

Contents

Preface	page vii
Part I The idea of social investment	1
1 The meaning of social investment	1
The problem of power	3
The legal framework	8
The concept of social investment	10
2 The activity of social investment	16
Direct investors	17
Stock market investors	27
3 A theory of social investment	38
A sociological perspective	38
Creative conflict	42
The governance of corporations	49
The governance of industry	54
The role of government	62
The social sector	65
The overall picture	68
Part II Social criteria and research	71
4 Social investment in business corporations	71
Research on corporate goals	71
Experiments in the development of human resources	74
Consumers and communities	75
The social frontier	78
In conclusion	89
	v

vi	Contents
5	Social investment in industry: a new social policy	91
	Theories of industrial decline and revitalization	94
	Social policy: investment guidelines	101
	In summary	115
6	Social research on industrial policy	117
	Theoretical orientation	117
	Measures of economic and social performance	126
	Structures causing high performance: autonomy and accountability	128
	A theory of the public good	139
	In summary: the social economy	145
7	Investment in community development	147
	The problem: disappearance of the local community	148
	Toward a solution: autonomy, viability, and polity	154
	Part III Global social investment	185
8	International investment	185
	The two perspectives: social and economic	186
	A gap in economic expectations and social realities in the Third World	188
	Third World problems	190
	Sociological causes: the noneconomic factor	196
9	Social development in the Third World	200
	Global social investment	203
	Social policy	203
	New international investment systems: in retrospect	219
	Epilogue: Social investment as a self-correcting movement in the market system	222
	Notes	256
	Bibliography	287
	Name index	299
	Subject index	301