

Contents

| | | |
|-----------|---|----------------|
| | Acknowledgments | page ix |
| | Selected bibliography | xi |
| 1. | Introduction | 1 |
| | A general characterization of contractarianism | 2 |
| | The three-stage contractarian argument schema | 4 |
| | Realistic and idealistic constructionism | 22 |
| | The renaissance of Hobbesian contractarianism | 27 |
| | Overview: themes and theories | 36 |
| 2. | Hampton's justificatory strategy | 47 |
| | Overview of Hampton's justificatory strategy | 48 |
| | Conflict in the state of nature | 56 |
| | The inferential argument | 63 |
| | The reduction of morality to rationality | 73 |
| 3. | Hampton's internal solution: a dilemma | 104 |
| | The rational emergence of a sovereign in the state of nature: a dilemma | 107 |
| | The problem of selecting a sovereign | 109 |
| | The individual irrationality of empowering a sovereign: the first horn of the dilemma | 119 |
| | The individual irrationality of deposing a sovereign: the second horn of the dilemma | 174 |
| 4. | Kavka's hybrid contractarianism | 184 |
| | Overview of Kavka's theory | 188 |
| | Reconceiving the Hobbesian contractarian project | 204 |

Contents

| | |
|---|------------|
| Kavka's justificatory strategies | 215 |
| The realistic reconstruction account | 216 |
| The "no reasonable objection" account | 219 |
| The inheritance principle account | 225 |
| 5. Gauthier's moral contractarianism | 254 |
| From political to moral Hobbesian contractarianism | 255 |
| Gauthier's moral contractarianism | 258 |
| Fairness and stability | 273 |
| Broad and narrow compliance | 283 |
| Narrow compliance and predation | 289 |
| Displaced costs and rational compliance | 292 |
| Translucence and compliance | 294 |
| Narrow compliance and equal rationality | 296 |
| The arguments from rational and costless bargaining | 304 |
| 6. The limits of Hobbesian contractarianism | 310 |
| Index | 321 |