

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-42502-5 - The Death of Herod: An Essay in the Sociology of Religion

Richard Fenn

Table of Contents

More informationContents

Acknowledgments	page x
Introduction	i
1 Two methodological viewpoints: the priestly and the prophetic	33
2 Description, interpretation, and explanation: modes of analysis	55
3 Levels of observation and of analysis: making the right choices	81
4 “What is going on here?” The role of the observer and the beginnings of theory	110
5 The search for useful concepts: evil and charisma	132
6 The making of a theory	157
Epilogue	182
References	192
Author index	196
Subject index	198
Index of biblical citations	200