

Contents

Sources and acknowledgments	page vii
Introduction	1
1 Servility and self-respect	4
2 Self-respect reconsidered	19
3 Autonomy and benevolent lies	25
4 The importance of autonomy	43
5 Symbolic protest and calculated silence	52
6 Moral purity and the lesser evil	67
7 Self-regarding suicide: a modified Kantian view	85
8 Ideals of human excellence and preserving natural environments	104
9 Weakness of will and character	118
10 Promises to oneself	138
11 Social snobbery and human dignity	155
12 Pains and projects: justifying to oneself	173
13 The message of affirmative action	189
Index	212