

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

Index

Note: page numbers in italics refer to tables

- abortion for pregnancy avoidance, 233
 achievable status social system, 298 achievement, individual, 279
 adaptedness, 253
 adolescence, 35; Baisoara (Romania), 288; female, 265–6; Kikuyu, 266, 313, 315, 320–1; sex segregation, 296; socialization study, 151–3; teenagers, 303, 304 adulthood, 128, 202, 214, 237, 238 affection display towards infant, 183 Africa, 32–4, 109; infant carrying methods, 107–8, 120–1 afterlife, 181
 age-determined status, 212
 age-grading, 200
 age-set system of Kikuyu, 307, 308, 310, 315, 321–2 agency, 6–8
 aggression, 7, 39, 62; displacement, 182; folk tales in training, 182; frustration relationship, 78; intolerance, 150–1; male salience, 250; mother–infant relationships, 127; projection, 25, 177, 182; socialization, 25, 27; sorcery, 177 aggression control, 24, 91, 145–6, 161; household composition, 70; punishment, 158, 173, 177, 180, 181, 193 aggressor, identification with, 211 agricultural societies, 96
 alcohol use, 77
 altruism, 7, 265, 267, 269, 279–80
 altruistic suicide, 4
 altruistic vs. egoistic behavior, 269, 270, 271, 279; family structure, 276–7; sex difference, 272; sibling order, 273–4; task assignment, 274–5, 277–8
 Ammar, H., 296
 anger, 56
 animal spirits, 181
 anomic suicide, 4, 5
 anthropologists, 58, 62, 63, 64, 81–2 anthropology; assumptions in, 89; biological, 2–3; comparative, 83–4; debates in, 1; institutional organization, 2; methodology, 56; psychological, 13, 37–8; as science, 35–6; socio-cultural, 1–6; techniques, 49, 51
 anxiety, 38, 77, 162, 177, 178
 Aranda of Australia, 112
 ascribed status, 200
 attachment theory, 94–5, 127
 attention, 272, 273, 274
 attributed identity, 212 authority patterns, 68, 137–8
 baby carriages, 110, 255
 baby minding, 275, 278
 bachelorhood, 302–3, 308, 309
 Baily, B., 160, 161
 Baisoara (Romania), 287–9
 basket, infant, 109, 112
Becoming a Kwoma, 23 behavior; cognitive, 29; contingency of mediation, 201; estimate of typical, 83; frequency of certain types, 76; friendly vs. hostile, 270; norms, 48; play setting effects, 73; predetermined, 54; prediction for adults, 97; science, 77; shared symbolic determinants, 48; systems, 91; variations, 48; see also aggression; delinquent behavior; humans, behavior; masculine behavior beliefs, 7, 38, 51, 74; nature of child, 54; reporting, 86–7; systems, 50 Benedict, R., 130 bilateral descent rules, 298, 302
 bilum, 112–13
 biological determinism, 1–2 biological factor interaction with socio-cultural factors, 3 birth see childbirth; couvade

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

Index

347

- Black Carib, 247, 248–9, 252–3; couvade, 248, 251, 261
- bloody sheet test, 286, 296
- Blyth, Beatrice Hamilton (wife of John Whiting), 19, 22; see also Whiting, Beatrice
- Boas, Franz, 18
- body language, 93
- boldness, stress effects, 32, 95
- Bowlby, J., 94–5
- brainwashing techniques, 215
- breast-feeding, cultural adaptation to low-protein diet, 209
- bride-price, 290, 292; Kikuyu, 309, 317, 318, 319, 321
- bridewealth, Kikuyu, 307
- British in Kenya, 306–7, 312, 322
- care packages, 280
- caretaker; change for children, 73–4;
primary, 255
- caretaking responsibility, 68
- Carnegie Corporation, 32, 33, 34
- carrying devices see infant carrying methods
- caste system, 70–1
- causality, 5, 6–7
- causation direction, 89
- Center for the Advanced Study of the Behavioral Sciences (Palo Alto), 31–2
- Certificate in Primary Education (CPE), 314
- Chang, K., 157
- chaperonage, 152, 153
- chastity, teenagers, 304
- child; behavior, 271–5; development projects in Africa, 33; fantasy, 183; gods in relationship with parents, 98; life accounts, 64; maturation, 55, 65, 66, 74;
nature of, 160, 161; parental investment in success, 298; potentialities, 54;
predetermined characters, 54; sex play, 295; social behavior, 100, 268
- Child Development Research Group (University of Iowa), 25, 26
- Child Development Research Unit
(University of Nairobi), 33, 34, 100–1, 322
- Child, Irvin, 24
- child rearing; advice for colonists, 161;
after crisis periods, 167; anthropology contribution, 48; climatic effects, 97;
concepts, 48–51; culture concept, 53–4;
in description of culture, 60–1;
grandmother role, 68; guilt production, 187; household composition, 67–8, 69–70; impulse control, 169;
independence training, 161–2; modern industrial society, 280; mothers' beliefs of training techniques, 54–5; nature of gods, 185–6; New Guinea, 18, 20;
paranoia production, 177; parental ghosts, 182–3; parental identification, 187; policy decisions, 138; practices, 24, 64–6; settlement patterns, 70–1; sex
differences, 75; Six Culture study, 11, 12, 28–9, 99–100; studies, 18, 27–8; values,
135, 169; variables, 21
- Child Training and Personality Study, 25
- child-behavior contingency, 196
- Child-hood and society*, 37
- child-need contingency, 196
- childbirth, 65, 208, 216, 246; rites, 18, 244, 245
- childhood, 128, 213
- Children of bondage*, 217
- child's learning environment, 90, 91–3, 94, 96, 97; influence on social factors, 98;
projective expressive systems, 97–101
- Chodorow's theory of gender identification, 13
- Christian missionaries see missionaries
- circumcision ritual, 30, 98, 208, 237, 253;
absence from South America, 225;
climate and incidence, 232; correlation with infant carrying devices, 255–6;
couvade absence, 247; female, 30, 312;
geographical distribution, 221, 222; male sex-role resolution, 258–9; Masai, 238;
mother–infant closeness of contact, 257;
postpartum sex taboo, 228; predictors of, 221; sex-role resolution, 254;
womb-envy hypothesis, 239–40; see also clitoridectomy
- clam digger, 26
- class hierarchy, 71
- climate, 116, 117, 118, 231–2; circumcision
incidence, 232; and common origins, 124; cultural practice effects, 221; infant care effects, 97, 105, 107; infant carrying devices, 116, 119, 125–6; social structure
variables, 72
- clitoridectomy, 30, 98, 241; Kikuyu, 289–90, 312–13, 314
- cognition, 53
- cognitive behavior, shaping of style, 29
- cognitive development, retarding in infancy, 132
- cognitive map, 53, 54, 197
- cognitive system, 45
- cognizance, 197
- collaborative research, xi, 21, 24–35

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

348 Index

- collective consciousness, 4
college education, 16–17
colonists, 160, 161
Coming of age in Samoa, 37
common origins and climate, 124
communes, 280
communities, 278
componential analysis, 40
compulsive reaction formation, 217 conception following childbirth, 65 concepts, arrival at general from concrete instances, 62 conflict–defense system, sexual, 98 conscience, social control, 187
contingency of mediation, 196–7
contraception, 232, 320
County Clare (Ireland), 287
couvade, 208, 216, 237, 244–7, 260; Black Carib, 248, 251, 261; correlation with infant carrying devices, 256; mother–infant closeness of contact, 246–7, 257; sex–role resolution, 254, 258–9; societies failing to accord with prediction, 253
covert practice, 198–9, 201 cradle, 109–10, 126, 133, 255; climate and use, 116, 117, 123, 125, 224; Indo-European language speakers, 125; position, 114; regional use, 119; stressful care practice, 305
cradleboard, 18, 113–14, 129, 255, 305
crib, 255, 305
crisis adjustment, 167–8, 169 cross-cultural methodology, 1, 24, 36, 46, 76–88; basic assumptions, 46; case counting, 37; comparisons, 84–5; corrective devices, 85; criticisms, 36–7; Human Relations Area Files, 87–8; hypothesis testing, 88; identification of society, 86; increased range, 79; individual variation, 80; negative evidence, 86; norm for whole society, 80; omitting cases with no information, 87; practical problems, 46; psychological theory use, 77; range of variables, 77, 80; relationship to human behavior in general, 77; reliability of sources, 86; sample choice, 85; survey, 23; test for generality of hypotheses, 80; testing hypotheses derived from behavior science, 77; weaning and emotional disturbance, 78–9; worldwide representation, 86
Cross-Roads Africa, 280
cross-sex identity, 38; conflict, 133, 207, 208; couvade, 246; defensive masculinity, 249; hypervirility tendency, 251, 252; hypothesis, 98–9, 243; male initiation rite association, 207, 242; mother–child household, 67–8; mother–infant sleeping arrangements, 242; optative, 214; postpartum sex taboo, 242
cultunit, 37
cultural blinders, 168
cultural data, 45, 57
cultural defenses, 168
cultural difference, 275, 276–9
cultural evolution, 76
cultural fact analysis, 5
cultural institutions, internalization, 8
cultural rules, prevention of deviation from, 173 cultural systems, motives, 7
cultural units, 49–50
cultural values, 50, 279, 281
cultural variation, 2
Culture: A critical review of concepts and definitions, 49 culture; age difference, 272; beliefs, 49–50; cognitive map, 53, 54; cognitive system, 45; common origin, 123; comparisons, 36; component customs, 84; concepts, 49; costs to individual members, 279; crisis of changing social structure, 167; dominant values, 135; governing actions of members of society, 45; historical relatedness, 117–18; independence of psychological laws, 80; individual differences within, 271–5; individual relationship with, 47; integration of elements, 36; measurement stability, 271–2; membership, 269; multivariate analysis, 37; observation of single case, 83; personality and, 20; positive reinforcement, 175; projective–expressive systems, 20, 25, 97–101, 127–8; psychological principles, 38; resistance to change, 74; set of customs, 53; sex difference, 272; shock phenomenon, 45, 64; symbolism, 45; task assignment, 274–5; trait concept, 84; transmission, 37, 38, 54 Culture and truth: The remaking of social analysis, 5 culture-area concept, 117–18
culturology, 80
custom, 49–50, 51, 84–5; behavior of typical individual, 81; comparison between societies, 83; complex, 45, 51, 52–4; special case of habit, 80–1 customary behavior, 54

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

Index

349

- danger, fear of external, 192
 Darwinian theory of evolution, 16, 17
 data, 10, 37, 45, 88
 death, 23, 24
 defecation, 109, 110–11
 defense mechanisms, 25, 38
 defensive masculinity, 247, 248, 249–53
 delinquent behavior, 217, 218, 219
 dependency, 25, 27, 39, 133, 202 descent systems, 298
 desire, unlimited, 4
 diapers, moss, 111
 diet, 228, 236; protein levels, 229, 230–1, 235
 directionality, 7
 discipline, 92–3
 discomfort, environmental, 183
 discussion, 16
 disease, magical theories, 25
 divorce, 295
 doctorate, 21
 Dollard, John, 22
 domestic arrangement variability, 93–4 dominance, 39, 272, 273, 274, 275
 drive reduction, 183
 Durkheim, E., 4–5

 eclecticism, Whiting's, 10–11
 ecological variables, custom determination, 234 economic tasks, child behavior, 274–5 Efe tribe (Zaire), 293, 294
 egoism, 7, 100, 265, 267, 280
 egoistic behavior, 267, 269; see also altruistic vs. egoistic behavior egoistic suicide, 4
 egoistic values, 279
Eighth generation, 216
 Elizabethan family, 160, 161, 163, 164, 167
emic meanings, 36
 emotional concepts, defining, 62
 emotional forces, 6 emotions, 38
 envied roles, covert practice, 174
 environment; below freezing temperature, 117; child activities, 72–3; children's cognisance, 127; dangers, 72; household structure, 72; infant care effects, 105;
 supernatural dangers, 72;
 supportiveness, 127
 envy of resource mediator, 198
 equilocal residence, 214
 Erikson, Erik, 37
 Eskimos, infant carrying, 16, 114
 ethics, 49
 ethnographer, 57, 58, 59–60, 62–3

 Ethnographic atlas, 93, 118
 ethnography; data, 11; domain, 52, 54;
 examples, 11–12; field method, 60;
 interview, 56–7, 58–9, 60; objectivity, 36;
 structural and functional relationships of events, 63
 ethnology, 18
 ethnoscience, 49
etic meanings, 36
 Eurasia, infant care, 109–11, 120–1
 evidence, negative, 86
 evolutionary theory, 16, 17, 18
 extended household, 94, 274, 275;
 punishment for aggression, 158, 159;
 social behavior of children, 100; Zuni, 138

Facing Mount Kenya, 313 family; size, 276–7, 297–300; tree, 61
 family structure, 277; extended, 66–7, 274–5, 277; identification effects, 174;
 monogamous, 188–92; nuclear, 66;
 resource mediation, 201; status-envy theory, 174, 188–92; superego development, 174; see also nuclear family household
 fantasy, 174, 183, 199, 200
 farmwork, socialization study, 148–9 fata mare, 288
 father; absence, 29, 218–20, 250–1; child's sex identity, 210, 218; contact with infant, 255; latent hostility towards offspring, 246; presence, 218–20;
 salience, 246, 249
 father-absent males, 218–19, 250–1
 father–mother sleeping arrangement, 213, 214, 222
 fecundity; female, 282; see also subfecundity, postmenarcheal
 fellatio, 30
 female circumcision see clitoridectomy female status, privilege, 216
 female-like behavior by males, 250 feminine identification denial, 8 fertility rate of !Kung San, 295 Field manual for the cross-cultural study of socialization, 59
 fieldwork, 12, 13, 18, 64, 82
 folk; tales, 182; taxonomy collection, 40–1 Folkways, 17
 food taboos, 244
 foraging cultures, 299
 frame infant carriers, 126
 fraternal interest groups, 239, 259
 Freud, S., 91, 92, 187, 239
 Freudian theory, 20, 24, 25

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

350 Index

- frustration, 7, 78
 frustration-aggression hypothesis, 129
 funerals, 182
- Galton's problem, 116, 117
 games, 174
 gangs, 208, 217, 219, 250
 gender, 6–8; development, 207–9; father absence in identity, 29; identification theory, 13; identity conflict, 31
 genealogical method, 61 generation system, Kikuyu, 308
 generational transfer, trial by, 12
 genital operation; deritualization, 321; see also circumcision; clitoridectomy gentling, 32
 geographic proximity, 118
 ghosts, 181–3, 184, 185, 186, 192, 193
 gods, relations between children and parents, 98
Goode's world atlas, 116
 Gorer, Geoffrey, 21, 129–30
 graduate; school, 17; student training, 12 grandmother, 68; Ojibwa child, 74 Great Russians, 129–30, 131
 growth, 32, 34, 95
 guardian spirits beliefs, 133–4; see also ghosts guilt, 25, 27; cultures, 192; development, 174; disciplinary techniques in origin, 92; index, 189, 190, 191, 192; motivational system, 193; parental status, 187–8; prediction, 71; production by child rearing methods, 187; and shame, 203; status-envy theory, 190–1
 Gusii children, 67
- hammock, 110, 112
 harmony value, 157
 Harvard, 26, 28; Graduate School of Education, 26; Values Project, 11
 hazing, 241
 headhunting, 6
 hegemonic systems, resistance to, 6
 help, 272, 273, 274, 275
 historical perspective, 18
 Holmberg, A. R., 245
 Hopi infants, swaddling, 129, 131–2 hormones, 38
 household structure, 66–8, 69–70, 94; child's learning environment, 94; identification process, 220; independence training, 162; punishment for aggression, 158, 159; status-envy theory, 189, 191; see also extended household; nuclear family household; polygynous household
 housework, socialization study, 148–9
 Hull, Clark, 22, 36
 Human Relations Area Files, 11, 39, 46, 87–8 humans; behavior, xiii, 14, 36, 38, 80; biological potentials, 1; thought modes, 5 hunter gatherer society, 96, 299
 hymens, intact, 286; see also virginity hypothesis, 9, 12, 14; cross-cultural testing method, 88; testing, xi, 1, 36, 80
- identification, 201, 210, 211, 213; control of resources, 174; evaluation of own response, 203; Freud's formulation, 187; index of, 191, 192; latent, 200–1; learning by, 194–5, 211–12; with parents, 202–3; status-envy theory, 8; theory, 194 identity, 6–8, 207, 210, 212, 214; see also cross-sex identity ideology, dominant, 2 illness, 7, 24, 56, 181
 Ilongot headhunting, 6
 imprinting, 94
 incest control, 165, 168, 294
 incestuous feelings, latent, 241 independence; aggressive god prediction, 186; of cases, 85; early childhood transition to, 143–4; mother-infant relationships, 127; value in cradle culture, 133 independence training, 24, 91, 92, 273–4; age of, 161–2; need achievement, 72; nuclear family household, 69 individual needs, cultural values, 279
 individuals, 82, 83
 Indo-European language, winter temperature and cradle use, 125 indulgence, 91, 92; during infancy, 183, 184, 185, 186 industrial society; egoism, 265; modern, 279, 280; see also postindustrial society infancy; early event effects, 127; primary identification, 213; status envy, 200, 213 infant; comfort for frightened, 132; defecation, 109; feeding socialization study, 141, 142; genetic programming for maturation, 305; mortality and menarcheal age, 305; restraint reaction, 129; stress, 11, 32, 305; urination, 109 infant care; by children, 96, 278; climatic boundaries, 114; environment effects, 105, 107; isotherm determining effect, 117, 118–19, 123; number responsible for, 95; practices, 134, 305; resting place, 115; school curriculum, 281

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

Index

351

- infant carrying methods, 95, 105, 120–2, 254–5; Africa, 107–8; baskets, 109, 112; body contact, 108, 109, 110, 115; borrowing, 118, 119; climate effects, 116, 119; clothes, 110; Eskimos, 114; Eurasia, 109–11; frame carriers, 126; hip, 108; historical interpretation, 123; index of physical contact, 115; 10°C isotherm determining effect, 117, 118–19, 123; mother–infant proximity, 255; net bags, 112–13; North America, 113–14, 122; orientation, 132; see also baby carriage; cradleboard; shawl; sling
- infanticide, 299
- infibulation, 290
- informant, 60, 63, 82
- inhibition, prevention of extinction, 175
- initiation; ceremony, 74; hypothesis, 215–16
- initiation rites, 98; age-set system, 322; cross-cultural testing, 240; female, 322; Kikuyu, 289–90, 308, 313; Masai girls, 285–6; sex-identity hypotheses, 99; Zuni, 147–8
- initiation rites, male, 29–30, 178, 200, 215–16, 237–44, 321–2; cross-sex identity association, 207, 242; death and rebirth, 238; dramatization of sex-role recognition, 238; environmental relationship, 234–5, 260; exclusive sleeping arrangement correlation, 241; fraternal interest groups, 239; gang behavior, 208; historical factors, 260; induction to manhood, 237–8; mother–infant sleeping arrangements, 207; polygyny relationship, 241; postpartum sex taboo correlation, 240, 241; sex-identity interpretation, 215; status transition, 239; trauma, 215; weaning age correlation, 240
- insider–outsider collaboration, 34
- institution; definition, 53; emergence or disappearance, 253
- institutionalization process, 254
- instruction use, 15–16
- instrumental expressive dimension, 254
- interdisciplinary approach, xi, xii
- interpersonal relations, parental concern, 91
- intra-cultural taxonomies, 36
- 10°C isotherm determining effect, 117, 118–19, 123, 125
- Johnson, Anna, 15
- judiciary system, 177
- Juxtlahuaca people (Mexico), 271, 276, 277, 278
- kachina impersonators, 146, 147
- Keller, A. G., 17, 18
- Kenya; child development project, 33; Child Development Research Unit, 11, 12
- Kenyatta, Jomo, 309, 313, 322
- Kenyatta University, 34
- Khalapur people (India), 271, 276, 277, 278
- Kikuyu, 30; adolescence, 266, 320–1; age-grade system, 307, 308, 310, 315, 321; boys' houses, 317; bride-price, 309, 317, 318, 319, 321; bridewealth, 307; clitoridectomy, 313, 314; competition for male partner, 316, 318; contemporary youth, 315–20; contraception, 320; egalitarian social structure, 311; elders, 307; female stratagems for partners, 316; generation system, 308; historical context, 306–11; infant carrying, 108; initiation rites, 289–90, 308, 313, 322; intra-tribal warfare, 307; land conflict with British, 312; love-making, 309; maidenhood, 309; male reproductive history, 320; marriage, 309, 311; marriage partner selection, 316–17; mate selection, 310–11, 321; native reserves, 312; ngweko, see separate entry; origin myth, 30–1; parental control of adolescent sexual behavior, 318, 319; paternity age, 318; polygyny, 307, 316, 320, 321; postmenarcheal subfertility, 317; premarital pregnancy, 311, 321; premarital sex, 289, 319; required educational achievement, 313–14; rites of passage, 321; ritual circumcision, 244; schooling and unwed motherhood, 316; self-image tests, 314; settlement pattern, 307; sexual matter discussion barrier, 310; social change, 311–15, 321; Western schooling, 312, 313, 314, 315; women's role, 307
- kinbu*, 317, 318, 319
- kinship, 61, 77, 212, 278, 279
- Kipsigis, infant carrying, 108
- !Kung San, 107–8, 294–5, 299
- Kurtatchi, weaning age, 78–9, 80, 81
- kwashiorkor, 229–30, 233, 235
- Kwoma; bilum use, 113; cross-cultural study, 81; etiquette rules, 59; maidenhood strategy, 292, 293; male gender identity, 30; male secrets, 39–40; origin myth, 30–1; reanalysis of fieldnotes, 22; tribal group, 20
- Kwoma of New Guinea, The*, 292
- lactation, pregnancy effects, 228–9

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

352 Index

- language, 123, 124–5
 latent identification, 200–1
 learning, 3; by identification, 29, 194–5, 211–12, 213–14; environment, 47; mothers' beliefs, 55; of motivational orientations, 7; theory, 22; of values, 28; see also child's learning environment
 Lese villages, 293, 294
 LeVine, Bob, 27, 32–3
 life-course variables, local community, 37
 lime, 15
 loss, 5–6
- machismo syndrome, 252
 magic, 25, 50
 Magic Man identification test, 106, 154
Magic, science, religion and the scope of rationality, 5
 magico-religious beliefs, child rearing practices, 127
 maidenhood, 265–6, 282–3, 284, 285–7
 maidenhood strategy, 283, 284–5, 297–303; absent–forbidden, 298; absent–permitted, 294–6, 299; absent–prohibited, 296; American, 303, 304; ethnocentric beliefs, 304; Kikuyu, 309; long–restricted, 289–91, 298; medium–encouraged, 291–2; modern, 297, 304; pregnancy probability, 285; short–restricted, 292–3; very short–restricted, 293–4; very long–restricted, 287–9 maintenance system variables, 90, 96–7 maize, 236
 male sex-role resolution, 237; circumcision ritual, 258–9; marital residence, 257, 258; mother–infant closeness of contact, 256, 257; patrilineal residence, 259
 males; childbed, 208; exclusive organization, 234, 235; power maintenance of group, 239; pregnancy symptomatology, 247, 248–9, 251–2; salience, 249, 250; secondary identity, 215; solidarity, 238, 259; see also initiation rites, male Malinowski, Bronislaw, 22, 60, 291 marital instability, Efe tribe, 294 marital residence, 257, 258, 260
 marriage; arranged, 289, 296; at or before menarche, 294; ceremony, 74; complex societies, 301; early, 296; of interest, 289; Kikuyu, 311; love, 289; middle-level societies, 300; trial, 295 marriage age, 35, 289, 300–1; at birth of first child, 323; Kikuyu, 309
 Martha's Vineyard island, 14–15
 Masai; circumcision, 238; field studies, 261; maidenhood, 285–6; male initiation rites, 237–8; menarche to first pregnancy interval, 286; moran, 238, 243; premarital pregnancy, 286
 masculine behavior, 217, 250
 masculine role model, 200
 masculinity; defensive, 249–53; obsessive concern, 217; protest, 251, 252
 mate selection, responsibility of Kikuyu, 321
 matriarchy, 217
 matrilineal society, 69
 matrilocal residence, 257, 258; couvade, 216; female envy, 214; feminine identification, 215
 maturation of child, 55, 65, 66, 74
 Mayhew, Emma (mother of John Whiting), 15, 16
 Mbuti people, 293–4
 Mead, Margaret, 20, 37, 63, 64, 131, 239–40
 meaning systems, 38
Meaning of weaning, The, 65
 measurement stability for child behavior, 271–2 mediator–need contingency, 196
 menarche, 282, 294; age at, 294, 301, 305; celebration, 283, 285, 295
 menstrual taboos, 178
 menstruation, 30
 methodology, 11–13, 56–64
 Mexican–American males, 252 micro-community, 37
 middle-level society, 299–300, 302
 Miller, Neal, 21–2
 ministry training, 17
 missionaries, 280, 290, 312
 modal personality, 24
 modernization, 266, 278
 modesty, 146, 296
 Monday Night Group, 21–2, 26
 moral values, internalization, 173–4 moran, 238
 Mormons; achievement imagery, 166; adolescents, 152, 168; age status preference, 156; aggression control, 145, 150–1; aims, 155; authority patterns, 137–8; British origins, 159; child rearing decisions, 138; control values, 156; courtship, 152–3; cross-sex choices, 155; daily life, 140–1; defense against incest feelings, 168; economic system, 138; Elizabethan family modification, 164, 167; family role choice, 155–6; household chores, 147; houses, 136; indulgence, 154; infant feeding, 141–2;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

Index

353

- isolation of toddlers, 144; late childhood, 147–51; marriage age, 151–2; men's status, 155, 156; modesty training, 146; mother–child household, 164–5; mother–infant relationship, 157; mothers' responsibilities, 140–1; move to dominant American child rearing pattern, 166; parental respect, 151; polygyny, 164–5, 169; proselytizing, 169; quarreling children, 149–50; religious beliefs, 148; reproductive knowledge, 147; responsibilities, 148–9; school attendance, 147; sexual behavior, 152, 153, 157; sleeping arrangements, 137, 139, 165; socialization study, 135, 155–6; toilet training, 143; toys, 145; transition to independence, 144; values shift, 166; virtue value, 156, 157, 169; weaning, 142–3; women's status, 155
- mother; behavior in child's cognitive map, 197; competition for affection, 188; in identity formation, 8; infant cognizance of role, 210; infant need satisfaction, 210; role in society, 276; salience, 94, 256; seductive behavior, 241
- mother–child household, 67, 68, 70, 189, 218
- mother–infant contact, 115, 255; climate effects, 116, 126; male sex-role resolution, 256, 257; patrilocal residence, 259; residence rules, 260
- mother–infant relationships, 127
- mother–infant sleeping arrangements, 165, 166, 213–14; couvade practice, 216, 246–7; cross-sex identification, 242; father's salience, 246; feminine identification, 215, 216; male initiation rites, 178, 207, 216, 222, 225; taboos, 178
- motherhood; legitimation, 282; unwed amongst Kikuyu, 306, 311, 315, 316, 317
- motivation, 7; cross-cultural, 175; effect of resource absence, 195; human biology developments, 38–9; for identification, 210–11; opposition to primary drives, 175; status envy, 211
- motivational disposition, 253
- motivational systems, 193
- motives, 7, 85, 173
- motor development, 131, 132
- mourning customs, 182
- Mowrer, Hobart, 22
- multiple case use, 11
- Murdock, G. P., 17–18, 19, 21, 36; cross-cultural method use, 77; polygyny study, 225
- national character studies, 24, 129–30
- native reserves, 312
- Navaho infants, swaddling, 129, 131–2
- need achievement, 163
- negative fixation, 25
- net bag, 112–13
- New Guinea field trip, 20
- New introductory lectures*, 92
- Ngeca (Kenya), 290–1, 306, 312, 313, 322
- ngweko*, 290, 291, 309–10, 311; Christian church disapproval, 313; loss to contemporary adolescents, 313, 316, 319–20; partner selection, 321; peer control, 310
- Nigeria, child development project, 33
- Nilotes, 247–8, 252–3, 261
- nomadic societies, 71–2, 178, 235
- normlessness, 4
- nosebleeding, 30
- Notes and queries*, 59
- nuclear family household, 66, 72, 94; child behavior, 274, 275; guilt level, 174; independence training, 69, 162, 273–4; Mormons, 138; punishment for aggression, 158, 159; social behavior of children, 100; status-envy theory, 189; transition anxiety, 162; weaning age, 69
- Nuer baby basket, 109
- nursing, infant, 55, 69, 240
- nurturance, 100, 183, 202
- Nyansongo people (Kenya), 271, 276, 277, 278
- obedience, 52, 53
- Oedipal rivalry, 211, 241, 242
- Oedipus complex, 69, 78
- Ojibwa child-rearing, 56, 74
- Okinawa, 23, 55, 70; see also Taira people (Okinawa)
- Orchard Town (USA), 276, 277, 278; altruistic vs. egoistic behavior, 279; children, 271, 274
- origin myth, 30–1
- Outline of cultural materials*, 59
- overt performance, 199–200
- Paiute people, 23, 176
- Palfrey House charter for cooperative research, 26–7
- Palo Alto, 31
- Papago near Sells, Arizona, The*, 293
- paranoia, 173, 177, 178, 180, 193
- parenthood dramatization, 245
- parents; absence and child's fantasy, 183; acting out behavior, 202; death of, 182; gods in relationship with children, 98; respect for, 151; salience, 93, 94, 98;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

354 Index

- parents (cont.)
 status envy by child, 199; status and guilt association, 187–8; subservience to grandparents, 94; teaching techniques, 54
- participant observation, 56, 59–62
- participation, 5
- paternity; assertion, 245–6; hypothesis, 302
- patient responsibility scores, 191–2
- patrilineal descent, 298, 302
- patrilocal residence, 207, 257, 258, 259; corporate patrilineage, 259; male envy, 214; male initiation rites, 216, 243; polygyny association, 225–6, 234; power, 242
- Patterns of child rearing*, 28
- Peace Corps, 280
- peer vs. adult orientation, 270
- penis scraping, 30
- permissiveness, degree of initial, 91
- personality; childhood experiences, 24; and culture, 20; customary events in childhood, 127; development, 18, 24, 28; individual, 269; measurement, 97–8; modal, 24; prediction, 97; reflection in culture, 25
- physical punishment, mother–child household, 70
- Piagetian school, 127
- play; groups, 71; setting for children, 73–4
- policing, 176
- Polish beliefs about nature of infants, 130–1
- polygynous household, 67, 94; guilt level, 174; sleeping arrangements, 222–3; social behavior of children, 100; status-envy theory, 188–92
- polygyny, 15, 165; Kikuyu, 307, 320, 321; male initiation rites, 241; Mormon acceptance, 164–5; patrilocal residence, 225–6; postpartum sex taboo, 165, 227–8; sexual intercourse following parturition, 178
- postindustrial society; duration of maidenhood, 299; egoistic values, 279; family size, 298; maidenhood strategy, 298, 301, 304; marriage age, 301
- postliminal ritual, 243
- postpartum sex taboo, 65–6, 165, 173, 177, 208; abortion alternative, 234; breast milk effects, 228–9; circumcision incidence, 228; correlation with male initiation rites, 240; cross-sex identification, 242; duration, 227–8; kwashiorkor protection, 229, 230, 235; mother–child sleeping arrangements, 178; nomadic societies, 72, 178, 235; polygyny, 227–8; protein availability, 231, 233–4, 236; punishment for aggression and sex during childhood, 180; sex training severity, 180; sleeping arrangement correlation, 241; sorcery association, 178–80; South America, 233; in tropics, 72
- power; center resistance, 2; male group maintenance, 239; motivational factors, 7; role in social life, 6
- pre-adaptation, 8
- pregnancy; breast milk effects, 228–9; food taboos, 244; male symptomatology, 247, 248, 251–2; teenagers, 303, 304; and weaning, 65, 66; see also premarital pregnancy
- preindustrial society, marriage age, 301
- preliminal ritual, 243
- premarital pregnancy, 286, 288–9, 291; control, 301–2; Kikuyu, 311, 315, 316, 317, 319, 321
- premarital sex; absent–permitted, 294; Baisoara (Romania), 288–9; cultural rules, 266; encouragement, 287; Kikuyu ambivalence, 319; long-restricted strategy, 289; Mbuti, 294; middle-level society, 302; promiscuous, 291; restrictive rules, 286–7, 301–2; taboo, 296
- prepuce excision, 241, 242
- Presbyterian Churches of East Africa (PCEA), 312–13
- primary social unit (PSU), 37
- Primitive culture*, 49
- privilege, marital residence definition, 214
- problem; inversion, 16; solving, 14, 15–16
- projective tests, 28
- projective–expressive system of culture, 20, 25, 97–101, 127–8
- prolactin, 65
- promises, 196
- protest masculinity, 251, 252
- psychoanalysis training, 19–20
- psychobiological similarities, 89
- psychocultural research model, 89–102
- psychological disposition prediction, 253
- psychological masculinity–femininity, 254
- psychological model building, 10
- psychological speculation, 5
- psychological theorizing, 4–6
- psychology in socio-cultural anthropology, 1–6
- psychosexual development, 24, 25–6, 91
- puberty; initiation rites, 29–30, 98, 321–2; rebirth, 215; see also adolescence

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

Index

355

- punishment, 51, 56, 174, 175, 176; for aggression, 177, 180; cultural differences, 91; fear of ghosts association, 185, 186; parental, 203; resource deprivation, 196; for sex during childhood, 173, 180, 181, 193
- Quansoo Shellfish Farm (Martha's Vineyard), 26
- quarreling, socialization study, 150–1
- rage, 5–6, 129
- Rajputs, 69–71
- rebirth, 238
- rebozo, 114
- reinforcement, 175–6
- reliability of sources, 86
- religious beliefs, socialization study, 147
- reporting validity, 60
- reproductive history, male Kikuyu, 320
- reproductive knowledge, socialization study, 147
- reproductive maturity, 300
- reproductive strategy, distributive, 299
- research strategy, 11, 101
- residence; changes for children, 74; rules, 94
- resource control, 188, 195, 196
- resource mediation, 194–5, 196; ascribed status, 200; cognizance, 197; contingency of, 196–7, 201; covert practice, 198–9; cultural differentiation, 201; family structure, 201; identification, 200–1; mature social behavior, 202; overt performance, 199–200; status envy, 198; superego development, 202–3
- resources, 195, 196; concept, 211; deprivation, 196, 201; mediator, 197, 198; privileged access, 211; rivalry for, 188; special need, 202; withholding, 196, 201, 211
- responsibility, 7, 272, 273, 274; personal for actions, 193; socialization study, 148–9; training, 69, 96
- restraint, infant reaction, 129
- retaliation, fear of, 176
- rewards, control of, 174
- Rimrock area study, 157–9
- Rites de passage*, 238
- rites of passage, 74; educational qualifications, 314; Kikuyu initiation, 308; as medium of instruction, 321; phases, 238, 241, 243
- ritual, 7, 38, 242, 243
- role models, 29, 200
- role-playing fantasy, 199
- Rosaldo, R., 5–6
- Rumbima hamlet, 81, 82
- saliva sample assays, 38–9
- sample size, 82
- sanctions, negative, 175
- savagery to civilization hypothesis, 17
- scallop shells, 15
- scare kachine, 146, 147
- scarification rites, 245
- schooling, 35, 280–1; Western for Kikuyu, 266, 312, 313, 314, 315
- Science of society*, 17
- scientific validity, xi
- Sears, Bob, 25, 26
- security of attachment, 95
- seduction in infancy, 181, 193, 241
- self-blame development, 174
- self-concept formation, 29, 38
- self-image, 200, 243–4
- self-punishment, 203
- self-reliance, 133, 186
- settlement pattern; child rearing, 70–1; Kikuyu, 307
- sex; behavior control, 24; differences in child rearing, 75; punishment for during childhood, 173, 180, 181, 193; secondary characteristics, 285; separation, 74; without penetration, 289, 290; see also postpartum sex taboo
- sex identity; attributed, 250; father salience, 249; institutional outcomes, 253–4; measurement, 247–53; optative, 212, 214–16
- sex identity conflict, 29–30, 98–9, 253–4; carrying devices in prediction, 255–6; male pregnancy symptomatology, 248; Nilotes, 248; resolution, 241–2
- Sex and temperament in three primitive societies*, 63
- sex training, 20–1, 165, 166, 180
- sex-determined status, 212
- sex-role; differentiation, 250, 252; identification conflicts, 207; resolution, 254; see also male sex-role resolution
- sexual anxiety, 177, 178
- sexual conflict defense system, 98
- sexual intercourse following parturition, 177–8; see also postpartum sex taboo
- shamans, 278
- shame, 192, 203
- shawl for infant carrying, 107, 108, 255; child comforting, 110; Eurasia, 112; South America, 114
- sibling order, 273–4
- sickness, 23, 24

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

356 Index

- sin, 173, 193
 single case studies, 83
 Siriono, couvade, 244–5
 sister exchange, 294
 Six Cultures Study, 11, 12; altruistic behavior, 267; behavior of children, 265, 268; child rearing, 99–100; communication problems, 100; culture complexity, 101–2; egoistic behavior, 267; primary social unit (PSU), 37
 sleeping; cradles, 110; infants, 108, 109; patterns of nursing infants, 55 sleeping arrangements, 31, 68–74, 105, 221–5; climate effects, 114, 116, 223–5; judgments of, 115; Mormons, 137, 139; nursing infant, 69; older child, 69; polygynous marriage, 222–3; relative frequencies of types, 223; segregated, 69, 222; and sex training, 165, 166; status envy in infancy, 213; temperature control, 223; Texans, 137, 139; Zuni, 137, 139 sling for infant carrying, 107–8, 254, 255; body contact with caretaker, 126; child comforting, 110; cold climates, 126; detachment from mother, 133; Eurasia, 112; infant clothing, 126; modern revolution in carrying techniques, 126; South America, 114
 Smith, Joseph, 164
 social behavior; of children, 100; cultural predictors, 100; dimensions, 269, 270; structure, 269, 271 social control; cultural institutions for, 175; defense against sexual anxiety, 181; fear of supernatural, 181–6; mechanisms, 173, 175–6; ostracism threats, 71; sorcery, 176–7; superego, 187–92; supernatural, 193 social evolution, 17, 297
 social facts, 4, 5
 social institution motives, 7
 social interaction; altruistic vs. egoistic, 269, 270, 271; children, 268; dyadic, 28; instrumental, 29; primary beneficiary, 269 social learning, genetics, 38 social negotiation, 2
 social order maintenance, 175
 social role learning, 194
Social structure, 77
 social structure, 71–2, 96, 311
 social system, 62, 238
 socialization; age at onset, 91; age-grading, 200; authority patterns, 137–8; control of resources, 200; cultural setting, 136–8; deferring to rights of others, 211; early, 143–7, 193; ethnographic study, 20; experiences, 7; father's role, 92; gratification delay, 211; guilt, 71, 187; Harvard study, 135; identification process, 199; infant and household composition, 67; interaction between parent and child, 194; learning by identification, 29; play setting effects, 73; pressures during childhood, 92; process, 24, 61; studies, 147–53, 154–6; timing, 73; variables affecting children, 45
 socializing agents, resource mediators, 196 society, 86, 176
 socio-biology, 2
 socio-cultural determinism, 1–2 socio-cultural factors, interaction with biological factors, 3 socioeconomic competence, 300
 sociometric method, 61
 sorcery, 23, 168, 173, 176–81, 192; see also supernatural; witchcraft South America, 233; infant carrying, 114, 122 status; occupancy rules, 200; privileged, 212; in society, 212; transition in male initiation rites, 239 status-envy, 198, 199; infancy, 213; motivation, 211; resources in, 211 status-envy hypothesis/theory, 8, 173, 207, 210–12; American culture evidence, 216–18; family structure, 174, 188–92; formulation, 93; guilt occurrence in formation, 29; household composition, 174; moral value acceptance, 188; self-concept formation, 38; sex identity interpretation, 242; sleeping arrangements, 31
 sterility, 320
 stress; boldness effects, 32, 95; crib use, 305; cultural variation, 95; growth effects, 34, 95; infant, 11, 32, 305; minimizing with body contact, 13; rats, 32; separation from mother, 95; theory, 95
 striving, 7
 study group, 81–2
 subfecundity, postmenarcheal, 285, 286, 291, 292, 317
 subjective identity, 212
 subsistence cultures, 298–9 success; individual, 279; value, 157, 163
 suckling relationship, 240 Suicide, 4
 suicide; altruistic, 4; anomic, 4, 5; egoistic, 4

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

Index

357

- Sumner, William Graham, 17, 18
- superego, 173, 202–3; age of development, 55; child's learning environment, 92; control, 173–4; development, 25, 39, 55; evaluative content, 93; social control, 187–92
- supernatural, 173, 176, 181–2; see also sorcery
- support, 272, 273
- supportiveness of environment, 127
- Suye Mura (Japan), 287
- swaddling, 105, 110, 126, 130, 131; Great Russians, 129–30, 131; Hopi infants, 129, 131–2; hypothesis, 129–30, 131; infant reactions, 129, 130; temperature control, 255
- sybiotic identification, 132–3
- symbolic determinants of behavior, shared, 48
- symbolism, 38
- taboo, 175, 178, 244, 286, 318; see also postpartum sex taboo
- Taira people (Okinawa), 271, 276, 277, 278
- Tambiah, S. J., 5
- Tarong people (Philippines), 72, 271, 276, 277, 278
- task assignment, 274–5, 277–8
- teaching, 17
- techniques, 49, 51
- technology, 49
- teenagers, 303, 304
- temperament, predetermined, 54
- temperature, winter, 223–5
- Tenino culture, 18
- territory range for children, 72
- Texans; achievement aims, 155; adolescent roles, 152; age status preference, 156; aggression control, 145, 150–1, 161; authority patterns, 137–8; British origins, 159; child rearing decisions, 138; courtship, 152, 153; crisis causing family structure change, 164, 167; cross-sex choices, 155; daily life, 140; defense against failure, 168; denial and projection, 168; economic system, 138; Elizabethan family structure, 163, 167; family role choice, 155–6; fathers in infant care, 141; fear of dependence, 161; household chores, 147; houses, 136; infant caretakers, 140; infant feeding, 141–2; isolation of toddlers, 144; late childhood, 147–51; marriage age, 151–2; men's status, 155; modesty training, 146; mothers' work, 140; quarreling children, 150; religious beliefs, 148; reproductive knowledge, 147; respect for parents, 151; responsibilities, 148; school attendance, 147; sexual behavior, 153; sleeping arrangements, 137, 139; socialization at early age, 154; socialization study, 135, 155–6; success value, 155, 156, 157, 163; toilet training, 143; toys, 145; transition to independence, 144; weaning, 142–3, 157, 163–4; women's status, 155
- Thematic Apperception Test (TAT), 97
- theoretical vocabulary, 1
- theory; evaluation, 9, 12; psychological, 10; see also status-envy hypothesis/theory
- thingira*, 309, 317, 320
- threats, 196
- Tigoni house, 33
- Tikopia infant carrying, 112
- toilet training, 24, 143, 187
- tongue slashing, 30
- toys, 145
- transcultural attributes, 36
- transition anxiety, 162
- Trobriand Islanders of Melanesia, The*, 291
- Trobrianders, maidenhood strategy, 291–2
- truth; anthropological generalizations, 9; relationship to anthropological research, 8–11; Whiting's concept, 9–10
- trysting, 153
- Tylor, E. B., 49, 76
- unilinear descent group category, 259
- units of analysis, 83–4
- University of Iowa, 25, 26
- University of Nairobi, 33, 34, 100–1, 322
- urination, 109, 110–11, 114
- urine tube, 111
- Utopian movements, 169
- uxorilocal residence, 257, 258
- values, 50, 51; custom complex, 52, 53; learning, 28, 106; nonverbal transmission, 93; resources, 195; systems, 50–1; virtue, 157
- van Gennep, A., 238, 241, 243
- variation; individual, 80; range, 77, 80
- Viratiano (Russia), 287
- virginity, 286, 288, 296, 302
- virilocal residence, 94, 257, 258
- virtue value, 157
- vision quest, 18
- warriors, 308, 317
- weaning, 24, 82; from the back, 133; socialization study, 141, 142–3
- weaning age, 65, 66; correlation with male initiation rites, 240; custom, 81;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43515-4 - Culture and Human Development: The Selected Papers of John Whiting

Edited by Eleanor Hollenberg Chasdi

Index

More information

358 Index

- weaning age (cont.)
 emotional disturbance, 46, 66, 78–9;
 guilt production, 187; Kurtatchi, 78–9, 80, 81; nuclear family household, 69;
 range of variables, 80; status-envy
 hypothesis, 191–2; and success drive, 163; Texans, 157, 163–4
- wedding, 282
- Whaling wives*, 16
- Whiting, Beatrice (wife), 27
- Whiting, Henry Laurens (grandfather), 14–15
- Whiting, John; academic training of host-country researchers, 13; adolescence studies, 35; agency and identification,
 7–8; at Harvard, 26–9, 32; at Palo Alto, 31–2; at University of Iowa, 25–6; at Yale Institute of Human Relations, 21;
 Child Development Research Unit
 (Nairobi), 33–4; child-rearing practice studies, 24–5; Chodorow's theory of gender identification, 13; collaborative research projects, 24–35; cross-cultural research, 36–7; early years, 14–23;
 eclecticism strategy, 10–11; father's influence, 15–16; fieldwork training, 18–19; gender identity conflict studies,
 31; graduation from Yale, 17; identity formation model, 8; infant stress studies, 32; Kenyan studies, 33–4; Kwoma study in New Guinea, 20–1; male initiation rite studies, 30–1; Malinowski's influence, 22–3; marriage, 19; meeting with Murdock, 17–18; methodology, 11–12,
 35–9; Monday Night Group, 21–2;
 mother's influence, 16; motivational factor importance, 7; Okinawa work, 23; Palfrey House, 26–7, 28, 29, 31, 32;
 post-doctorate training, 22; pragmatism, 15–16; problem-solving experience, 15–16; psychoanalytical training, 19–20;
 psychological anthropology, 37–8; public debate, 10; research funding, 12–13; Six Culture Study, 11, 12, 28–9; socialization of dependency and aggression study, 27–8;
 status-envy hypothesis, 29, 30; truth relationship to research, 8–10; vision of anthropology, 1; World War II, 23
- Whiting, Johnson (father), 15
- Whiting model for psychocultural research, 25, 89–102; assumptions, 89;
 environmental constraints, 107; learning
 of values, 28; maintenance systems, 90, 93–7; natural man approach, 89
- witchcraft, 23, 25, 67, 98, 176–7; see also sorcery
- Wogeo, 112, 249
- womb-envy, 30; hypothesis, 239–40
- women; contribution to subsistence
 economy, 276; female status privilege, 216; status of colonists, 161
- World War II, 23, 218
- Yale, 16, 17, 19, 36; Institute of Human Relations, 19, 21, 22
- Zinn, Earl, 19, 22
- Zuni; adolescent roles, 152; age status
 preference, 156; aggression control, 145–6, 150–1, 157; aims, 155; authority
 patterns, 137–8; children, 67, 70, 138, 147–51; courtship, 152, 153; crisis
 period, 167; cross-sex choices, 155;
 cultural blinders, 168; daily life, 139–40;
 defense against hostility feelings, 168;
 economic system, 138; family role choice, 155–6; harmony value, 157, 159;
 household chores, 147; houses, 136;
 indulgence, 153–4; infant caretaker
 variety, 139–40; infant feeding, 141;
 initiation ceremony, 147–8; marriage age, 151–2; men, 137, 155; modesty training, 146; playfellows, 144; pueblo, 159; quarreling children, 150; religious beliefs, 147–8; reproductive knowledge, 147; respect for parents, 151;
 responsibilities, 149; retention of child rearing from crisis times, 167;
 satisfaction with status quo, 156; school attendance, 147; sexual behavior, 153;
 sleeping arrangements, 137, 139;
 socialization study, 135, 155–6;
 sorcerers, 168; toilet training, 143; toys, 145; training children, 149; transition to independence, 143–4; weaning, 142–3; witchcraft, 147; women's status, 155, 156