

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More information

INDEX

- account, action of
 - origins of, 65
 - purpose of, 65
 - reasons for rarity of cases in the king's courts
 - in the first half of the thirteenth century, 65
 - statutory authorisation of special process
 - against landless bailiffs in, 65
 - drastic nature of, 66
 - possible explanations for, 65–6
 - see also monstavit de compoto*
- accountability of socage guardians for wardship
 - of lands held by socage
- action to enforce, based on legislation
 - none created prior to 1267, 348
 - only created in 1277–8, 348–9
 - pleaded cases, 352, 353–4, 355–6, 357, 358–61
 - questionable whether or not available in respect of lands on ancient demesne, 356–7
 - value of heir's marriage in, 353–4, 361
 - variant non-returnable writ form to initiate litigation in county court, 351
 - variant writ form drafted for use against executors of socage guardian, 350
 - variant writ form drafted for use against lord usurping wardship, 349–50
 - variant writ form drafted for use for land held in gavelkind, 350
- common law action of account not used to enforce prior to 1267, 348
- doubt whether husband was responsible
 - alone after the death of a wife, whose right wardship was, 356
- legislation on
 - amendment of, for the Statute of Marlborough, 190
 - draft legislation on, 69
 - justices mention in awarding judgment in 1262, 125–6
 - possible origins of, 68–9
 - promised in February 1259, 68
- local enforcement of
 - after 1267, 351–2
 - prior to 1259, 67–8
 - through non-returnable statutory writ of account, 351
- aiel, writ of
 - creation of, 54
 - arguments in defence of, 55
 - lords seen as main defendants, 55
 - reasons for this, 55
- Alexander IV, pope, and the negocium Sicilie, 17
- Amiens, Mise of (1264), 165
 - submission made to Louis IX for, about matters requiring reform in 1258, 49
- 'bane', physical object which caused death, 80
- Basset, Philip, king's appointee to justiciarship in June 1261, 106
- beaupleder fine
 - connexion with criminal pleas, 88
 - legislation on
 - action of replevin enforcing, 300
 - draft text of, 90
 - drafting error in text of, 90
 - litigation by writ to enforce, 296–7
 - plaints and presentments to enforce, 120–1, 297–9
 - substantive revisions in 1263 reissue of Provisions, 147–8
 - writs of prohibition to enforce, 119–20, 173, 296
 - misidentification with fine for miskennung, 87–8
 - reasons for payment
 - by county at eyre, 88–9
 - by presentment jury at sheriff's tourn or view of frankpledge, 89–90
 - tendency to become fixed payments, 90

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- benefit of clergy, penalisation of sureties of
 - bailed cleric claiming, 82
- legislation prohibiting
 - as enacted, 133
 - as proposed, 83
 - purported reasons for, 82
 - recent origins of practice, 82
- Bigod, Hugh, baronial justiciar, 68–9, 84, 100, 122
- Bracton*
 - doctrine on obligation to perform suit of court, 48
 - on need to enquire into county customs in relation to murdrum fine at beginning of eyre, 79
 - regards payment of murdrum for accidental deaths as abuse, 79
 - suggests awarding of damages when lord impedes succession or commits waste, 56
- Brevia Placitata*, arguments rehearsed in, relating to suit of court, 49, 50
- castellans, replacement of, 19
- charters granting land for a fixed service ‘for all service’, Statute of Marlborough ch. 9
 - on effect of, 189–90
- change to more literal and faithful
 - interpretation of, in replevin cases from 1303 onwards, 259–62
- restrictive interpretation of, adopted in
 - replevin cases prior to early fourteenth century, 257
 - in relation to charters of feoffment, 257–8
 - in relation to charters of confirmation, 258–9
- clerical council of 1258, decrees on suit of court, 49
- Close Rolls, of Chancery
 - draft writs enrolled on, 180–1
 - new writs enrolled as specimens on, 97, 109, 115, 118, 363–4
- Committee of Twenty-four
 - date of first meeting, 18
 - decisions made by, 19–20
 - king’s agreement to establishment of, 16, 17–18
 - magnate reasons for demanding, 18
 - role of its baronial members in the drafting of the Petition of the Barons, 22
 - timetable for completion of its work, 17
- Common Bench at Westminster
 - return days in, 70
 - system for making adjournments in, 70, 71
- discretionary variations in prior to 1259, 71–2
 - proposals for legislative changes in, 72–3
 - terms in, 69–70
- contra formam feoffamenti*, tenant’s action against
 - lords distraining unjustly for suit of court
- actions of, brought in King’s Bench, 218
- attempted usurpation of suit after 1259
 - despite existence of, 113
- extension to cover suit owed to communal courts
 - accepted by Chancery in issuing writs, 114, 212–13
 - not accepted by the courts, 114, 212
- first of new remedies made available from Chancery, 109
- first writ to initiate, issued in January 1260, 109
- form of writ to initiate, as drafted, 109, 111–13
 - copied on to Close Roll, 109
 - rehearsal of authority behind legislation in, 111–13, 169, 207–8
- introduction of preliminary prohibition in, 214–15
- judgment by default in
 - as originally proposed, 52
 - cases in which given, 215–16
 - cases in which unsuccessfully requested by plaintiffs, 216–17
 - reasons why so few cases where awarded, 217–18
- mesne process established by legislation in, 134
 - how far followed in practice between 1260 and 1263, 134–5
 - how far followed in practice in 1263, 176
 - how far followed in practice between 1267 and 1307, 213–15
- other writs issued in 1260–1, 109–10
- other writs issued in 1263, 169
- pleaded cases of, between 1259 and January 1263, 113–14
 - where attempted use to attack distraint for suit to hundred court failed, 114
 - where lord said distraint justified as seised of suit before 1230, 113
 - where lord said distraint made against third party (mesne), 114
 - where lord said distraint made for arrears of rent, 114
 - where lord said distraint made to secure plaintiff’s attendance to answer case, 113–14

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- contra formam feoffamenti* (cont.)
 pleaded cases of, between 1267 and 1307 courts to which suit being claimed mentioned in, 240 defences pleaded in, 230, 231–4
 defendants in, 228–30, 239 form of plaintiff's count in, 224–8 generally involve tenant claiming freedom from suit and lord claiming suit every three weeks, 230 majority heard in Common Bench, 218 no cases where lords based claim to suit on wording of tenant's charter, 230–1 numbers and annual averages, 218 outcome of, 242
 plaintiffs in, 238–9
 pleading of charters granting for fixed service 'for all service' in, 235, 236–7, 238 reasons for relative infrequency, 219–23 prohibition issued in the Exchequer, 218 restrictions on availability of action could not be used by sub-tenant whose chattels taken, 220 could not be used by tenant where sub-tenant whose chattels taken, 220–1 persistent doubts about whether available to those whose title to the tenement concerned was by acquisition, 221–3 resumption of issuing of writs after January 1263, 168 special writ forms issued related to for Rutland eyre of April 1263, 168–9 for case pleaded in Common Bench in 1288, 213 for inquiry into claim by bailiff of escheated honours in king's hands, 218–19 suspension of issuing of writs by end of 1261, 110–11
 possible explanations for, 111
 see also limitation dates; suit of court to seignorial courts coroner's inquests, obligation of attendance at, 81 legislative reform regulating, 132 county community reminds justices of, 132 disregard of, in 1262–3, 132–3
 Statute of Marlborough eviscerates, 191, 285 penalisation of villages for failure to fulfil, 81 proposed legislation to restrict power to impose, 82 possible extension of, 81
 complaints about in the Petition of the Barons, 81 proposed legislation to reform, 81–2 cosinage, writ of
 creation of, 54
 arguments in defence of, 55
 lord seen as main defendant, 55
 reasons for this, 55
 covenant, action of
 creation of, 63
 reasons little used in royal courts in first half of thirteenth century, 63 use for enforcing terms of leases, 63 criminal justice system
 limited nature of proposed reforms in, 77 damages
 demands for awarding against lord committing waste at succession, 56 not available prior to 1259 against lords impeding hereditary succession, 55–6 not available prior to 1259 for waste committed by lords while in possession at a succession, 56 suggestions in Bracton for awarding against lords for wrongful actions at succession, 56 deception, writ of, for bailiffs with lands attached by their bodies by monstravit de compoto damages awarded in, 332–3
 first writ of, in King's Bench in 1294, 324–5 for non-returnable London monstravit, 324 modified second writ of, in King's Bench in 1298, 325 third writ of, in the Common Bench in 1299, 325–6 later actions of, in the Common Bench, 326–7 no evidence of existence prior to 1294, 323–4 required process to have been used in monstravit, 332
 Dispenser, Hugh le, justiciar, 120
 Dictum of Kenilworth (October 1266) recommendations on modification of policy of disinheritation of rebels, 185 recommendations on other measures needed to re-establish royal authority, 185–6 relationship to first four chapters of the Statute of Marlborough, 192
Dies communes de dote, 304
 distraint by chattels
 distraintee's options, 95–6 legitimate uses of, 94

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- distrain by chattels, excessive, rules prohibiting
 - codified in Statute of Marlborough, 194, 366
 - enforced from 1278 by an article of the eyre, 366
 - re-enacted in Districiones Scaccarii (1275), 366
- distrain by chattels, rules about use of, 94–5
 - codification in Provisions of Westminster, 95
 - further codified in the Statute of Marlborough, 192, 193–4
 - writ apparently based on, but in fact pre-statutory, 363–5
- distrain in highways, rules prohibiting, 95
 - breach commonly alleged in common law actions of replevin, 376
 - covers distrain in navigable waterway (Thames), 372
 - legislative reaffirmation of, 95
 - possible exception for lord with lands on both sides of highway finding animals grazing there, 373
 - possible omission from the Statute of Marlborough, 189
- distrain outside the fee, rules prohibiting, 94
 - invoked in common law actions of replevin, 376–7
 - legislative affirmation of, 95
 - article of the eyre enforcing, 375
 - article of the sheriff's tourn enforcing, 375
 - invoked in 1261, 125
 - possible omission from the Statute of Marlborough, 189
 - reaffirmed by Statute of Westminster I (1275), ch. 16, 375
 - possible exception for animals found in damage and taken in hot pursuit in other fee, 373
- distrain outside lord's fee or in the highway, statutory writ enforcing rules prohibiting
 - additional clauses in, 370–1
 - created shortly before Easter term 1271, 370
 - form of, 369–70
 - modification in early 1290s, 370
 - pleaded cases in the Common Bench
 - annual totals, 371
 - delay between distrain and pleading of case, 371
 - distresses said to have been taken in, 371
 - distribution as between allegations of distrain outside fee and distrain in highway, 371
 - pleading by defendants in, 372, 373, 374, 375
 - total number, 371
 - see also* replevin
- driving or taking of distresses outside county
 - where distrain made, rules prohibiting codified in the Statute of Marlborough, 194, 366
 - codified in the Statute of Westminster I, 367
 - enforced from 1278 by an article of the eyre, 366
 - writ for enforcement, 365–6
- Districiones Scaccarii* (1275), legislation, 366
- dower claims
 - wish to settle quickly, 72
- dower unde nihil habet, action of
 - length of adjournments in, between 1260 and 1263, 137–8
 - proposals for shorter adjournments in, 72, 73
 - revision of legislation on adjournments in 1263 reissue, 148
 - application of, between 1263 and 1267, 177
 - application of, after 1267, 302–4
- ecclesiastical benefices, litigation about vacant
 - arrangements for dealing with the defendant's continued absence in
 - not needed in darrein presentment, 73
 - required in quare impedit, 73–4
 - shorter adjournments in
 - as authorised in 1259, 72–3
 - common prior to 1259, 71–2
 - in practice between 1260 and 1263, 138–9
 - in practice between 1263 and 1267, 177–8
 - in practice after 1267, 304–5
 - legislation cited in royal mandate of 1284, 306
 - proposed legislative confirmation of practice of, 72
- entry, writs of
 - close early relationship with writs of right, 153
 - early types of, existing prior to 1215, 152–3
 - judgment in, no bar to writs of right, 152
 - jury trial characteristic of, 152
 - limitation periods applicable in, 154
 - Magna Carta (1215), cl. 34 and, 153–4
 - nature of, 151
 - only available 'within the degrees' prior to 1263, 155
 - difficulty in drafting writs disregarding this, 160
 - how this calculated, 155–6

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- entry, writs of (cont.)
 - proposals to alter this made in 1258–9, 157–9
 - requirement to show how land had passed to current tenant, 152
 - restrictions on remoteness of ancestor who had lost or granted the land, 155
 - situations covered by, 151–2
 - types created after 1215, 154
- entry, writs of, in the post
 - comparison of numbers of, with numbers of writs of right, in 1250, 1270 and 1290, 337–8
 - draft forms enrolled in March 1263, 180–1
 - effects of creation, on numbers of writs of right, 338–9
 - first example pleaded in 1263 Rutland eyre, 181
 - second example pleaded in Hilary 1267, 181–2
 - objection to form, as without proper authorisation, 181–2
 - full range of writs available by 1272, 336–7
 - responsibility for drafting of, 179–80
 - essoins, warranting of, older practice of royal courts in relation to, 103
 - later relaxation of, 103–4
 - essoins, warranting of, practice of local courts relating to, 104
 - legislation to relax
 - in draft form, 104–5
 - as enacted, 380
 - evidence of being disregarded at Wakefield in 1274–5, 381
 - Evesham, battle of (August 1265), 165, 185
 - Exchequer
 - enforcement of legislation through, 116, 170–3, 286–7, 296
 - execution of judgments of king's courts, impediment of
 - statutory prohibition of, under ch. 3 of the Statute of Marlborough, 193–4
 - article of the eyre enforcing, 368–9
 - punishment for breaches, 193–4
 - trespassory writ enforcing, 367–8
 - exemptions from jury service, royal charters of complaints about, in the Petition of the Barons, 76
 - legislative authority for overriding
 - application in 1261, 127–8
 - application in 1280–1, 333
 - did not solve problems of finding knights for grand assize, 334
 - problems posed by, for the administration of justice, 75
 - proposed legislation to override, 76
 - extension of, 76
 - general eyre, sessions of the
 - amercement of freeholders not present when vouched to warranty at, 92
 - draft legislation to prohibit, 92
 - legislation prohibiting, observance between 1259 and 1263, 127
 - legislation prohibiting, observed after 1267, 334
 - amercement of freeholders when absent
 - defendants at, 92
 - attendance required by writ of summons, 91
 - purpose of, 91
 - length of stay required of those summoned, 91
 - becomes more burdensome, 91
 - Gloucester (1278), Statute of
 - chapter 1, 272
 - chapter 5, 345–6
 - Hall, G.D.G., legal historian, 5
 - Hawkins, William, serjeant at law and editor of Statutes at Large, 2
 - Henry III, king
 - appeals to wider community for support
 - against baronial council, 31–2, 33, 107
 - appoints own candidates to posts of justiciar and chancellor, 106
 - clauses inserted into the Provisions of Westminster to safeguard his rights, 35–6
 - oath taken on his behalf in May 1258 and its context, 15–16, 18
 - publishes papal bulls absolving him from oath to observe ordinances of reformers, 106, 107
 - see also* Provisions of Westminster as reissued in 1263
 - hereditary succession
 - damages made generally available against all defendants who had impeded after 1278 by Statute of Gloucester, ch. 1, 272
 - deficiencies in king's court remedies for enforcement of, 55–6
 - demands for reform in law relating to, 56
 - draft legislation on reforms in law relating to, 57
 - early routine involvement of king's courts in enforcement of, 54
 - extension of scope of remedies to more remote heirs from the 1230s, 54

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- legislation authorising awarding of damages
 - when lords held over after wardship applied in assizes of mort d'ancestor in 1261–2, 124
 - applied in assize of mort d'ancestor in 1267 before enactment of Statute of Marlborough, 174
 - applied in assize of mort d'ancestor and related actions after 1267, 272
 - applied retrospectively for period prior to 1259, 124
 - extension from 1262 to cover lord's usurpation of wardship of lands held in socage, 124, 272
- legislation authorising awarding of damages when lords refused to allow entry of heir already of age
 - applied in assizes of mort d'ancestor in 1260–1, 125
 - applied in assize of mort d'ancestor in 1263, 174
 - applied in assize of mort d'ancestor and related actions after 1267, 272
 - applied only for period since 1259, 125
 - specific insertion in Statute of Marlborough of clause preserving king's rights at, in case of tenants in chief, 190
- intrusion during vacancies in religious houses, action for
 - brought by writ resembling congeners of mort d'ancestor, 343–4
 - brought by writ resembling writs of intrusion, 344–5
 - new remedy created by 1263 Provisions, 150
 - used in 1263, 182–3
- Jacob, E.F., historian, 3, 4, 5
- judgment by default
 - authorised by Provisions of Westminster in contra formam feoffamenti as originally proposed, 52
 - cases in which given, 215–16
 - cases in which unsuccessfully requested by plaintiffs, 216–17
 - reasons why so few cases were awarded, 217–18
- authorised by Provisions of Westminster in quare impedit, 74
- damages awarded under provisions of Statute of Westminster II (1285), ch. 5, 309
- evidence for application prior to 1267, 176
- evidence for application after 1267, 307
- extension by court to defaults after appearance, 309
- possible precedent for, 75
- problem where co-defendant wife defaulted, 308
- problems when defendant had no lands in county where church situated, 307–8
- problem where successful plaintiff an ecclesiastic, 308–9
- authorised by Statute of Marlborough in writ of right of wardship, 203–4
- cases where related procedures applied in practice, 310–11
- commonly not applied, 311
- possible reasons for non-application, 311
- proposed in lord's action for withdrawal of suit of court, 52, 53
- justiciar
 - dismissal of conciliar appointee to post of, in November 1263, 165
 - dismissal of royal appointee to post of, in July 1263, 165
 - revival of office of, 19
 - role in hearing complaints, 20, 24, 27, 39
 - see also* Basset, Bigod; Despenser
- King's Bench, court of, enforcement of legislation in, 218, 316, 324–5
- king's council
 - given responsibility for drafting writs of entry outside the degrees in January 1263, 160
 - recovers control of government machinery in July 1263, 165
- king's council, as reconstituted in 1258–9
 - appointment of members in July 1258, 19
 - assumes responsibility for reforms in 1258, 24, 25
 - awareness of need to secure public support for reform, 26
 - changes in composition, 38, 106
 - major office-holders made responsible to, 19
 - meeting planned for Michaelmas 1258, 24
 - sub-committee appointed to consider law reform, 26–7, 41
 - sub-committees appointed for various reforms, 38–9
- Kingston upon Thames, Surrey, agreement for arbitration between king and reformers made at, in November 1261, 106
- knights
 - numbers required for various legal processes, 75
 - solutions to problems of inadequate numbers in particular counties, 75–6

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- leases
 - action of covenant to enforce terms, 63
 - legislation requiring specific written
 - authorisation for lessees to commit waste during, 63–4
 - possible reasons for, 64
- legislation of the baronial reform period
 - attempts of king and magnates to take credit for, 391–2
 - discussions of the background to and evolution of, 3–5
 - discussions of the use and interpretation of, 5
 - drafting errors in, 90, 93
 - evidence for enforcement between 1259 and 1267 summarised, 397–9
 - importance of establishing the contemporary legal context of, 388–90
 - marks break in scale of legislative activity, 409
 - pioneering attempt to alter court procedures in, 410
 - pioneering attempt at detailed treatment of specific area of law in, 409–10
 - rediscovery of the texts of, 2–3
 - see also* Provisions of Westminster; Statute of Marlborough
- legislation of the reign of Henry III
 - previous work on, 1–2
 - small scale of, 409
- Lewes, battle of (May 1264), 165
- limitation dates applicable in contra formam feoffamenti (date before which lord required to have been seised of suit)
 - Henry III's first voyage to Brittany (1230)
 - as date specified in Provisions of Westminster and Statute of Marlborough, 208
 - reversion to (in 1303) as result of judgment in case, 209–10
 - Henry III's first voyage to Gascony (1242)
 - as date specified in chancery writs between 1277 and 1303, 208
 - cases prior to 1303 where argued this date unwarranted by statute, 210–12
 - change to, connected with Statute of Westminster I (1275), ch. 39, 208
- local grievances
 - arrangements to collect
 - four knights appointed in each county to bring record to Westminster for council meeting, 24, 27
 - four knights to investigate wrongdoing, 24
 - arrangements to remedy
 - through justiciar, 20, 24, 27, 39
 - through local commissioners, 40
 - through special eyre sessions, 40–1, 106
 - through visitation of general eyre, 39–40
- complaints received by four knights, 20, 24
- possible input into the penultimate French draft of the Provisions of Westminster, 35
- possible input into the Providencia Baronum, 30
- London
 - city courts see monstavit de compoto
 - Inns of Court
 - readings of the statutes at, 1
 - New Temple
 - Latin text of the Providencia Baronum published there in March 1259, 32
 - law reform discussed there in summer of 1258, 25
- lord–tenant relationship
 - antagonistic nature of, 42–3
 - tenants favoured by reforms in, 43
 - see also* hereditary succession; suit of court
- Luard, H.R., editor, 3
- Magna Carta
 - clause 34 and writs of entry, 153–4
 - confirmation in the Statute of Marlborough, 194–5
 - contrasted with Provisions of Westminster, 391
- Maitland, F.W., legal historian, 88, 156
- manuscripts, discussion of
 - Bodleian MS. Bodley 91, 142–3
 - Bodleian MS. Douce 139, 140–2
 - PRO E 164/24, 161–2
- Matthew Paris, chronicler, 32
- Merton, Provisions of (1236)
 - contrasted with Provisions of Westminster, 391
 - local trial of redisseisin under ch. 4 of, 195–6
- Merton, Walter of, king's appointee to chancellorship in June 1261 and 1272 and bishop of Rochester, 106
- brings writ alleging intrusion into lands of
 - see in* 1274 and 1276, 343
- involvement in litigation that lies behind part of ch. 6 of the Statute of Marlborough, 200, 202
- suspends issue of writs of contra formam feoffamenti, 111
- tradition ascribing to him responsibility for drafting writs of entry in the post, 179–80
- mesne process after joinder of issue
 - abbreviated even before 1263, 148–9
 - further reduction under 1263 reissue of Provisions, 149

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- applied in practice between 1267 and 1285, 312
- provisions superseded by ch. 27 of Statute of Westminster II (1285), 312
- mesne process before appearance, to secure attendance of defendants in personal actions
 - abbreviation of, in quare impedit cases, 74
 - general reduction of, in 1263 reissue of Provisions, 148
 - observance of between 1263 and 1267, 176
 - observance of after 1275, 306–7
 - stages in by 1259, 73–4
- Middleton, Richard of, royal justice and chancellor
 - tradition ascribing to him role in drafting of writs of entry in the post, 180
- Milsom, S.F.C., legal historian, 156
- monstravit de compoto*, statutory writ authorising attachment of landless bailiffs by their bodies
 - evidence of continued use of non-returnable London writ, 316–18
 - problem of identification on rolls of husting, 316–17, 318–20
- exception for the defendant, of his possession of sufficient lands, 327–8
 - if disproved, followed by further issue, 329
- first (non-returnable) form of writ drafted in 1260, 117–18
 - continued use down to 1307, 313
 - copied on to Close Roll, 118
 - for use in London, 118
 - form of, 117–18
 - not available in other cities or in county courts, 313
 - process authorised by, 118
- frequency of use after 1267, 315–16
 - but rarity in eyre, 316
 - single case in King's Bench in 1305, 316
- initial process on, after 1267, 318–20
 - doubt whether or not arrest followed by mainprise allowed as, 318–20
- mesne process followed in, after 1267, 320–1
 - use of capias in, 320–1
 - use of exaction to outlawry in, after Statute of Westminster II (1285), ch. 11, 321
- problems of identifying on the plea rolls after mid-1290s, 315–16
- procedure required to obtain, 313–14
- process followed in action between 1260 and 1263, 135–6
- question of whether available only against landless bailiffs or whether might also be used against those with 'insufficient' lands, 329–31
- question of whether available where defendant had lands only in another county, 331–2
- relative ineffectiveness of writ in securing appearance of defendants, 321–2
- restricted availability between 1267 and 1280, 314
- second (returnable) form of writ drafted by 1261, 118
 - for return to the Common Bench, 118
 - process authorised by, 119
- special Exchequer version of writ issued in 1263, 172–3
 - different understanding of legislation implied by, 173
- surviving original writ of 1272, 313
- use against 'receivers' as well as bailiffs, 322–3
- use against socage guardians, no evidence of, 323
- see also* deception, writ of
- Montfort, Peter de, member of king's council, whose name used in draft new writ, 158
- mort d'ancestor, assize of
 - creation and scope of, 54
 - damages not awarded in, 55–6
 - lords seen as main defendants, 55
 - reasons for this, 55
- Mortimer, Roger de, member of king's council
 - whose name used in draft new writ, 158
- mortmain, alienation into
 - consequences of, 58
 - controls exercised over prior to 1259, 60–1
 - definition, 58
 - demands for more control over in the Petition of the Barons, 61
 - desirability of seignorial controls over, 60
 - legislative imposition of requirement of seignorial consent for
 - invoked in judgment of 1260, 126
 - invoked in 1264 litigation despite repeal, 183–4
 - invoked in 1277 as though part of the Statute of Marlborough, 277–8
 - invoked in 1279 but without naming legislation, 278
 - invoked in 1279 (but without specifically saying of legislative origin), 279
 - invoked in 1285 but without naming legislation, 280
 - invoked in 1286 but without naming legislation, 281

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- mortmain, alienation into (cont.)
 invoked in 1291 but without naming legislation, 280–1
 possible reinsertion into the Statute of Marlborough, 191 publication of such legislation denied by defendants, 278–9 removed from text of 1263 reissue of Provisions, 146–7 limited scope of draft legislation on, 61–2 measures by religious institutions to prevent, 59–60 non-material objections to, 60 objections of religious institutions to, 59
 plaint about, 122–3
 reasons seen as damaging to lords, 58–9
 Mortmain, Statute of (1279), 279–80
- murdrum* fine
 amounts payable, 78
 areas and places where not payable, 78 county variations in custom relating to, 79
 general nature, 77
 legislation to prevent payment for accidental deaths, 80, 128 county communities cite legislation to justices in eyre, 129, 130–1, 282 limited impact on number of fines paid, 284–5 non-observance of legislation in two counties between 1260 and 1263, 131–2 non-observance of legislation in single instance in 1279 eyre, 283–4 observance of legislation in eyres in 1261–2, 129, 130, 131 observance of legislation in 1263 eyre, 175–6 observance of legislation after 1267, 282–3
 why necessary, 79–80
 legitimate ways of avoiding liability for conviction or abjuration of murderer, 78
 ‘presentment of Englishry’, 78–9 original purpose, 77 responsibility for payment, 77–8
 when invented, 77
- Northampton, Assize of (1176), 54, 55
- ‘Ordinance of Sheriffs’ (October 1258), 26
- Palmer, Robert C., legal historian, 156
- parliament
 provision on attendance at, 19
 provision for regular meetings of, 19
- parliaments
 of April 1258 at London, 16–17
 of June 1258 at Oxford, 19, 61
 of Michaelmas 1258 at Westminster preparatory work for, 25
 of February 1259 at Westminster, 30–2, 51, 68, 86 commitment to completion of legislation by November 1259, 31 of June 1259, 34, 159
 of Michaelmas 1259 at Westminster, 15
 discussion and amendment of the draft Provisions of Westminster at, 37–8, 52 of mid-September 1265 at Winchester legislation enacted at, for disinheritance of supporters of Montfortian regime, 185 of August 1266 at Kenilworth appointment of committee to make changes in policy of disinheritance, 185
see also Dictum of Kenilworth
- Petition of the Barons (1258)
 characterisation of its demands, 21–2 complaint about allowing of seignorial claims of court by superior lords after failure of justice proved in lower seignorial court in, 99 complaint about beaupleder fine in, 90 complaint about demands for attendance at the sheriff’s tourn in, 83–4 complaint about extension of obligation of attendance at coroner’s inquests in, 81 complaint about king’s jury service exemptions in, 76 complaint about murdrum fine in, 80 demands relating to mortmain alienations in, 61
 heterogeneous origins of clauses, 22–4 publication at Oxford in June, 21 relationship to the new clauses of the penultimate French draft of the Provisions of Westminster, 34–5 relationship to the Providencia Baronum, 28–9 plea roll evidence for enforcement of Provisions of Westminster gaps in, for period between October 1259 and January 1263, 108 gaps in, for period between January 1263 and November 1267, 166–7
- Plucknett, T.F.T., legal historian, 5, 251 limitations of exclusive reliance on printed sources, 388, 396 processes of king’s courts, impediment of statutory prohibition of, under ch. 3 of the Statute of Marlborough, 193–4

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- article of the eyre enforcing, 368–9
- punishment for breaches, 193–4
- Providencia Baronum*
 - initial French draft, 27
 - amendment at parliament of February 1259, 30–1
 - Latin published text of, 32–3
 - possible input of legal experts to, 30
 - possible input of local grievances to, 30
 - proposed extension of writs of entry outside degrees in, 157–8
 - relationship to complaints of the clerical council of 1258, 29
 - relationship to the Petition of the Barons, 28–9
- Provisions of Westminster of 1259
 - arrangements for publication, 38
 - clauses which do not reflect magnate interests in, 390–1
 - clauses which favour magnates (but also others), 391
 - contrast in nature with Magna Carta and the Provisions of Merton, 391
 - formal proclamation at parliament, 15
 - not mentioned in king's letter of May 1262, 107
 - possible interpretations of this, 107
 - numbering of clauses, 15
 - penultimate French draft of, 34–7
 - possibilities of tracing drafting process behind, 392–4
 - analogies with other thirteenth-century legislation, 393
 - question whether typical of other contemporary legislation, 394
 - reasons possible, 394
 - throws little light on active participants in process, 394
- Provisions of Westminster as reissued in 1263
 - evidence of publication, 143–4
 - first reissue of January, 143–4
 - input of legal experts into, 395
 - king's probable role in or input into redrafting of preamble, 394
 - political context, 140
 - revision of preamble for, 145–6
 - significance of changes in order of clauses in, 160–1
- second reissue of June, 144
 - failure to make necessary revisions in, 144–5
 - successful lobbying by major religious houses reflected in, 394–5
- Provisions of Westminster as reissued in 1264
 - main part of text identical with that of 1263 reissues, 162–3
 - new concluding clause for, 163–4
 - emphasis on local enforcement, 164
 - new preamble drafted for, 163
 - political context, 161
 - publication of, 164
- quare impedit*, action of
 - reduced mesne process in, authorised by legislation, 136
 - how far observed by the courts between 1260 and 1263, 136
 - how far observed by the courts between 1263 and 1267, 176
- see also* ecclesiastical benefices; judgment by default
- Ramsey, Ranulph, abbot of, 50
- redisseisin
 - procedure established by Provisions of Merton, ch. 4 for local trial of, 195–6
 - weaknesses of, 195–6
 - provisions of ch. 8 of the Statute of Marlborough on, 195, 379
 - enforcement through article of the eyre, 379
 - not specifically invoked in action of 1270 against bailiffs of liberty, 379
 - specifically invoked by plaintiff in special writ in 1278, 379
 - provisions of ch. 8 of the Statute of Westminster II (1285) requiring Chancery to keep an enrolled copy of all writs of redisseisin issued, 380
- religious houses, heads of, possession of sole right to sue for taking of movable property belonging to house, 149
- legislation giving successor right to sue as well, 149–50
- arguments based on, in other litigation, 341–3
- cases brought under its provisions after 1307, 340–1
- single case brought under its provisions before 1307, 340
- replevin, action of
 - methods of initiation, 95–6
 - release of distresses secured through initiation of
 - legislation required to ensure (when initiated by plaintiff), 98, 382
 - special procedures introduced when distresses taken within a franchise with 'return of writs' to ensure, 96–8

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- replevin, action of, as means of contesting
 - justice of distraint
 - for attendance at view of frankpledge, 294–5
 - for beaupleder fines, 300
 - for services, 257–62
 - for suit of court, 252
 - rules applicable in, 252–3, 254–6
 - right, writ of, for land
 - disadvantages of using, compared with writs of entry, 154–5
 - royal justices, sessions of, general summonses
 - to, 93
 - complaints relating to, 93
 - draft legislation to restrict the power to issue, 93–4
 - legislation to restrict, 334–5
 - see also* general eyre
 - royal monopoly
 - of authorisation of litigation compelling free men to answer for their free tenements, 99–100
 - evidence for disobedience to rule prior to 1259, 100–1
 - legislation to reaffirm, 101, 382
 - presentments for breaches of, 382–3
 - rule invoked in manorial court in 1260, 127
 - writs obtainable from Chancery for enforcement by sheriffs, 383–4
 - of false judgment cases, 99
 - legislation to reaffirm, 99, 380
 - of right to compel free men to take oaths in legal proceedings, 101
 - doubts about whether allowed sheriffs and franchise officials to compel free men to act as jurors at sheriff's tourn or view of frankpledge, 386
 - enforcement through presentments, 385
 - enforcement through special action citing the rule (but not the Statute), 387
 - held not breached by compulsion to act as trial juror for thief caught in the act, 387
 - infringement by bishops prior to 1259, 101–2
 - infringement by magnates prior to 1259, 103
 - infringement by sheriffs prior to 1259, 102–3
 - legislation to reaffirm, 103, 384–5
 - presentments of infringements between 1259 and 1263, 133–4
- St Albans, attempt to convene meeting of representative knights at, in September 1261, 106
- seignorial courts
 - extent of jurisdiction, 45
 - frequency of sessions, 44
 - need for free suitors if to exercise jurisdiction over free men, 45
 - see also* royal monopolies; suit of court; view of frankpledge
 - sheriff's tourn
 - amercement at, 84
 - proposed reform relating to, 86, 87
 - attendance at, 83
 - complaints about demands for, 83–4
 - demanded from earls and barons, 83–4
 - demanded from heads of religious houses, 84–5
 - demanded from those without dwellings within the jurisdiction, 84
 - demanded from woman, 84
 - draft legislation on, evolution of, 85–7
 - evidence of extension of demands for, 84–5
 - legislation on attendance at: enforcement by justices in action of mesne, 123
 - observance in litigation against third parties to secure acquittal, 294
 - plaint to enforce, 121–2
 - writs of prohibition to enforce, 115–17, 170–72, 286–8
 - double presentment system at, 83
 - nature of, 83
 - purpose of, 83
 - see also* view of frankpledge
 - sheriffs
 - arbitrators appointed to decide question of future appointment procedures, 106
 - award of, restoring king's freedom of appointment, 107
 - code of conduct for their behaviour drawn up, 25–6
 - committees for oversight of, in each county, 39
 - compromise on appointment accepted in November 1261, 106
 - king's appointment of own candidates in July 1261, 106
 - resistance to, 106
 - reforms of July 1258 relating to their appointment and tenure, 19
 - reforms of October 1258 relating to appointment, 39
 - statute books, contents, 1
 - Statute of Marlborough of November 1267
 - amendments made to the text of the Provisions for, 189–91

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- as final revised reissue of Provisions of Westminster, 186, 188, 395
- contemporary copies of, 186–7
- enforcement clause probably not included, 188
- evidence for application in common law actions summarised, 405–7
- evidence for enforcement through complaints and presentments summarised, 407
- evidence for enforcement through writs specifically citing the Statute summarised, 400–5
- evidence for existence of remedies authorised by the Statute but which did not cite it summarised, 405
- evidence for observance of legislative changes in process of courts summarised, 407–8
- evidence for observance in relation to various fines and amercements summarised, 408–9
- new clauses reasserting royal jurisdictional power, 192–4
- new preamble drafted for, 187–8
 - explaining reasons for legislation, 188
 - omission of references to earlier versions of Provisions in, 188
 - role assigned to king and lieges in making of legislation by, 187–8
- possible omission of cl. 11 of the 1259 Provisions from, 189
- Stubbs, William, bishop of Oxford, editor and historian, 3
- suit of court to seignorial courts
 - charters of feoffment and obligation of, 47–8, 49, 51, 52
- consequences of division of a tenement between coheirs on the obligation, 50, 51, 53
- continuous performance since the Conquest as title to demand, 51
- distinct from subjection to court's jurisdiction, 44
- division of a tenement owing
 - actions to enforce rights and obligations on, under the Provisions of Westminster, 115, 178–9, 263–71
- how lords established their right to claim prior to 1259, 47–50
- legislative reforms relating to
 - application in lord's common law action in 1263, 175
 - final revisions made at the Michaelmas parliament of 1259, 53
 - initial draft of, presented to the Candlemas parliament of 1259, 51–2
 - most elaborate clauses in the Provisions of Westminster, 43
 - revisions made for the Michaelmas parliament of 1259, 52–3
 - revisions made for the 1263 reissue, 147
 - revisions made for the Statute of Marlborough, 189–90
- lord's new legal action to enforce
 - as initially proposed, 52
 - as subsequently emended, 53
 - no evidence for creation or use, 115, 251
- nature of, 44
- performance prior to 1230 as title to demand, 52–3
- possible misunderstandings about, 113
- reasons for lords to wish to enforce the obligation, 45–6
- reasons for tenants to wish to escape the obligation, 46–7
- right to appoint attorneys to perform, 47
- seen as incident of tenure
 - by the king's courts up to 1241, 48
 - by lords prior to 1259, 49–50
- tenant views of how obligation created, 50–1
- tenant's new legal action to challenge unjust distraint for
 - as initially proposed, 52
 - as subsequently amended, 53
 - see also contra formam feoffamenti*
- Treharne, R.F., historian, 4
- Urban IV, pope, renewal of papal bull absolving Henry III from oath to observe reforms, 107
- vengeance for wrongs, recent practice of, 192, 358–9
 - statutory prohibition of, by Statute of Marlborough, 192, 367
 - punishment for breach of, 192–3
 - writ for enforcement of, 367
- view of frankpledge, attendance at, extension of legislation on attendance at sheriff's tourn to cover
 - earliest case to show, of 1270, 288–9

Cambridge University Press

0521372461 - Kings, Barons and Justices: The Making and Enforcement of Legislation in Thirteenth-Century England

Paul Brand

Index

More informationIndex

- view of frankpledge (cont.)
 - invoked in replevin case in 1295, 294–5
 - litigation brought by abbots and priors, 291–3
 - litigation brought by archbishops and bishops, no examples prior to 1307, 293
 - litigation brought by those not resident within jurisdiction, 289–91
 - litigation brought by women, 293
 - prohibitions citing, become essential first stage in cases after 1274, 289
 - see also* sheriff's tourn
- Walerand, Robert, 16, 196
- wardship of lands held by knight service,
 - evasion of, by tenants, (i) by enfeoffment of underage heirs, 196–7
 - accepted by court in 1250 case, 198
 - how worked, 197
 - legitimate purposes of, 197–8, 274
 - litigation pending in 1267 that suggested need for legislation, 198–9
- wardship of lands held by knight service,
 - evasion of, by tenants, (ii) by leases made though enfeoffment reserving services in excess of value of land, 200
 - how worked, 200
 - litigation of 1262 that suggested need for legislation, 200–2
 - provisions of Statute of Marlborough, ch. 6 in relation to, 202–3
- wardship of lands held by knight service,
 - enforcement and application of legislation seeking to prevent evasion, (i) by enfeoffment of underage heirs
 - problems of applicability when wife enfeoffed with underage heir, 274–5
 - problems for lords in knowing whom to sue, 273–4
 - provisions, 272–5
 - where lords pleaded legislation in defence, 273
 - where lords pleaded legislation in support of claims, 273
- wardship of lands held by knight service,
 - enforcement and application of legislation seeking to prevent evasion, (ii) by leases made through 'feigned' feoffments
 - cases where mentioned or applied, 275–7
 - evidence for change to mechanism of 'feigned' feoffment envisaged by Statute, 275–6
 - evidence for executive action by lords against, 276–7
 - evidence that primary purpose to secure leases, 275
- wardship of lands held by socage
 - damages awarded from 1262 onwards against lords usurping, 124, 272
 - entitlement to, 66–7
 - held in trust for the heir, 67
 - plaint about waste committed by guardians during, 122
 - see also* accountability of socage guardians
- waste
 - committed by lessees, legislation to restrict, 63–4
 - evidence of writ issued under, 345
 - rules of invoked in action of covenant in 1304, 346–7
 - superseded by Statute of Gloucester (1278), ch. 5, 345–6
 - writ against curtesy tenant supposedly authorised by, 346
 - writ against tenant for life supposedly authorised by, 346
 - concern with inadequacy of legal protection against, 64
- Westminster, Provisions of see Provisions of Westminster
- Westminster I (1275), Statute of
 - chapter 16, 375
 - chapter 39, 208–10
- Westminster II (1285), Statute of
 - chapter 5, 309
 - chapter 8, 380
 - chapter 11, 321
 - chapter 27, 312
- Westminster hall, Provisions of Westminster published in, 15, 38