

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-43573-4 - Shakespeare and the Moving Image: The Plays on Film and Television

Edited by Anthony Davies and Stanley Wells

Table of Contents

More information

 CONTENTS

List of illustrations	page viii
List of contributors	x
Preface	xi
1 Shakespeare on film and television: a retrospect ANTHONY DAVIES	1
2 Shakespeare on the screen: a selective filmography GRAHAM HOLDERNESS and CHRISTOPHER MCCULLOUGH	18
3 Two-dimensional Shakespeare: King Lear on film PETER HOLLAND	50
4 Verbal-visual, verbal-pictorial or textual-televisual? Reflections on the BBC Shakespeare series MICHÈLE WILLEMS	69
5 Two types of television Shakespeare NEIL TAYLOR	86
6 Shakespeare's comedies on film RUSSELL JACKSON	99
7 The English history play on screen MICHAEL MANHEIM	121
8 A world elsewhere: the Roman plays on film and television SAMUEL CROWL	146
9 Zeffirelli's Shakespeare ACE G. PILKINGTON	163
10 The films of Hamlet NEIL TAYLOR	180
11 Filming Othello ANTHONY DAVIES	196
12 Representing King Lear on screen: from metatheatre to 'meta- cinema' KENNETH S. ROTHWELL	211
13 Kurosawa's Shakespeare films: Throne of Blood , The Bad Sleep Well , and Ran ROBERT HAPGOOD	234
14 Macbeth on film: politics E. PEARLMAN	250
Index	261