Preface	page ix
1 Introduction: Radical probabilism (1991)	1
2 Valuation and acceptance of scientific hypotheses (1956) Introduction. Betting and choosing. Rational decision: The Bayes criterion. Choice between hypotheses: Bayes' method. Choice between hypotheses: Minimax method. Conclusion. Postscript (1991): Carnap's voluntarism.	14
3 Probable knowledge (1968) A pragmatic analysis of belief. Probabilistic acts and observations. Belief: Reasons vs. causes. Appendix.	30
4 Probability and the art of judgment (1985) Probabilism. Dogmatism. Realism. Skepticism. "The guide of life." The geometry of choice. The wager. Acceptance. Approvability. Probabilistic methodology. Probability and frequency. The emergence of odds. Radical probabilism. Psychology and probability logic.	44
5 Bayesianism with a human face (1983) What's a Bayesian? Response to new evidence. Representation of belief. The problem of new explanation. Probability logic. Postscript (1991): New explanation revisited.	77
6 Alias Smith and Jones: The testimony of the senses (1987) The problem. Clear testimony. Conflicting clear testimony. Unclear testimony. Conflicting unclear testimony. Garber's counterexample.	108
7 Conditioning, kinematics, and exchangeability (1988) Preview. Conditioning. Diachronic coherence. Sufficiency and parochialism. Probability kinematics. Conditioning on future judgments. Superconditioning. Qualms about reflection. Successive updating. From epistemology to statistics. A realistic sample space. Exchangeability. Markov exchangeability. Partial exchangeability. Conclusion.	117

8 Preference among preferences (1974)	154
9 On interpersonal utility theory (1971) The new utility concept. The new utilitarianism. Interpersonal comparison of preferences. Concluding remarks.	170
10 Remarks on interpersonal utility theory (1974) An example of interpersonal comparison of preference intensities. But preference is a technical concept. Collation of preferences. Factual judgment or moral imputation?	182
11 Mises redux (1977) Bernoulli trials. Irregular finite sequences. Mixed Bayesianism. Nonfrequentist objectivism.	192
12 Statistical explanation vs. statistical inference (1969) Conclusion.	203
13 New foundations for Bayesian decision theory (1965)	213
14 Frameworks for preference (1974)	226
15 Axiomatizing the logic of decision (1978)	232
16 A note on the kinematics of preference (1977)	238
