39–40
 - see also* monopoly rents
- reproduction see fertility
- residential arrangements, community control of 63–4, 72
- resource allocation 475
- Rudolf, Richard 406
- Rüggericht* (regulatory court) xx 67, 206
- Rumelia, Eastern (Bulgaria) 408, 439, 440
- rural areas
 - craftsmen 22, 36
 - enforcement of guild rules 325–9
 - guilds 122, 125–6, 338, 419, 428–31, 437, 444
 - industries, and merchant companies 110
 - output levels 204–6
 - population age structure 239–40, 241
 - population growth 302
 - proletariat 17, 18
 - proto-industrial producers 437
 - social institutions 399, 401–12, 445
 - and the state 439–41
 - urban institutional control over 412–18
 - worsted-weavers
 - conflicts with urban weavers 394–5
 - numbers of 130–1
 - see also* villages
- Russia 404, 406, 407–8, 437
- Sabean, David 39, 40, 71, 72, 302
- Saxony
 - guilds 420–1, 429, 437
 - market growth 474
 - proto-industrial merchants 433, 434, 435
 - urban institutions 413, 415, 416
- Schlumbohm, Jürgen 3, 8, 17–18, 22, 24, 25, 31, 32, 34, 35, 36, 37
 - on family size 263
 - on guilds 73, 419
 - on marriage seasonality 251
 - on population growth 226
 - on towns 43
 - on village communities 42

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Württemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

510

Index

- Schultheißen* (community officials) xx 80–1
- Schürer, Kevin 259
- Scotland
guilds 420, 437
rural institutions 404, 410
urban institutions 413
- sealers (guild) 197–201, 215, 329 conflict between individual masters and 390–2 and fines for sealing offences 331, 332, 333, 349
and lobbying 370–1
and quality maintenance 349–52, 357, 362, 468–9
- second serfdom 404, 406–7
- Seelenregister* (soul registers) 255–6
- Seelentabelle* (soul-table) 256–7
- seigneurial institutions see
landlords/landowners
- Serbia 409
- serfdom
and citizenship 46
second 404, 406–7 in Württemberg (Leibeigenschaft) 40–1
- servants
and household composition 265–6, 267
and household structure 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 299, 300, 301
- Seven Years War 213, 354
- Sibner* (guild officials) 311–12
- Siegler* (guild cloth-sealers) xx 311
- Silesia 31, 404, 406, 407, 408, 411, 434, 437
Landschaft 440
- silk proto-industry 405, 409, 415, 417, 422 and merchants 432, 435
and urban guilds 423, 425–6
- skilled labour, and proto-industrialization 26–7
- Slack, Paul 412–13
- smuggling, penalties for 202–3
- social change, and proto-industrialization 444
- social institutions in early modern Württemberg 35–85 economic role of 5–7, 444–55
and proto-industrialization theory 18, 34, 301
and proto-industry 398–466, 474–5
rural 401–12
see also communities; guilds; landlord powers; merchant companies
- Spain
Castile 416, 424–5, 428
- Catalonia 416–17, 423, 424, 425, 428, 432
proto-industries, and the state 442–3
rural and regional guilds 428
urban institutions 413, 416–17
- spinners 340
availability of, and household size 303 conflicts between guilds over 387 and fixed capital 467 guild restrictions on 139, 353–5, 452 regulation of female 64
- Stadtschreiber* xx 80
- state, the and corporate privileges 475 dispensations, and labour supply
regulation 174–9
effect on proto-industries 438–43, 445–6, 454–5 emergence of the modern 400
- German states
and guilds 73
and urban institutions 416
- monopolies 439
- in peasant societies 448
- Württemberg 79–85
and output controls 222 supervision of guilds 118 see also government
- straw-plaiting industry 2
- strikes, of journeymen (worsted-weavers) 388
- subsistence economy, in pre-industrial Europe 16, 18
- subsistence farming, and proto-industrialization theory 30, 31
- substitution effects, from price changes 182–3, 185, 459
- surplus labour, proto-industrial workers as 17, 18–19, 22–3
- Sweden 31 iron proto-industry 407–8, 424, 439
merchant guilds 436
proto-industries
and labour quality 27
merchants 432
urban guilds 424, 428
urban institutions 413
- Switzerland
market growth in 474
as market for worsteds 88, 188
population growth 235
proto-industrial merchants 432
proto-industrial workers, demographic behaviour 24
rural institutions 401, 402–3
urban institutions 413, 414
urban proto-industrial guilds 423, 426

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Württemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

Index

511

- worsteds industry, and output restrictions 217
worsted-traders from 103
- Tann, J. 27
- tariff barriers, and worsteds markets 188
- taxable wealth and household size/composition 268–9, 270, 271 and worsteds-weavers 302
- taxation in traditional Europe 35
on wine 40 on worsteds, and output quotas 222
in Württemberg 80, 82, 83
- technology 21
- theft, and the Wildberg worsteds-weavers' guild 335–6
- Thirsk, J. 31
- Thirty Years War (1618–48) 83, 104, 115–16, 118 effects on household composition 266 effects on labour supply 155–8 effects on marriage behaviour 248 and guild regulation 326–7
and guild sealing 198
and output quotas 218 and workshop visitations 193
- Thomson, J.K.J. 424–5, 438
- three-field system (Dreizelgenwirtschaft) 68–9
- tithes, and land use in Württemberg 40
- towns 399
apprentices in 158, 164, 165
effects of proto-industrialization on 18, 43 institutional control over the countryside 412–18, 444
and marriage seasonality 254
masters in 155–7
occupational background 170, 171
output levels 206
population age structure 240, 241
population growth 232, 234, 235 production aspirations of worstedsweavers 208–9, 212
and proto-industrialization theory
32–3
Wildberg, numbers of worsteds-weavers 135–6 see also communities
- trade community regulation of 70 development of 16, 453–4
and merchant companies 77–9 worsted merchants 95–106
- transactions costs 45–6, 400, 454 and the worsteds industry 87, 91, 102–3, 453
- transportation costs 444
- Troeltsch, Walter 93, 96, 99, 100, 101, 104, 110, 114, 122, 128, 135, 138, 141, 142, 148 on the Calw company 188, 340 on fertility rates in Württemberg 261 on guild inspections 350 on guild ordinances 348 on the introduction of new worsteds 359 on output of weavers 212 on penalties for smuggling 202–3
on population growth 237 on state dispensations 174–5
- Tübinger Vertrag* (1514) 81
- Tuscany 425, 428
- underemployment, and proto-industrialization theory 19
- unemployment, and over-production 181
- United States, labour costs 26
- urban communities see towns
- urban economy 35
- urban guilds 72–3, 423–8
- urban worsteds-weavers conflicts with rural weavers 394–5
numbers of 130, 131
- Vann, James Allen 83
- villages 399 apprentices in 158, 164, 165, 173
councils 174
effects of proto-industrialization on 17, 18, 36, 42–3
guilds 76, 311, 465
and lobbying 375
and sealing 198, 199 and journeyman regulation 150–1
and marriage seasonality 253–4
masters in 155–7, 170–3
Neckarhausen (agricultural village) 71–2
output levels 206
population age structure 240, 241
population growth 232, 234, 235–6
production aspirations of worstedsweavers 208–9
state officials in 80–1 Wildberg district, numbers of worstedsweavers 136–7
and the Wildberg worsteds-weavers' guild 338 see also communities; rural areas

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Wurttemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

512

Index

- vine-growing 23, 24
- Vogt* xxi 80
- Vogtgericht* (Vogt-Riig-Gericht) xxi
 - and guild foremen and sealers 311
 - Gültlingen 81
 - Wildberg 116–17
 - and Wildberg guild assemblies 319
 - Württemberg 58–9, 60
- Vries, J. de 412
- wage labour, forced 406–7
- wage levels
 - industrialization 25–6
 - and population growth 21
 - of proto-industrial workers 18, 19
 - and surplus labour 22–3
- wage-weavers, and guild sealing 198, 199
- war
 - and the worsted market 187
 - and worsted production 213
 - and worsted-weavers' guild revenues 115–16
- wealth
 - and household size/composition 268–9, 270, 271
 - and household structure 294, 297, 301
 - kin complexity 299
 - servants 300
- weavers and weaving see worsted-weavers
- welfare provision 303, 401–2, 452
- western Europe, urban guilds 427–8
- Westphalia see Osnabrück, Ravensberg
- Whyte, I.D. 413
- widows
 - attending guild assemblies 319, 320, 322–3
 - Beisitzer* in Württemberg 54, 55, 56, 57
 - and family size 276, 290
 - fined by the Wildberg guild 325
 - guild dues paid by 120, 135
 - numbers of worsted-weavers 135, 138
 - output quotas 204, 291
 - restrictions on hired labour 291
- Wildberg 36–7, 39, 71, 72
 - Beisitzer* 55–7
 - citizenship 45–6, 50–1, 62–3
 - community courts 58, 65
 - council 44
 - effects of war on 116
 - families 462
 - sources of information on 255–6
 - family size and composition
 - changes over time 263–6
 - variations among communities
 - 276–88
 - variations in 266–88
 - fertility rates 259–61, 261
 - fulling-mill 341–3, 362, 467
 - household structure 293–301
 - labour services (corvée) 41–2
 - land cultivation 69
 - land use 40, 67
 - marriage
 - age at 243–51, 460–1
 - seasonality 251–4
 - population
 - age structure 237, 240, 241
 - growth 232–3, 234
 - and serfdom 41
 - wartime mortality 158
 - worsted industry 86, 88–9, 98–9
 - and capital equipment 341–3
 - enforcement of legal quotas 192–203
 - merchants 96, 97, 101, 103
 - number of worsted-weavers 130, 131–9, 179
 - output levels 203–16
 - production aspirations 209, 212
- worsted-weavers' guild 91–4, 95, 98, 104–5, 112, 310–63, 464–6
 - assemblies 316–21, 322–3, 327, 338, 361, 374, 465
 - community officials and courts 31, 311–12
 - and conflict resolution 395–6
 - conflicts within 388–96
 - and the ducal authorities 310, 313–14, 372–3
 - enforcement of regulations 310–39, 464–5
 - finances 113–26, 321–5, 464
 - fines 310, 313, 321–5, 329–39, 349, 465
 - and honour 329, 331, 332, 333–5
 - labour supply regulations 143–80
 - lobbying and its costs 366–78
 - membership as enforcement
 - mechanism 310, 314–16
 - officials 310, 311
 - output quotas 310, 339, 464
 - in rural areas 325–9
 - and theft 335–6
- Wilson, C. 28
- Wilson, Peter 83
- women
 - age at marriage 244, 245–6, 248–51
 - and family size 268, 269, 270, 271
 - and occupational background 244
 - age of, and family structure 299–300

Cambridge University Press

0521372097 - State Corporatism and Proto-Industry: The Württemberg Black Forest, 1580-1797

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

Index

513

- and citizenship in Württemberg 45, 46, 62–3
- economic position 473
- Eigenbrötlerinnen* (independent unmarried women) xix 63, 64, 303
- in the family labour force 266
- female-headed households 266, 273, 274–5
- and household structure 289, 290, 291, 299, 301
- and guild sealing 198
- members of the Calwer Zeughandlungskompanie 110
- opportunity costs for 9
- and serfdom in Württemberg 41
- sexuality 64
- spinners 64, 303, 354–5
- and work, constraints on 290–1
- see also* widows
- Woods, Robert 259
- wool supplies
- availability of 453
- conflict between worsted- and woollen-weavers 385
- financing 466–7
- woollen industry 86–7, 88–9, 111, 453
- in Bulgaria 408
- in Spain 416–17
- and the state 439, 442
- and urban proto-industrial guilds 423, 424, 425, 427
- woollen-weavers' guild 91
- conflict with worsted-weavers 384–5
- and the Wildberg fulling-mill 342
- see also* worsted industry
- workshop inspections 312, 326–7
- and enforcement of legal quotas 193–7
- worsted industry 86–112, 448–53
- conflict resolution 364–97
- guilds see guilds, worsted-weavers
- and marriage seasonality 253–4
- mentalities 458–63
- numbers of worsted-weavers 128–31, 450
- organization of markets 186–8
- pre-history 86–9
- production 186–224
- smuggling 202–3, 216
- see also* Wildberg; woollen industry
- worsted merchants, organizations 95–106
- worsted-weavers
- age at marriage 243–51
- and the Calwer Moderation 78–9
- community regulation of 61, 62, 70
- families
- age of children leaving home 291–2
- and community citizenship in Württemberg 48, 51, 52, 53–4
- and household structure 293–4
- and kin complexity 296–9
- and landholdings 281, 282, 283
- life-cycle 288–90
- opportunities of children 303–4
- size and composition 266–8, 276–9, 452
- fertility 259–61, 302–4
- guilds see guilds, worsted-weavers; Wildberg, worsted-weavers' guild
- labour supply 127–80
- numbers of, in Württemberg and the Black Forest region 128–31
- operating independently 110–11
- widows, restrictions on 291
- see also* apprentices; journeymen; masters
- Wrightson, Keith 402
- Wuppertaler Garnnahrung 433, 434, 435, 436, 441
- communities (villages and towns) 42–72, 404
- effects of war on 115–16
- fertility rates 261
- guilds 72–7
- merchant companies 77–9
- population age structure 237–41
- population growth 231–7
- proto-industries, and the state 441–2
- seigneurial institutions 37–42
- social institutions 35–85, 402, 448
- state 79–85
- state corporatism in 443
- worsted-weavers, numbers of 128–31
- see also* Black Forest region; Wildberg
- Zehnbund* xxi 341
- Zinslosungsrecht* (tenants' right to redemption), Württemberg 38–9
- Zunft* 75
- see also* guild