

Index

- absence, 19, 89
 Advisory Conciliation and Arbitration Service (ACAS), 1, 27
 appraisal, 11, 12, 98
 aptitude tests, 119
 attitude surveys, 28, 36 Australia, 22
 automation, 81, 85, 99
see also new technology
 autonomous work groups, 19, 41, 44, 47–8, 69, 142–3
 failure of, 58, 59
 reactions to, 48–58, 64–5
- biscuit works
 and ban on unofficial overtime, 88 and control of unions, 76–7, 93 ‘culture of politeness’ in, 86–91, 93, 94, 154 discipline in, 79–80, 87, 88
 fieldwork for, 34, 39
 and influence of past practices, 150 joint approach, 71–2, 73, 75, 79–82, 128–9
 low wages in, 86
 management policy a qualified success, 94–5
 management–union relations in, 34, 147 and managers’ resistance to unions, 74 production process, 77–8 reorganisation of production, 72, 73 role of managers in, 78–9, 81–2 success of pay policy, 139 and tightening of discipline, 89–90 and union recognition, 33, 40, 72–3, 75, 91–3
 weakness of unions in, 85 workers’ attitudes to unions, 92–3 and workers’ reactions to job losses, 85 workers’ views on unemployment and job security, 134–6
 bonus schemes, 99, 103, 121, 139
- British Social Attitudes Surveys, 18 ‘bulk box’ dispute, 62, 67
- capital investments, 31 case-studies, 28–40
 evidence in, 35–40
 fieldwork for, 33–5
 generalising from, 29–31
 value of, 30
- change see management change chocolate works, 33, 40 changes in production process, 106–8 and changes in management–worker relations, 144, 145–6, 148 company philosophy of, 97–8, 122–3, 129
 and ‘Company Principles’, 101–2, 105, 112, 113, 114, 118, 122 and conflicts over discipline, 112–15, 143 consultation procedures, 115–17 contradictions in management policy, 130 disputes between workers, 110–11 egalitarian approach to rewards, 102–3 failure of communication in, 118, 124
 fieldwork for, 34, 39
 and influence of past, 150, 151 lack of commitment, 123–4, 154 management control in, 105–6, 110–12, 128
 new approach to labour relations, 100–1 payments system, 118–22, 138 reorganisation of work, 103–4, 140, 141, 142 sought climate of agreement, 105 and tensions between workers and managers, 113–14
 and ‘wage–effort bargain’, 99, 133
 workers’ views on unemployment and
 job security, 134–6
 clocking on, 47, 54, 89, 99
 cold store workers, 62

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-46719-3 - Willing Slaves? British Workers Under Human Resource Management

Andrew Scott

Index

More information

170 Index

- collective bargaining, 1–2, 5, 6, 12–13, 17, 20, 27, 28, 73, 76, 94, 133, 154
 failure of, 23–4 revival of, 62–5
 collectivism, 64, 93
 'Comco', 123
 communication, 10, 12, 20, 34, 115–18, 123 company values, 97–8 competition, 2, 4, 9, 15, 16, 24, 31, 42, 73, 127, 130 conciliation process, 39 consultation, 10, 20, 48, 115–18
 'continuous improvement', 104, 143 continuous production, 55 convenors, 66–7, 76–7, 80, 83–4, 93 co-operation, 15, 18, 20–1, 22, 51, 54, 58, 72, 93, 157
 'culture of commitment', 97–8
 'culture of politeness', 86–91, 93, 94
- data, 36–7
 decentralisation, 10, 13 decision-making, new forms of, 9–10, 13, 20, 79–82, 123 delivery deadlines, 32 deprivation, 9
 'direct involvement', 20 discipline, 15, 16, 68, 69, 79–80, 87, 88–91, 112–15, 119, 123, 130, 143–4 Donovan Commission (1968), 1, 74
- efficiency, 102, 104, 105, 107, 109, 113, 141 effort, 7–8, 15, 35, 44–5, 51 control of, 110–12
 related to wages, 132–3, 137
see also 'wage-effort bargain' electronics plants, 20, 22, 23, 30 employee development, 98 employee involvement, 9 Employment Protection Act (1975), 1 employment relations see industrial relations engineering, 30
 ethnic minorities, 33, 72 ethnographic studies, 28–9, 31, 32, 33, 35–7, 38 see also research
 evidence, 35–40
 'extra duties', 62, 63
- favouritism, 79, 84
 'favours', 87–91, 94
 fiddles, 21–2
 fieldwork, 33–40
 'first and last hour' rule, 113, 123 flexibility, 19, 44, 72, 109, 156
- food processing industry, 30–1, 32–3
 'Fordism', 98
 frozen food works
 adversarial approach of, 33, 40, 43, 45–6, 149–50 and bargaining over pay, 139 and changes in workers' attitudes, 54 conciliation meetings, 39 conventional approach to discipline in, 130, 143 failure of work groups, 58, 59, 66, 69–70
 fieldwork for, 34, 38–9
 and influence of past, 150, 151
 and management initiative to regain control, 67–8 management-worker relations in, 144, 146–7, 148 and new industrial relations, 128, 129 payments policy, 138 personnel management in, 42 power of unions in, 62–3, 65, 67 productive capacity of, 42 reactions to change in meat department, 54–8, 61–5 reactions to change in vegetable department, 48–54, 59–61, 65 relations between supervisors and work groups, 52–4, 55, 56, 58 reform of management, 44–6 reorganisation of production, 41
 reorganisation of work, 46–8, 55, 140, 141, 142 unions in, 42–3, 45, 153
 'Work or want' policy, 43, 130 workers' attitudes to wage levels, 132, 133 workers' views on unemployment and job security, 134–6
- grading system, 118–22
- housekeeping audits, 108, 109, 143 human resource management, 8, 18, 37, 97, 124, 125, 131 see also industrial relations, new model of
- 'idle time', 44, 57
 incentive schemes, 11, 103, 120 incorporation, 91–3 individualism, 18, 124
 industrial action, 5, 34, 39, 43, 55, 68, 74 industrial relations
 changes in, 1–4, 28, 127–8, 148–9, 155 pluralism in, 157–8
 and study of shop-floor relations, 28–9

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-46719-3 - Willing Slaves? British Workers Under Human Resource Management

Andrew Scott

Index

More information

Index

171

- surveys of, 27–33 traditional model of, 4–8, 14–17, 21, 23–4, 27, 58–67, 69, 127, 149–51, 155
see also industrial relations, new model of
see also management change
- industrial relations, new model of, 3, 8–14, 17–24, 71 contradictions in, 130–1 external influences on, 131–7 failures of, 20–1, 54, 58, 66, 69–70, 122–5, 148, 149, 152–8 internal influences on, 137–48 and management–worker relations, 144–8 and negative effect of past attitudes, 149–51 similarities with traditional model, 127–8
see also management change
- informal payments, 87
- interview surveys, 9, 27–8, 36, 38, 39
- Japanese plants, 19, 20, 23 job design, reform of, 19, 20, 140–4 job evaluation, 42, 43, 72 job involvement meetings, 115–17 job re-grading, 76, 103, 104, 118 job rotation, 64, 66
 job satisfaction, 9, 45, 49, 142, 144 joint decision-making, 10, 71, 73, 75, 79–82, 123, 129, 157, 158 ‘just-in-time production’, 10, 19, 21, 22
- labour markets, 5, 14, 100, 127–8, 131–2, 136–7 labour turnover, 99, 100 line managers, 66–7, 79, 105, 108, 145, 146 and discipline, 89, 114
- machine engineers, 106, 109, 110, 111, 119, 146
- machines, 106–7
see also new technology management contradictions of, 130–1, 156 control of unions, 74 control of work by, 22–3, 128 co-operative styles of, 20–1 decentralised, 10, 13
 dissatisfied with collective bargaining, 2, 16–17
 failure of, 58, 66, 69–70
 and failure to have direct relations with workers, 146–8 and failure to improve workers’ discipline, 143 and ideological advantage over workers, 14–15 influence of past attitudes on, 149–52 need for pluralism in, 157–8 new attitudes in, 8–14, 28
 and reform of job design, 140–2
 and tightening of discipline, 89–91 traditional attitudes of, 4–5, 7–8, 23–4, 149–52
see also management change
see also management–worker relations
see also managers
- management change, 5–8, 41 and changes in management–worker relations, 144–8 and need for pluralism, 157–8 and payments system, 137–40 and real wage increases, 132–3, 137 reasons for failure of, 148–56
 and reform of job design, 140–4 and threat of unemployment, 133–7 see also industrial relations, new model of
see also management management–worker relations, 3, 11–12, 20 adversarial model of, 7–8, 62–5 in biscuit works, 86–93
 changes in, 144–8
 in chocolate works, 113–14, 123
 and joint decision-making, 9–10, 71–2, 79–82
see also management
see also management change
see also managers
- managers
 and alterations of work schedules, 110–12 and belief in unitarism, 129 contradictory beliefs of, 130–1 control over work, 22–3, 128 and employee consultation, 10
 interviews with, 27–8, 38
 and joint decision-making, 81–2 and new attitudes to workers, 11–12, 17, 20, 86–7, 108, 144–8 pay of related to performance, 103 relations with shop stewards, 56–8, 63, 83–4, 93 resistance to unions among, 74
 traditional attitudes of, 7–8, 23–4, 149–51
 and workers’ fiddles, 22 and workplace changes, 3
see also management
see also management change
see also management–worker relations

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-46719-3 - Willing Slaves? British Workers Under Human Resource Management

Andrew Scott

Index

More information

172 Index

- manual labour, 141–2, 144, 156 manufacturing industry, 6, 8 market forces, 2, 127, 131, 137, 155, 156 see also labour markets see also product markets meal breaks, payment for, 77 meat workers, 54–8, 61–5, 69, 143 memory, 38–9
 meritocracy, 18
 modernisation, 40, 85, 93 morale, workers', 16, 89, 154, 155
 see also motivation motivation, 5, 10, 11, 45, 50, 103, 108, 122, 124, 125, 129, 137–40, 142, 144 motor industry, 4, 22, 30 mutual clocking, 89, 90 see also clocking on national bargaining, 76

 see also collective bargaining new technology, 9, 31, 92 see also automation
 non-union workplaces, 97, 100, 123, 124, 154, 156 observation, 37, 38, 39 oil refinery workers, 31 open management, 9–10, 13, 22, 145, 156, 158

 see also industrial relations, new model of
 see also management change overtime, 120, 139
 ban, 59, 77
 unofficial, 87, 88, 90, 94 packers, 89, 106, 107, 110, 111 participant observation, 37, 38 participation, 123, 145, 152, 154, 156, 158 pay, performance-related, 103, 120, 124 pay, profit-related, 103, 124 pay differentials, 59

 'pay-for-knowledge' system, 104, 105, 107, 118, 119, 124, 138 payments systems, 103, 104, 118–22, 137–40
 'peer surveillance', 22 performance appraisal, 12 performance targets, 121 personnel management, 10, 23, 42, 66, 67, 72, 115, 141
 see also management
 see also managers
 pluralism, 73, 128, 129, 157–8 politeness, 86–91, 93, 94, 148 process technology, 32 product markets, 14, 33, 128

 production
 management control of, 22–3 and quality, 141
 reorganisation of, 10–11, 41, 72, 73, 106–8
 see also quality control productivity, 2, 5, 7, 16, 35–6, 68, 88, 93 profit margins, 32
 promotion, 104, 118, 139
 see also job re-grading proof, in workplace studies, 36 punishment, 112–13, 143
 see also discipline

 'Quality', 105, 107, 108
 see also quality control quality control, 10, 19, 22–3, 102, 104, 109, 141, 142, 143 see also 'Quality'
 questionnaires, 39

 real wages, 87, 14, 132
 see also wage increases
 'realism', 2, 5, 6
 see also industrial relations, new model of recession, 16
 redundancies, 46, 68, 81, 134 representations see workers representation research, 28–40
 comparative, 31–3
 ethnographic, 28–9, 31, 32
 evidence in, 35–40
 and interview surveys, 27–8 role of memory in, 38–9 responsibilities, 101–2, 103, 105, 107, 109 restrictive practices, 2, 16, 58, 130, 138, 150 rewards, 102–4
 see also payments system rules, workplace, 13

 scientific management, 94, 137 shift payments, 120, 121 shop floor behaviour comparative studies of, 31–3 and 'culture of politeness', 86–91, 93, 94 inadequacy of explanations of, 148 revival of traditional attitudes in, 58–67 and role of shop stewards, 45–8 study of changes in, 28–9
 see also shop stewards
 see also workers
 shop stewards, 1, 6, 24, 42–3, 45–8, 59, 60, 68, 73, 79, 80 bargaining skills of, 62–3 conflicts among, 83–5
 and defence of union power, 64–5

- interviews with, 38
- relations with convenors, 66–7, 76–7, 83
- strengthening of power of, 66, 69, 153
- and work groups, 52, 56–8
- workers' attitudes to, 92–3
- see also* trade unions
- 'short-cuts', 51, 60
- 'single status', 145, 147, 148
- staff development, 10
- see also* motivation
- status, 145, 147
- stress, 20, 21
- strikes see industrial action
- supervisors, 12, 13, 48, 60, 61, 78, 79, 143, 145
 - changed role of, 44, 47
 - and work groups, 51–4, 55, 56, 58
- surveys, 9, 12, 18, 27–9
- tea breaks, 50
- team-working, 10, 11, 19, 44, 50, 54, 98
- see also* autonomous work groups
- textile works, 21
- trade unions, 1, 18, 20, 34, 40, 42, 43, 46, 59–60, 66, 68, 150, 156
 - bargaining powers of, 62–5, 67
 - conflicts within, 83–5
 - influence of, 153–4
 - and joint procedures, 79–82
 - management control of, 74–5, 91–3
 - new role of, 12–14
 - recognition of, 2, 12–13, 33, 100, 118
 - weakened position of, 5–6
 - and work groups, 56–8
 - see also* shop stewards
 - see also* workers
- training, 13, 98, 104, 105, 108, 118
- unemployment, 5, 7, 8, 15, 132, 133–7
- 'Union principles', 63–4, 66, 67, 83, 92
- see also* trade unions
- unitarism, 12, 70, 73, 128, 140
 - appeal of, 129, 130
 - failures of, 152–8
 - sophisticated form of, 106, 123, 124, 125
- USA, 10, 11, 13, 100–1
- vegetable workers, 48–54, 59–61, 65, 69, 142, 143
- 'wage–effort bargain', 7, 8, 9, 15, 16, 94, 139, 140
 - as factor in workers' response to change, 132–3
 - in chocolate works, 99, 121, 122, 124, 138
- wage increases, 7, 14, 47, 103, 120, 122
 - see also* 'wage–effort bargain'
- wage negotiations, 43
- see also* collective bargaining
- women, 33, 78
- work groups, see autonomous work groups
- 'Work or want', 43, 46, 59, 61, 63, 70, 130, 151
- work organisation, 9, 10–11, 31, 41, 103–4, 140, 144
 - see also* job design, reform of
- work-study, 7–8
- worker representation, 1, 10, 20, 34, 101, 117, 153, 155, 158
 - see also* shop stewards
 - see also* trade unions
- workers
 - appeals to individualism of, 18, 124
 - attitudes to job involvement meetings, 116–17
 - attitudes to union representatives, 92–3
 - and conflicts over grades, 119–22
 - evasion of rules by, 21–2
 - influenced by managers' past attitudes, 151–2
 - involvement in decision-making, 9–10, 13, 123
 - morale of, 16, 89, 154, 155
 - and power over managers, 23
 - and production process, 10–11
 - reactions to external factors, 131–7
 - reactions to new payments systems, 137–40
 - reactions to quality control, 109
 - reactions to reform of job design, 140–4
 - reactions to tightening of disciplines, 89–91
 - reactions to work groups, 48–58, 64–5
 - and reasons for acquiescence, 5–8, 131–48
 - relations with managers, 144–8
 - relations with supervisors, 52–4, 55–6, 60
 - and self-regulation of work, 104, 107
 - and stress, 20
 - traditional attitudes of, 3, 7–8, 14–15, 54, 58–67, 69, 123–4, 133, 139, 148, 150–2
 - and unemployment, 133–7
 - and unofficial favours, 87–91
 - see also* effort
 - see also* management–worker relations
- working practices see restrictive practices
- workplace agreements, 1
- workplace ethnography see ethnographic studies
- Workplace Industrial Relations Surveys, 27
- workplace traditions, 19, 149
 - study of, 29
- Works Councils, 21, 101, 128