

Index

JC = John Churchill SC = Sarah Churchill

- Abbeville, 164
 Agincourt, 163
 Aire, siege of, 188–9, 218
 Albemarle, earl of, 54, 58
 Albergotti, general, 181
 Almanza, 143
 Almenara, 186
 Alsace, 17, 83, 84, 103, 177
 Altranstadt, meeting at, 1, 5, 137–42
 Amsterdam, JC visits, 99–100
 Anne, queen, 3, 11, 111, 136; and SC, 8–9, 13, 41; Churchills attach selves to, 23–4; Anglican loyalty of, 28–9; pressure from father, 30; during Revolution, 35–6; persuaded on succession, 42; dispute with Mary, 43; will not dismiss SC, 47–8; writes to father, 50; initial grants to JC, 61–2; backs husband for command, 62; told of Danube march, 81; authorises JC to accept governorship, 134; rift with SC, 204–5; fears Whig domination, 207, 209; refuses JC life tenure as captain-general, 216; resists JC's pressure, 217; rebukes SC, 218; SC's influence on when heir and queen, 225
 Antwerp: objective of JC, 65, 69; target of Great Design, 70–2; defects to allies, 126; watch on, 155
 Argonne, 102
 Argyle, John Campbell, second duke of, hostile to JC, 200–1
 army: of James II, 28; Williamite conspiracy in 30–3; causes of discontent in, 31, 32–3; defections to William, 33–4; Feversham disbands, 40; JC reforms, 40–1; in 1689 campaign, 42; William fears factionalism in, 46–7; war strengths agreed, 60; faction revives after 1708, 167
 Arras, 187, 188–9, 197
 Asse, 156
 Ath: taken, 127; threatened, 152
 Athlone, earl of, see Ginkel
 Augsburg, 79
 Barcelona, taken, 112
 Barfleur – La Hogue, battle, 50
 Barrier fortresses: occupied by French 58; Dutch suspicions about, 70; JC on how to obtain, 126; issue becomes immediate, 131–2; central Dutch aim, 134; English attitude to, 136; target for French, 152
 Barrier Treaty, 213
 Bavaria, 77–86, 97, 142
 Bayreuth, margrave of, 142–3
 Beachy Head, battle, 43
 Bellings, Sir Richard, 19n, 25
 Belloc, Hilaire, 5

Index

- Bergeyck, count Jan van B., inspires 1708 French offensive, 153–4
- Berlin, 5; JC journeys to, 99, 113, 138, 141–2
- Berri, duke of, 159
- Berwick, James, duke of, 29, 31–2, 52, 166, 167–8, 230
- Béthune, 188
- Black Forest, 77, 80, 84
- Blenheim, battle, 78, 87, 90–7, 120, 125
- Blenheim Palace, 7, 223
- Bonn, 68–9
- Bouchain, siege of, 197–9
- Boufflers, duke and marshal: in first campaign, 63–6; defeats Opdam, 71–2; tutors Burgundy, 158;
 defends Lille, 165–70; defensive strategy, 174–5; in command, 183;
 negotiates with Portland, 212
- Boulogne, 164, 187–8
- Brabant: target for JC, 65, 69; submits 123
- Brent, Robert, 19n, 25
- Brest, 3, 44, 51
- Briare, 5
- Bringfield, colonel, 122
- Bruges, 19, 20; submits, 126; defects,
 135, 153, 155; recovered, 171
- Brussels, 21, 22, 123; vulnerability, 125; pro-French in, 131
- Buckingham, George Villiers, first duke of, 62, 138, 224
- Burgundy, duke of, 66–7, 232; in command, 151; planned offensive, 153–5; and Oudenarde, 156–62;
 attempts relief of Lille, 166–9
- Butler, Sir Nicholas, 19n
- Buys, Willem, 112
- Cadiz, 67
- Cadogan, William; quarter-master,
 117; advances on Oudenarde, 156–7, 160; credited with Wijnendale, 167; suppresses the 1715 Jacobite rebellion, 223
- Calais, 164, 187–8
- Calcinato, battle, 129
- Camaret Bay letter, 3, 50–2
- Cambrai, 125, 198
- Carlos II, 55
- Castlereagh, lord, 227
- Chamillart, Michel: recruits French armies, 119; vetoes attack on JC, 168
- Charleroi, 124, 125; target, 1708, 153
- Charles II, 11, 13, 23, 24; sexual powers, 15; devious policies, 19–20; illness of, 21–2
- Churchill, Arabella, 13, 14, 29, 225
- Churchill, John, first earl and duke of Marlborough: diplomat, 5–7; as general, 6, 11–12; as hero, 7; as courtier, 7–8, 11; family
 background, 10, 13–14;
 characteristics, 10–12; profile of career, 13; early military posts, 14–15; in French service, 16–18;
 Flanders mission of 1678, 19–20;
 mission to William, 19–20; MP for Newtown, 21; with James in exile, 21; missions for him to Charles and Louis, 21; brings James back, 22; adviser to him, 22–3; attaches self and SC to Anne, 23–4; colonel, 24;
 fetches George of Denmark, 24;
 sent to negotiate for French subsidy, 25; peer, lord of bedchamber, 25; role against Monmouth, 25–8, 33; major-general, 27; distances self from James, 28–9; clandestine Dutch contacts, 29–30; and army conspiracy, 30–3; dangers to, 31–2; lieutenant-general, 33;
 defects, 34; justificatory letter to James, 36–40; reorganises army, 40–1; made earl of Marlborough and lieutenant-general, 42; in Walcourt battle, 43; organises defence of England, 43; Munster invasion by, 44; personal and political confidence, 45–6; William reacts to, 46; in army politics, 46–7; Portland's enmity to, 47;
 dismissal, 47; arrested, 48; political trouble-making, 48–9; Jacobite

Index

- Churchill, John (cont.)
 contacts, 49–50; leads Anne to write to James, 50; Camaret Bay letter from, 50–2; Fenwick's charges, 52–3; reconciliation with William, 53–4; governor to duke of Gloucester, 53; opposes army disbanding 53–4; line on Spanish Empire, 55; on interdependence of allies, 59–60; and minor allies, 60; and Sweden, 60–1; William's turn to Whigs disturbs, 61; becomes Knight of the Garter, duke, captain-general and master-general of Ordnance, 61–2; and allied command, 62; Dutch distrust, 62–3; offensive strategy, 63–6; evades capture, 66–7; continental strategy, 67; plans for 1703, 68–9; promises success, 69–70; it fails, 70–2; attack on lines blocked, 72–3; plans Moselle offensive, 74–6; his Danube strategy, 78; its objectives, 80–1; security precautions, 81–2; march to Danube, 82–4; initial plan, 86; Schellenberg action, 86–8; on losses, 87–8; devastates Bavaria, 88; needs early battle, 89–90; Blenheim victory, 90–7; follows up success, 97–9; takes Trier, 99; travels to Berlin, Hanover, Amsterdam, 99–100; 1705 failures, 100, 101–3; Moselle offensive, 102–4; attacks French lines, 104–7; Elixem action, 105; Yssche operations, 107–10; JC's resentment, 110–11; initial JC pessimism, 112; travels to Berlin and Vienna, 112–13; negotiates Austrian loan, 113; 1706 plans for march to Italy, 115–17; Ramillies victory, 118–23; confirms Brabant rights, 123; negotiates with Maximilian, 124–6; French approach, 125–6; sweeping advances, 125–7; and the common cause, 128–30; criticises allies, 130–2; offered governorship, 132–6; misjudges effects, 137; mission to Karl XII, 137–42; pioneers personal diplomacy, 138–9; blocks Triple Alliance, 141–2; inconclusive campaign, 143–4; Toulon defeat confirms his strategy, 144–6; sceptical on descents, 128, 146–7, 163–4; plans for 1708, 147; Whig line on, 148–50; deceives George of Hanover, 151; covers Brussels, 152–3; reacts to French moves, 153–4; Oudenarde victory, 155–63; besieges Lille, 165–70; antagonises Webb, 167; recovers Ghent and Bruges, 171–2; arctic winter delays, 173–4; deprecates allied demands, 174; strategical failure at Malplaquet, 176–83; strategy becomes invalid, 185–6; siege strategy of 1710, 185–9; energy diminishes, 187; disillusioned with allies, 190; attitude to change of ministry, 190–5; Swift's criticisms of, 193–4; contracts duties, 195–6; last campaign, 196–8; takes Bouchain, 197–9; authority questioned, 200–1; never a party man, 201–3; domestic politics a strain, 202–3; pressures on, 203–7; attitude to Tories, 206–7; and Harley's downfall, 208–9; attitude to peace negotiations, 210–11; fresh French approaches, 211–12; on French absolutism, 214; distrusts Dutch, 215; fears burden of Spanish war, 215; is refused life tenure of captain-generalcy, 216; presses Anne, 217; will not resign, 218; outraged by peace moves, 219; wrecking policy, 219–20; character assassinated by Swift, 220–2; is dismissed, 222; exile, 222–3; decline and death, 223; essentially a courtier, 224–6; arduous rise, 225; European importance 226–7; maintained allied unity, 227–8; concern for estate, 230; military genius, 230–3; reasons for decline, 233–4

Index

- Churchill, Sarah, duchess of Marlborough: as partner to JC, 8–9, 15–16, 207; friend to the young
 Anne, 13; lady of bedchamber to, 24; defends her religion, 28–9; role in Revolution, 30, 35–6; blamed for disputes with Mary, 43, 47;
 manipulates Anne, 48; Whig partisan, 204; used to influence queen, 206–7; fears Abigail Masham, 208, 209–10; final rift with Anne, 210; fury at Hill appointment, 216; wants mass resignation, 218; has to resign, 218–19; goes abroad, 222; isolates JC, 223; greater influence when Anne was heir than after her accession, 225
- Churchill, Sir Winston, 10, 25;
 ineffective careerist, 13–14; defends sons, 17
- Churchill, Sir Winston S.: learns from studying JC career, 3–5; on early relations with William, 19–20;
 appreciation of Munster invasion, 44–5; and Camaret Bay letter, 51;
 on Blenheim, 96; on Moselle possibilities, 102; harsh on Dutch, 118; on descents, 128, 163–4; and JC's personal diplomacy, 139; irony of judgement on Dutch, 228–9;
 similarities of decline, 233–4;
 history prepared for wartime role, 234
- Clarendon, Edward Hyde, first earl of, 3
- Clarendon, Henry Hyde, second earl of, 24, 42
- Cleveland, Barbara Castlemaine, duchess of, 13, 14, 15–16, 17
- Coehorn, baron Menno, 68, 70–1
- Coleman, Edward, 19n, 21
- Compton, Henry, bishop, 29, 35–6
- Condé, prince, 35
- Cork, 44
- Cornbury, lord, defects to William, 34
- Cowper, lord: urges Whig strategy, 148–50; dismissed, 218
- Coxe, William, 1
- Crécy, 163
- Cutts, general John, 93, 95, 205n
- Daily Courant, 219–20
- D'Alègre, general, 211
- Dalrymple, Sir John, 2
- Danby, Thomas Osborne, earl of, 19, 20, 21, 41, 43n
- Denain, 198
- Dender, river, 156
- Dendermonde, 126, 127
- Denmark: as ally, 60; and Sweden, 137
- descent, or seaborne invasion: attempt fails, 1706, 128; JC sceptical on, 146–7; fiasco in 1708, 163–5
- Douai, 163, 197, 231; siege of, 187–8
- Dover, earl of, 25, 31
- Drake, lady Eleanor, 14
- Drummond, Henry, 192–3, 199–200
- Dumbarton, earl of, 32
- Dunkirk, as possible target, 127, 163, 174–5
- Dyle, river, action on, 105–7
- Edinburgh, 22
- Elixem, 105
- Elizabeth II, 4
- Enzheim, 16
- Essex, earl of, death creates vacancy, 216
- Eugène, prince of Savoy, 6, 56, 136,
 195; first meets JC, 83; reputation,
 85; army joins with JC's, 89; needs
 early battle, 89–90; at Blenheim, 90–7; covers Landau siege, 98;
 commands in Italy, 100–1, 115–16;
 JC wants him on Rhine, 112–13;
 victory at Turin, 129; mishandles Toulon attack, 144–6; suspects duke of Savoy, 145–6; JC wants him in Spain, 147; discusses 1708
 strategy, 150–1; makes changes, 151; deceives George of Hanover, 151; at Oudenarde, 160–2; sceptical of descents, 164; conducts Lille siege, 165–6, 171; strategy for 1709, 174–6; at Malplaquet,

Index

- Eugène, prince of Savoy (cont.)
 177–83; subsequent strategy invalid, 185–6; good relations with JC, 190; Denain defeat, 198; visits
 England, 220
- Examiner, The, 193–4, 219
- Fenwick, Sir John, 52–3
- Feversham, earl of: commands against Monmouth, 26–7; in 1688, 33, 34;
 disbands army, 40
- field deputies: of the States General, 62–3; veto attack on Boufflers, 65;
 and attack on lines, 73, 101;
 agreement, 107; sabotage Yssche operation, 108–9; new agreement,
 112; more amenable in 1706,
 118–19
- Foot, Michael, 5
- Franconia, 82, 84, 90
- Frankfurt, 147
- Friend, Sir John, 52
- Gallas, count, leak to Whig press, 219
- Galway, 44
- Galway, earl of, 129; defeated at Almanza, 143
- Gambetta, Leon, 176
- Gavere, 156–7
- Geerttruidenberg, peace negotiations at, 186, 215
- Geldern, 66, 73
- George, elector of Hanover: and allied command, 62; meets JC, 147;
 deceived over command, 151;
 supports JC in 1710, 191; offered but declines command, 216
- George (II), electoral prince, 160
- George, consort to Anne, 24, 54;
 defects to William, 35; justificatory letter to James, 40; Anne wants him in command, 62
- Ghent: submits, 126; defects, 135, 153–4, 155; controls rivers, 166;
 recovered, 171
- Ginkel, G. van, earl of Athlone, 56, 58, 62; routed, 63–4, 67
- Gloucester, duke of, 53, 55
- Godolphin, Sidney, earl of, 8, 25, 45,
 61, 136; mission to William,
 19–20; JC promises success to,
 69–70; told of Danube march, 81;
 cautious after Blenheim, 97; urges attack on Dunkirk, 127; orders a descent, 128; favours more descents, 146, 203; under Whig pressure, 148–50; beset by difficulties, 150; unrealistic after Oudenarde, 163, 175; ministry weakens, 186, 187; wants advance to Channel, 187; effects of dismissal, 190–1; as triumvir, 203;
 JC and his becoming lord treasurer,
 205; Whig blackmail, 207–9; defeat of Harley, 208–9; anger at French rejecting peace, 214; funeral, 222;
 as Whig captive, 224
- Grafton, duke of, 40
- Grant, Ulysses S., 183
- great design (1703), 69–72
- Gustavus Adolphus, king of Sweden
 (d. 1631), 60, 137
- Halifax, George Savile, marquess of,
 22, 41, 45
- Hallam, Henry, 2
- Hanover, 5; troops from, 60; JC visits, 99, 138, 141–2; pressed by Sweden on a Triple Alliance, 141; to furnish more troops, 142
- Hare, Francis, 1
- Harley, Robert, earl of Oxford, 45, 169, 195, 204; position weakens,
 148; keeps JC in command, 190–1, 218; as triumvir, 203; driven from office, 207–8; no longer needs JC, 219; his peace assailed, 220; threats to JC, 222; commits political suicide, 224
- Harvey, lady Elizabeth, 13
- Hechteren, 66
- Heinsius, Antonie, 73, 75, 101n;
 warned by JC, 107, 111; and peace,
 111; differences over Spanish
 Netherlands, 132; on 1708 strategy, 150–1; further warnings, 154, 189;
 supports JC in 1710, 191

Index

- Hesse-Cassel, as ally, 60
 Hill, Jack, controversial appointment, 216–17
 Hochstadt, 79
 Holmes, Sir Robert, 15, 21
 Hompesch, general, 107
 Hounslow Heath, camp, 28
 Huguenots: support expected from, 144, 147; restoration proposed, 177
 Hume, David, 2
 Hungary, revolt in, 112–13, 117, 130, 227
 Huntingdon, earl of, 25
 Huy, 72, 143, 151
 Hyde, Edward, see Clarendon
 Hyde, Henry, see Clarendon
 Hyde, Laurence, see Rochester
- Ingolstadt, 85, 89
 Italy: Louis initially concentrates on, 63; JC proposes marching to, 83, 115–17; crisis in, 112–13; allied success in, 129; French allowed to withdraw from, 130
- James II, 3, 15, 229; JC in household of, 17; double policy of, 18; uses JC as confidential servant, 18–19; supports war in 1678, 19–20; goes into exile, 21; recalled by JC, 22; decline of JC's influence with, 24–5, 28–9; and Monmouth's rebellion, 25–7; policies alienate, 28–9, 31–2; and army defections, 34–5; and Prince of Wales, 35; JC's letter to, 36–40; wants JC to subvert army, 49; desperation, 52
 James III, 50, 150–1, 159, 211, 214, 229
 Jeffreys, George, judge, 27
 Jersey, earl of, 206
 Joseph, Emperor, 195
- Kaiserwerth, siege of, 63
 Karl (III): Habsburg claimant to Spain, 68, 111, 116; allied hopes for, 129; offers JC governorship of Spanish Netherlands, 132–4; renews offer, 1708, 135–6; pinned back in Catalonia, 143; gets to Madrid, 186
- Karl XII, king of Sweden, 11, 77; potential threat from, 60; crisis with Habsburgs, 137; discussions with JC, 137–42; French offers to, 140
 Kent, earl of, 190, 218
 Kinsale, 44
 Kirke, Percy, 27
 Kleve, 73
 Klopp, Onno, 1
 Koblenz, 81, 152
 Kortrijk: taken, 126, threatened, 155
- Landau, 82, 83; Lewis invests, 98
 Launsheim, 83
 Léau, 109
 Lediard, Thomas, 1
 Lee, Robert E., 13
 Legge, George, earl of Dartmouth, 23, 25
 Leicester, Robert Dudley, earl of, 62, 224
 Lessines, 156
 Leuven, 105, 108, 123
 Lewis, margrave of Baden, 69, 72; JC joins with, 83; characteristics, 85; initial role, 86; and Schellenberg action, 86–8; cautious, 89–90; invests Landau, 98; dilatory, 100; intended 1705 role, 102; JC wants dismissal, 112–13; JC meets, 113; delays plans, 117; dies, 142
 Liège, taken, 66, 104, 106, 151
 Lille, 163, 231; siege of, 165–70; vulnerable afterwards, 171
 Limburg, 74
 Limerick, 44
 Lorraine: target for JC, 75–6; defection as his objective, 102–3
 Louis XIV, 11, 16, 37; JC used by James to appeal to, 21; ready to abandon James, 52; accepts Carlos II's will, 55; and liberties of Europe, 58; attitude if JC captured, 66–7; centralises command, 69; commits armies to Bavaria, 77–9; sends Marsin, 79; reinforces him, 80; his German strategy, 82; ignores logistics, 84–5; peace feelers, 100,

Index

- Louis XIV (cont.)
 111; deceived by Yssche fiasco, 110;
 authorises offensive, 119;
 inducements to JC, 125–6; 1708
 objectives, 152; and glory, 158;
 orders for relief of Lille, 166–8;
 rejects allied terms, 174; will fight to last, 176–7; peace-seeking tactics, 210–13; and peace terms, 214, 215
- Louvois, marquis, 17
- Luxemburg, 124, 125
- Lyme Regis, 25
- Lys, river 155
- Maas, river, JC's first campaign on,
 63–7
- Maastricht, 16, 151
- Macauley, T. B., 2–3, 229
- MacMahon, marshal, 176
- Macpherson, James, 2
- Malplaquet, battle, 87, 165, 172, 177–83, 197, 232
- Manley, Mrs, 194
- Marchiennes, 198
- Marsin, marshal: replaces Villars, 79;
 reinforced, 80–1; faces logistics crisis, 84; distrusts Maximilian, 85–6; not aggressive, 90; Blenheim role, 92–5, 231
- Maubeuge, 183
- Maurice of Nassau, 94
- Mary II, 19, 23, 29; William protects from JC's charm, 41; governs while William away, 43; and Munster invasion, 44; orders Anne to dismiss SC, 47; hostile to the Churchills, 48; orders JC's arrest, 48; death, 48
- Masham, Abigail, 13n; SC obsessed with, 208–10; brother favoured, 216; JC attempt to remove, 216–17;
 influence exaggerated by JC and SC, 224
- Maximilian, elector of Bavaria; allies with France, 77; short-term objectives, 79; allies negotiate with, 80; strengthened, 82; plans
 blocked, 84; French distrust, 85–6; negotiations continue, 88–9; at Blenheim, 92, 95, 231; rejects renewed offers, 97; JC's negotiations with (1706), 124–5;
 failure before Brussels, 169; peace
 approach through, 212
- Menen: taken, 127; threatened, 155–6
- Metz, as objective, 102
- Milan, 130, 213
- Mindelheim, 125, 133, 227
- Moerdijk, preliminaries, 215
- Monck, George, duke of Albemarle, 10
- Monmouth, duke of, rebellion, 25–8, 33
- Mons, 108, 124, 125, 127, 143; 1708
 objective, 153; siege of, 183–4
- Moscow, 141, 177
- Moselle, river: opening for offensive, 69, 74; project revived, 98–100;
 reasons for failure, 100–1;
 campaign, 101–4; 1708 feint, 151–2
- Namur, 75, 108, 124, 125, 153
- Nantes: Revocation of the Edict of, 37;
 and Karl XII, 140–1
- Naples, 111, 116, 130, 211, 213
- Napoleon, Emperor, 6, 7, 116–17, 183, 196, 230
- Natzmer, general, 161
- Ne Plus Ultra lines, 196–7
- Nieuport, 127; and Barrier, 132, 163
- Nijmegen, 63, 65; Treaty of, 214
- Nördlingen, 82
- Nottingham, earl of, 203; opposes continental campaigns, 205; attacks peace preliminaries, 220, 222
- Nuremburg, 82
- Occasional Conformity bills, 206, 220
- Oglethorpe, lady Eleanor, 13n, 19n, 26
- Oglethorpe, Sir Theophilus, 26
- Opdam, Jacob van W., 62, 66;
 defeated, 70–2
- Orange, prince Johan W. F., 180–1, 232

Index

- Orkney, earl of: role at Ramillies, 120–2; dissatisfied, 200
- Ormonde, second duke of: rival to JC, 58; fails before Cadiz, 67–8; JC denounces, 222
- Orrery, earl of, 200–1
- Ossian, 7
- Ostend, 19–20, 69–70, 165; taken, 126; and Barrier, 132; isolated, 155; supply link, 167
- Oudenarde: battle, 87, 135, 156–63, 231; town submits, 126; threatened, 155, 165
- Overkirk, Hendrik van Nassau, 56, 62, 68–9, 104, 107, 108
- Oxford, earl of, see Harley
- Oxford parliament, 23
- Paget, John, 3
- Palatine: elector, 69; troops late, 103; JC meets, 113
- Parnell, Arthur, 51
- Partition Treaties, 55, 211, 214
- Peter, Tsar, 140, 141, 234
- Peterborough, Charles Mordaunt, earl of, 56
- Peterborough, Henry Mordaunt, earl of, 19n, 24
- Petre, father Edward, 19n, 25, 31
- Philip V, king of Spain, 58, 116, 175, 186, 211, 213, 222
- Pitt, William, 203
- Portland, Hans Willem Bentinck, earl of, 47, 54, 212
- Portsmouth: Berwick governor of, 31–2; court-martial at, 32–3
- Portugal, alliance with, 74, 80, 129
- Prussia: troops from, 60, 74; king and allied command, 62; troops needed for Italy, 99; troops late, 103; bad relations with Dutch, 112; JC tries to reconcile, 113; holds back troops, 118; JC encourages, 124; and Sweden, 137; and a Triple Alliance, 141; to provide more soldiers, 142; JC weary with, 190
- Quebec, 196
- Ramillies, battle, 101, 120–3, 232
- Regensburg, 79
- Rijswijk, Treaty of, 58, 212, 214
- Rivers, earl, 192, 216, 218
- Robinson, John, at Altranstadt, 139–41
- Rochester, Laurence Hyde, earl of, 23, 24, 42, 53, 61; blue water strategy, 68; opposes continental campaigning, 205, 206
- Roormond, 66
- Rommel, field-marshal, 122
- Roosevelt, F. D., 5
- Rotterdam, 155
- Russell, lady Rachel, 13n
- Saarlouis, 102–3
- Sacheverell, Dr Henry, 7; JC absent from impeachment of, 217–18
- Sackville, Edward, 50–2
- St John, Henry, earl of Bolingbroke, 195, 200–1, 219; commits political suicide, 224
- Saint-Simon, duke of, 95
- St Valery-sur-Somme, 164
- St Venant, 188–9
- Sandwich, Edward Montagu, earl of, 10
- Saragossa, 186
- Savoy, Victor Amedeo, duke of, 80; JC concerned to rescue, 99, 115–17; presses Toulon attack, 145–6; JC disillusioned with, 190
- Scheldt, river, 155, 198
- Schellenberg, battle, 86–8, 231
- Schomberg, duke of, 35, 42
- Scipio Africanus, 7
- Sedgemoor, battle, 27
- Sedley, Catherine, 24
- Sète, landing at, 147
- Seymour, Sir Edward, 203–4, 205–6
- Shovell, Sir Cloudesley, 145–6
- Sicily, 111, 116, 211, 213
- Sidney, Henry, earl of Romney, 22, 30, 39
- Sierck, 103, 107
- Silesia, dispute over Protestants in, 137

Index

- Slangenburg, Frederik van B., 56, 62;
 rescues Opdam's army, 71; wrecks
 Yssche prospects, 108–9; dismissed, 112
- Smith, John, 206
- Somers, John, lord, 54, 210n; double-crosses JC, 216; dismissed, 218
- Somerset, Elizabeth, duchess of, 13
- Southesk, earl of, 192
- Southey, Robert, 6
- Spaar, general, 70–1
- Spain, no peace without, as war aim, 111, 129, 213, 222
- Spanish Netherlands, 19, 43, 57, 59, 67, 74, 111, 213; JC's assurances to governing bodies, 131; Dutch demands on, 131; governorship offered to JC, 132–6; under Philip, 154; under the Dutch, 155
- Stanhope, James, earl, personal diplomacy by, 139
- Stanislaus, puppet king of Poland, 142
- Stepney, George, 131
- Stevensweert, 66
- Strasbourg, 117
- Sutherland, Charles Spencer, third earl of, 190, 193; Whigs press his appointment, 207; fails to rally Whigs for JC, 217; gets little support, 218; is dismissed, 218
- Sunderland, Robert Spencer, second earl of, 23, 24
- Swabia, 82–3
- Sweden: potential threat from, 60–1,
 137; JC prevents from attacking Habsburgs, 137–42; Dutch suspicious of, 140
- Swift, Jonathan, 5, 227; criticism of JC, 193–4; his Conduct of the Allies and character assassination of JC, 220–1; blasts Whigs, 221–2
- Tacitus, 3
- Tack, 206
- Talbot, Peter, 19n
- Tallard, marshal: to attack Swabia, 82;
 shadows JC, 83; joins Marsin,
 89–90; errors at Blenheim, 91,
 92–3, 94, 96, 231
- Tangier, 14
- Thackeray, William M., 167
- Thionville, 76, 102
- Tirol, 79
- Tollemache, general Thomas, 51
- Torcy, marquis, negotiates for peace, 210–11, 214
- Toulon: attack, 144–6; Godolphin proposes new attack, 163–4, 190
- Tournai, 143, 168, 178; siege of, 169, 173, 175
- Tours, 5
- Townshend, viscount, concludes
 Barrier Treaty, 213
- Trarbach, isolated, 99
- Trier: JC takes, 99; as base, 102–3;
 evacuated, 104
- Turckheim, 17
- Turenne, marshal, 6, 11, 16, 26, 35;
 JC criticises, 16–17
- Turin, 129
- Tyrconnel, Frances, countess of, 13n, 19n, 24
- Tyrconnel, Richard Talbot, earl of,
 19n, 24
- Ulm, 77, 83, 97
- Valencia, 143
- Valenciennes, 125
- Vanbrugh, John, 223
- Vauban, marshal, 51, 119, 165
- Vendôme, marshal: Italian campaign, 129; holds own against JC, 143–4;
 shares 1708 command, 151;
 offensive plans, 153–5; at Oudenarde, 157–63, 232; attempts relief of Lille, 168–9
- Venice, 116
- Venlo, 66
- Vienna, 5, 77–8, 82; JC travels to, 112–13 138; clerical party at, 134
- Villars, marshal: joins Maximilian, 77;
 offensive plans, 77–8; stymied, 79;
 distrusts Maximilian, 79; victory at Hochstadt but recalled, 79; blocks
 JC on Moselle, 102–4; raids
 southern Germany, 117, 142;
 defensive strategy, 174; rallies

Cambridge University Press
 978-0-521-37593-1 - Marlborough
 J. R. Jones
 Index
More information

Index

- army, 175; Malplaquet objectives achieved, 177–83; wounded, 181; holds allies, 185–6, 188; in 1712 campaign, 196–8
- Villeroi, marshal: defeats great design, 71–2; shadows JC's march, 83; retreats before allies, 98; takes Huy, 104; defends lines, 104–7; outfaces JC on Yssche, 107–10; takes offensive, 118–20; defeated at Ramillies, 120–3
- Waes, pays de, 71
- Walcourt, battle, 43
- Waldeck, prince, 43
- Walpole, Sir Robert, 224, 227
- Warsaw, 141, 177
- Wavell, field-marshal, 45
- Webb, general John: defeats French, 167; dissatisfied, 200
- Weissenburg, 82
- Wellington, Arthur Wellesley, duke of, 2, 170, 230, 231, 232, 234
- Westphalia, Treaty of, 137
- Whig party; William turns to, 1701, 61; favour concentration on Spain (1708), 148–50; and Huguenots, 177; Channel advance would revive 187; gain control over ministers, 203; exploit Tack, 206–7; press for offices, 207–10; oust Harley, 208–9; election gains, 210, defeated, 1710, 216; split over life tenure for JC, 216–17; join attack on peace, 220; Swift assails, 221–2
- Wijnendale, battle, 167, 171, 200
- Willemstadt, 155
- William III, 8, 21, 36, 58, 75, 158, 200, 202, 205, 229; JC's first contacts with, 19–20; and before Revolution, 29–30; his Declaration, 37–8; and a 'free' Parliament, 39–40; names JC to reform army, 40; finds JC very assuming, 41; makes JC earl and lieutenant-general, 42; gives go-ahead to Munster invasion, 44; sceptical about JC's arrest, 48; reconciliation with, 53–4; accepts JC as continuator, 55–6, 58; defensive commitment, 59; turns to Whigs, 61; death, 61; and Rijswijk settlement, 212
- winter, arctic, of 1708–9, 172–3
- Withers, general Henry, 178
- Wolfe, general, 197
- Wratislaw, count: opposes colonial campaigns, 68; warns of German crisis, 76; negotiates with Maximilian, 89; relationship with JC cools, 137, 147
- Wurzburg, 142
- Ypres, 127, 163, 174–5
- Yssche, river: operations on, 107–10; English reactions to, 110–11
- Zeeland, 16