

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

INDEX

- Abgeordneten*. See Deputies
- Absolute, 51
- Accommodation, 4, 36–7
- Activism, 123
- Actuality: as translation of Wirklichkeit, 54–5; as source of valid norms, 59. See also Reality; Wirklichkeit
- Adaptive preference change, 89
- Adaptive preference formation, 89
- Administration of Justice (die Rechtspflege), 168, 194–7, 203, 206–9; and protection of legal rights, 194–5, 204; role of, in providing recognition, 196; pedagogical role of, 203
- Africa, 76, 170
- Alienation (Entfremdung): preliminary definition of, 1; felt experience of, 1, 2n, 252; as problem that pushes Hegel's project, 3; and problem of social evil, 20; and being at home in social world, 95; as form of being split, 95, 109; as evil, 119; defined, 119–20; as good, 120n; pure objective, 120; objective, 120, 246–7, 258; as appropriate response to social world, 120n; subjective, 121, 133, 134, 245–7; pure subjective, 121, 133; complete, 122; not purely subjective phenomenon, 122; as problem of human spirit, 135; and poverty, 245–58. See also Being at home in social world; Reconciliation; World of alienation
- Allgemeines*. See Universal
- Americans, 170; white and black, 19; African, 196n
- Ancients, 129, 212n
- Anerkennung*. See Recognition
- Antigone, 94, 152n, 176, 185
- Appearance, mere (bloße Erscheinung), 53
- Arato, Andrew, 190n
- Aristotle, 118n, 119, 153, 190
- Army. See Military
- Art, religion, and philosophy, 43, 159. See also Geist, absolute, defined
- Asia, 76
- Assembly: of estates (Ständeversammlung), 183, 217–18, 222–3, 226; Athenian, 220. See also Legislature
- Attitude (Gesinnung), 17; positivist view of, 37–9. See also Social world, relating to
- Audience, Hegel's, 20, 245–6; cause of alienation of, 22, 133–5

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

268

INDEX

- Auletta, Ken, 237n
 Autonomy, 113
 Avineri, Shlomo, 27n, 235n, 244n, 246n
- Basic life choices, 156
 Basic structure, 16
 Bearer of separate and particular interests. See Individuality
 Beauvoir, Simone de, 157n
Begriff: and Geist, 46; defined, 57; and individuality, 172; and reason, 172
 Being at home in social world (Beisichsein, Zuhausesein): as structural relation, 2n; and state of being reconciled, 95; as both objective and subjective matter, 95; defined, 95–6; and freedom, 111–19; and happiness, 117–19; possibility of, can be guaranteed by social world, 119; possibility of, without being reconciled, 131. See also Home, social world's being; Reconciliation
Beisichsein, 95, 114–16. See also Being at home in social world; Freedom; Home, social world's being
 Bellah, Robert, 103, 163n
 Berlin, Isaiah, 112n
Besonderes. See Particular
Besonderheit. See Particularity
 Beyond (Jenseits), 65, 88–9
Bildung, 155, 160
Bildungsprozeß: of Geist, 48; of human beings, 155
 Blacks, 19, 170, 196n
Bourgeois: and citoyen, 190, 212, 227; and taxes, 224
Bourgeoisie, 130n, 189, 246
 Braggart, 25
 Broadly Hegelian conception of modern social world, 253–4
 Brother who drives brother to emergency room, 178
 Bureaucracy, 215. See also Civil servants; Estate, universal
 Bureaucrats, 205. See also Civil servants
Bürgerliche Gesellschaft. See Civil society
 Burgher (Bürger), 187–8, 190n, 194; two senses of, 190n. See also Bourgeois; Bourgeoisie; Burgher; Civil society; Person, private
- Camus, Albert, 120n
 Can I be reconciled to social world?, 7, 251, 258
 Can we be reconciled to social world?, 258
 Capitalism, 120, 133, 189
 Carlsbad Decrees, 29
 Carnap, Rudolf, 38
 Central social institutions: defined, 1; participation in, and reconciliation, 103; as essential components of individuality, 107; actuality of, 132. See also Civil society; Family; State
 Central social roles: defined, 154; metaphysical essentiality of, 154–8; as core features of personality and character, 154–5; provide basic elements and constitute basic framework of lives modern people live, 156–7; cost of rejecting, 157, 163; reflective acceptability of, 158; nonmetaphysical essentiality of, 158–9; possibility of rejecting, 163, 165; reflectively identifying with, 166; absorbing, into one's subjectivity, 173, 253
 Charity, 243
 China, 130
 Christ, 85, 86, 96n
 Christianity: and teaching that Christ reconciled man to God, 85; medieval, 88; role of, in development of strong individuality, 151. See also Christ; God
 Citizens: ancient Athenian, 201, 219; ordinary modern, 201, 219–27; of republican Rome, 219
Citoyen. See Burgher
 City-state, medieval, 222
 Civil rights movement, 196n
 Civil servants, 130, 194; as agents of progress, 82; power of, 201; Hegel's faith in, 216. See also Bureaucrats; Estate, universal
 Civil society (bürgerliche Gesellschaft): absolute features of, 80; well-ordered, 93, 104; as problematic, 107; and social world's being home, 117; and individuality in strong sense, 165, 168, 172; and capitalism, 189; and rise of bourgeoisie, 189; Marx's conception of, 190; and market, 190; defined, 190–1; broader and narrower senses of term, 193n; as sphere of private activity, 202–5; as civic community, 202–5; as realm in which people can actualize themselves as individuals in

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

INDEX

269

- strong sense, 204; role of, in reconciliation, 204–5; as realm in which people can actualize themselves as members of society, 204–5; as external state, 206n; as often identified with private sphere, 207; as inherently pluralizing force, 210; as sphere for people who want to devote themselves to their separate and particular interests, 221; poverty as structural feature of, 240. See also Burgher; Central social institutions; Central social roles; Corporations; Estate; Market system; Person, private; Public authority; System of needs
- Class: postmodernists on, 39; conflict of, 94; middle, 130, 221; Hegel's conception of estates not conception of, 193
- Classical economics, 190, 192
- Cohen, G. A., 140n
- Cohen, Jean, 190n
- Cohen, Joshua, 201n
- Colonization, 244n
- Common ends: in family, 180; in civil society, 191–2, 200; of community in state, 209–12. See also Community
- Communitarian conception of social membership, 160–4
- Communitarian reading of Hegel, 4
- Communitarianism, Hegel's, 189
- Communitarians, Hegel's differences with, 161–4
- Community: in ancient world, 34–5; as spirit, 49; soulless, 101; shared life of, 189; common good of, 209, 211–12; politically organized, 213–14, 225–6, 234, 235; political, 213n. See also Social world; State
- Conceiving of oneself: as self, 148–50, 165–7; as bearer of separate and particular interests, 149; as possessor of individual rights, 149; as subject of conscience, 149–50; as participant in modern family, civil society, and modern state, 154; as family member, member of civil society, and citizen, 161–2; in way in which family members, members of civil society, and citizens do, 162, 170
- Concept. See Begriff
- Conscience: and right of subjective freedom, 35; ancient Greeks lacked, 138n, 152; subject of, 149–50; and ethical life of civil society, 165, 168; and ethical life of family and state, 165n
- Conservatism, 24–37, 53; and word 'Reconciliation', 86; and word Versöhnung, 87
- Conservatives on poverty, 239n
- Consolation (Tröst), 88. See also Reconciliation
- Constant, Benjamin, 128, 129, 220
- Constitution, 214
- Consultation hierarchy, 255
- Contemporaries, Hegel's, 3, 20, 21, 30, 129. See also Audience, Hegel's
- Corporations (die Korporationen), 197–203; and estate of trade and industry, 197; as voluntary associations, 198; contrasted with public authority, 198–200; welfare function of, 198–9; role of, in providing recognition, 200; political role of, 201; quasi-political role of, 201–2; pedagogical role of, 203–4. See also Civil society
- Creon, 94
- Crites, Stephen, 4n
- Criticism, 27–37; standards of, 28; possibility of philosophically informed, 28–9; criterion of, 54; internal, 58–9, 79, 81; role assigned to, by Hegel's normative outlook, 78–83; external, 80; radical, precluded, 80; Hegel's doubts about possibility of philosophically informed, 82; as kind that can be emphasized within Hegelian framework, 83; and reconciliation, 122–3
- Crown (die fürstliche Gewalt), 214–16
- Defects: of modern social world, 20, 22, 249–50, 258; nonactuality of, 78; causal power of, 78
- 'Demagogue persecutions,' 29
- Democracy: Greek, 152n, 210; and monarch, 215; Hegel's state not, 219; need for, 255
- Deputies (Abgeordneten), 201, 217–18. See also Assembly, of estates; Corporations
- Derrida, Jacques, 39
- Descartes, René, 9
- Disposition (Gesinnung). See Attitude; Social world, relating to

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

270

INDEX

- Division, 34; as evil, 39; as expression of otherness, 39; and reconciliation, 85; as characteristic of modernity, 94. See also Fragmentation; Splits
- Division of labor: sexual, 183–9; as fragmenting, 192; as coherent, 192; between citizens and civil servants, 221; between citizens and professional soldiers, 225; between homemakers and wage earners, 257
- Divorce, 228–30; as problematic feature of modern social world, 20; and human subjectivity, 241. See also Marriage
- Doppelsatz* (double dictum): cited, 24, 52; as posing problems for Hegel's project, 24–6; as meriting study, 52–3; use of terms 'rational' and 'actual' in, 53–6; conception of reality in, 56–8; conception of reason in, 58–63; epistemic and metaphysical reading of, 62–3; variant formulations of, 63–71; and world history, 66–7; methodological implications of view of reason and reality in, 71–4; basic normative outlook of, 74–83; and criticism, 78–83
- Double dictum. See Doppelsatz
- Einzelheit*. See Individuality
- Elster, Jon, 89n
- England, 130, 131
- Entfremdung*: Hegel's use of term, 1n. See also Alienation; Estrangement
- Epicureanism, 102
- Erscheinung, bloße*. See Appearance, mere
- Essence (Wesen): defined, 53; of family, 59; as rational tendency, 62; of modern social world, 76–7, 79, 82, 109–11, 123; of Greek world, 100; of modern personality, 110. See also Rational structure, underlying
- Estate (Stand): free choice of, not available in Plato's world, 100; of trade and industry (der Stand des Gewerbes), 130, 193–4; universal (der allgemeine Stand), 130, 193–4; agricultural, 193; of craftsmanship (der Handwerksstand), 193; of manufacturers (der Fabrikantenstand), 193; of commerce (der Handelsstand), 193; substantial (der substantielle Stand), 193–4; military (der Militärstand), 193n; free choice of, and possibility of reconciliation, 194
- Estrangement (Entfremdung): and reconciliation, 85; as product of reflection, 135; and divorce, 229. See also Alienation
- Ethical life (Sittlichkeit) of ancient world, 33–5, 69–70; Hegel rejects idea of return to, 34–5
- Eudaimonia*, 118n. See also Happiness
- Europe, 1, 72, 75–7, 131–2, 170; Central and Eastern, 191. See also States, advanced
- Europeans, male bourgeois, 130
- Evil, 19–21, 36–7, 235, 236, 249
- Executive (Regierungsgewalt), 216
- Existence (Existenz), 26, 53
- Existentialism, 120, 167n
- Existenz*. See Existence
- Experts, 220
- Fackenheim, Emil, 52n
- False consciousness, 31. See also Ideology
- Family: Huxtable, 60, 61; Karamazov, 60, 61; Walton, 60, 61; dysfunctional, 60; normal, 61; feminist proposals for elimination of, 80; absolute features of, 80; well-ordered, 93, 104; as institutional sphere in which one finds emotional acceptance of one's particularity, 101; Roman, 102, 177; as problematic, 107; as essential element of well-ordered social world, 117; as object of reconciliation, 132–3; and individuality in strong sense, 165, 168, 172; education sentimentale in, 169; nuclear, patriarchal, and bourgeois, 175–7; Greek, 175; medieval, 175; in relation to civil society, 175, 178; love in, 176, 181; radical communalism of, 177–80; property in, 177, 179–80; as reconciling individuality and social membership, 181–3; division of gender within, 183–9. See also Divorce; Marriage
- Fetter of some abstraction, 137–8
- Fichte, Johann Gottlieb, 147n
- Finitude, 77. See also Defects
- Foucault, Michel, 39

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

INDEX

271

- Fragmentation, 105–6. See also Division
- France, 130
- Frankfurt, Harry, 160n
- Frankfurt school, 120
- Freedom: as central interpretative concept, 4; subjective, 36, 111; negative, 112; absolute, 112–14; as coextensive with being at home in social world, 115, 119; as greatest good, 119; can be guaranteed by social world, 119; and possibility of rejecting social roles, 163; civic, 220. See also Beisichsein
- Freud, Sigmund, as resignation-consolation theorist, 87n
- Fulda, Hans Friedrich, 10n
- Fürstliche Gewalt*. See Crown
- Gans, Eduard, 245
- Gedankenexperiment*, 152n
- Geist*: refers to human individuals, human culture, and God, 4, 42; as central interpretative concept, 4; as mind, 43; as spirit, 43–4; self-interpreting, 44–7; and Volksgeist, 44, 49, 66; and Weltgeist, 44; essence of, 46; as subject and substance, 49; finite, defined, 49–51; absolute, defined, 50–2; objective, 51, 146; as God, 51–2; and Zeitgeist, 73; role of, in Hegel's account of metaphysical sense in which modern people are essentially social members, 158–9, 164; of particular nation, 170; of particular family, 170
- Gender: postmodernists on, 39; and Hegel's conception of women, 130, 184. See also Patriarchy; Society, genderless
- General life: as unavailable in Roman Empire, 101–2; defined, 218; in modern state, 218–27, 235. See also Universal, willing
- Germanic world (die germanische Welt). See World, Germanic
- Germany, Nazi, 18–19
- Gesinnung*. See Attitude; Social world, relating to
- Gesetzgebende Gewalt*. See Legislature
- Geuss, Raymond, 120n
- Glückseligkeit*, 117n. See also Happiness
- God: and Geist, 51–2; reconciliation with, 85, 96n, 138n
- Gourevitch, Victor, 90n
- Government, 205–6. See also State, strictly political
- Greeks, ancient, 32n, 33–4; happy, 34; as not individuals in strong sense, 151–3, 159; as lacking morality, 151n; as lacking conscience, 152; as individuals in minimal sense, 153; as enjoying immediate form of social membership, 159; and immediate identification, 166–7
- Guarantees: of happiness, 117–19; of freedom, 119; of possibility of being at home in social world, 119
- Guilds, 197
- Habermas, Jürgen, 139n, 155n
- Happiness: of ancient world, 34; and unity, 34; not guaranteed by fact that social world is home, 117–19; promoted by social world that is home, 117; subjective conception of, 117n; objective conception of, 117n, 118n; and luck, 118; as not precondition of reconciliation, 118–19; Aristotle on, 118n; as very great good, 118n
- Hardenberg, Karl August, 29, 79
- Haym, Rudolf, 25n, 27n, 52n, 55n
- Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich: social philosophy of, as project of reconciliation, 1, 5; one-sided readings of, 4; social philosophy of, as project in rational ethics, 5; and texts used, 10; and philosophy of right (Rechtsphilosophie), 10, 27; as not Pangloss of social world, 22; criticisms of Prussia by, 27, 79; social philosophy of, as source of Marxism, 32; and nostalgia, 34; and research program, 72–3; critical writing of, 123; on ancients and moderns, 129, 212, 235; and conception of women, 130, 184; and Eurocentricism, 132; as unequivocal friend of individuality in strong sense, 161; and conception of men, 184; and republicanism, 210; and hierarchical conception of politics, 255. WORKS: “The English Reform Bill,” 123; “The German Constitution,” 123; Lectures on the History of Philosophy, 69–70; Lectures on the Philosophy of World History, 30, 139;

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

272

INDEX

- Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich (cont.)
Phenomenology of Spirit, 1n, 33–4, 46;
Philosophy of Mind, 194n; Philosophy of Right, 10, 24–5, 27–30, 67–71, 74, 79, 80, 122, 123, 129, 131, 137–8, 158, 162, 165n, 185, 248, 253, 254, 255; Positivity of the Christian Religion, 32–3; Science of Logic, 4, 63; “The Wurttemberg Estates,” 123
- Hegelianism, left and right, 4, 27
- Heidegger, Martin, 120n
- Heiman, G., 197n
- Henrich, Dieter, 52n, 65n
- Historicism, 49, 73
- Hobbes, Thomas, 128, 141
- Holism, 98
- Home, social world's being: defined, 95–6; and being world that makes it possible for people to actualize themselves as individuals and social members, 102–7; and being world that is not other than its members, 109; and being good, 109–10; and being world of freedom, 116; and happiness, 117–19; and being split, 118; institutional articulation of gender as condition of, 186; communitarian aspects of, 187–9. See also Being at home in social world
- Homo oeconomicus*, 191n. See also Burgher; Person, private
- Hösle, Vittorio, 28n
- Human beings: as Geist, 47–52, 158–9; as vehicles of Geist, 47–52; as spiritual beings, 47; as social and cultural beings, 47–8; as vehicles of national communities of which they are part, 50; as political animals, 119, 153. See also Individuals
- Human spirit, self-understanding of: highest level of, available in given historical period, 66; correct, 66, 73, 75, 80, 132, 159; and world history, 66
- Humboldt, Wilhelm von, 188
- Hume, David, 7
- Husband who treats wife as property, 177
- Idea (Idee), 57, 58
- Ideal (Ideal): of reconciliation, 2, 252; true (wahrhaftes Ideal), 58, 69; of Plato, 69; gap between, and existing social arrangements, 71; of making it possible for people to actualize themselves as individuals and social members, 111; republican, 210; of genuinely egalitarian society, 257
- Idealism of Hegel's conception of reality, 58
- Ideals: vocabulary of social, 2; of wholeness, unity, and harmony, 39–41; of imagination (Ideale der Phantasie) defined, 59–60, 73, 80, 118; of reason (Ideale der Vernunft) defined, 59–60, 73, 80, 118
- Idee*. See Idea
- Identification, immediate and reflective, 166–7
- Ideologiekritik*, 120n. See also Ideology
- Ideology, 31–2, 120. See also Frankfurt school; Geuss, Raymond; Marx, Karl
- Illusion (Schein), 53
- Ilting, Karl-Heinz, 29n
- India, 130
- Individual social membership, 173
- Individual suffrage, 222–3. See also Voting
- Individualität*. See Individuality
- Individuality (Individualität, Einzelheit): atomic, defined, 145; and eccentricity and idiosyncrasy, 145, 151; and nonconformity, 145; full-fledged, 145; in minimal sense, 146–8; in strong sense, 148–53, 165, 168, 172, 186–9, 204; and conceiving of oneself as self, 148–50, 165–7; and conceiving of oneself as bearer of separate and particular interests, 149; and conceiving of oneself as possessor of individual rights, 149; and conceiving of oneself as subject of conscience, 149–50; and social membership, 165, 167–9; and reflective identification, 166–7; social dimension of, 169–72; in complete sense, 169; as unity of particular and universal, 171; and Begriff, 172; and individual social membership, 173; and recognition, 235
- Individuals: reconciled, 26; reflective, 129–31, 134, 137–8, 145, 246; philosophically reflective, 130–1, 135–6, 141–2; reflective, as locus of modern culture's subjectivity, 135; atomic, 140–1; in minimal sense,

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

INDEX

273

- 146; in strong sense, 148, 151, 186–9, 204; and individual social membership, 173; states as, 232–3. See also Burgher; Individuality
- Institutions. See Central social institutions; Civil society; Family; Social institutions; State
- Inwood, Michael, 53n, 68n
- Jenseits. See* Beyond
- Jews, Israeli, 19
- Jury duty, attitudes toward, 18
- Kagan, Shelly, 122n
- Kant, Immanuel, 6, 38, 128, 177, 190, 231
- Knox, T. M., 197n
- Korporationen. See* Corporations
- Kraut, Richard, 117n
- Lacey, W. K., 175n
- Lasch, Christopher, 176n
- Law: Roman, 177; and civil society, 194–5; international, 231n
- League of Peace, 231
- Lear, Jonathan, 147n
- Legislature (die gesetzgebende Gewalt), 216–18. See also Assembly, of estates; State
- Lewis, Oscar, 238n
- Liberals: laissez-faire, 192n; welfare, 207–8; on poverty, 239n
- Libertarians, 207–8
- Liberties: of moderns defined, 128; of ancients defined, 129; of moderns and ancients, 129n, 212n
- Lifestyle enclave, 103
- Locke, John, 128, 190
- Love: romantic, 101; in family, 176, 181
- Löwith, Karl, 4n, 52n
- Lumpenproletariat*, 237. See also Rabble
- Luther, Martin, 86
- Lyotard, Jean-François, 39. See also Postmodernism
- MacIntyre, Alasdair, 161n
- Man: who buys shoes for daughter, 162; who self-consciously identifies with role of father, 172
- Market system, 175, 190–2. See also Civil society; System of needs
- Marriage: and marital contract, 177–8; as voluntary association, 198; as affective unity, 229–30. See also Divorce; Family
- Marx, Karl, 6, 31, 94, 95n, 122n, 133–4, 137n, 138–40, 190, 246–7
- Marxism: source of, 32; and proposal for elimination of private ownership of means of production, 80
- Melancholy: role of, in attitude of reconciliation, 91–2; as response to poverty, 250
- Men, Hegel's conception of, 184
- Middle Ages, 138. See also World, medieval
- Middle class (Mittelstand). See Burgher; Estate, of trade and industry
- Military, 193n, 219, 225
- Mill, John Stuart, 150–1, 187
- Mind. See Geist
- Mittelstand* (middle class). See Burgher; Estate, of trade and industry
- Modern culture, 135
- Modernity, 94, 140
- Moderns, 128, 129n, 212n
- Monarch: as figure who dots “i,” 214; as locus of community subjectivity, 215. See also Crown
- Montesquieu, Charles-Louis de Secondat, Baron de, 44
- Nagel, Thomas, 157n, 243n
- Nations, less advanced, 76
- Neuhouser, Frederick, 120n, 147n
- Nietzsche, Friedrich, 94, 150–1
- Norms, 58–63
- North America, 176
- Nussbaum, Martha, 94n
- Öffentliche Meinung. See* Public opinion
- Okin, Susan, 186
- Orientation, 38–9
- Other, 39
- Otherness: postmodernist conception of, 39–41; and being at home in social world, 109; and freedom, 112–13
- Outlook (Gesinnung). See Attitude; Social world, relating to
- Palestinians, 19
- Particular (Besonderes): and civil society, 209; and state, 209–12

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

274

INDEX

- Particularity (Besonderheit): sacrifice of, in ancient world, 34; Plato's world provides no place for, 70; emotional or psychological, 181–2, 209n; social, 201; defined by separate and particular interests, 209n. See also Individuality; Private property; Welfare
- Patriarchy: traditional, 176–7; modern, 177. See also Family
- Patriotism (Patriotismus). See Political attitude
- Peace, 233–5
- Peasants, 131, 187–8
- Pelczynski, Z. A., 191n, 213n
- Peperzack, Adriaan, 10n
- Person (Person): whose basic relation to social world is problematic, 18; who thinks social world is wonderful place, 18; in ordinary nontechnical sense, 149; in technical sense, 149; formed by family members, 179–80; private, 190n, 202–3, 206n
- Philosophical anthropology, 42
- Philosophical reconstruction, 8–9
- Philosophical sociology, 42
- Philosophy: Hegel's social, 1–5; history of, 7, 22; as capable of grasping underlying rational structure of modern social world, 28; tasks of, 30–1, 81–3; as own time comprehended in thought, 73; provides reconciliation not consolation, 89
- Pippin, Robert, 5n, 128n
- Plamenatz, John Petrov, 101n
- Plant, Raymond, 5n, 9n, 10n
- Plato, 9, 231; Republic by, 67–71, 100–1
- Pöbel*. See Rabble
- Poet, real (wirklich), 54
- Police (Polizei). See Public authority
- Polis, Greek, 32, 68, 222. See also State
- Political attitude, 182, 212–13
- Political self-determination, 210–11, 231, 232, 235
- Polizei*: Hegel's use of term, 195n. See also Public authority
- Polyneices, 152n, 176
- Poor. See Poverty; Rabble
- Popper, Karl, 231n
- Positivism, 37–9
- Postmodernism, 39–41
- Poverty, 236–50; as problematic feature of modern social world, 20, 32; as systematic and structural feature of modern social world, 32, 240; defined as evil explained, 236; culture of, 238; naive, 238n; as structural feature of civil society, 240; and why obstacle it poses to project of reconciliation is more serious than obstacles posed by divorce and war, 240–1; possible solutions to, 242–4; as problem to be solved, 244; and significance for success of Hegel's project, 245; and alienation, 245–50; as extremely serious flaw, 249; does not undermine basic goodness of modern social world, 249; and resignation, 250; and melancholy, 250. See also Rabble
- Power: of civil servants, 201, 215, 255; princely, 214–16; significance of, for political participation, 255
- Princely power, 214–16
- Principle: of fidelity, 9; of intelligibility, 9; of particularity, 35; of subjective freedom, 35; of self-sufficient and inherently infinite personality of individual, 35n, 151; of individuality, 35n, 36; of necessary embodiment, 43; of indispensability of individual self-consciousness, 50; of internal criticism, 58–9; of self-subsistent particularity, 69; of modern state, 71; of subjectivity, 151n; of masculinity and femininity, 189; of town and country, 189; of substantiality and reflection, 189
- Private property: Plato's views on, 69, 100; and rights, 100; and family, 177, 179; and civil society, 195, 234–5
- Project of reconciliation: definition and status of term, 1; reasons for examining, 1–7; role of, in Hegel's social philosophy, 3, 8; as project of reconciling people to social world, 3n, 8; and project of reconciling Geist to world as whole and itself, 3n, 8; and project of resignation, 24; political, 139–40; philosophical, 139–40; not designed to show that modern social world is home for atomic individuals, 144; and showing central social roles to be reflectively acceptable, 158. See also Reconciliation

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

INDEX

275

- Proletariat, 130n
- Prussia, 27, 130, 131; and Prussian restoration, 27, 65; and Prussian reform era, 29, 65; as lacking constitutional monarchy, 79
- Public authority (die Polizei), 117, 168, 195–7, 203, 206–9; contrasted with administration of justice, 195, 196; role of, in providing recognition, 196; pedagogical role of, 203
- Public discussion, 218; as form of political participation, 225–6
- Public opinion (öffentliche Meinung), 218
- Purely individual misfortune, 118. See also Happiness
- Quietism, 4; reconciliation need not amount to, 123
- Rabble (Pöbel), 237–40; and rabble mentality (Pöbelhaftigkeit), 238–9. See also Poverty
- Race: as form of otherness, 39; plays no role in Hegel's conception of poverty, 239n
- Rational (vernünftig): Hegel's use of term, 53. See also Reason
- Rational insight, 31, 140
- Rational structure, underlying:
defined, 26; of modern social world, 28, 73, 80, 82, 123, 131; of thing, defined, 55; of world as whole, 57; and Begriff, 57. See also Essence
- Rawls, John, 6, 16, 97n, 129, 142, 154n, 160n, 188n, 189n, 191n, 202n, 255n
- Reality: spiritual, of human beings, 47; as translation of Wirklichkeit, 54–5; Hegel's conception of, 56–8; intrinsically normative or teleological dimension of, 56; and Platonism, 56–7; Hegel's conception of, as Janus-faced, 57; and idea (Idee), 57; and how idealistic, 58; and goodness, 75. See also Actuality; Wirklichkeit
- Reason (Vernunft): Hegel's conception of, 58–63; has essentially historical dimension, 73; as rose in cross of present, 89–91; and universal estate, 194
- Recognition (Anerkennung): legal, 196; and welfare, 196n, 197; as member of civil society, 196–7, 200
- Reconciliation (Versöhnung): need for, 1–2, 133–4; preliminary definition of, 2; ideal of, 2, 252; as process, 2, 85, 95; as state, 2, 85, 95; contrasted with resignation, 2n, 23–4, 86–7, 90–1; as ideal that pulls Hegel's project, 3; role of, in Hegel's social philosophy, 3, 8, 128; as important concern within tradition of modern political philosophy, 6, 127–8; as ordinarily used, 19, 85–7; reason for possibility of, 22, 137–40; as compatible with social world's containing problematic features, 22–4, 87–92; as compatible with reform, 29; as idea of unity with social world, 32; does not presuppose abandonment or suppression of individuality, 36; as compatible with criticism, 82–3; differences between English and German terms for, 85–7; traditional Christian conception of, 85, 96n; contrasted with submission, 86; 'with' and 'to', 86n; and affirmation, 87; attitude of, 87–92; contrasted with consolation (Trost), 87–9; contrasted with pure acceptance, 87; and melancholy, 91–2; as balancing act, 91–2; and conflict, 92–4; defined, 95–6; philosophical concept of, 95–119; and being at home in social world, 95–6; as both subjective and objective matter, 95; and subjective appropriation, 96; status of Hegel's philosophical concept of, 97–9; religious, 138n; philosophical project of, 139–40. See also Alienation; Beisichsein; Freedom; Home, social world's being; Unity
- Reform, 26–7; and reconciliation, 122–3
- Representation, political. See Assembly, of estates; Legislature
- Representatives. See Deputies
- Republic. See Plato
- Resignation: contrasted with reconciliation, 2n, 23–4, 86–7, 90–1; threat of, 23–4, 86, 89–92, 245, 250; project of, 24; as not aim of Hegel's project, 24; and poverty, 250
- Revolution, 4, 25; and reconciliation, 122–3; French, 139
- Ricardo, David, 190
- Riedel, Manfred, 190, 191n

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

276

INDEX

- Right of subject's particularity to find satisfaction and of subjective freedom, 35
- Rights: individual, 100, 149; and property, 100; familial, 178; legal, 194–5, 204; positive social, 197; abstract, 204
- Ritter, Joachim, 27n, 139n
- Rogers, Joel, 201n
- Roles: of family member, 16, 93, 107; of member of civil society, 16, 93, 107; of citizen, 16, 93, 107, 157. See also Central social roles
- Roman Empire, 101–2, 138
- Roman law and individuality in strong sense, 151
- Roman Republic, 32, 210
- Rose in cross of present, 89–91
- Rosenzweig, Franz, 27n, 52n
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 6, 128, 129, 220, 224n
- Sand, Karl Ludwig, 29
- Sandel, Michael, 142, 160n, 161n, 163n, 164n
- Sartre, Jean-Paul, 120n, 167n
- Say, Jean Baptiste, 190
- Schacht, Richard, 2n
- Schein* (illusion), 53
- Schiller, Friedrich, 94, 105–6; on division of labor, 105n, 106n, 192
- Schiller Condition, 105–6
- Schlegel, Friedrich, 108
- Self, 2, 165–8; defined, 148
- Self-reproduction: in family, 65; of social world and individual social membership, 142
- Self-transformation, 140–3
- Shklar, Judith, 152n
- Shopkeeper, 178
- Siep, Ludwig, 233n
- Sittliche Welt*. See Social world
- Sittlichkeit*. See Ethical life of ancient world; Polis; Social world, ancient
- Skepticism, 102
- Smith, Adam, 190, 192n
- Social institutions: as expression of Geist, 43; as framework into which people are born and within which they die, 154; role of, in will formation, 155–6. See also Central social institutions
- Social membership: full-fledged, 145, 159; modern, 153–9; immediate, 159–60; communitarian conception of, 159–64; and actualization of strong individuality, 165, 167–9; and immediate identification, 166–7; and reflective identification, 166–7, 173. See also Central social roles
- Social position (Stand), 101. See also Estate
- Social roles: seen as external, 140–1; abstracting from, 148, 162–3, 165–6. See also Central social roles; Roles
- Social world: modern, as object of reconciliation, 1, 131–3; modern, contrasted with ours, 1, 156; Hegel's, defined, 1, 22, 67–71, 74, 75, 156; Hegel's, in relation to ours, 3; defined, 16–17; relating to, 16–17, 23, 252; and social institutions, 16; and social roles, 16; modern, defined, 17; legitimacy of use of definite article in connection with, 17; ancient Greek, 17, 32n, 33–4, 45, 67, 104, 138n; medieval, 17; basic goodness of, 30, 250; Plato's, 67–71, 74, 75, 100–1; well-ordered, 93; Roman, 102–3; broadly Hegelian conception of modern, 253–4. See also Being at home in social world; Society
- Society: and social world, 16; genderless, 186; private, 202–5. See also Social world
- Socrates, 104, 135, 151n, 157n
- Solidarity (Polish labor union), 191
- Sophists, 151–2
- South America, 76
- Sovereignty, 214, 231, 232
- Speculation (Spekulation), 28. See also Reason; Understanding
- Spinoza, Benedictus, 113
- Spirit. See Geist; Human spirit
- Splits, 1; that divide self from social world and self from self, 2; and alienation, 95, 109; and freedom, 114–15; and social world's being home, 118. See also Division; Fragmentation
- Staat*. See State
- Stand*. See Estate; Social position
- State (Staat): Prussian, 30; anarchist proposals for elimination of, 80; absolute features of, 80; Plato's, 102; well-ordered, 104; and reason for being problematic, 107; and individuality in strong sense, 165, 168–9, 172; defined and contrasted

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

INDEX

277

- with civil society, 205–9; strictly political (der eigentlich politische Staat), 205–6, 213–14; external, 206n; end of, 209–10; significance of modern, 210; principle of modern, 212; subjective dimension of, 212; as sphere for people who want to devote themselves to community, 221; and Greek polis, Roman Republic, and medieval city-state, 222. See also Assembly of estates; Community, political; Community, politically organized; Crown; Executive; Legislature
- States: advanced, 72, 75, 81–2, 111; of classical antiquity, 210–11; as individuals, 232–3. See also Nations, less advanced
- Statesman, real (wirklich), 54
- Stein, Karl Freiherr von, 29, 79
- Steuart, James, 190
- Stoicism, 87, 102
- Stoics, 157
- Stone, Lawrence, 176n
- Strawson, Peter, 97n
- Striker, Gisela, 85n
- Subject: of consciousness, 43; of conscience, 149–50; moral, 167. See also Individuality; Individuals; Self
- Subjectivity: and Geist, 43–7; no room for, in Plato's ideal, 69–71, 100–1; and social roles, 107. See also Individuality
- Substance, 113
- Substantiality as community membership, 75
- System of needs (System der Bedürfnisse), 168, 191–4, 206n, 208–9
- Taxes, 219, 223–4
- Taylor, Charles, 5n, 9n, 43, 44n, 140n, 213n
- Theodicy (Theodizee): rational, 5; social, 19–21, 31, 37; as traditionally conceived, 20; status of term, 20n
- Theodizee*. See Theodicy
- Theory: need for, as sure sign something is wrong, 31; of reconciliation, 120; role of, in project of reconciliation, 135–40; need for, 137–40; traditional contract, 141. See also Philosophy, Hegel's social
- Theunissen, Michael, 139n
- Thing in itself, 57
- Thomas Aquinas, St., 9
- Thomson, Judith Jarvis, 149n
- Toews, J. E., 4n
- Trade unions, 197, 199n
- Tragedy, 94
- Trilling, Lionel, 148n
- Trost* (consolation), 88
- Underclass, 237, 238n, 239n. See also Rabble
- Understanding (Verstand), 194n. See also Civil society
- “Unhappy Consciousness,” 46
- United States, 23, 170, 176
- Unity: with social world, 32; of ancient Sittlichkeit, 32–4; happiness of, 34; of community members with social world, 36; that preserves difference, 36; and wholeness, 39–41; conflict embracing form of, 40; of essence and existence, 53; and reconciliation, 85; division, and reunification, pattern of, 85; of individuality and social membership, 105, 106; personal, 106; and Beisichsein, 114–15; and freedom, 114–15; of separate and particular interests and common good of community, 209–12; of political state, 217; of general life with bourgeois life, 226–7
- Universal (Allgemeines): as component of individuality, 171–2; defined, 209; and state, 209–12; willing, 226
- Universality (Allgemeinheit): of modern family, civil society, and state, 131; of arrangements of which modern people are members, 154
- Vernunft*. See Reason
- Versöhnung*, contrasted with ‘reconciliation,’ 85–6. See also Reconciliation
- Verstand*, 194n
- Voting: through corporation, 201; as form of political participation, 219, 222–3
- Walsh, W. H., 74n
- Walzer, Michael, 190n, 199n, 202n, 219n
- War, 230–6, 241; as problematic feature of modern social world, 20; citizens’ willingness to sacrifice own lives in, 170; and distinction between state and civil society, 234n

Cambridge University Press

0521429145 - Hegel's Social Philosophy: The Project of Reconciliation - Michael O. Hardimon

Index

More information

278

Weil, Eric, 27n
 Welfare: and public authority, 195, 197; and alienation, 197n, 199; and corporations, 198–9
 Westphal, Merold, 182n
 White, Stephen, 39n
 Wholeness: ideal of, 39; post-
 modernist critique of, 39–41;
 Schiller's conception of, 105–6; as unity of individuality and social membership, 106. See also Unity
 Will formation (Willensbildung),
 155
 Williams, Bernard, 94n, 136n
Willkür, 111
 Wilson, William Julius, 237n
Wirklichkeit: contrasted with existence,
 26, 53; defined, 53; 'actuality' and
 'reality' as translations of, 54–5. See also Actuality; Reality
 Wish to be at home and that social world be home, 95
 Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 7

INDEX

Woman who despises family, 19
 Women: Hegel's conception of, 130, 184; reason for ability of, to be at home, 131; as persons, 177; as free and equal beings, 185; as excluded from civil society, 186–7
 Wood, Allen, 5, 9n, 15n, 27n, 29n,
 52n, 63n, 65n, 114n, 117n, 185n,
 195n, 197n, 245n, 250n
 Work ethic, 239
 Workers, 131. See also Proletariat
 World: of alienation, 1, 101–2; as whole, 3n, 8, 57; Roman, 103, 110;
 ancient Greek, 110; of freedom,
 115, 116; Germanic (germanische),
 131; medieval, 139; of work and system of needs, 168, 191–4, 206,
 208–9. See also Social world
 World history (Weltgeschichte), 44, 46,
 66–7, 71, 138
Zuhausesein. See Being at home in social world