

Index

References to authors' names are selective.

- abstraction 254
- acoustic signals, of grasshopper 52, 54
- adaptation
  - environmental, mating signal systems 67–9
  - and intelligence 226–7
- adaptedness, and intelligence 224
- additive variance 19
- aggregation (social) defined 278
- aggression
  - male–female intolerance 296
  - spiders 36–7
  - in sticklebacks 23–5
- alarm signals, and kin selection 203–4
- Alexander, R. D. 56
- alleles, and sexual reproduction 152–3
- allochronic isolation 50, 51
- allometric scaling 260
- allopatric divergence 62–3
- Altmann, J. 204
- altruism 6, 32, 282
  - and kin selection 203–4
  - reciprocal 216–17
  - without kinship 216–22
  - see also* nepotism
- CAMP, and learning 12
- anagenesis 43
- analogy 3
- androgens, and aggression levels 25
- anisogamy 164–70
  - evolution 165–6
- aphids, reproduction 153
- Arnold, S. J. 35–6
- asexual reproduction 150, 151, 152, 163
  - costs 153
  - extinction 154
  - harmful mutation 152–153
  - mode change 163–4
  - sexual adaptations 163–4
- association
  - female 294
  - levels 277–81
  - polyspecific 269
  - ungulates 296
- associative learning see under learning
- attention channelling 230
- attenuation, mating signals 67
- Atz, J. W. 80
- autoregression 100–103
- avoidance, and stimulus enhancement 235
- babies' expressions, as contagion 236
- baboons, and biased sex ratio 173
- Bakker, T. C. M. 23–5
- Baldwin effect 4
- Barnton, N. H. 60
- barriers to gene exchange
  - extrinsic 44, 77
  - intrinsic 44
- Bateson, P. P. G. 208
- behaviour
  - comparative methods of study 82–3
  - convergence 3
  - evolution 81–2
  - functional approach 106
  - genetic basis 4
  - and kin selection 200–4
  - novel, and imitation 237–8
  - phylogenetic approaches 90
    - categorical traits 90–7
    - continuous traits 97–103
    - method selection 103–4
  - phylogenetically constrained 81
  - released 236
  - role in speciation 45–7
  - 'the same' recognition 236
  - and sex differences 167–8
  - threshold models 19
  - see also* phylogeny

Index

339

- behaviour genetics
 early studies 7
 human 7–8
- behaviour/evolution interaction 3–4
- behavioural adaptation 34, 37–8
 garter snake feeding 35–6
 milkweed bug flight 34–5
 spider territorial behaviour 36–7
- behavioural contagion 236
- behavioural costs 29; see also mate access; mating costs
- behavioural evolution, problems 1–2
- behavioural mutations see mutation, behavioural
- behavioural strategy, defined 106
- behavioural systematics 81–2, 90–1, 104
- behaviourism, and intelligence 227
- biparental care 136, 138, 169
- birds
 cognitive mapping by 259
 as helpers 200–2
- blocking (conditioning) 231
- body size, and fecundity 179, 180
- body size/brain size comparisons 261–2
- bourgeois model 127–9
- brain enlargement, relative 260
- brain records, social effects 234
- brain size, and sociality 287
- brain size comparison 260–4
- brain size/body size comparisons 261–2
- brain volume calculation 260–1
- Brower, L. P. 53
- Burke, T. 146, 147
- Bush, G. 50
- Butlin, R. K. 62
- butterfly
 courtship 52, 53
 oviposition preference 40–1
- Cade, W. 21
- calling-bout length, crickets 21
- Canidae, phylogenetic tree 94
- carnivores
 olfactory bulb size study 100–103
 social states 292–3
- Carson, H. L. 74
- characteristics see systematic zoology
- Charnov, E. L. 174, 175
- Cheverud, J. M. 100, 101
- chimpanzee, impersonation by 246
- cicadas, temporal isolation 51
- cladistics 88, 89
- cladogenesis see speciation
- classification see systematic zoology
- clone 150
- co-adaptation, of gene complexes 37–8
- cognitive maps 256
- companions 257–9
- comparative method of study 223
- competition
 avoidance, and kin recognition 204
 intrasexual, as group cost 275 male–male 296
 sex-related 183–4
see also Red Queen hypothesis; sib-competition model
- computers, and data handling 83
- conditioning 230–1 classical 227–8
 instrumental 230, 231
 conflict resolution 285–6
- conspecifics, stimulus enhancement by 234–5
- constraint assumption 111
 and optimality models 113
- contagion 236
- contagious behaviour 236–7; see also response facilitation
- contests 110
- continuous strategies 110
- contrasts (Felsenstein) 97–100, 103
- convergence of behaviour 3
- costs
 asexual reproduction 150, 151, 152, 163
 behavioural 29
 grouping 273–6, 276–7
 mating, of sticklebacks 26–7 and patch models 117
 sexual behaviour 151, 153, 181–2, 275, 283, 287–8
 thermoregulation 268
see also under disease transmission; foraging; helpers; information exchange; mate access; predation; sociality
- courtship 213
- Coyne, J. A. 63, 64
- Crews, D. 175, 176
- crickets
 calling-bout length 21
 Hawaiian 67, 68
 parasitism of 69
- cross-fostering studies 15
- cross-matings, and reproductive character displacement 65, 67
- crosses, interspecific 38
- currency assumption 109, 111, 119
- damselfly larvae, prey model 113, 114
- data
 categorical 82

- data (continued)
 comparative, directionality 93, 95–9 comparative examination of 82–3 continuous 82, 83
- data independence
 autoregression 100–103
 contrast method 97–100, 103
- Dauwalder, B. 12–13
- Davies, N. B. 139, 140, 143, 144, 146, 147
- Davis, R. L. 12–13
- Dawkins, R. 195, 212; quoted 194
- Dawson, W. D. 38–40
- deceit 251, 263–4
- decision assumptions 111
- defaecation in nematodes, genetic control 10–12
- degradation, mating signals 67
- desertion 138–9
- despotic social systems 282
- diallel cross 22
- diet, and biased sex ratio 172–3
 see also foraging; hunting
- diet model see prey model
- Dingle, H. 34–5
- directional dominance 20
- directionality, and data independence 93, 95–6
- discontinuous variation see variation, discontinuous
- discrete strategies 110
- disease transmission
 cost/benefit 268
 group cost 275–6
- displays 2–3
- DNA fingerprinting 163, 213–16
- Dobzhansky, T. 59, 60
- dolphin, imitation by 246, 247
- dominance 285–6
 directional 20
- Dow, M. M. 100
- dragonfly mating strategies 131–2
- Drosophila*
 Hawaiian variants 74, 75, 76
 larval foraging 17–18
 mating signal differences 51–2
 and reinforcement 63–5
 territoriality 26–7
- Dugatkin, L. A. 220
- dunce locus (Drosophila) 12, 13
- dung flies, patch model of behaviour 117, 118
- dunnock
 mating combinations 146–9
 sex conflict in 189
- dynamic programming models 119
- ecotype adaptation, and inbreeding 162
- Egeland, J. A. 33
- egg-dumping 212, 214–15
- egg-trading 178
- eggs, 166, 166–7
- elephant seals 187
 sex ratio 170–2
- Emerson, A. E. 83–4
- Emlen, S. T. 201
- empathy 252–3
- Endler, J. A. 58, 69
- environmental adaptation, mating signal systems 67–9
- environmental complexity, and intelligence 256–7, 261
- environments, saturated, and sexual reproduction 157
- ESS (evolutionarily stable strategy) 5, 110, 119–25
 alternative 138
 and altruism 195
 for co-operation 219–20
 conditional 129
 dragonfly mating 131–2
 dragonfly 131–2
 Hawk–Dove model 120–4
 parental care game 137–8
 payoff determination 129–32
 persistence time 126–7
 retaliator model 124–5
 salmon 130–2
 standard condition 122
 war of attrition 125–7
- ESS mobility game 135
- evolution
 convergent 87–8
 and sexual reproduction 153
- evolution model, and statistical methodology 103
- evolution rate 105
- evolutionary change and data independence 93, 96
 and sex 5
- evolutionary independence 91, 93
- evolutionarily stable strategy see ESS
- evolutionary systematics 87–8
- exons 14
- Fairbairn, D. J. 27–8
- familiarity, and kin discrimination 210–11
- fear, spiders 36–7
- Felsenstein, J., on contrasts 97–9
- female associations 294
 and co-operative infant rearing 295
 as male social option constraint 294–5
- female distributions 288
- female kinship social state
 primates 291
 ungulates 292
- female non-kin state 294

Index

341

- female-defence polygyny 144, 186–7
 fighting behaviour see ritual fighting behaviour; game theory fighting strategy, salmon 130–1 fireflies, sexual signals 46 (Fig. 3.1)
 first male advantage 212
 Fisher, R. A. 71–3, 171
 fitness 107–9
   defined 107
   frequency (in)dependent 109–10 inclusive 199
   population 108
   relative 107
 Foley, R. A. 296
 food acquisition, and intelligence 256–7 as social option constraint 293–5 categorisation 293
   washing, and imitation 232–3
   see also foraging; hunting
 foraging and association levels 278–9
   cost/benefit 268
   group costs 274–5
   grouping benefits 270
 fossil record 2
   and behavioural evolution 80, 82
 founder effect 74
 founder-flush cycles 74–6 frogs calls of 61–2
   habitat-dependent mating signals 69
   song preferences 71, 72 fruit flies
   Rhagoletis 49–50, 51
   see also Drosophila Frumhoff, P. C., on kin recognition 208 game
   asymmetric 127–9
   mobility 135
   prisoner's dilemma 219–20
   see also model; parental care game theory 5, 110; see also ESS Garcia, J. 229–30
 garter snake feeding 35–6
 gender 166–7
 gender/sex distinguished 167 gene complexes, co-adapted 37–8
 gene exchange
   barriers 44
   and habitat 47, 49–51
   gene products, and mutation 9 gene transmission methods 199
 genealogical relationships see
   cladistics
 generalization 254
 genes and behaviour 4 candidate 30
   'green beard' 212
   influencing quantitative traits see under traits
   marker 30
 genetic analysis, discontinuous variation
   see under variation genetic coupling 56–8 genetic drift 71–2
 genetic models 161
 genetic systems of kin discrimination 211–12
 genetic variance 19 genetics and attention channelling 230 and kin selection theory 195
   and learning 225
   of reproduction 151–3 see also behaviour genetics genotype fitness 10
 genotype–environment interactions 22–3 goal, defined 149*n*1 gorillas, program-level imitation by 247–8
 Grafen, A., on kin recognition 208–9 grasshopper
   acoustic sexual signals 48 (Fig. 3.1) calling songs 52, 54
   and hybrid zones 65, 66
   mating signals 52, 54
 great apes, and theory of mind 251–3
 'green beard' genes 212
 gregarious association 278–9
 Gross, M. R. 129
 grouping
   benefits 269–73, 276–7
   costs 273–6, 276–7
   see also sociality guppies
   habitat-dependent mating signals 69
   mating period restriction 51 habitat
   and gene exchange 47, 49–51
   and mating signal systems 67–9
   and reproductive mode 157–8 Hamilton, W. D. 5, 194, 269
   altruism 200
 harem 143, 187
 harem defence polygyny 133
 Harvey, P. H. 99
   on evolutionary change duration 96
 Hawk–Dove model 120–4
   and ownership 127
 Hay, D. A. 19
 Hedrick, A. V. 21

- helpers 287
 access, cost/benefit 268 access, grouping benefits 272 birds as 200–2
 in parental care 286
 heritability 20
 calling-bout length 21
 hermaphrodites 160, 177–8
 self-fertilization 178
 serial 178–9, 181
 heterogeneity spatial 158
 temporal 157–8
 Hewitt, G. M. 60
 hierarchy see dominance hippocampus size, and cognitive mapping 259
 histolysis 27
 Hoekstra, R. F. 165
 Hoffmann, A. A. 26–7 homology 3
 Hood, L. 13–15
 Horn, H. S. 287
 host preferences, divergent 47–51 Houston, A. 139, 140
 hunting
 co-operation during 257
 and tool use 257
 hybrid zone 60, 65, 77
 hybrids
 and mating signal confusion 45–6
 and reinforcement 64–5
 and secondary sexual traits 72 see also reinforcement model of speciation
- imitation 228–9, 239–40
 actions 240–1 animal, doubts about 232–3 criteria for 237–8
 by dolphin 246, 247
 and impersonation 245 learning 265*n*1
 mimic 233
 perspective taking 241–2
 program-level 242–5 sounds 240
see also under social learning impersonation 242, 243, 246, 265*n*1
 and imitation 245
 inbreeding 32, 160–3, 205–8, 294
 advantageous 162
 consequences 161
 mole rats 200
 termites 200
 inbreeding avoidance
 differential dispersal 205
 kin recognition 205
 inbreeding depression 161, 205 inclusive fitness 199 independence, statistical categorical traits 91, 93
 examples 94–6
 continuous traits 97–99
 examples 99–100
 independent contrast method 97–100, 103
 infanticide 276, 295
 information exchange
 cost/benefit 268
 grouping benefits 270, 273
 insight 229, 250
 abstraction and generalization 254
 mechanical comprehension 250
 planning 253–4
 theory of mind 251–3
see also mental states intelligence adaptedness 224
 meaning 224–6
 purpose 226–7
 as specialization 226–7
see also insight; learning intelligence, evolution 223, 255–64 brain size 259–64
 environmental complexity 256–7, 261 ‘free computing space’ 260–1, 263–4 neocortex size 263–4
 social companions 257–9 theories for 256–9
 tested 259–64
 intent 251
 interactions, individual see relationships;
 social systems
 intersexual selection 134, 182–3 interspecific crosses 38
 intrasexual selection 182–3 investment costs (patch model) 117 isolation
 allochronic 50, 51
 and gene exchange 47–51
 in species definition 43
 temporal 51
 Jeffreys, A. J. 213
 Jones, J. S. 30–1
 K-strategists 287
 Kaneshiro, K. Y. 76 kin groups, tadpoles 208
 kin recognition 204–12
 discrimination 207–12 context-based 209
 familiarity based 210 genetic systems 211–12
 phenotype matching 210 function 204–8
 inbreeding 161–2
 MHC 32–3

- kin selection
  - alarm signals 203–4
  - behaviour 200–4
  - bird helpers 200–2
  - relatedness measures 212–16
  - social insects 200
  - weaning 202–3
  - see also* kin recognition
- kin selection theory 5–6, 194–9
- kin states, and state shifts 297
- kinship, and social behaviour 282
- Köhler, W. 229, 250
- Krebs, J. R. 111, 112, 113, 116
- Lake, C. E. 38–40
- larval foraging, Drosophila 17–18
- Le Boeuf, B. J. 170, 187
- learning 224–6
  - associative 227–8
  - associative, variable 229–32
  - defined (Thorpe) 3
  - and genetics 225
  - modelled by priming 239
  - in optimality models 119
- learning in Drosophila, genetic control 12–13
- Lee, P. C. 296
- lek 133, 144–5, 187, 270–1
- leopard gecko, sex ratio 175–6
- Leutenegger, W. 100
- Lewis, W. M. 151
- lily-trotter, polyandrous 188–9
- lizards, sexual signals and habitat 47 (Fig. 3.1)
- Lorenz, K. 2, 81, 84
- Lynch, C. B. 21–3, 38
- Maddison, W. P., on data directionality 95
- major histocompatibility complex (MHC) 32–3
  - and kin discrimination 211–12
  - and kin recognition 32–3
- male distributions 288
- male kin state, rarity 300
- male–male competition 183–4
- male–male intolerance 296
- male/female relationship, cellular level 166
- manakins, phylogenetic tree 92
- manic depression 33
- marine isopod, mating strategies 16–17
- mate access
  - cost/benefit 268
  - group costs 275
  - grouping benefits 270–1
- mate choice
  - and kin recognition 205
  - male sex characteristics 181–2, 183
- mate-removal experiments 190–2
- mate searching 134–5
  - and polygyny threshold model 144
- mating see also offspring
  - positive assortative 162–3
- mating behaviour evolution, founder-flush cycles 76
- mating costs, stickleback 26–7
- mating patterns 132–41
  - classified 133
  - mate searching 134–5
  - parental care 135–41
  - polygamous 141–5
    - lek 144–5
    - polygyny threshold 142–4
    - and sex conflict 148
- mating signal systems 51–6
  - co-evolution 58
  - divergence 58–9
    - environmental adaptation 67–9
    - population processes 74–6
    - predation/parasitism 69–71
    - reinforcement 59–65
    - reproductive character displacement 62, 65–7
  - sexual selection 71–3
    - in sympatry 61–2
  - interference 65–7
  - new variants 56–8
  - parasites 58–9, 69–71
  - predators 58–9
  - requirements for divergence 52
- mating signals 45–8
  - receptors, predator-sensitive 70
  - species identification by 45–7
- mating strategies
  - alternative 129–3, 184
  - marine isopod 16–17
  - see also* competition, sex-related
- mating systems
  - classification 5
  - combinations, dunnocks 146–9
  - theory, tests 189–92
  - see also* mating patterns
- Maynard Smith, J. 5, 36–7, 107, 108, 110, 120, 125, 136, 151, 154, 286
- Mayr, E. 43, 77
- meadow grasshopper 65, 66
- mechanical comprehension 229, 250
- meiosis 151
- mental states
  - imitation 241–2
  - impersonation 245–6
  - program-level imitation 243, 247–9
  - see also* insight
- MHC see major histocompatibility complex
- mice
  - behavioural mutations 13–14
  - myelin-deficiency 13–14

- mice (continued)
 nest-building 21–3 shivers 13
 migration milkweed bug 34–5
 sand crickets 27–8
 Milinski, M. 220, 221
 milkweed bug flight behaviour 34–5 mimic imitation 233
 mind, theory of 251–3 minisatellite sequences 214
 mobility game 135 model bourgeois 127–9
 dynamic programming 119
 genetic 161
 Hawk–Dove 120–4, 128
 mobility 135
 of learning 239
 optimality 113, 119
 parental care 135–41
 patch 115–19
 polygyny threshold 142–4, 190
 prey 111–14
 priming 239
 Red Queen 157–8
 reinforcement 59–65
 retaliator 124–5
 of sex ratio manipulation 174–5 sib-competition 154–7
 state variable 119
 threshold 19
 tit-for-tat 282
 war of attrition 125–7
see also games Möller, A. P. 99
 monogamy 133, 185–6, 286
 dunnocks 147
 mating system theory test 190–2
 and state shifts 297
 morphs, marine isopod 16–17
 moth, ermine, host plant preferences 47, 49 mouse, burrowing behaviour 38–40 mutation, behavioural 8, 9
 defaecation in nematodes 10–12 learning in Drosophila 12–13
 shivering in mice 13–15
 mutations, and gene products 9
 mutualism 281–2
 myelin deficiency 13–14
 natural selection 106
 history 20
 nematodes, and behavioural genetic studies 10–12 neo-Darwinism 5
 neocortex size, and intelligence 263–4 nepotism, and kin recognition 204 nest-building in mice 21–3 neurogenetics 8 novel behaviour, and imitation 237–8 offspring survival 139–40
 olfactory bulb size study 100–103
 olfactory cues to recognition 32
 optimality models criticised 119 extended 119
 tested 113
 optimality theory 109
 and foraging behaviour 111
 patch model 114–19
 prey model 111–14
 Orians, G. H. 142, 143
 Orr, H. A. 63, 64
 oryx, state shifts 301
 Otte, D. 67, 68
 outbreeding 160, 162–3 deleterious effects 208
 optimum 162
see also inbreeding avoidance outbreeding depression 162
 oviposition behaviour, and speciation 49
 oviposition preference, in butterflies 40–1 Pagel, M. D. 96, 99
 parasites
 and mating signal systems 58–9, 69–71
 and sexual reproduction 158–9
 parental care 135–41, 168–9
 biparental 136, 138, 169
 birds 185–6
 desertion 138–9
 Houston and Davies model 140–1
 in polyandry 188
 in polygyny 133, 142 producing biased sex ratio 173–4 and synchrony 169
 uniparental 136, 138
 parental effort, and offspring survival 139–40 parental investment 132–4 and sociality 286–7 Parker, G. A. 117, 127, 135, 165 parthenogenesis 151, 159, 160, 163
 passerine birds, learning by 224–5, 230
 patch model 115–19
 paternity
 first-male 212
 last-male 169
 in polyandry 189
 Paterson, H. E. H. 77
 pathogens, and sexual reproduction 158–9
 Pavlov co-operation strategy 221–2

Index

345

- payoff matrix
   Hawk–Dove model 121, 122, 123, 128
   parental care game 137
   prisoner's dilemma 219
 pedigree diagrams 196, 198
 period locus 57
 phenetic taxonomy 88, 89
 phenotype, and relatedness measures 213 phenotype matching, and kin discrimination 210
 phenotypic variance 19–20
 pheromones 49, 52
 phyletics 87–8
 phylogenetic
   analysis, behaviour for 90–1
   constraints 104
   correlation, and autoregression 103
   inertia 81
   systematics 88, 89
   tree 85
     Canidae 94
     manakins 92
 phylogeny
   defined 80
   early studies 83–6
   and state shifts 297
   see also systematic zoology
 planning 253–4
 planthopper mating signals 54, 55
 plants, reproduction 157 play 250
 playing the field 110
 polyandry 133, 142, 185, 188–9
   dunnocks 147
 polyandry state 300, 301
 polyembryony 160
 polygamy 141–5, 185
 polygynandry 147–8
 polygyny 133, 142–5, 185
   dunnocks 147
   female-defence 186–7
   mating system theory test 190
   resource-based 186
 polygyny threshold model 142–4, 190
 polyspecific associations 269 population fitness 108 predation
   cost/benefit 268
   group costs 273–4
   and mating signal systems 69–71
   protection 269
 predators
   and mating period restriction 51
   and mating signal systems 58–9
 prey model 111–14
 prey profitability 111–12
 Price, G. 5, 110, 120, 125
 primates
   and evolution of intelligence 255 imitation by 240, 241
   infant-rearing helpers 272
   perspective taking 241–2
   social states 289–92
 priming, as learning model 239
 Proctor, H. C. 70, 71
 program-level imitation 247–9
 prostitution polyandry 133
 protandrous species 179–80
 protogynous species 179–81
 psychiatric disorders 33
 pulse repetition frequency (PRF) 54, 55 pupation site, Drosophila 17
 Queen butterfly courtship 52, 53
 $\gamma$  see relatedness coefficient Readhead, C. 13–15
 reciprocal altruism 216–17
 recognition and olfactory cues 32
   urine odour 211–12
   and social stability 281
   species identification by 77–8
 recombination 151, 153
 Red Queen hypothesis 157–8 reinforcement model of speciation 59, 59–65 evidence 61–5
 relatedness coefficient ( $\gamma$ ) 195–9 asymmetrical 197
 relatedness measures 212–16
 relationships 284 defining social structure 284, 285
   reciprocal 217
 reproduction
   costs 287–8
   mode change 163–4
   see also asexual reproduction; sexual reproduction reproductive character displacement 62, 65–7
 reproductive costs 151, 153 reproductive success and body size 179, 180
   cost/benefit 283
   and fitness 107
 reproductive synchrony 169 resource defence polyandry 133 resource defence polygyny 133, 142–4 resource-based polygyny 186 resource-emigration thresholds 117
 response facilitation 235–8
 retaliator model 124–5
 Ridley, M., on transitions 94–5
 Riechert, S. E. 36–7

- ritual fighting behaviour
  - Hawk–Dove model 120–4
  - retaliator model 124–5
- roaming female 134–5
- roaming male 134–5
- Roff, D. A. 27–8
- Roper, T. J. 230, 231
- rovers 17–18
- rule-learning tasks 254
- Ryan, M. J. 70–1

- salmon mating strategies 129–31
- sand crickets, migration 27–8
- scaling, allometric 260
- Schumpert, S. S. 38–40
- scrambles 110
- screening 9
  - nematode 10
- search costs (patch model) 117
- selection
  - for divergence 59–67
  - at group level 194
  - intersexual 134
  - in kin selection theory 194–9
  - opposing new variants 56
  - sexual 71–3, 151–4, 181–2
  - stabilizing, and genetic variance 34
- selection intensity, male sex-related characteristics 183
- self-fertilization 178
- selfish herd principle (Hamilton) 269
- sensory exploitation 70–1
- sex change 179–81
- sex distributions 288
- sex/gender distinguished 167
- sex ratio 170–5
  - biased 172–3
  - environmentally determined 175–7
  - manipulation 174–5
  - and sex change 179–81
- sex-related characteristics, male 181–2, 183
- sex-related competition 183–2
- sexes, conflict between (dunnocks) 189
- sexual behaviour, and gene exchange
  - barriers 45–7
- sexual reproduction
  - costs 151, 153
  - disadvantageous 156
  - interference (salamanders) 183
  - mode change 163–4
  - and parasites/pathogens 158–9
  - and selection 151–4
  - sib-competition model 154–7
  - see also* asexual reproduction; reproduction
- sexual selection 71–3, 181–5
- sexual signals see mating signal systems
- sexual traits, secondary 72

- shell banding patterns 30–2
- Sherman, P. W., on kin recognition 209
- shi mutation 13
- Shuster, S. M. 16–17
- sib-competition model 154–7
- sibling recognition experiments 206–7
- signal systems see mating signal systems
- Simon, C. 51
- Simpson, G. G. quoted 86–7
- Singer, M. C. 29
- sitters 17–18
- skills transmission, grouping benefits 273
- snail, thermal properties 30–2
- snail shell banding patterns 30–2
- snake, feeding behaviour 35–6
- sneaking strategy
  - dragonfly 131–2
  - salmon 130–1
- social behaviour, and altruism (Wynne-Edwards) 193
- social conflict, and dominance 285–6
- social evolution 296–302
  - pathways 298–9
- social facilitation 235–8
- social forms see social options
- social groupings, and intelligence 257–9
- social insects, sterility, and kin selection 200
- social interaction, human, and altruism 217
- social learning
  - emulation 238–9
  - and imitation 232–3
  - non-imitative 233–9
  - response facilitation 235–8
  - stimulus enhancement 233–5
- social manipulation 258–9, 263–4
- social options 287–93
  - constraints 293–6
- social specialization 287
- social species 278, 279, 281
- social states
  - changes, models 297–300
  - distribution 288–9
  - evolution 298–300
  - foraging constraints 293–4
  - life-history constraints 295–6
  - multiple occupancy 301
  - origins 289–92
- social systems 283–7
  - despotic 282
  - see also* relationships
- social units, stable, and recognition 281
- sociality
  - association levels 277–81
  - benefit 269–73, 276–7
  - cost 273–6, 276–7
  - cost/benefit 267–77
  - defined 266–7
  - definitions 277–3

Index

347

- elements of 267–8
- (non)obligate 282–3
- see also* grouping; parental investment
- Sokolowski, M. B. 17–18
- solitary association 278
- spatial heterogeneity 158
- speciation
  - and behavioural change 3
  - and genetic drift 74
  - and isolation of mating signal systems 59–65
  - reinforcement model 59–65
  - see also* mating signal systems
  - speciation (cladogenesis) 43
  - reinforcement 59–65
- species
  - defined 43
  - determination of 77
  - Paterson's concept 77–8
- species differences, behavioural genetics 38
  - burrowing in mice 38–40
  - oviposition in butterflies 40–1
- sperm 169, 184
  - competition 169, 184
  - for parthenogenetic stimulation 163
- spider, territorial behaviour 36–7
- standard condition (ESS) 122
- state shifts 296–302
  - causation 297
- state-variable models 119
- status see dominance
- Stearns, S. C. 287
- Stephens, D. W. 111, 112, 113, 116
- sterility, and kin selection 200
- sticklebacks
  - aggression 23–5
  - mating costs 26–7
  - using tit-for-tat strategy 220–1
- stimulus enhancement 233–5
- strategies
  - conditional 129
  - phenotype-limited 129
- Stuart, R. J. 117
- Sulzbach, D. S. 22
- sympatry, divergent sexual signals 61–2
- synchrony, reproductive 169
- syngamy 151
- systematic zoology
  - cladistic 88, 89
  - classification 87–90
  - evolution 87–8
  - phenetic taxonomy 88, 89
  - see also* phylogeny
- taxonomy, phenetic 88, 89
- temperature
  - and nest-building 23
  - and sex ratio determination 175–6
- Templeton, A. R. 74
- temporal heterogeneity 157–8
- temporal isolation 51
- termites, phylogeny 83–4
- territoriality
  - Drosophila* 26–7
  - dunnock mating pattern 146–7
  - spider 36–7
  - dragonfly 131–2
- Thein, S. L. 213
- thermoregulation
  - cost/benefit 268
  - grouping benefits 271–2
- thinking 253–4
- Thomas, J. H. 10–12, 29
- Thompson, J. N. 40–1
- Thorpe, W. H. 3, 235, 237
- threshold models for behaviour 19
- Tinbergen, N. 84, 105; quoted 80
- tit-for-tat strategy 219–20, 282
  - generous 221
  - tested 220–1
- tool use 257
- trait correlation 29
- traits
  - dependent 93
  - and environment 15
  - quantitative, genetic influences 30, 34
  - kin recognition 32–3
  - psychiatric disorders 33
  - snail shell patterns 30–2
  - under directional selection 20
- transgenic animals 14–15
- transitions, in phylogenetic tree 94–5
- Trivers, R. L. 136, 139, 282; quoted 132–3
  - reciprocal altruism 216–17
- Turing machine 226
- understanding, and intelligence 225
- ungulates, social states 296
- uniparental care 168–9
- urine odour, and kin discrimination 211–12
- Van Valen, L. 157
- variance
  - additive 19
  - genetic 19, 34
  - phenotypic 19–20
- variants, selection opposition 56
- variation, continuous, genetic analysis 19–20, 28–9
  - aggression, sticklebacks 23–5
  - calling-bout length 21
  - migratory sand crickets 27–8
  - nest building (mice) 21–3
  - territoriality in Drosophila 26–7

- variation, discontinuous, genetic analysis 15–18–19
   isopod mating 16–17
   larval foraging 17–18
 Verner, J. 142, 143
- Wade, M. J. 16–17
 Waldman, B., on kin recognition 209
 wasps, and sex ratio manipulation 174–5 water boatman, patch model of behaviour 117–18
 water mite mating behaviour 70, 71 waterfowl locomotor pattern phylogeny 84, 85
- weaning, and kin selection 202–3
 Wechsler, D., quoted 224
 West-Eberhard, M. J. 73
 Williams, G. C. 154
 Willson, M. F. 142, 143
 Wilson, E. O. 81
 Wilson, V. 213
 Wood, D. 242, 245
 wood rats, and biased sex ratio 172–3
 Wrangham, R. W. 281
 Wynne-Edwards, V. C., on altruism
   193–4
- zebra finches, and biased sex ratio 173